the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," by making it unlawful to transport explosives by trailer or semi-trailer and requiring police escort for the same through any city or borough or any township of the first class having a population in excess of ten thousand.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. LANE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I offer the following bill, which incidentally, is the annual anti-vivisection bill, which I hope the Committee will release soon.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. LANE and HALUSKA read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 345, entitled:

An Act to add section nine hundred forty-seven point one to the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872), entitled "An act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," by prohibiting operations or experiments upon any living dog or cat for any other purpose than healing or curing such dog or cat.

Which was committed to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare.

Messrs. HOLLAND and LANE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 346, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article eight, section one of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, giving citizens eighteen years of age the right to vote.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

Messrs. HOLLAND, LANE and NEFF read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 347, entitled:

An Act imposing a county tax on the gross receipts of public utilities; providing for the collection and payment of such tax; requiring certain reports and penalties if they are not made; providing for payment of part of tax to cities, boroughs, towns, townships and school districts in certain proportions.

Which was committed to the Committee on Corporations.

Messrs. HOLLAND, NEFF and BARRETT read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 348, entitled:

An Act to amend section seven hundred twenty-four of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905) entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties, imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees; and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds," providing for payment to cities, boroughs, towns, and townships of a part of the registration and license fees collected, and appropriating moneys in the Motor License Fund therefor.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. MEADE, offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, February 21, 1949.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 28, 1949, at four o'clock, p. m., E. S. T., and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 28, 1949, at four-thirty o'clock, p. m., E. S. T.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS RULE 38 SUSPENDED

A motion was made by Mr. LORD, JR., and Mr. WOLFE, To grant unanimous consent to immediate consideration of the nominations reported from the Committee on Executive Nominations, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon all the nominations reported at today's session.

Which was agreed to.

The Clerk read the nominations as follows:

EXECUTIVE SESSION RISES

Mr. LORD, JR. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. WOLFE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, in order that there may be no misunderstanding, this will not be a short statement. Every two years, as the representative of the Minority Party, I am compelled to make an analysis of the budget and the budgetary needs and the revenue sources in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania from the viewpoint of the Minority Party of the Commonwealth.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I will try to make this as painless as possible. The Governor of the Commonwealth has again presented to the people of this Commonwealth his biennial budget. It is again a billion dollar budget.

In view of the message presented by the Governor relative to the increased cost of construction and so forth, there seems little remaining to say relative to the size of the budget. One can only repeat oft-mentioned warnings against setting up new governmental services, in the face of permanent taxes and increased costs.

It seems to me that our system of electing a governor for four years is working directly against the safeguards intended by the original law prohibiting his re-election.

Through the passing years, I have noticed the true-to-form performance of each retiring governor. He always manages to set up the budget to give him a maximum coverage with the voters of all classes, interests and all groups. Little seems to be done in the way of thinking for the future.

Governor James reduced industrial taxes. Governor Martin further relieved the emergency tax situation and Governor Duff fell heir to their folly and when forced to the wall had to create new revenues and, as a matter of party pride he could not re-enact the so-called Earle Taxes.

Instead, we find that Governor Duff decided to put the load squarely upon the shoulders of the poor people in the Commonwealth with direct sales taxes on their every day items. This was true in 1947 and it is true in 1949.

In 1947, I charged the budget director with a falsification, intentional or otherwise, in preparation of estimated revenue and budgetary needs.

If you will take the 14th Biennial Message, you will find a difference of $80,278,000.00 between the Governor's estimate and the amount raised. This, of course, is not yet complete and unless the liquor and pop taxes drop even further, it is safe to assume that the uncalled for surplus will be even greater than $80,000,000.00.

It is interesting to note that the Governor's new taxes in 1947 were estimated to raise $79,000,000.00. They actually raised $76,000,000.00, which is $4,000,000.00 more than all the new taxes demanded by Duff and passed by the Republican Legislature in 1947. Included in this analysis there is a loss of $11,000,000.00 from the estimated pop tax returns, a gain of $2,000,000.00 from malt beverages estimate and a gain of $6,000,000.00 from cigarette tax estimate.

As I pointed out in 1947, no new taxes were necessary and the record proves that our position was right. The surplus in the total revenue, fully shows that there was no immediate need for new taxation.

The Governor's statement to the effect that a deficiency appropriation of $21,000,000.00 odd dollars leaves a surplus of $42,879,000.00 is not based upon actual figures contained in the budget. In another section of the budget, we find that in figuring the difference between expenditures and receipts, the Governor failed to include the $27,000,000.00 admitted surplus from 1945 to 1947. By simple arithmetic and by placing the items in their proper places, we can easily see the trickery practiced by this type of budgegetary figuring.

I have been unable to find the actual amount of construction started and paid for, or the amount in blueprint stage only. There was supposed to be $80,000,000.00 allowed for institutions of mental and feeble-minded patients. Let us look at the record. Page 17, Thirteenth Budget Message, the Governor states, "Total available for welfare institutions is $89,700,000.00. It is proposed at least $80,000,000.00 of this amount will be used at the institutions for mental and feeble minded patients." On page 9, Fourteenth Budget Message, "Of this amount $70,000,000.00 represents new appropriations, balance or $19,000,000.00 represents unexpended sums from previous appropriations." (Session of 1943 and Session of 1945). Page 7, Thirteenth Budget Message. Of this total amount $55,347,000.00 has been allocated. Page 9, Fourteenth Budget Message—To mental institutions $587,700.00 and $403,210.00 to penal and state mental hospitals. This leaves a balance of approximately $14,000,000.00, if we use the $70,290,000.00 figure that the Governor substituted for the original $89,700,000.00 figure used in Thirteenth Budget Message, page 7.

If we accept the proposition offered now by the Governor, he is asking an additional appropriation of $91,500,000.00 for construction in this same classification.

Without asking about what happened to the $19,410,000.00 difference between amount available and amount appropriated, we do question, however, whether we can honestly spend the $91,500,000.00 new appropriation and the $14,000,000.00 available funds from last biennium. Remember, too, this does not take into consideration the difference between actual funds spent and the $57,000,000.00 allocated. Actually, there are more millions unspent in this construction program and unless we are to deliberately waste the taxpayer's money, a careful check ought to be made of the fund and plans made to appropriate only what can be used sanely and economically during this biennium.

Not even Einstein can follow the devious paths that are woven through the statistical jungle, contained in the budget messages by that elusive guide of the Governor, the Budget Director, Mr. Logan.

If any of you try to break down the barrier set up by Logan, to an honest analysis and interpretation of the State's fiscal policy, you will be convinced of at least one thing, and that is that we can use additional space at our mental institutions. He uses his facts and figures in such a way that I am reminded of the great Abbott and Costello classic of "Who's on first and What's on second." After studying the message and the budget and comparing 1945, 1947 and 1949, I have come to the reasonable proposition that what's on second ought to be on first and who's on first ought to be home in bed with a doctor and a full time nurse.

For instance let us look at page 12 of the Fourteenth Message and we find the following statement:

"SCHOOL EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT FUND"

"The recommended appropriation of $21,180,000, for this Fund compares with $13,486,400 in the current biennium. This increase is due in part to increased salaries of teachers, in part to the inability of the Fund to earn the 4% interest rate guaranteed by law, and in part to the decision of the Attorney General that rates of contribution may not be increased for employees who were in public school service prior to September 1, 1946. This amount will just meet the interest deficiency for the 1947-1949 biennium. An additional interest deficiency of $7,000,000 is estimated for the 1949-1951 biennium but is not included because I feel it is more workable for the Legislature to meet whatever deficiency occurs during the next biennium at the 1951 Session when an accurate estimate of the deficiency can be made."

Does this mean that over $7,000,000.00 is needed now for paying for Martin's folly in liquidating the General State Authority?

Does this mean further that $7,000,000.00 more will be needed to meet the deficiency that will be created unless we recreate the authority and sell the bonds to the retirement fund.

Does this mean further that if the recommendations that I made two years ago in this regard would have been accepted, the state would be in pocket about $14,000,000 plus $5,000,000 allocated in 1947 for this same purpose? This amount, if broken down, would have paid off $19,000,000 of State Authority bonds for public works. Remember, also, in this connection we borrowed $50,000,000 during this biennium and paid interest while making up a deficiency in our retirement investment interest fund. Now I ask you, "Who's on first and is What back on second?"

Here is another classic example for the student of what is what in budget messages. On page 11, Fourteenth Message.

"FORESTS AND WATERS"

"I am recommending an appropriation of $3,000,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Department of Forests and Waters. Furthermore, in the amount which I recommend later in this Message for a State Authority program for that Department, the intent is that the State Authority take over dam building projects originally intended to be financed from the appropriation of $10,000,000 (23-A) made to that Department in 1947. This will make funds in Appropriation Act 23-A available to this Department for forest and park work which has not previously received the proper development. The balance of the State Authority program would be for the construction of additional dams serving the purposes of flood control, water supply and recreation and for structures required in the State parks.

"During the 1945 Session an appropriation of $16,500,000 was made to the Department of Forests and Waters (83-A) and an appropriation of $10,000,000 at the 1947 Session (23-A) for major public works of that Department. Of the $16,500,000 appropriation, $16,353,000 had been allocated for projects as of December 31, 1948.

"Of the $10,000,000 appropriation; $9,907,131 had been allocated on that date."

Does this mean that the $10,000,000 appropriated by the Legislature under Act 23-A has been spent by Admiral Draemel for other than projects intended by the Legislature? Frankly, that is what it looks like. I ask you, isn't it about time we have a detailed report of all the millions spent or allocated by Admiral Draemel. Of this total of $26,500,000, we now find the $26,260,000 has been allocated and yet no one knows, or at least no one tells us how much has been spent and how much remains in blueprint stage only. Also, how much of the $10,000,000 under Act 23-A has to be made up by a public authority.

What I can't understand is that when I recommended long distance financing under a general state authority two years ago, my plan was ridiculed and yet right here we have positive proof of a department using the plan by simply forgetting what an appropriation was made for, and now coming before us for the right to finance the authority.

Gentlemen, I serve notice now that I do request a complete investigation of the Department before I can recommend to my caucus members a vote for any more funds for the Department of Forest and Waters for long range programs.

At this point, I want to inject this thought. Setting aside the nonfiscal surplus now apparent in the Treasury figures due to miscalculation, intentional or otherwise, there seems to be sufficient unspent funds in our construction program to have allowed the Governor to follow our recommendation two years ago, to wit, a negative vote on new additional taxes. The same is true now and if we want to have a pay-as-you-use government, I believe we can do without additional taxes.

I don't believe the increased cost of the Pennsylvania State Police is advisable at this time. We are asking for a force of 2,000 State Troopers while, for example, Maryland a neighboring state has 250. The point I want to have explained to me is, whether or not we can stand a biennial charge of approximately $20,000,000 for State Police work. If 2,000 men can do the job well, then why can't the next Governor ask for 2,500 men to do the job still better. Who sets the numbers? Who estimates the needs and who knows the ratio between safety and numbers? I don't believe we ought to accept this increased permanent cost without a more detailed explanation, particularly in the breakdown of $15,000,000 plus out of highway funds and $5,800,000 out of the General Fund for this purpose.

The teacher problem, the whole educational problem needs adjustment, as we all know. Pushing the problem back to local communities to the passage of Act 481 does not solve it. It only helps to aggravate it.

Personally, I believe the state should carry a larger share of the school cost relating to salaries of teachers. I have always believed in a standardization of teachers' salaries, educational opportunities and schoolastic standards. The funds for doing this are or can be made available. There are still untapped sources of revenues if we must have them. For the moment, I believe we can easily add $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 to our appropriation for school purposes if we follow one of the two courses available. First, let us economize in departmental expenditures and Secondly let us finance school construction for which the Governor requests $26,325,000 this biennium, (page 9, Fourteenth Message) by Long-Term Bonds.

If this recommendation is disregarded as it has been in the past, then we necessarily must create a new tax to carry out an expanded school program on a State wide basis. This money would, of course, be collected and allocated by the State and is not to be confused with State-wide taxes collected for local purposes. This tax would only equalize to some extent the taxes on competing companies in the same field of endeavor.

"All Insurance Companies pay a Corporate Tax in Pennsylvania except domestic mutual fire, casualty and life insurance companies. Why shouldn't the domestic mutual companies pay a gross premium tax of two per cent the same as their competitors? (The domestic stock companies pay an 8 mill premium tax, Capital Stock Tax, Corporate Loans Tax and Corporate Net Income Tax.) Such a tax would yield an estimated amount of $10,000,000.00 for the biennium."

At this moment I wish to say that the Governor's recommendation of $1,000,000 for increased aid to hospitals is far below the amount required for this worthy cause. This amount does not compare with the increases requested by the Governor for State Hospitals and Departmental expenditures.

If you will read on page 9, Fourteenth Message, the section dealing with salaries of State employees and on page 8, Fourteenth Message, the section dealing with welfare and health institutions, you will get the true picture.

In making the following comparisons, I do so in the hope that we can realize the urgent need for a complete overhaul of our tax structure in Pennsylvania. Too many tax commissions have been named and too many reports have been made for us to call for another tax study.

My proposal is easy to follow. I would keep this Legislature in session until a tax program is formulated. Only an abnormal stretch of the imagination can call the present hodge-podge before us a tax system.

Mr. President, if this administration fails to do its duty at this crucial time, there is only one answer left, a complete defeat at the polls for all those who refuse to see the danger of continuing the present tax anything or rather tax everything program.

For the purpose of pointing to the more important revenue measures, I want to compare the State of Pennsylvania with the State of New York, on five different revenue measures.

Take the tax on alcoholic beverages. Remembering that this is a monopolistic state, it was very illuminating to me to find that the State of New York raised as much money, not being in the liquor business, by taxes, as was raised in the State of Pennsylvania by being in the liquor business. I note that the alcoholic beverage taxes in the State of New York are $54,290,000 in one year, 1947; in Pennsylvania the taxes on alcoholic beverages were $27,366,000, a difference of about $27,000,000 in yearly taxes on alcohol beverages.

On tobacco products, Pennsylvania raised $20,988,000, whereas New York raised $32,935,000.

In insurance company taxes, Pennsylvania raised $11,774,000, and New York raised $22,463,000.

On pari mutuel betting, horse racing, the State of New York raised $30,304,000 a year or something like $63,000,000 in the biennium.

By amusements and admissions, New York State raised $1,507,000, while Pennsylvania raised the negligible amount of $90,000.

Mr. President, in these five tax revenue propositions alone, there is a difference of $81,000,000, between the two Commonwealths. We have heard many arguments about Pennsylvania being in the liquor business, and these figures prove that New York, with the private enterprise system of government, is able to produce a state revenue higher than the combined income in Pennsylvania of tax and profits in the liquor business. Frankly I have always believed Pennsylvania would do better to get out of the business, and put it back into the hands of private enterprise. This would remove one of the worst temptations of governmental corruption and abusive use of power in this Commonwealth.

I would put sufficient tax upon the industry to let it carry its share of the tax burden but I would definitely take it out of the hands of the State and make it a private enterprise.

Mr. President, another sore point with a great many harassed taxpayers is the blind opposition to legal racing in the Commonwealth. Without taking a position in the matter of logic, I would like to say, let the people decide the question by giving them a referendum, giving them a pari mutuel referendum at the very next election. Let them decide between paying millions of dollars into the tax coffers of neighboring states or getting tax relief here at home. No minority group has the right to deny this American privilege to the people to make their own decision. Let it be settled once and for all. With six weeks of major track racing in the spring and fall and with minor tracks, fairs and hunt clubs participating in the sport, it will be reasonable to assume we can raise at least $25,000,000 a year, as compared to over $30,000,000 a year in the State of New York. This does not take into consideration the millions of dollars of tourist and transient trade. Our State is the breeding ground of world champion horses, the greatest horses that have ever been raced on the tracks anywhere in the world. We have the natural beauty, the beautiful resorts and urban attractions to add millions of dollars to our State income through the legalizing of racing, if the people see fit to do so.

Mr. President, as a closing argument at this time, look at the utility company and insurance company taxes. New York collects $51,000,000, Ohio collects $24,000,000 and Pennsylvania collects $18,000,000. Do I need to say more? Now you can see why I am unalterably opposed to the so-called soda pop tax. When all utility interests in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with their billions of dollars of income and investment, pay a total combined state tax of $18,500,000, how can we as conscientious men stand here and place a $27,000,000 tax against the soda pop industry?

I can not conceive how this Senate can long endure the inequalities created under Act No. 481, which gives to the untrained taxing authorities in every community in the Commonwealth the right to tax anything and everything.

Mr. President, I have not taken the time to list all the taxes, but I know that the starving communities at home have seen fit to tax coal mining, coal loading, coal processing and wages, dirt and ashes, red dog, pit posts, hotel rooms, billboards, overnight cabins, advertising, transactions, mercantile, amusements, juke-boxes, real estate, sales, trailers, owners of trailer camps, per capita, lines, telephone poles, or anything and everything else that any school board or council decides it can get along very well with.

Mr. President, the saddest day in Pennsylvania's political tax history was the day Act No. 481 passed and was signed by the Governor of this Commonwealth. It must be removed before we will grow and prosper in our back home community. No sane industry will be put into a community where the tax question is an open invitation to financial disaster. It has not been applied as yet in its full force. I know and you all know that the municipalities are only waiting for the moment that the Legislature folds up its first session after passage of this act, to go into one of the greatest taxing sprees this state has ever witnessed or any state has ever witnessed.

Mr. President, I do not intend to take up too much time of the Senate with any more figures, but it is interesting to note in this connection that we ought to know just what Pennsylvania does in the matter of state aid to local communities as compared to any other states of the nation.

Pennsylvania is 33rd in the nation in aid to local Governments when the percentage of General Fund Revenues return to States is considered.

Pennsylvania returns 24.9% of General Fund Revenue to the Local Government by way of aid divided as follows:

Schools	19.4%	In this connection we are classified
Highways	3.7%	with States such as Maine, Montana,
All other		North Carolina, Vermont and others returns	1.8%	of the same size and influence.

In order that we may clear up once for all the biennial fairy tale about our great State aid to local Government let us make a little comparative analysis.

For instance only 10 States in the Union give less aid to local Governments out of their Funds. These States are Connecticut, Georgia, Idaho, New Mexico, Nevada, Rhode Island and similarly constructed and populated States.

The Aid given to schools is also illuminating. Pennsylvania stands 12th on the list of States giving local aid to schools. However, this figure is based upon the appropriations made in 1947 against the estimated General Fund of $425,683,000.00. However, if we use the actual income of $628,500,000.00 we find the percentage of State aid dropping from 19.4% to 13.4% or 28th on the list.

Only 9 States that give State aid give less than Pennsylvania to local Governments for unspecified purposes. This is the basic cause for the demand by local Governments for an expanded tax base. Act No. 481 is an attempt by the State Administration to cover up this phase of local Government and State relations. The Commonwealth collects but doesn't divide its income on an equitable basis.

Lets take a look at another angle of State aid measured in terms of per capita revenue and expenditures.

These figures are based upon the estimated income of $425,000,000.00 rather than upon the actual income of over $628,000,000.00.

If we were to use the actual income our position on State aid to local Governments would show the State in even a less favorable light.

For instance, the following table shows Pennsylvania's expenditures per capita and standing in list of States.

Total Revenue per capita	$49.85	Standing in U. S.	7
Total per capita State aid	10.57	Standing in U. S.	12
Schools	8.24	Standing in U. S.	27
Highways	1.58	Standing in U. S.	16
Unspecified purposes75	Standing in U. S.	16

Because of Pennsylvania's system of welfare being completely centralized except in Allegheny County the percentage of State aid for this specific purpose is less than $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1%.

My authority for this analysis is Bulletin No. 28, United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of Census entitled "State Aid to Local Governments" dated December 1948.

I propose therefore a shift in our position by enactment of a State wide Mercantile tax, collected by the State and returned to the local communities for relief of local taxation and repeal of Act No. 481, restricting local taxes for all purposes to real estate per capita taxes.

In our modern day Government only persons and property are purely local in character.

Mr. President, I have here the message on state wide taxes collected for local distribution. You have been very patient in listening, and I will give to any of you a copy of it. I do not believe that it would add anything for my purposes anyway to read this particular message to you. However, I will ask permission to put it into the record as part of the biennial message.

Thank you very kindly.

STATE WIDE TAXES COLLECTED FOR LOCAL DISTRIBUTION

For a great many years, as an individual I have advocated the collection of certain taxes on a state wide basis with a revenue to be returned to the local communities. We have one example of the fruits of this labor by many of us who have tried for years to get this type of legislation upon the books. The return of part of the one cent emergency gas tax to the communities a few years ago, without a doubt, postponed a crisis in local government financing.

Local governments are again faced with this direct need for more local funds. Some of us tried to shirk our responsibilities in this matter by passing an infamous act known as Act 481 which opened up the broadest taxing rights to the local communities. This act has already resulted in hundreds of new and unprecedented taxes in local governments' laws. At the right moment I will go into the inequalities of this type of taxation. For the moment, I am more interested in presenting to the Senate certain state wide taxes and the logic for their enactment. I will attempt to show the benefits to be derived by such enactment. By collection of state wide taxes and their return to the various communities, local governments will not only be able to continue their progress but will not put themselves in an unfair position as regards neighboring communities.

There are certain taxes on certain industries, businesses, population and mineral deposits that are the joint property of all the peoples of the state, because, in a sense, the matter of location is not the prime factor in determining the value of that particular tax asset to any given community. This has long been the theory in the state prohibition of taxes against the public utility properties. It has been argued that the location of the physical properties of a utility should not allow any community the right to tax the whole utility system. This can easily be said of local mercantile, local wage, local mineral and local amusement taxes. The only fair method in which any community can demand taxes upon these taxable items is by setting up a barrier wall which excludes those who do not live there from earning, spending or enjoying anything in the respective community.

As I stated before, since 1943, business or, better said, main street taxes have been removed from the state collected tax schedules. Chief among these taxes were the wholesale and retail mercantile taxes; this in the face of the fact that these were the oldest state wide collected taxes in the Commonwealth.

For many years, under the guise of representing real estate, powerful influences and lobbies, representing the owners of large downtown real estate holdings, have been pushing the tax burden onto the shoulders of industry, the workingman and farmer through corporate and so-called luxury sales taxes. With the help of these groups and under the guise of tax reduction, the Republican party repealed the mercantile tax laws and by so doing accomplished their real aim; namely, the elimination of a few jobs under the State Treasurer and Auditor General, both Democrats at that time. However, this act had become rather ridiculous in that the revenue had dropped from $17,000,000.00 to approximately $2,000,000.00, because it had become a political football that was neither policed nor administered on a sound basis.

Two years ago, I tried to re-enact this Act for the benefit of local communities, and although today we are putting more and more taxes upon the people, we have yet no proposal before us to bring this Main Street group before the Bar of Tax Justice and assess a just share of the state tax against it. Every dollar spent by the Federal, State, County and Local Government plus the efforts of the average citizen for streets, roads, lights, parks, transportation and communications, directly benefits the merchant on Main Street. No more equitable tax can be assessed at this time, than a tax that can be spread over the whole of the population and yet will still put the merchant on Main Street in a position of paying his share. I prefer to believe that a mercantile tax, wholesale and retail, will be much easier to administer. It will be more equitable, in that the buyers of lower priced articles will still be able to shop for bargains and cut prices and because the amount of the taxes can easily be charged against those of us who purchase the higher priced articles. The state wide sales tax on retail sales is both a nuisance and an inequity.

A mercantile tax will not necessarily be the determining factor in the final sale price of any article. Just examine the windows on any Main Street and you will see the great fluctuations in retail prices for like articles in a competitive market. The markup in most instances is so great as to allow sales with reductions ranging from 25% to 75% off list periodically in most retail establishments. Further, the direct sales tax puts a higher tax on the low priced articles than it does on the higher priced article. Example (A): A 2% sales tax on a 10c sale would actually be $\frac{2}{10}$ of a cent but in every instance where a sales tax is in effect the merchant collects one whole cent or a 10% tax and in many instances, to my own knowledge, when an article costing \$100.00 is for sale, the merchant of his own violation absorbed one-half of the sales tax. With a mercantile tax, the tax would be on the total volume and would not penalize the average consumer citizen.

Persons opposing this style of tax and favoring a sales or wage tax use the argument that the consumer pays anyway. This opens up a classical argument as to which came first, the hen or the egg, since the consumer in one way or another pays on all taxes assessed against the consumer goods; yes, even against the real estate of mercantile establishments. If you follow this philosophy far enough, these same people would then demand the abolishment of all taxes on all enterprise, because the person who pays and buys eventually pays the taxes. This, of course, is not true. Competition in a great measure determines the amount that can be passed off to the consumer and the amount that must be absorbed by the business.

A tax of 1 per cent on wholesale and 1 per cent on retail will yield $200,000,000 conservatively in the next session. In a rough division of the population in the Commonwealth, we find that by allocating this revenue on a population basis, we will be able to relieve the entire burden of Act 481 on the local communities of the Commonwealth. I would distribute the proceeds from the wholesale mercantile tax to the sixty-seven county governments of the Commonwealth and the proceeds from the retail mercantile tax to all the other subdivisions of government. The question of whether first and second class cities and counties should be included in this overall picture is predetermined by the fact that your larger mercantile establishments are situated in the main in this type of community. As an illustration, would it be fair for Philadelphia to collect all the mercantile taxes assessed against Sears and Roebuck, when thousands upon thousands of farms and workers order millions of dollars worth of goods through mail order catalogue sales. This argument can be pursued even further and will be, if necessary.

The next item of taxation on a state wide basis is one that uses the same logic insofar as population and location are concerned. I believe that a state wide amusement tax on all shows, sporting events and other forms of spectator entertainment should be taxed on a state wide basis and returned to the local districts for relief of school taxes. When local taxes are placed upon this field of endeavor, the same injustices prevail from a competitive viewpoint and also consumer or patron viewpoint as prevail when mercantile, wage, severance or other like taxes are assessed locally, but paid for by visitors, workers or patrons from other communities. This tax can conceivably pay for a reasonable share of the local educational bill and do for the local schools what the mercantile tax can do for the local and county governments; namely, remove the necessity for Act 481 as it is now written. Previous records show that within a comfortable margin of accuracy a tax of 10 per cent will yield $15,000,000 Dollars for local school district use. Until the time comes when we can sit in convention to establish a new constitution for this Commonwealth, we will have to be content with a hap-hazard crazy-quilt structure. I do not believe this program to be the best obtainable, but I do believe it to be more equitable and reliable than that promoted by the administration.

At the first opportunity, I believe we should remove the capital stock tax from Pennsylvania industrial corporations, reduce the so-called luxury sales taxes and revamp our entire tax structure. A start has been made in this direction by the Tax Study Commission, but at this moment allow me to point to one of the glaring inequalities of the composition of this commission. Not one member of the minority party elected or appointed was asked to serve on this commission. That is one of the grievous errors that we make in the Legislature in that we overload study commissions with the party members of the party then in power. By so doing, we nullify a great deal of its work because of the changing political picture.

While talking of taxes, I would like to make an observation. Fourteen years ago, as a freshman member of the House I advocated for the first time a tax on legalized horse racing. I said then that within a period of ten or twelve years every state surrounding the State of Pennsylvania would legalize horse racing; that unless we passed this revenue raising measure at an early date we would find ourselves on a barren island in a sea of lush revenue drained from our Commonwealth. This has all come true. We are the only state in the East among the states contiguous to our Commonwealth that does not derive one cent of revenues from this source. In passing, I might say the last known figures for the State of New York show a collection of over $50,000,000.00 in a one year period. This would more than take care of the needs for the bonus or mental institutions. In 1935, this bill passed the House and passed the Senate on third reading. Then, overnight a co-sponsor in the Senate, the gentleman from Philadelphia, suddenly left town for reasons pertaining to his health as I understand it. The bill was defeated the next day by one vote on final passage. Since that day, we have never had such success for a horse race bill.

We are faced with the necessity of raising funds for the bonus. I have before me a proposal to be submitted to the people along with the bonus. The so-called legalized horse racing with a stipulated sum of $50,000,000.00 per biennium to be assessed against the privileges. This money will be used to retire the bonds for the bonus.

The foregoing is solely a suggested solution to the problem, since I am not the Governor of this great Commonwealth. To summarize, in my opinion, the taxes of this Commonwealth should be divided into five groups:

1. Industrial and Mining Taxes.
2. Business and license Taxes.
3. Individual (Inheritance and personal property) and Sales Taxes (present limited classes).
4. Privilege and amusement taxes.
5. Motor and Highway Taxes.

I will state here and now that I personally will never again politically support any candidate for the office of Governor of this Commonwealth who does not present to the people, before election, his program based upon the needs of the moment for financing and expending for the Commonwealth's needs. We have outlived the mealy-mouthed coverall type of platform of the past campaigns. We must demand in the future from every candidate a working knowledge of our State Government. When a candidate says that he is for conservation, let him tell the people what it is going to cost; when a candidate says he is for greater benefits for the under-privileged citizens, let him tell the people what it is going to cost. When a candidate says that he is for expanding the facilities of the care of the mentally deficient, let him tell the people what it is going to cost.

The chief aim of all government is the welfare of its citizens, but the chief danger to our type of government is when welfarism as such becomes the sole aim and achievement of government. When I give you an analysis of the budget, I hope to further elaborate upon this theme.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I want the gentleman from Westmoreland to know that those of us on this side deeply appreciate the opportunity of hearing his biennial budget message. They are slowly becoming an institution in the State Senate. I hope that I am successful in hearing many more of them.

Mr. President, I will make no attempt at this time to directly reply to the statistics and the figures that he has tossed into the record. His budget message is much more interesting than what we used to hear from Senator Shapiro, because Senator Shapiro used more figures and he was just as confusing as the Budget Director, Mr. Logan.

I would like to say this to the gentleman from Westmoreland, I am very deeply interested in this phase of government, and when we come to the tax problem, I notice there is always an ethereal shift of philosophy when the political party in the Minority might become the political party in the Majority; there is always a slight change in the acceptance of responsibility. I think it would be an interesting illumination for the people of the United States if the tax philosophy that is suggested by the gentleman from Westmoreland would be adopted by the Majority Party at Washington, D. C., and again may I suggest to him that even though it came from the left side, and he was praising the tax program of the Republican Administration in the State of New York, I was interested to note that the Minority Party in the State of New York does not approve of that tax program, but they point with pride to ours. I guess it depends a whole lot on the locale and the extent it is involved.

As to Act 481 and the suggestion that we repeal that act, the gentleman from Westmoreland knows full well that there have been what might be termed tax bugs in Act 481, but it has produced revenue for a lot of political subdivisions in Pennsylvania. There have been impositions, there been duplications and double taxation on products, especially in the coal industry. Those of us who live in the coal areas know that some of the political subdivisions, like townships and township school districts, have taxed the same ton of coal under all disguises of occupation tax, or transportation tax, or severance tax or unloading tax. They have even taxed the shale and the red dog as it is dumped off on the other side of the mine, and that has been an unfortunate experience. I would be curious to see a balanced budget produced by the gentleman from Westmoreland, in which he would show what we would save in these political subdivisions, if we would repeal Act 481. Where would we ever replace in their coffers the money they need? If the gentleman from Westmoreland will permit me to be provincial, I am thinking for a moment of the city of Pittsburgh where they have been able to slowly work themselves out of a very distressing financial situation, simply by the use of some of the aid and comfort that was given to them by Act 481, and the city of Philadelphia, that for years had a deficit problem, whereas the people of that City are slowly working their way out through the application of the Sterling Act.

Now, Mr. President, the gentleman points out that there are a lot of discrepancies and confusion and contradictions in the budget message presented by the Budget Department and the Budget Secretary. I want to say, Mr. President, I doubt very much if we have very many Members on the floor of the Senate that could get up and say with all fairness and truthfulness that they understood one hundred per cent the budget in the two volumes presented to us by the Budget Secretary. I have always held Dr. Logan up with a great deal of pride, as the most confusing man on Capitol Hill, and on that one phase of the argument I agree with the gentleman from Westmoreland.

I would like to suggest this: Several years ago when he and I were members of this great legislative body, there was a distinguished gentleman from Philadelphia by the name of Dr. Woodward who was a member of the Senate. Dr. Woodward always had a bill for a Legislative Comptroller. We were always very cheerfully opposed to that bill, but slowly and surely sometimes we reorganize our thinking. It might be a good idea if perhaps a Legislative Comptroller were created, so that we in turn would have some opportunity to determine what these vast budgetary expenditures and departmental requests amount to in dollars and cents. With that thought in mind, the very distinguished gentleman from Warren, who has served long and faithfully and capably as the Chairman of our Appropriations Committee, created a Subcommittee that has been studying these budgetary matters through the interim. I think they have done a grand job, and I think the gentleman from Philadelphia, Doctor Stiefel, has served with distinction at every one of those meetings. For example, Mr. President, if I might interpose, I have selected at random a report of the proceedings of a hearing that was held by this Subcommittee of the Appropriations Committee, in which Admiral Draemel, Secretary of Forests and Waters, attended, and explained in detail his budgetary problem and his financial problem as it involved his Department.

Now, the gentleman from Westmoreland suggests that we should not give Admiral Draemel a dime until he has proved beyond the shadow of a reasonable doubt that the things set forth in the budget, as far as his Department is concerned, are true and correct.

I think, Mr. President, that Doctor Stiefel and Doctor Chapman, and the other Members of that Committee went over that very thoroughly with Admiral Draemel, the Secretary of that Department. I note here that on that particular day, June 9, 1948, Doctor Stiefel was present. It would be curious to learn whether or not, in Doctor Stiefel's opinion, this Subcommittee has accomplished a great deal in bringing to this legislative body the facts that have been boiled down from these budgetary problems, so that the Legislature at least would be in a position to accept some of the taxes that are so necessary when we come to vote on a billion dollar budget.

The gentleman from Westmoreland knows full well that never in the history of Pennsylvania has there been such a demand made upon a General Assembly as there is in this 1949 Session. The thing that distresses us the most is the fact that many of these requests will be curtailed or refused in their entirety. We would like to give the people of Pennsylvania all of the things that they are asking for, because we appreciate the fact that slowly but surely they are drifting us into a centralized fiscal program. We know we cannot give it to them, in spite of the fact that we are going to have to tax the people.

Mr. President, as has been suggested by the gentleman from Westmoreland, we are one of the few states in the nation where we have not had a very rapid, a very high, or a very marked increase in our tax program. The only additional tax that has been recommended by this present administration is a one cent additional tax for the highways fund, and for the continued highways program. Now, Mr. President, in some other states, for example, the State of New York, which was so highly praised by the gentleman from Westmoreland, as I understand it the administration there is taxing one cent additional on gasoline, and is going to use the money for relief purposes. Here, Mr. President, the only additional tax we have will be the one cent on gasoline, which will be used for highway purposes. I for one would not propose or would not be in favor of repealing Act 481 to deprive these political subdivisions of this source of revenue, unless and until they have adequately made plans to take care of the deficit that would be created. I know in the city of Pittsburgh, only a small portion of which I am permitted to have in my Senatorial District, they would be in bad shape if we deprived them of the revenue created by that piece of legislation. I do not think it was the worst day in Pennsylvania's political or legislative history when we passed this bill. I think it was just a restatement of the fact that government belongs at home. We have made a lot of speeches about home rule and about decentralizing our fiscal program. We made a step in that direction, and, of course, it hurt, because all new taxes hurt, all taxes hurt, as a matter of fact. It is so easy to talk about taxing big business. That gets us out from under the nut of this thing everytime, but, Mr. President, we have to realize this, that these small political subdivisions are represented by people who are elected by the voters of their particular district, and if that tax becomes so burdensome that the people in that little township or borough cannot stand it, they have ways and means of correcting that.

I again want to thank the gentleman from Westmoreland for his budget message. I assume from time to time we will bat it back and forth here in this legislative chamber. We here on this side are not at this moment prepared to disagree with a lot of things he said, because we will have to have a chance to read it in the record. I think, in the final analysis, the gentleman realizes that he was merely propounding what he says is the tax program of the Minority Side. That is, of course, a debatable subject, just as the Governor's budget might be a debatable subject as representing the tax program for the Majority Side.

Mr. President, let me say this, in all fairness and in all candor, it is the administration's responsibility for this tax program, and we are perfectly willing to answer for this program at the only bar of justice that is available to us, and that will be at the polls. There is no way in the world that we can turn back once we have put our hand to the plow.

Mr. President, I do not entirely agree with the gentleman from Westmoreland that we should stay here a year if necessary to thrash this out. The program that was submitted by the Governor in his budget message is a program for this administration, and we are perfectly willing to assume the responsibility for it.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I want to clear up one thing. I only compared Pennsylvania's revenues from five different sources with New York's revenues from those five sources.

I might state, in order that there will be no false impression conveyed to the various subdivisions of government, I want to clarify my position on Act 481. For instance, first and foremost, I am unalterably opposed to that type of legislation. I want that clearly understood. I voted against it, and I have a bill in to repeal it. I also have presented to this Senate and to the people of Pennsylvania an alternate program, a program that can be used by the communities to get more money for local purposes than is now available under Act 481.

Pittsburgh, for instance, raises 4½ million dollars in revenue under Act 481. I can take a mercantile tax in this Commonwealth, and if you will be kind enough to read this message on mercantile tax, and a justification for imposing such a tax, I can show you where a one percent mercantile tax in this Commonwealth, given back to the communities on the basis of population, will give the city of Pittsburgh an approximate 22-million dollars. The merchant on Main Street does not pay in this Commonwealth his share of the taxes. Every dollar that is spent by the individual to build a home in the community, every dollar that is spent by utilities to increase and expand its services, every dollar that is spent out of tax money for the creation of better streets, of parks, of museums, places of interest in that community redound immediately to the benefit of the merchant on Main Street. He is the greatest beneficiary of our tax system in the Commonwealth, and since 1945, there has not been one cent of state-wide collected taxes assessed against the merchant on Main Street, except where it happens to be a corporation.

So I say to you, Mr. President, that if we are looking for unification of our aims and our desires to equalize the tax problem and the tax collections of this Commonwealth, we must divide taxes into five groups.

I have not discussed yet the question of the highway tax; I am working upon that message right now, and I tell you when I give it to you, I hope to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that we no more need the one cent increase in taxation in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for highway purposes than we needed the taxes in 1947 for General Fund purposes.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the discussion on the tax bills is certainly going to be interesting, if we get this far without even having a bill out of committee.

I would like to suggest to the gentleman from Westmoreland, I am deeply interested in his problem of serving Pittsburgh, but I would be more deeply interested in the reaction of a majority of the members of the city council on that program.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I don't want to get into the act. I want to call to the attention of the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker, that the tax program that exists in the federal government is the tax program of the Republican Party for the past two years, and from reading the returns last year, I don't think the people care much for it.

Secondly, in the State of New York, if you read the New York papers today, the Republican Party is in revolt against the tax program of the present governor. Last evening at the mansion in Albany, he had the Erie County delegation and the West Chester delegation down, trying to sell them a bill of goods, wherein he wants to increase the tax to the tune of 198 million dollars.

Upon reading the paper today, I don't think the good Governor of New York is going to get his program through.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I have said repeatedly that I have tried for ten years to get the last word in, but I never do.

I would like to suggest to the gentleman from Allegheny. Senator Barr, that I am not the least bit interested in the tax program getting through the State of New York. I have trouble enough right here.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, being trained under the same man as the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker, Mr. Pinchot, I do not want him to have the last word.

I would like to point out to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, in this discussion, he also forgot that in Allegheny County, due to the neglect, or, shall I say, the pressure brought upon this Legislature, we have never been able to get the utilities in Allegheny County or in any other county of this State to pay their rightful cost of local government.

I just want to leave this one figure with him. In Allegheny County alone, there would be distributed into the many different communities or different sub-divisions of government, $6,256,000, and think that is a lot of money, and I think in many cases that would mean that the power we have given them to tax anything would not be needed.

I call upon this Senate to at least go along with the other 47 states of the United States and pass the bill which Senator Barr and I have introduced, permitting local communities to tax the real estate of the utilities, because this is the only state in the United States where they are getting a free ride and receiving free police protection, free fire protection, free use of our streets. In all other 47 states they make them pay a real estate tax and pay a franchise tax, and I say now it is the duty of this Senate to see that this bill is passed, and make them pay their rightful cost to local government.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Rev. Richard E. Owens, Minister of the St. John's Primitive Methodist Church, Hazelton, Pa., a friend and guest of the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Mikula offered the following prayer:

"O God our Help in ages past, our hope for years to come; Our shelter from the stormy blast and our Eternal Home. Under the shadow of Thy Throne, still may we dwell secure; Sufficient is Thine Arm alone, our defense is sure."

Continue, O Eternal Heavenly Father, most Righteous God, to be our help in the present and in the future. We confess our need of Thee in wisdom, in guidance, and in infinite love. Most heartily and most sincerely we pray that Thou wouldst lead us along the perplexing and uncertain problems of this day and of every day of life. Thou didst lead our fathers into a wealthy place; give Thy grace, we beseech Thee to us, their children, that we may always approve ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will and bidding.

Bless our land and our great state with honorable and productive industry, sound learning, and pure religion that remaineth undefiled and that fadeth not away.

Grant Thy blessing upon the President of these United States of America, the Governor of this Commonwealth, the law makers of both state and nation, and upon all who exercise authority locally, nationally, and internationally. Imbue them, we beg of Thee, with Thy spirit of wisdom, godness, and truth; so rule their hearts and bless their endeavors that law and order, justice and peace, righteousness and goodness may everywhere prevail.

Defend our liberties, preserve our unity, and save us from violence, discord, confusion, pride, arrogance, intolerance, and every evil way

Fashion into one happy people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. In the time of prosperity fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of adversity suffer not our trust and faith in Thee to fail. Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation. Remember all Thy people for whom it is our privilege and duty to pray.

We ask it with the forgiveness of all our sins and in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, to Whom be honor and glory with the Father and with the Holy Spirit, World without end. Amen.

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 7

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, January 24, 1949.

In this year of international uncertainties and unrest, when the nations of the World look to the United States of America for guidance, protection and sustenance, and when our own economic structure still faces the problem of post war readjustment, Harry S. Truman was inaugurated as President, and has embarked on the tremendous task of chief executive of the World's most powerful and influential nation, and of coordinator of the destinies of all free peoples.

Upon the success of his administration rest continued prosperity at home, the avoidance of war with foreign nations, and the reestablishment, out of war wrought ruins abroad, of the standards of civilization, achieved through centuries of education and betterment; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs), That the General Assembly of Pennsylvania offer its congratulations to Mr. Truman on the occasion of his election and inauguration, and its fervent hope for success in handling the unprecedented problems which lay before him, so that our Nation and other nations espousing the principles of free government may ultimately enjoy the security of lasting peace and economic stability; and be it further Resolved, That a certified copy of this resolution be transmitted to Harry S. Truman, President of the United States.

L. 103), entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by removing restrictions as to length regarding improvement of streets or roads and petitions relating thereto.

An said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 247, entitled:

An Act to amend subsections (a) and (d) of section one thousand three hundred sixteen of the act, approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs, and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," by increasing the limit of contracts that may be made without advertisement and bidding.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitteed to the Committee on Boroughs for further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stuart.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STUART. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny give me roughly how long this law has been in effect where councils in boroughs are permitted to purchase without advertising, up to $500?

Mr. STUART. I cannot speak definitely but I think that the amount was changed from $300 to $500 two years ago.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman tell me where the opposition is coming from?

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, I cannot state where the opposition is coming from.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, that is all, I thank the gentleman

Mr. Speaker, this bill was presented just a week or so ago at the Borough Association meeting and I have a letter here and a notice from the Borough Association of the state of Pennsylvania, where there were approximately eight or nine hundred representatives of the Boroughs in Harrisburg. They endorsed this bill, increasing their powers to purchase up to one thousand dollars without advertising.

The only opposition that I have seen or that I have heard is from the newspaper business. In other words, some newspapers expect you and me to sit here and draw up legislation to satisfy the newspapers. I can see no reason why most of the large boroughs and quite a few of the small boroughs should find it necessary in order to make purchases, to raise the ante from five hundred up to one thousand dollars without advertisement, although under this same bill in a newspaper of general circulation you must advertise three times for three different weeks in a newspaper. In a weekly newspaper you must advertise twice for two weeks, but still certain newspaper organizations will send a telegram out telling us that the bill should be recalled and put back into committee.

I think that those councils, those burgesses and those officials, who were here a week or so ago know a whole lot more about what the councils and the boroughs really need than the newspapers do, and for that reason I ask you to vote against the recommitment of the bill.

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, I listened with a great deal of interest to the remarks made by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Heatherington.

He was speaking of the objections coming from newspapers. If the objections are from newspapers, they are based on a far more important and vital matter than this question of a few dollars or a few cents. Newspapers after all, have to be the guardians of the welfare of the citizens and taxpayers. There is a danger when the ante is raised from five hundred dollars to one thousand dollars that some councils might seize upon that as an opportunity to favor friends and to split contracts. That has happened. Our duty seems to be to protect the public and the public officials. It is a question of protecting the taxpayers and protecting the community.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I will admit that to a certain extent some newspapers are in business to protect the taxpayers. I don't want to get into a Gallup Poll, and I am asking for a roll call.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Heatherington and Mr. Moran and were as follows:

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Subsection B of section twelve of the act approved the sixth day of April one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 200) entitled "An act licensing and regulating the business of pawnbrokers providing for the issuance of licenses by the Secretary of Banking authorizing the Secretary of Banking to make examinations and issue regulations limiting the interest and charges on loans and prescribing penalties for the violation of this act" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 12 Interest and Charges

* * * * *

B Not more than two and one-half per cent (2½%) per month on loans for which other personal property has been pledged

The interest and charges authorized by this act shall be computed at the rate specified on the actual principal balance of the loan due for the actual time which has elapsed from the date of the loan to the date of payment For the purpose of calculation of interest and charges permitted under this act a year shall be twelve (12) calendar months and a month shall be one calendar month or any fractional part thereof A calendar month shall be any period from a certain date in one month to the same date in the next succeeding month

A minimum of twenty-five [(.25)] cents ($.25) on loans of five dollars ($5.00) or less and a minimum of fifty cents ($.50) on loans in excess of five dollars ($5.00) may be collected on any loan for interest and charges

No greater interest nor other fees fines charges or costs shall be charged contracted for or received directly or indirectly under any pretext whatsoever Interest and charges permitted under this act shall not be collected or deducted in advance

The lowest rate applicable to a portion of the pledge shall be charged for storage when the pledge on a loan consists of two or more articles of personal property which are not in the same classification as set forth in this section as a basis for determining storage charges This provision shall not be construed to prevent a pawnbroker from granting two separate loans to the same individual on two or more articles of personal property and charging the respective storage charge applicable to each classification

A pawnbroker who charges contracts for or receives interest or charges greater than permitted under this act shall forfeit both principal and interest and shall return the pledge upon demand of the pledger and surrender the pawn ticket without tender or payment of principal or interest A pledger borrowing money from a pawnbroker licensed under this act who shall have paid any interest and charges in excess of those prescribed and allowed by the provisions of this act shall be entitled to recover back from the pawnbroker by action at law commenced within six months from the date of the last payment any and all interest and charges paid in excess of those permitted under this act and in addition fifty [($50.00)] dollars ($50.00) as a penalty to be paid by the pledger Provided [That the records of the pawnbrokers shall be prima facie evidence of interest or charges which have been contracted for or received by the pawnbroker Nothing] nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the pawnbroker from charging the pledger for actual expenses incurred for mailing when a pledge is redeemed by mail

A pawnbroker shall at the time of payment furnish to the person paying a receipt showing the number of the pawn ticket on which the payment is made the date of payment the amount paid on principal of the loan the amount paid for interest and fees for storage insurance investigation and other services contemplated by this section and the amount if any paid to the pawnbroker for cleaning pressing repairing or other similar services to the pledged personal property which have been requested by the pledger A duplicate copy of every receipt issued shall be retained by the pawnbroker for his record

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-nine

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. RAY L. RILEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the third reading postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. DALRYMPLE. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Lycoming, I ask the Members of the House to vote this motion down.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, no one should regret apparent disagreements among the iron-bound constituents. Therefore, I arise to ask the gentleman from Lycoming why he desires to put this bill on the postponed calendar.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Reilly, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RAY L. RILEY. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have already asked the question, what is the nefarious idea which prompted the gentleman from Lycoming to request that the bill be placed on the postponed calendar?

Mr. RAY L. RILEY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Cambria please explain to me the meaning of the word "nefarious"?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, nefarious is anything that a stand-pat, iron-bound, caucus-bound Republican does.

Mr. RAY L. RILEY. Mr. Speaker, I did not hear the last word.

I am asking that the bill be placed on the third reading postponed calendar because during last week's interim I contacted several of the city officials in my home city of the third class, and they told me that this bill would probably increase taxes. We have in Williamsport a fully paid Fire Department, comprising approximately one hundred men. If the hours are cut by sixteen and two-thirds percent, which this bill will do, that means that if the platoon strength is to be kept up sixteen and two-thirds percent more men will have to be added to the Fire Department, and that would cost in our city approximately 32 to 35 thousand dollars.

I ask that the bill be placed upon the postponed calendar until I can get more information from home. It was my understanding that such an agreement had been reached; I cannot understand the opposition at the present time. I agree with the gentleman from Cambria that there must be some mistake on this side of the House.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Lycoming.

I would like now to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Dalrymple.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DALRYMPLE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Erie anticipate that he has any measure of support on his side of the House for his position?

Mr. DALRYMPLE. Mr. Speaker, I have my own and you never can tell until you get the complete count.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Erie for volunteering for service but the reinforcements, I fear, will not be sufficient.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Speaker declared the nays appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, fifty-seven Members voting in the affirmative and seventy in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Mr. AMARANDA asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

Mr. GIBSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the Democratic delegation in this House from Philadelphia, I arise to a collective question of personal privilege.

For the first time in my legislative experience, it has pleased the Governor of this Commonwealth to indict a delegation specifically and by name.

Philadelphia Democrats are accused of playing politics, or neglecting the interests of their constituents, because they failed to support the Governor's gas tax and his "pop" tax.

Incidentally, I am referring to the Governor's Phillipic solely by reason of the fact it was published in all the papers.

Democrats who fail to toe the line; who presume to dot an "i", or cross a "t", or insert a comma in the Governor's program are accused of a plot to sabotage the public interests. The Governor of this Commonwealth apparently is planning to make the crossing to greater political glory on a bridge constructed out of planks ripped from Democratic platforms.

His Excellency, the Governor, in flagellating Philadelphia Democrats, calls attention to what he is doing to provide Philadelphia with pure water. Where, or when has the Democratic minority in this House failed to cooperate with what the administration calls its stream clearance program?

Members of the minority party have supported that program clear across the board. Where, or when have the minority Members failed to cooperate with port improvement projects designed to assure to Philadelphia the commercial supremacy to which it is entitled by reason of its location?

We pioneered for stream clearance.

Our criticism of port improvement programs is that they not been pressed with sufficient force. We stand ready to levy sufficient taxes to support the Commonwealth's share of stream clearance and port improvement costs.

Where, or when have we failed to support what the administration calls its health program? It is the minority group in this House which in the past repeatedly called attention to the condition of the Commonwealth's mental hospitals.

It is the minority group in this House which in the past has repeatedly demanded action. We stand ready to levy the taxes, or to enact the legislation necessary to finance an over-all health program.

We stand ready, and willing, to enact the necessary legislation and levy the necessary taxes needed to finance an over-all conservation program.

And, Mr. Speaker, we stand ready and willing to enact the necessary legislation and levy the taxes necessary in financing the Commonwealth's responsibilities in relation to the public schools.

Stream clearance, public health, conservation, education, general welfare—these are the objectives which we traditionally serve.

These are the objectives which the members of the Democratic delegation in this House traditionally serve.

All of this program, we are told, would be wrecked, ruined, sabotaged, by a failure to enact a "pop" tax.

Didn't we say to His Excellency, the Governor, didn't we say to the Members of this House, didn't we say to the people of this Commonwealth, "Put the 'pop' tax on the postponed calendar, proceed to legislate concerning the Commonwealth's essential needs, then if you find you are 27 million dollars short we'll levy taxes in sufficient amount to meet the need"?

It comes with poor grace from His Excellency, the Governor to castigate a minority that have leaned over backwards in a desire to cooperate with the administration. In our relations with the Governor's office we have been punctiliously proper.

On the floor of this House, where or when have we failed to observe parliamentary protocol?

If the minority party voted for appropriations it was unwilling to help finance there would be some ground for criticism.

I repeat, we are ready and willing to finance every phase of the program which we support. And we are not traitors to the public interest, the members of the Philadelphia delegation are not traitors to the public interest, simply because we refuse to say that a "pop" tax is the best of all possible taxes that could be levied.

We are facing an unusual situation. The Governor of this Commonwealth appears in the habiliments of democratic action.

His Excellency, the Governor, has purloined our General State Authority coat, he has donned our Stream Clearance and Conservation pants, his political undershirt is actually our Health program, his other under-garments have been fabricated out of an Emergency Tax Program which has been faithfully enacted and re-enacted these many years.

Consider, for example; the repeated postponement of the capital stock exemption.

And you have a typical example of a Democratic proposal that has been paraded around in Republican diapers these many years.

As a matter of fact, if His Excellency, the Governor, were suddenly divested of the Democratic platform habiliments, he would appear to the public gaze clad fore and aft in a "pop" tax and a penny gas tax.

Incidentally, that proposed penny gas tax is destined to be a most versatile penny, indeed. If the proceeds of that penny are depended upon, it would seem, to finance at least 80 million dollars of highways in and around Philadelphia and 90 million dollars worth of highways in and around Pittsburgh—and then after 80 million dollars have been spent in and around Philadelphia and 90 million dollars have been spent in and around Pittsburgh, there is to be something like 100 million dollars left which will be used to build highways in the rural sections of the Commonwealth.

It is our opinion, our considered opinion, that His Excellency, the Governor, has unfairly, unjustly and without proper warrant—perhaps without due consideration, presumed to castigate a minority group, to deride a metropolitan delegation for failure to support the public interest when, as a matter of fact, that same minority, and that same metropolitan delegation stood steadfast in its support of the broad public welfare program to which the minority in this House was committed prior to the time His Excellency, the Governor, became Governor.

Finally, and emphatically, if His Excellency, the Governor, will, for the time being, sidetrack his “pop” tax and it comes about as the end of the Sessions nears that there is actually a need for the 27 million dollars he has presumed the “pop” tax would raise, the members of this minority group will pledge him that we will try and enact the legislation to give him the 27 million dollars caused by the loss of the “pop” tax.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scanlon.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SCANLON asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, last Friday, according to newspaper reports, his Excellency, Governor Duff, at a press conference, here in Harrisburg, issued an unmerited and completely unjustified blast of criticism at the Democratic delegation from Philadelphia because of our opposition to the increased tax placed upon gasoline consumption and because of our opposition to the continuation of the iniquitous tax on soft drinks.

I feel that I would be derelict in my duties as a member of this House, to allow the unfair accusations made by the Governor to go unchallenged. As a member of the Philadelphia Democratic delegation, I am very much interested in the administration program designed to clean up the rivers flowing by our great city and provide its inhabitants with a better and purer supply of water. I am similarly interested in the establishment in Philadelphia of an institute designed to conduct research in all types of mental abnormalities, including the action of sex criminals. This is a step too long neglected, and I, for one, was very happy to see the Governor display his fearlessness and independence in advocating forward steps which we, in the Democratic party, have been calling for, for many years.

I was deeply appreciative of the interest and solicitude displayed by our Governor in our highway program in the Philadelphia area. As I indicated prior to the vote on the tax program, we finally are being taken out of the orphan class in Philadelphia and given the consideration due to a community whose inhabitants contribute more to the motor fund than the residents of any other municipality in the Commonwealth.

Mr. Speaker, we Democratic members of the House are a group of able and responsible legislators, fully cognizant of the fact that increasing demands for governmental service, call for the need of raising the revenue necessary to finance such service. We are not in the same class as a certain defeated member of Congress whose proud boast it was that he voted for every appropriation measure and against every revenue raising bill. However, we feel that the tax program jammed through this House last week by precipitous action was passed without an opportunity for us to get a true picture of the needs of the Commonwealth. We were not given an opportunity to ascertain whether the administration bills to create a General State Authority, with the attendant effects on the finance program would become a fact. We were not supplied with adequate and sufficient proof that there was a need for the anticipated revenue sought in the measures for which we are being criticized, in order to meet the demands for the necessary state services which the Governor so properly has requested. We were not given any definite information as to when, where or how the increased gasoline taxes were to be spent.

I can assure the Governor that if the Administration had presented proof to us of the need for the revenue, my vote on the gasoline tax rise might have been different.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I am sorry that his Excellency, saw fit, to single out the Philadelphia Democratic members for this criticism. His failure to attack members of his own party who opposed these measures is noteworthy. I feel that our action on the floor was, under the circumstances, proper, sincere and easily understood. We will cooperate with the Governor in pressing for the worthwhile measures he has called for without regard to partisanship or political expediency. Similarly, we will oppose those measures presented to us in this House which, in our opinion, are unnecessary and opposed to the public welfare.

Mr. Speaker, I have quite a long statement here and I am going to ask unanimous consent that it be printed in the Legislative Journal. It is a statement by the Democratic City Chairman, Mr. Finnegan.

Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that it be printed in the Legislative Journal.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scanlon, asks unanimous consent of the House to have printed in the Legislative Journal a statement. Will the House give its consent? The chair hears no objection and consent is granted.

The statement referred to was as follows:

Democratic City Chairman James A. Finnegan declared the governor “obviously tried to create the impression that failure to support the gas tax increase jeopardized his program for improvements to Philadelphia including better water in cleaning up the Schuylkill and a psychiatric institute in Philadelphia.

Cites Restriction on Use

“The governor, of course, knows perfectly well that none of the money collected from the one-cent gas tax increase can be used for any other purpose, under a constitutional amendment, except for highways and airports.

“The governor chose to ignore the explanation given for the opposition of the Philadelphia Democratic delegation in the House to the one-cent gasoline tax increase.”

Finnegan recalled that Hiram G. Andrews, House minority leader, said the governor failed to justify the need for the increased tax "and that repeated efforts of the Democratic minority to obtain specific information were evaded."

"The Democratic legislators," said Finnegan, "took the position they could not vote for this measure without adequate information and a proven need unless they were willing, like their Republican colleagues, to accept Duff's proposals as edicts from on high."

Points to Cash Balance

The Administration failed to explain why it was necessary to provide a cash balance of $38,000,000 in 1951, Finnegan said, this representing about the amount that will be raised by the new gas tax.

"Budget Director Edward B. Logan admitted before a Democratic caucus that even at peak periods the cash balance in the motor fund is never less than $20,000,000," said Finnegan. "In Pennsylvania, legislators are not supposed to impose taxes for the purpose of providing surpluses, although that has been the practice under the past three Republican administrations."

In commenting on the governor's statement that nine Allegheny county Democrats voted for the additional tax, Finnegan reported that $40,000,000 of Highway Department funds are to be spent for a nine-mile stretch of road outside the governor's home town of Pittsburgh. He quoted Highways Secretary Ray Smock as saying that his department could have secured more money from the U. S. Government had it been willing to conform more closely to federal regulations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to reply to the statement of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scanlon.

I wish that last week we had known the Philadelphia delegation on the Democratic side was going to cooperate with the state administration. It would have saved some concern and a lot of hair on this side of the House.

The gentleman states that the Philadelphia delegation was criticized by the Governor for playing politics. I think that probably the Governor did not overstate or over emphasize the situation by that statement. I feel that probably they did play politics to quite a degree I consider myself and a lot of the members on this side of the House as members who will work for the benefit of their communities and of the state. Certainly the Democratic delegation must have played politics if they knew that they were depriving the citizens of Philadelphia of this huge program that the Governor has presented on the floor of this House.

They certainly do know, and I do not like to repeat this, but we have heard so many times, the many necessary and huge improvements that hinge on the collection of these taxes. Certainly they know that the express highway which is going to carry a feeder line into the port of Philadelphia has to be constructed, and is being constructed for the benefit of the citizens of Philadelphia primarily, and then for the benefit of the citizens of the state generally.

They certainly know of the money that is to be spent in the Vine street improvement project that is exclusively a Philadelphia project and that is coming from this fund.

They certainly know that there is going to be five and one-half million dollars spent on the Roosevelt boulevard. All these things would have been denied to the citizens of Philadelphia if the Republican side of the House had not voted for them.

They certainly know that the Eastern State Psychiatric Hospital is being constructed which is a four million dollar project.

The Schuylkill River cleaning project, which God knows and everyone in Philadelphia knows is needed, regardless of whether he is a Democrat or a Republican; there are seventeen million dollars that would have been denied to our citizens.

There is Byberry; the teacher's salaries; the appropriations for hospitals. All of these things are coming from the general fund. That soda pop tax goes to the general fund, which they knew. We in Philadelphia still feel,—whether it is politics that the Philadelphia delegation was playing, I don't know, but I do know that we need all those things in Philadelphia and I do feel that we don't have the right to deprive the citizens of Philadelphia of such things. Gentlemen, all these things are to be given to the City without any increase in the general fund for last year and over the last biennium.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ROSE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Philadelphia, may I reiterate the statement made by my colleague, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scanlon, that we in Philadelphia have been standing for, and as Mr. Andrews intimated, we have fought for those measures which the Governor has advanced as an aid to the city of Philadelphia and to the citizens of Philadelphia.

Our quarrel with the Governor is not that we are opposed to any of his program but to his accusation in the Press that we are playing politics; we felt that there was not sufficient information given to us to justify our voting for the imposition of taxes.

We asked representatives of the administration to supply us with certain information prior to the time the vote was taken on those tax measures. I indicated last week prior to the time that the vote was taken that we in Philadelphia would favor the imposition of an additional penny gas tax if we felt it was necessary at the time.

We in Philadelphia have always been treated as orphans as far as the road program is concerned. It has only been recently that Philadelphia has been given somewhere near a fair share of the funds derived from the imposition of the gasoline tax. We are grateful to the Governor for being as fairminded as he has been in his treatment of the Philadelphia area.

However, Mr. Speaker, I want to point out to the Members of this House that until we get sufficient information to justify the imposition of such taxes we will not vote for them.

We will not vote for any measures that will be embarrassing to the administration, but until we have sufficient information we are not in a position to go ahead and cast votes for huge projects in the Philadelphia area or any other area, because we all realize that governmental services today call for the expenditure of huge sums of money.

We will vote for such measures as will provide the necessary funds for the many projects contemplated in the Philadelphia area or any other area, where the people of Pennsylvania will be aided. I do now want to say to the Governor and to the Members of the House on the other side that we in Philadelphia will support a proper program of aid to the citizens. We will vote for such tax legislation as will help to bring this program into being.

We are very glad that the Governor has come into the Democratic fold and advocated the principles that we on the Democratic side have always espoused. I think it comes with poor grace for the Governor to unduly criticize Members from Philadelphia who have been trying to do a sincere job as Legislators, by accusing us of playing politics. We serve notice here that we will not be partisan, we will not resort to any political expediency or tricks that will affect the welfare of the people of Pennsylvania or the people of Philadelphia, and at the end of this session, when the final count is made, we will let the people of Philadelphia judge as to where the credit is due insofar as the welfare of the people of Pennsylvania is concerned.

Mr. POSTA. Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Westmoreland arise?

Mr. POSTA. Mr. Speaker, for the privilege of addressing the House on this same question.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would suggest to the gentleman from Westmoreland that the Philadelphia cause has been very ably presented by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scanlon, and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rose, and perhaps, in view of the lateness of the hour, some other time the gentleman from Westmoreland, perhaps tomorrow or perhaps Wednesday might be heard.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland withdraw his request?

Mr. POSTA. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman and the Chair thanks the Minority Leader.

SENATE

TUESDAY, February 22, 1949.

The Senate met at 10:30 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JOHN B. WILLIAMS offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank Thee for all those through whom Thou hast brought deliverance and hope to mankind. For the wisdom that cometh from above, that in the hour of human need Thou hast raised up men to lead the way with courage and confidence. So we bless Thee for the great things Thou hast done and are doing for the children of men. When we consider the days of old, the years of ancient times, we give Thee special praise for the wonderful grace and virtue manifested in all those, Thy children, who have been the lights of the world in their several generations.

We thank Thee for Moses, who answered the challenge in the days of the Pharaohs, for Martin Luther at the time the church needed a reformation, and especially for George Washington, the father of our country, whose birthday we honor today. We are grateful for giving him to be leader and commander of the people; for vouchsafing to him victory over kings, and for bestowing upon him many excellent gifts.

We thank Thee for inclining the hearts of men in Congress assembled for wise choices and for granting them vision of the days to come; for a settled Constitution, and for equal laws; for freedom to do that which is right, the liberty to say the truth; for the spread of knowledge everywhere among us, and for the preservation of the faith, we bless and magnify Thy Holy name, humbly beseeching Thee to accept our sacrifice of thanks and praise.

We thank Thee that in the dark hour of our national life Thou didst raise up Thy servant, the First President of the United States to be a leader and deliverer.

Help us to keep in memory his exalted patriotism, his official integrity and his wise statesmanship. May these qualities be incentives and influences that shall be exerted upon generations to come. Amen.

REPORT FROM JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

Mr. SNOWDEN. Mr. President, on behalf of the Joint State Government Commission, I desire to submit the following report.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Harrisburg, February 22, 1949.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

On behalf of the Joint State Government Commission, I have the honor to transmit herewith a Report of the Joint State Government Commission, February 1949, dealing with "Highways, A Proposed Administrative and Financial Program."

Copies of this report for distribution to the members of the Senate have been delivered to the office of the President pro tempore of the Senate.

Respectfully submitted,

WELDON B. HEYBURN, Chairman.

The PRESIDENT. The communication will be noted in the Journal and the report will be printed in full in the Appendix.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. LORD, JR., asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LORD. Mr. President, during the last two years the present Administration, under the leadership of Governor Duff and Charlie R. Barber, Secretary of the Department of Welfare, and with the support of the General Assembly, has embarked on a mental health program which has made a great advance in this field in the Commonwealth. During that period of time comprehensive further studies were made in an effort to correct many of the unfortunate conditions which previously had existed.

In presenting this bill we will have taken a long step forward in our determination to reduce, so far as medically possible, mental illness and the results that sometime flow from such affliction.

This bill provides for the creation and administration of the Eastern Pennsylvania Psychiatric Institute in Philadelphia. It is the result of a prolonged study by the Governor, the Secretary of Welfare, the officers, deans and psychiatrists of the five medical schools located in the eastern part of the State, and represents the combined thoughts of the leaders in this field of medicine.

It is not to be merely another mental hospital. It recognizes the fact that mental illness is a disease which can be cured if diagnosed correctly and treated immediately and properly. Its studies will be directed at acquiring new and helpful information. Its functions will be research, prevention and teaching. Its courses will instruct State hospital doctors and others throughout the Commonwealth. It will be the means of improving the condition of mental patients all over the State.

But, more than this, will be its benefits as applied to children. We have all been familiar with terrible tragedies occurring throughout the State and Nation by juveniles afflicted with an abnormal mental condition. If such cases had been recognized and treated in a proper way, either by curing them or by isolating them from contacts with the public, these tragedies could have been averted. When you consider that ordinarily a child's mental and nervous future is largely made or broken before the age of ten, it can be seen how tremendously important the bill is. It would then be possible for parents in the State to have the necessary tests made so that a complete diagnosis can be furnished and a report given to them as to how their child can be restored to mental health and a normal and happy life.

It is intended to introduce a companion bill to the present one for the purpose of turning over the Western Psychiatric Institute to a board of trustees to be operated at the University of Pittsburgh for the same purpose and training as outlined in the present bill.

These two great institutes, to study the causes, prevention and cure of mental disorders, will place Pennsylvania in the fore-front of all the States of the Union in the program of dealing with the enormously important question of mental illness.

The effect of these institutes will be to put the emphasis on prevention and cure, rather than custodial care for those suffering from mental illness, because unless this great problem is met head-on for the purpose of restoring to health those suffering from mental illness, it will mean that the Commonwealth every year will be building a vast new number of new hospitals merely for stowing them away, instead of restoring them to their families, to society, and to useful lives.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. LORD, JR. read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 349, entitled:

An Act establishing within the limits of Philadelphia, the Eastern Pennsylvania Psychiatric Institute, as a State institution; providing for a board of trustees and a medical advisory board therefor; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Property and Supplies, the Department of Welfare, the board of trustees and the medical advisory board and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. CROWE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 350, entitled:

An Act to amend section seven hundred twenty of the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by changing the period for field trials.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

Mr. BLASS read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 351, entitled:

An Act to amend sections eight hundred sixty-eight and eight hundred sixty-nine of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872) entitled "An act to consolidate amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth" further regulating the use and possession of certain containers.

Which was committed to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. DONLAN read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 352, entitled:

An Act providing for a two-platoon system for firemen employed and paid by cities of the second class A and fixing the maximum hours of service in any one day or week for such platoons with certain exceptions.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. PEELOR read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 353, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1110), entitled "An act defining and regulating certain installment sales of motor vehicles; prescribing the conditions under which such sales may be made and regulating the financing thereof; regulating and licensing persons engaged in the business of making or financing such sales; prescribing the form, contents and effect of instruments used in connection with such sales and the financing thereof; prescribing certain rights and obligations of buyers, sellers, persons financing such sales and others; limiting incidental charges in connection with such instruments and fixing maximum interest rates for delinquencies, extensions and loans; regulating insurance in connection with such sales; regulating reposessions, redemptions, resales and deficiency judgments and the rights of parties with respect thereto; authorizing extensions, loans and forbearances related to such sales; authorizing investigations and examinations of persons engaged in the business of making or financing such sales; prescribing penalties and repealing certain acts," by further prescribing the form and contents of contracts used in connection with such sales and the financing thereof; by further regulating reposessions, redemptions, resales and deficiency judgments and the rights of parties with respect thereto.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. WOLFE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 354, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies for use at the Shamokin State Hospital within the Department of Welfare, for the construction of an additional wing to the main building thereof, the construction, reconstruction and improvement of existing facilities and for the payment of the costs incidental thereto.

Which was committed to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MALLERY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, according to the figures of the National Safety Council, there were 198,700 persons killed in the year 1948 in accidents in the United States. The same report states there were 10,300,000 persons injured during the year 1948, and that all of these accidents caused disabilities extending beyond the day of the accident, and no first aid or minor injury cases are included. Property losses resulting from the accidents above mentioned amounted to about $7,200,000,000; this includes wage losses of $2,550,000,000; medical expenses of $450,000,000; overhead cost of insurance of $1,100,000,000; property damage and motor vehicle accidents of $1,100,000,000; property loss in fires of $711,000,000; and the indirect costs of occupational accidents of $1,300,000,000.

Mr. President, this is most significant. Accidents were the fourth most important cause of death; the only cases with more deaths were heart disease, cancer, and cerebral hemorrhage. Among males alone in recent years, only two causes, heart disease and cancer, rank above accidents as the cause of death.

While our Commonwealth, I am pleased to state, is in the forefront in the drive to reduce accidents, we do not want to leave anything undone.

Therefore, Mr. President, I rise in place, and present to the Chair a bill creating the Pennsylvania Public Safety Commission as a permanent independent administrative commission.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. MALLERY, STEVENSON and SNOWDEN read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 355, entitled:

An Act creating the Pennsylvania Public Safety Commission as a permanent independent administrative commission; providing for the appointment of a director of Public Safety; setting forth the powers and duties of the commission and the director, defining the scope of existing safety agencies and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Messrs. STIEFEL and CHAPMAN read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 356, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the University of Pennsylvania Episcopal Hospital, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. LANE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 357, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 594), entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways; authorizing their construction, maintenance, and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions; limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways; conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities, persons, associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways; and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act," by adding a new route in Washington County.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. ROSENFELD from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 265, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 1043) entitled "An act establishing a public school employee's retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employees, defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain said funds; imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employees; exempting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties" by requiring the retirement board to submit annual statements to contributors.

He also, from the Committee on State Government, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 324, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the sixth day of May, one thousand nine hundred nine (P. L. 433) entitled "An act fixing the salary of the reporter of the decisions of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, and of his assistant," by increasing the salaries provided by the act.

Mr. TARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. TARR from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 5, entitled:

An Act to further amend paragraph (j) of section fourteen hundred two of the act approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine, (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions and officers, fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined" by restricting the application of certain provisions.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. FRAZIER from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 153, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission to accept on behalf of the Commonwealth certain real estate comprising the Crispin Cemetery in Philadelphia, and providing for its restoration and maintenance as an historical shrine.

RESOLUTION No. 21 REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. PECHAN from the Committee on State Government, to which was referred resolution offered by Messrs. TALLMAN and WADE, on February 15, 1949, reported the same without amendment as follows, and laid on the table in accordance with the rules:

APPOINTMENT OF A COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE PROPOSED SALE OF THE WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA TUBERCULOSIS SANATORIUM AT BUTLER TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

In the Senate, February 15, 1949.

Whereas, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania under the General State Authority built the Western Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Butler, Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, The said institution was planned for providing treatment for, and to accommodate, five hundred fifty persons suffering from tuberculosis; and

Whereas, The said institution cost the tax payers of this Commonwealth in excess of $2,500,000; and

Whereas, The said institution, prior to its completion, was taken over by the Federal Government during the war and used as a hospital for veterans suffering from mental ailments; and

Whereas, It is now suggested that the institution be sold to the United States Government at about sixty per cent of its cost; and

Whereas, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is in dire need of having this institution for the care of its own mental or tuberculosis patients; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the President pro tempore of the Senate appoint a committee of seven Senators to examine the facts, circumstances, advantages and disadvantages involved in the proposed sale by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of the Western Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Butler, Pennsylvania, to the United States Government; and, be it further

Resolved, That the said Senate committee make a report to the Senate of its findings and recommendations at the earliest possible time.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS THE SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I regret that in a heated discussion this morning with Mr. Miller, an incident occurred that I deeply regret, and I take this means of apologizing and I hope Mr. Miller will accept my apology.

CALENDAR

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 65, as follows:

An Act to further amend section one of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred seven (P. A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 156, as follows:

An Act to repeal the act approved the twenty-third day of May one thousand eight hundred ninety-three (P. L. 112) entitled "An Act to prohibit the use of any adulteration or imitation of dairy products in any charitable or penal institution being supplementary to an act entitled 'An act for the protection of the public health and to prevent adulteration of dairy products and fraud in the sale thereof' approved May twenty-one Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five"

Section 1 The act approved the twenty-third day of May one thousand eight hundred ninety-three (P. L. 112) entitled "An act to prohibit the use of any adulteration or imitation of dairy products in any charitable or penal institution being supplementary to an act entitled 'An act for the protection of the public health and to prevent adulteration of dairy products and fraud in the sale thereof' approved May twenty-one Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five" is hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Senator Scarlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Chester permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCARLETT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, will the Senator from Chester tell us whether this is an Oleo bill or not.

Mr. SCARLETT. Mr. President, this bill is simply to take off any restrictions on margarine for penal institutions and the different state institutions.

Mr. HALUSKA. Under this bill, penal institutions, hospitals and so on will be permitted to use Oleo, is that correct?

Mr. SCARLETT. That is correct.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, why not make this bill applicable to all the people, restaurants, hotels, and what not? Why pick on hospitals,

Mr. SCARLETT. Mr. President, this bill only applies to institutions.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I can not see any reason for passing this measure. If the bill is good, it should apply to all of the people, if it is bad why should it apply to the sick people, It will make them sicker.

Mr. President, I really think we are off on the wrong foot. I see no reason for it. Of course I realize that the Metropolitan cities are now going on record to permit the use of Oleo in hospitals. The next move will be to permit the use of Oleo in restaurants, hotels, and every other place.

I am going to ask my colleagues to vote no, on this legislation.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—49

Barr, Barrett, Berger, Blass, Chapman, Crowe, Dent, Diehm, DiSilvestro, Doehla, Donlan, Farrell, Frazier,	Geltz, Hare, Holland, Homsher, Kephart, Lane, Leader, Letzler, Lord, Mahany, Mallery, McPherson, Jr.,	Meade, Neff, Pechan, Peelor, Robinson, Rosenfeld, Ruth, Scarlett, Snowden, Stevenson, Stiefel, Tallman,	Tarr, Taylor, Toole, Wade, Wagner, Walker, Watkins, Watson, Wolfe, Wood, L. INTERROGATION

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate the Majority Leader.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in order that I may know how many Members on this side of the House I am at liberty to excuse, I would like to have the Majority Leader request leave of absence for such Members of his delegation as will not be here, or announce to the House how many Members he will have on the floor of the House tomorrow because I would like to excuse as many men over here as he excuses over there.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery Mr. Brunner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. The gentleman, I presume, has heard the general tenor of the question which I have propounded to him.

Mr. BRUNNER. I think I have, Mr. Speaker. If the gentleman means how many Members will be on this side of the House tomorrow, I will be in a position to tell him tomorrow. As to his desire to excuse the Members on his side of the House, he has my assurance that I will not question any excuses which he gives to those Members.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman and regret his inability to give me a more definite report as to the soldiers under his direction.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. PFAFF asked an obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

Mr. ROSEN asked an obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

INTERROGATION

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate the Majority Leader.

Mr. Speaker, various authority bills have been dumped into Committee and reported on the floor of the House. He have not had the opportunity to examine them, and I would like to ask what provision is made for minority representation in the various Authorities that it is proposed to establish.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to appear or sound evasive in my reply. I will state as a general proposition that in respect of form, the form of these two bills follows the form of the previous bill in 1935, which was the Authority bill, with which the gentleman is familiar.

The General State Authority bill provides as members the Governor, the Secretary of Property and Supplies, the Secretary of Internal Affairs, the Auditor General, the State Treasurer, the Speaker and the President pro-tem. of the Senate; and in addition to those seven members, the Governor, the Speaker and the President pro-tempore of the Senate are given the right to appoint one member each. With regard to the bridge and highway authority, I believe the Secretary of Property and Supplies is not a member of it, and in his place the Secretary of Highways is substituted, and that follows the same pattern which I have outlined for the General State Authority—a total of ten.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

I now wish to state to the Majority Leader that on the basis of his statement the bills are not satisfactory to the minority. We recommend to the Majority Leader that he have the bills re-referred to Committee, and that they be amended in such a way as to give the Minority a larger representation.

The Majority Leader very well understands that the Authority bills will of course pass, but that there could conceivably be considerable debate and disagreement considering the appropriation bills necessary in financing the Authority.

We do not wish to appear arbitrary; we wish to cooperate but we feel that we are entitled to minority representation from the majority. In view of the fact that all of these appropriation bills give us an opportunity to insist upon a fair consideration, I strongly recommend that these bills be re-referred to Committee and arrangements be made for minority representation.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman suggests a motion that I am most reluctant to make, and that I am not inclined to make, for this reason; the bills have been reported out of Committee today. They cannot progress farther than through the first reading on this week's calendar. As the gentleman knows, these bills can be amended on Monday, at which time they are on second reading.

The proposition which the gentleman has submitted is new. It does not mean that the bills have to be re-referred to have the gentleman's proposition worked upon and considered. I assure him that thought will be given to it, and at the earliest possible moment he will be informed as to the reaction to the suggestion or request which he has made.

Under the circumstances, therefore, particularly since the set-up in these two bills follow so closely—as a matter of fact, I am informed that they are exact copies or duplicates in respect to personnel of the provisions of the 1935 Authority Law, I feel that the bills should remain on the calendar, but that the suggestion be given the fullest consideration.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate what the Majority Leader has said, but he will understand that if these bills are to be amended it must necessarily be as a result of conference.

As for the bills themselves, it is not necessary for the Majority Leader to confer. When it comes to appropriation bills it would be advisable in the interests of harmony in this House, in the interests of the general program, for someone speaking for this administration now and then to consult a minority that has 91 votes in this House. I think that the Majority Leader understands very well what I have in mind.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I think I have a right at this time to assure the gentleman of the continued cooperation by the majority of this House with the minority of this House. I know of no single instance, where knowingly the rights of the minority were overridden thus far this session, where the Minority Leader and Majority Leader knew of those things in advance and had an opportunity for a full discussion.

Therefore, we submit the idea that we allow the bills to remain on the calendar, assuring the Minority Leader and for that matter those who serve with him on the other side, that even though these bills duplicate the personnel set-up by the 1935 Authority Law, which after all must have been acceptable over there at that time, that we will give due consideration to the suggestion which the gentleman has made, and when I say "due consideration" I mean prompt consideration.

in the same manner as provided by the election laws in the case of substituted nominations where vacancies happen or exist after the date of a primary election and of political bodies by nomination papers The officers elected at such special election shall hold their office from a date to be designated by the court when the borough government shall be organized until the first Monday of January following the municipal election next succeeding occurring at least ninety days after the issuance of the final decree establishing such new borough at which time the officers of said borough chosen in accordance with section eight hundred five of this act at such municipal election shall enter upon their respective terms of office [and the borough government shall be duly organized under this act]

Section 805 Election of Borough Officers When Boroughs Created Etc. Whenever a borough is incorporated and a special election is ordered by the court for the election of borough officers the officers so elected shall hold their office from a date designated by the court until the first Monday of January following the municipal election next succeeding occurring at least ninety days after the issuance of the final decree establishing the new borough Whenever a borough is incorporated under the provisions of sections 201 to 211 inclusive of this act or whenever two or more boroughs are consolidated under the provisions of sections 215 to 222 of this act or whenever a borough is created from a city of the third class under the provisions of sections 225 to 229 of this act the officers of the borough provided for in section 807 of this act shall be elected at the appropriate municipal election as provided in said sections and such officers shall take office on the first Monday of January succeeding such election

At any such election if the borough is not divided into wards of the seven councilmen to be elected three or four councilmen as the case may be shall be elected for terms of two years each and three or four councilmen as the case may be shall be elected for terms of four years each to coincide with the number of councilmen elected at such election in existing boroughs under the provisions of section 810 of this act

In the case of the consolidation of two or more boroughs into one borough or the creation of a borough from a city of the third class and where in either event two councilmen are to be elected from each ward for a term of two years and one councilman shall be elected from each ward for a term of four years

In all boroughs coming within the provisions of this section three auditors shall be elected one for a term of two years one for a term of four years and one for a term of six years

All other officers of the borough shall be elected at such election for terms of two or four years as the case may be to coincide with the terms of officers elected under this act at such election in the existing boroughs

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall apply to boroughs heretofore incorporated that are now governed as before their incorporation

And said bill having ben read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 442, as follows:

An Act making it lawful for the Board of Directors of any railroad company to elect a chairman of said Board in such manner and with such powers and duties and compensation including pensions as may be fixed by said Board making it lawful for the Board of Directors of any such company to select from among their number or from the stockholders a president and one or more vice-presidents in such manner and with such powers and duties and compensation including pensions as may be fixed by said Board making it lawful for the Board of Directors of any such company to provide for the number of Directors of any such company not less than three and providing for the effectiveness of action taken by any such Board in accordance herewith without further corporate action and notwithstanding any contrary or inconsistent provision and any previously enacted Act or in any existing charter or by-laws of any such company and for other purposes

Section 1 It shall be lawful for the Board of Directors of any railroad company incorporated under or by any general or special Act of Assembly of this Commonwealth to elect from among their number at such time or times and in such manner as the said Board may determine a chairman of said Board who shall have such powers and duties as may from time to time be prescribed by resolution of said Board and who shall be entitled to receive for discharging his duties as such chairman such compensation including pensions as may be fixed by resolutions of said Board

Section 2 It shall be lawful for the Board of Directors of any railroad company incorporated under or by any general or special Act of Assembly of this Commonwealth to select from among their number or from the body of the stockholders of said company at such time or times and in such manner as said Board may determine a president and one or more vice-presidents of said company who if selected from among the Directors may continue to serve as Director or Directors or who if selected from the body of the stockholders may but need not serve as Director or Directors and who in any case shall have such powers and duties and receive such compensation including pensions as may be prescribed by resolution of said Board

Section 3 It shall be lawful for the Board of Directors of any railroad company incorporated under or by any general or special Act of Assembly of this Commonwealth to provide for the number of Directors of said Company but said number shall be not less than three

Section 4 Action of the Board of Directors taken in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be effective without further corporate action and notwithstanding any contrary or inconsistent provision in any special or general Act of Assembly of this Commonwealth or in any charter or by-laws of any such railroad company

Section 5 This Act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Cameron please inform us of the reason for this bill?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, the reasons for this bill are several. Most of the railroads operating in the state of Pennsylvania were chartered prior to the time of our present Constitution in 1874. There are administrative set-ups provided by the charter, and additional administrative set-ups provided by numerous special acts relating only to railway companies. This bill is designed to bring in line railway companies with second class business corporations, as far as the directors administrative set-up is concerned.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, is it not possible that these individual railroads could in their own corporate structure take care of the changes that are proposed in this bill?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, no, because of the restrictions which require legislation, which are contained in special acts relating to railroads alone. I would refer the gentleman to the Act of 1869 which limits the number of directors of any railway company to a maximum of seventeen. This bill would remove that restriction and put on merely a minimum requirement of three. I might also state that the powers of the officers of railway companies are provided for in the Act of 1849, which provides for presidents only. This bill would bring in line the second class corporations with the railroads, and also give them the same latitude to conduct their internal affairs as authorized for other second class business corporations.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, is it not usual among second class corporations to select among their directors vice-presidents of corporations who would have all the powers of a board of directors, should they themselves desire those powers?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, it is in the present Second Class Corporation Law that any officer of a corporation may be selected outside of the board of directors from among the stockholders.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, and would receive the same compensation, including pensions, set-up under these railroad acts?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I am sorry, Mr. Speaker, I did not quite get that question.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I notice that in section two it provides for the selection of vice-presidents who may be selected from among the stockholders; that such a vice-president shall have the powers and duties and receive such compensation, including pensions, as may be prescribed by resolution of said board?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, that is right; that is the same provision which is in the present Second Class Corporation Law.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, would it be possible for one not selected as a member of the board of directors—

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I do not understand the gentleman.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, under the proposed section, would it not be possible for one selected as a member of the board of directors to be chosen because of some family affiliation or dynasty or whatever you want to call it, to receive compensation and pensions paid for by the stockholders and the customers of the railroad?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, that is a provision which could also be possible under the present Second Class Corporation Law, that the stockholders can always restrict.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, but we as public users of railroads would be indirectly paying the compensation or expense for a man who is not a member of the board of directors?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, there are additional provisions that protect the passengers of the railroad and the stockholders, and it would be their privilege to go to the Public Utility Commission or to the Interstate Commerce Commission to prevent such abuse.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, in section four I note it states that the action of the board of directors taken in accordance with the provisions of this proposed act shall be effected without any further action, and notwithstanding any contrary or inconsistent provision in any special or general Act of Assembly of this Commonwealth, or in any charter or bylaw of such railroad company. Now, what is intended by this section?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, it is intended by this section, as I have previously stated, that most of your railroads now operating in the state of Pennsylvania were chartered prior to the time of the present Constitution. In order to get any latitude in their administration they have not been able to do it by legislative action heretofore, but only by means of amending their charter, which is a much more difficult procedure. This is intended to eliminate the necessity of amending their charter, and you can bring them within the jurisdiction of your general corporation law.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman not think that it would be more of a democratic action to amend the charter and bylaws on the part of the stockholders of the corporation, to give the stockholders an opportunity to do these things, which we as legislators propose to do, but which may not be to the liking of the majority of the stockholders of the railroads?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, that can always be controlled by you stockholders.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, but we as a legislative body are saying to you "you do this whether you like it or not."

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that is in the intent of the bill.

Mr. SCHMIDT. That is all.

Mr. Speaker, I feel that we as a legislative body should not endeavor to read into the corporate structure of a corporation that has stockholders a provision which would put upon the stockholders and upon us as the traveling public an item of expense that the stockholders themselves may not desire.

We are also going out of the usual manner of selecting officers of a corporation by permitting the selection of a member of the corporation not a member of board of directors,—but an executive vice-president who is other than a member of the board of directors. I say that if such a provision is necessary, leave it to the individual railroad corporations to do and not to us as legislators, endeavoring to force this upon them.

- (e) Arrange for religious services or attendance at churches

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise for the purpose of making some brief comments on this bill.

First of all we want to publicly express our appreciation to the Majority Floor Leader of this House, who when asked to postpone action on this bill because of matters coming to our attention, gladly consented to do so, and we have tried in cooperation with the Majority Floor Leader to meet some of the objections that were raised by the American Camping Association, the Allegheny and Pennsylvania Sections in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This is not an organization, of course, or a Department of the Commonwealth, but it is operating camps, supervising and furnishing personnel to all of the camps throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It is purely a voluntary association and has for many, many years been in the field of camping for children.

First of all we were somewhat concerned with the word "underprivileged," which appears on page 6, line 3 of this bill. We believe and the American Camping Association believes also that that word is highly undesirable for it may place a stigma on the children who go to this camp. We try to avoid a situation that we have now by placing a stigma upon the children who might be termed as underprivileged, because it is very difficult, from the standpoint of our interpretation, to define the word "underprivileged." We are hoping that the word "underprivileged" will be lost in the content of the act, so that there will not be a stigma placed upon the children such as we place sometimes upon the people who are forced to receive relief and they are known thereafter as "relievers." We do hope that those who administer this very laudable program will see that that word is lost in the whole content of this bill.

Secondly, there is some opposition, and I think rightfully so, in the matter of having children in large barracks for the purpose of camping. That is not the ideal situation. Camping experiences at its best is a small camp near the neighborhood of a child, where he can live with his fellow campers in a small tent or some small house. We are somewhat skeptical of this idea of regimentation of children in large barracks, which could become barracks containing at least ten thousand children.

We have tried to do something about this. At first we thought that money might be spent fairly, but because many of these camps are operated by sectarian institutions, under the law, they cannot, of course, receive money from the Commonwealth. We shall watch this experiment; we hope it will prove worthy of the name that is given to it.

There is another suggestion, Mr. Speaker, those who have had considerable experience in camping should be selected to advise the Department in regard to the matter, but we do not feel it is necessary to state such a proposition in the bill. Therefore, we have suggested that the Department consult those who have had experience in this field and work out something whereby the Commonwealth will feel justly proud of this very, very fine experiment.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Brown, for his remarks.

It is true that to a certain extent we did go over this measure in order to clarify it and to take from it anything that might be considered to be a stigma. The word

"undeprieviled" was ascertained to be the only word which in my opinion, and I trust Mr. Brown's, had a significance, and certainly could not be classified as a stigma. It merely separated from the children as a whole those children who have all the privileges that society, wealth, and position can give them. It separates from those children those whom we seek to help by this measure. It is not a stigma, therefore; it is not in the same category as the "reliefers," nor is it in the same category where over one hundred years ago in Pennsylvania paupers were compelled to wear a "P" on their sleeve. We think this is a very forward step, a forward looking program.

The facilities here were intended to take care of army troops. It is a vast reservation of thousands of acres. The children will be there for shelter purposes only in these barracks, during their stay at the camp, these twenty-five hundred children the first year, and five thousand children the second year. For their fifteen day stay they will be allowed to participate in all kinds of athletic activities; they will be awakened at a prescribed time in the morning, and I trust that they will be put to bed at a prescribed time in the evening. That is the only regimentation of any sort. They are free to go on the reservation as they see fit. They will be supervised by the most skillful people available to this state.

On Sundays they will have an opportunity to attend church services of their own faith, of their own choosing. I think this is a forward step. It is true it is the first step by this state and perhaps by any other state to my knowledge. Perhaps in a few years from now we will be in a position to acknowledge that a good job has been done, and that additional funds will be made available for the extension of this program.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I ask the indulgence of the House for a moment in a matter which escaped my attention, but I think we ought to have the record straight.

There has been some criticism of this bill because it says on page 6, line 5, that parochial school children shall be entitled to the same privileges as the children from public and private schools. The question has arisen as to whether or not we are transgressing upon our constitutional question as to the separation between church and state.

It is my candid opinion that this has nothing to do with the tearing down of that barrier which we know exists, and rightfully so, insofar as the separation of the church and schools is concerned. This is just as to how the children shall be selected; this has nothing to do with any such money going into the operation of any parochial school.

I wanted to make that clear because there has been a question raised in that respect and I believe that we ought to have that clear on the record.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I listened to the explanation by the distinguished Majority Leader on this bill. It is entirely a worthy and laudable bill.

I just wish to point out to the Members of the House that in Philadelphia we have "Camp Happy," a city operated camp. Unfortunately, in the operation of that camp political consideration comes first, and individuals who are assigned to the camp have to ordinarily be sponsored by some political person.

I am hopeful that here in Pennsylvania, in the administration of this camp program, this situation will not arise. I am confident that the administration in the conduct of the affairs in regard to this camp will not be, as they have been in Philadelphia, partisan. I feel with that in mind that we in Philadelphia will wholeheartedly support this worthwhile measure and bill.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I reply briefly to the gentleman?

What he has said as to Philadelphia is a conclusion and not a fact, and he has a right to assume that as far as the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is concerned, partisanship will not enter into it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have advised the Members of the Democratic caucus to vote for this measure. To vote for this measure, because a vote against it would be absolutely misconstrued.

The bill is tending in the wrong direction. There is no way of defining an underprivileged child. The heir to millions, divorced from parental care and love, in the hands of hired nurses, is an underprivileged child. The dirty-faced boy from an attic with patched clothes, surrounded by parental love at home is a privileged child. There is no way of selecting out of a mass of, what is it, fifty thousand, two hundred thousand, twenty-five thousand, a particular twenty-five hundred or five thousand that are the most underprivileged. On what are we embarking? A state subsidized recreational program of twenty-five hundred? A state subsidized recreational program of five thousand? A state subsidized recreational program of ten thousand?

The state of Pennsylvania, Mr. Speaker, is not a partial parent; the state of Pennsylvania's heart beats equally for every child, and it is wrong in principle for our state to say to this child, "The summer camp is for you" but to say to the other child "Sorry, no summer camp for you."

I can only echo what the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown has said. We will try this thing. I am confident that it is not in line with modern camping practice. I believe it is not in line with child psychology and I believe that it is wrong to handle this problem of recreation at the state level; that it should be handled at the local level. Nevertheless, I say, because of the distinguished sponsorship at the other end of this House, because of the interest the Governor of this Commonwealth has evinced in this project, because of the support given it by people who have not thought this thing through, that it is necessary to give it a tryout. I want to say on the floor of this House that I am confident after we have given it a trial we will return the supervised recreation to the local level and will cease to try it at the state level.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

RESOLUTION

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Messrs. JUMP, BEDNAREK and ROBBINS offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 22, 1949.

Whereas, We are today observing the two hundred and seventeenth anniversary of the birth of him who not only led the patriots of his day through a successful revolution against tyranny and oppression, but triumphantly builded this Nation amid an angry conflict of passion and prejudice.

His genius in military affairs begat the Nation, but his greatest service to mankind was the holding together of the feeble life that marked its inauguration as an independent power among the governments of the world.

The same high degree of courage and perseverance that inspired the half-frozen patriots at Valley Forge to carry on in the face of starvation and death, met and conquered every political disease that threatened the life of this new child in the world's family of nations, and made its growth sure and its development certain.

The days that marked his military service to his Country were constantly fraught with danger for all, food was scarce, property was insecure, and death lurked everywhere; but the courage of this man dispelled fear, inspired a patriotism that laughed at disaster, gave birth to a faith that was unconquerable, and won for him the love and devotion of all his countrymen.

During the years of his presidency, his courage met a greater task than Valley Forge, but with that same perseverance and devotion to duty, he carried on against enemies who sought to drag him from the heights, and despoil the Nation for their personal gain.

Amidst the innumerable pages of history, we find none other whose courage and genius contributed as much to free our land from bondage and elevate it to the rank of an independent and sovereign power.

George Washington was the noblest figure that ever stood in the forefront of a Nation's life; therefore be it

Resolved, That as no statue could ever reflect his stature, no memorial could ever reflect our memory of him. It is deep, respectful, filled with owe, and at once frightening but reassuring. Frightening in the realization that the destiny of a nation could rest upon the already burdened shoulders of one man. But reassuring in that, in accepting this destiny and in fulfilling his own, Washington set the pattern for men of America in every generation. While he can never be equalled, his example of life has been an inspiration to and the guiding light of every American who has achieved greatness in sacrifice to his country. Because Washington lived, America will always have great men.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. FELTON offered a resolution which was read, considered and unaimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 22, 1949.

During the period of a legislative session, when the time and attention of Members of the General Assembly is preoccupied with the seriousness of affairs of state, the occasions in the private lives of individual Members, which otherwise would stand out, are too often overlooked. Among such occasions are birthdays and wedding anniversaries.

Yesterday, the 21st of February, was the 21st wedding anniversary of a Member of this House, as well as the 19th birthday of his daughter, Florence Patricia.

Honorable Edward J. Driscoll, one of the Members from the Tenth District of Philadelphia, although a freshman among us at this session, has already shown his capabilities as a law maker, as he has heretofore shown his outstanding ability as a committeeman of the Fifteenth Ward of Philadelphia, and in his personal life as a very, very good husband and father. He is a life-long resident of Philadelphia, and, all in all, a worth-while individual and public servant; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby tenders its congratulations, although a bit be-lated, to Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll on the occasion of their 21st wedding anniversary and to their daughter Florence Patricia on the occasion of her 19th birthday, falling as it does on that same day; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent by the Chief Clerk of the House to Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll and to their daughter, Florence Patricia, at their residence 872 North 27th Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Driscoll.

Mr. DRISCOLL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and Members of the House.

RESOLUTION

Mr. DeLONG offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. OLSEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to state that the first President of the United States was not George Washington; he was John Hanson of Delaware—not President, he was Provincial President, is that right? John Hanson was the first Provincial President of the United States, elected by the people of the country at that time, is that not correct?

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that George Washington was the first President.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, we doubt the ability of the Speaker to re-write history. Now, the first Provincial President, who anteceded George Washington undoubtedly was a Swede. You've got to hand that much to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Olsen. The first Provincial President was a Swede; Olsen is a Sewe—

Mr. OLSEN. Mr. Speaker, I beg the gentleman's pardon, I am a Norwegian.

The SPEAKER. The Chair apologizes to both the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Anderws, and the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Olsen. Does the gentleman from Allegheny desire recognition?

Mr. OLSEN. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I wish to say that there is a fine bunch of fellows in this House. I like them all on both sides.

REPORT OF JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

Mr. ROYER presented a report on behalf of the Joint State Government Commission, February 1949, dealing with "Highways, a Proposed Administrative and Financial Program." Copies of this report have been delivered to the office of the Chief Clerk and are available to the Members.

(For report, see Appendix)

SENATE MESSAGES

HOUSE BILL CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 65.

An Act to further amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred seven (P. L. 292), entitled "An act to provide for the protection of insane persons, feeble-minded persons, and epileptics, and the appointment of a guardian for the said insane persons, feeble-minded persons, and epileptics, unable to care for their own property; authorizing the guardian to support the wife and children of the said insane persons, feeble-minded persons, and epileptics; defining the powers of the guardian, and authorizing the sale of real estate of the ward," permitting petitions to be presented to the president judge of the court of common pleas when such courts are not in session.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same without amendment.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate:

Senate Bills for concurrence 96 and 156.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. VARNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Wednesday, February 23, 1949 at 10:00 a. m.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 12:38 p. m.) the House adjourned.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1949.

138th of the General Assembly.

Vol. 31.

HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1949.

No. 18.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, February 23, 1949

The Senate met at 11:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JOHN B. WILLIAMS, offered the following prayer:

Oh God, though our moods vary and our feelings change, though we go from keenness to dullness, though our prayers have become too formal and seem dry and fruitless, save us, we pray Thee, from quitting and from despair. Show us that Thou art with us in the depths even as on the heights, and that Thou dost look upon the intention of heart and spirit rather than on emotion.

We thank Thee for the opportunity for honest work; help us that we may put forth our best efforts and earn what we need to keep us sound and whole. Give us joy in our tasks and a spirit of generosity and helpfulness toward other men who plan and labor with us. Show us how to lighten our interests and responsibilities.

May we not cherish our own narrow privileges and rights, but may we spend ourselves in devoted service to the good of all.

As we cherish freedom, may we restrain ourselves so that we do not interfere with the rights and privileges of our fellowman. As we cry for justice, help us practice fairplay in all our relations and activities. As we yearn for love to rule in this our land, may we be severe with our own faults and gentle with the failings of others. Make our thinking and our living be an active part of Thy saving truth. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. FARRELL, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CHAPMAN from the Committee on Labor and Industry, re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 263, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the title and the act, approved the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1161), entitled "An act to provide for the prompt, peaceful and just settlement of labor disputes between public utility employers engaged in furnishing electric, gas, water and steam heat services to the public and their employees which cause or threaten to cause strikes, lockouts, slowdowns or similar work stoppages and consequent interruptions in the supply of a public utility service on which a community served is so dependent that severe hardship would be inflicted on a substantial number of persons by a cessation of such service; providing procedures for the adjustment and settlement of such disputes; declaring that the public policy of the Commonwealth requires the continuation, without cessation, of such public utility services; and providing means, including regulations, affecting the rights, powers and privileges of employers and employees for the enforcement of such public policy, and providing penalties," by bringing within the provisions of this act public utility employers and employees engaged in furnishing certain transportation services.

RESOLUTION

SENATE RESOLUTION No 21 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call from the table for consideration at this time, Senate Resolution No. 21, reported from the Committee on State Government yesterday.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

APPOINTMENT OF A COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE
THE PROPOSED SALE OF THE WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA
TUBERCULOSIS SANATORIUM AT BUTLER TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

In the Senate, February 15, 1949.

Whereas, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania under the General State Authority built the Western Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Butler, Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, The said institution was planned for providing treatment for, and to accommodate, five hundred fifty persons suffering from tuberculosis; and

Whereas, The said institution cost the tax payers of this Commonwealth in excess of $2,500,000; and

Whereas, The said institution, prior to its completion, was taken over by the Federal Government during the war and used as a hospital for veterans suffering from mental ailments; and

Whereas, It is now suggested that the institution be sold to the United States Government at about sixty per cent of its cost; and

Whereas, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is in dire need of having this institution for the care of its own mental or tuberculosis patients; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the President pro tempore of the Senate appoint a committee of seven Senators to examine the facts, circumstances, advantages and disadvantages involved in the proposed sale by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of the Western Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Butler, Pennsylvania, to the United States Government; and, be it further

Resolved, That the said Senate committee make a report to the Senate of its findings and recommendations at the earliest possible time.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, February 23, 1949

The House met at 10:00 a. m.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend J. Creighton Christman, pastor of Zion Evangelical Congregational Church of Hazleton, Pa., a guest of the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Mikula, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Father of all men, were it not for our recognizing Thy power we would have no need of prayer; and were it not for Thy grace in Jesus Christ, we would not have hope in prayer. But knowing Thy will we pray that we might be courageous, and knowing Thy justice we pray we might be honest. Give us a mind to think straight, a heart to think right, a will to do without fear or favor. Through Jesus Christ, our Savior, Who died because He so lived. Amen.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. REESE and WILLIAMS

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 22

In the House of Representatives, February 22, 1949.

Whereas, Vast technological and scientific advances and improvements have been made during the past several decades in all branches of industry; and

Whereas, Such advances and improvements have been made in coal mining techniques as a result of which conditions in coal mines have changed radically particularly in so far as safety is concerned; and

Whereas, Coal mines and mining represent an industry vital to the economy of this Commonwealth; and

Whereas, Safety conditions in coal mines must be such as will protect the lives and insure the feeling of comparative security of the miners who work such mines; and

Whereas, The laws regulating coal mines and mining, especially as they relate to safety measures are antiquated and have not kept up with the changes resulting from such technological advances and the use of modern methods and machinery so that the lives and security of miners and indirectly the economy of the Commonwealth are endangered; now therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur) That twelve members of the General Assembly be named as a joint legislative committee to investigate conditions in the coal mines of this Commonwealth with particular regard to new mining techniques used therein and to safety measures in use or necessary because of such techniques, six members to be named from the Senate and six members to be named from the House of Representatives; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee shall have power to meet, hold hearings, and make investigations and studies. The committee shall report to the next session of the General Assembly and shall recommend legislation necessary to achieve the proper safety measures required by the use of modern mining techniques and machinery; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee created hereby shall have the power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting or commanding any proper person to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters with respect to such inquiry for and on behalf of the General Assembly and to procure such books, papers records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any proper person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before it.

Referred to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

By Mr. DeLONG (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 23.

In the House of Representatives, February 22, 1949.

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs), That concurrent resolution No. 5, approved the third day of April, 1947, (P. L. 1850), is hereby amended to read as follows:

Whereas, The Pennsylvania Roadside Council, wishing to cooperate in the nation-wide Blue Star Memorial Program sponsored by the National Council of State Garden Clubs, is desirous of recognizing and commemorating the splendid services and achievements of our sons and daughters who served in the Armed Forces of the United States in World War II; and

Whereas, It is fitting and appropriate that legislative recognition be accorded the services and sacrifices of citizens so valiantly rendered; and

Whereas, The State of New Jersey has designated one of its state highways leading to Easton, Pennsylvania, as New Jersey's link in this nation-wide program; therefore, be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs), That State Highway Route Number 22 from Easton to Harrisburg, the Pennsylvania Turnpike from its interchange nearest to Harrisburg to Irwin, Westmoreland County, State Highway Route Number 30 from Irwin to Pittsburgh, via the Penn-Lincoln Parkway, and State Highway Route Number 22 from Pittsburgh to the Pennsylvania-West Virginia State line, is designated as the Blue Star Drive as a memorial in commemoration of the services of the men and women of Pennsylvania who served in the Armed Forces of the United States in World War II; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Highways shall erect along said highways suitable tablets or markers and shall carry out suitable landscape development to perpetuate this resolution, but shall not replace or change the officially designated route number or name or marker thereof of any highway or turnpike hereby included as a part of such Blue Star Drive.

Referred to the Committee on Highways.

BILL SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 65.

An Act to further amend section one of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred seven (P. RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. PENGLASE offered the following resolution:

In The House of Representatives, February 23, 1949.

Whereas, Some years ago various groups of people in the City of Philadelphia decided something should be done to make their city more livable and as a result, definite long range plans were drawn to that end, which plans were so interesting and inspiring that enthusiasm became widespread and a demand arose for immediate action; and

Whereas, These enthusiasts inquired as to what could be done now. To which inquiry Mary Davis Gillies, Mc-

Call's Interior and Architecture editor replied—"Why not begin in your own back yards And everyone said, "Yes, why not?" and

Whereas, The City Planning Commission of Philadelphia and editor Gillies thereupon sat out to find a place to begin in converting ugly back yards into beautiful, usable and livable gardens. It was not long before they found a group of people living in the lower end of the 4000 block of North 7th Street and the lower end of the 4000 block of North Marshall Street, the yards of whose houses, backed up to each other, who were most eager to help in bringing about the desired transformation; and

Whereas, The result has now become history as "Yardville, U.S.A." with its story as to how twenty ugly, unimportant back yards were converted through the application of ideas, plans, a little money and cooperation into twenty beautiful, usable, livable gardens which have not only revolutionized the home life of the people living in the homes to which these gardens are connected, but also have become a joy and inspiration to all who see them; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby congratulates and expresses its appreciation to the Citizen's Council on City Planning; the City Planning Commission; the architect Oscar Stonorov and the planner Edmund Bacon, Mary Davis Gillies of McCall's Magazine, and all the people living in these houses and all others who contributed in any way to the beautification of this project—"Yardville, U.S.A." and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of this House send a copy of this resolution to the Council on City Planning, the City Planning Commission, the architect Oscar Stonorov, the planner Edmund Bacon, and to Mary Davis Gillies of McCall's Magazine.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. The Chair is requested to announce that there will be a caucus of the Democratic Members at 3:00 p. m. on Monday, February 28, in the old House Caucus Room.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. LEISEY and HARNEY offered the following resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted.

In the House of Representatives, February 23, 1949.

Henry M. Hoffner, Jr., a former Member of this House of Representatives, died at his home near West Chester, June 2, 1948.

Mr. Hoffner was born in Philadelphia, November 19, 1871. In the farming business since 1905 at his Bybrook Farm, he was widely known as a prominent dairyman.

He was a public-spirited citizen of his community and an indefatigable worker in his many endeavors. He was a member of Fernwood Lodge, No. 543, F. & A. M.; the Delaware County Horse Club; Goshen Grange; P. of H.; the Delaware County Quoit Club; and a Trustee of the Methodist Church of West Chester.

Mr. Hoffner served as a School Director and Supervisor in his township for many years—clear proof that his wisdom and abilities were appreciated and sought after in his community.

As a Representative during the 1935 session from the Eastern District of Chester County, he was conscientious and rendered valuable service not only to his district but also to his fellow Members of the General Assembly; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, That, in the passing of Henry M. Hoffner, Jr., his community and State have lost one who served them well; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House to his widow, Mary Elizabeth Atkins Hoffner, as evidence of the deep sympathy and sense of loss felt by the Members of this House.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. SNIDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, February 28, 1949 at 4:30 p. m.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 10:45 a. m.) the House adjourned.

SENATE

MONDAY, February 28, 1949

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JOHN B. WILLIAMS, offered the following prayer:

Eternal King, Father of all men, free us from every prejudice born of hate and fear and kept alive by ignorance and pride. Keep us humble to learn from the strange and unfamiliar, and never let us take cowardly refuge in half-truths and lies. Enrich our lives by the great thoughts and experiences of all peoples and countries.

Thou hast created in each one of us a throne for Thyself. Oh do Thou reign from it! Train our love and obedience that we may be wholly Thine. Grant, O God, that no thoughts of ours shall obscure Thy truth, no deed of ours oppose Thy will.

Increase among us, Our Master, all worthy plans and efforts to rebuild the structure of our world society on Thy sure foundations and to transform it into Thy Kingdom.

Give us the vision and courage to establish and maintain universal brotherhood and peace with all nations joined in love and lawfulness to foster the life more abundant for all men. Restore to us a belief in spiritual values and the dignity and worth of all Thy children.

Free us from all false teachings of the superiority of one group over another, and from all distrust and fear of each other. Help us provide for all men the opportunities for work and growth and a fair enjoyment of profits and benefits. Unite us in one continuous prayer and effort, that, under Thy leadership, we may make our world a place where fruitful industry, valiant truth, responsible freedom, creative love, and pure religion flourish and all men dwell as sons of God in harmony and order. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. WATKINS, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

THANKS OF SENATE EXTENDED TO THE RETIRING CHAPLAIN

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like at this time to convey to the gentleman who occupied the position of Senate Chaplain for the past semi-monthly period, the very deep appreciation of the Senate for his very lovely prayers. They have been an inspiration to each and every one of us, Reverend Williams, and we have enjoyed having you with us.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. LETZLER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LETZLER. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, Governor Duff in his message to the Joint Session of the General Assembly pointed out the necessity for providing help for the unfortunate child. He said: "Every crippled child should have the chance to become self-supporting and whole, and it is our obligation to see that they have this opportunity." We have noticed a tremendous increase in interest in the rehabilitation of handicapped children in recent years. There is one type of crippled child that has not equitably shared the advantages of this interest. The child born with a cleft palate has suffered serious neglect. Most persons have a relatively poor conception of this deformity and practically no insight into its personal and social significance. This physical deformity carries with it the penalty of feeling unfit, unneeded, unwanted. Most of these children have an unpleasant physical appearance; their hearing is sometimes defective; their health record is bad; they shy away from associating with people or in some cases they show some over-aggressive traits. Any hasty conclusion might hold that they are without assets and that they do not have the requirements for becoming happy, efficient personalities. I have personally seen such conclusions refuted by the results obtained in an integrated course of treatment. A careful study of the effects of sympathetic, intelligent, and imaginative care in cases of persons afflicted with cleft lip and/or cleft palate shows that their physical condition and their mental hygiene can be greatly improved and that they can be restored to a useful and happy life. There are more children born with cleft palate and harelip than most people realize. Studies made in our own Department of Health show that one cleft case occurs approximately in every 800 children born. In Pennsylvania in 1942 there were 245 children born with this deformity. A cleft palate person presents a series of complicated clinical problems. It requires a co-ordinated effort on the part of specialists employing surgery and/or prosthesis to accomplish total rehabilitation for the child with a cleft palate. Because of personal observation of some of the work done which has resulted in total rehabilitation of the cleft palate child, I feel that this service should be made available to the hundreds of children in Pennsylvania who are now unable to pay for treatment by private specialists. This can be done by the establishment of clinics at several points in the Commonwealth where we already have the professional talent required. I am happy to know that our Secretary of Health, Dr. Vaux, is cognizant of the great good that can be accomplished for these unfortunate children.

Mr. President I read in place and present to the chair the following Bill.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. LETZLER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 371, entitled:

An Act authorizing and directing the Department of Health to establish and maintain one or more clinics and diagnostic centers for the treatment and rehabilitation of children suffering from cleft lip, cleft palate, and associated abnormalities; and making appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare.

Mr. WATKINS read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 372, entitled:

An Act to further amend paragraph four of subsection A of section one thousand one of the act, approved the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 624), entitled "An act relating to the business of banking, and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations; providing for the organization of corporations with fiduciary powers, and banking corporations, with or without fiduciary powers, including the conversion of National banks into State banks, and for the licensing of private bankers; defining the rights, powers, duties, liabilities, and immunities of such corporations, of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business, with or without fiduciary powers, of private bankers, and of the officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, attorneys, and other employes of all such corporations or private bankers, or of affiliated corporations, associations, or persons; restricting the exercise of banking powers by any other corporation; association or person and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts, prothonotaries, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts," by further regulating the making of installment loans.

Which was committed to the Committee on Banking.

Mr. WAGNER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 376, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections one thousand two hundred fourteen and one thousand two hundred fifteen of the act approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," by providing for the employment of a supervising principal, granting certain powers, and defining his duties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 377, entitled:

An Act to amend section four hundred three of the act approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," by making further provision for the appointment of teachers.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

Messrs. HARE and WAGNER read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 378, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 2460), entitled "An act creating a joint legislative commission, to be known as the Joint State Government Commission; providing for the appointment of its members; and defining its powers and duties," by establishing the office of Legislative Budget Officer in the Joint State Government Commission; defining his powers and duties; imposing duties upon said executive and certain administrative departments and agencies of the State Government, and upon agencies receiving State appropriations; and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Messrs. LANE and TARR read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 379, entitled:

An Act to add section eight to Article two of the act, approved the ninth day of June, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 756), entitled "An act to provide for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the bituminous coal-mines of Pennsylvania, and for the protection and preservation of property connected therewith," by making unlawful the removal of surface support in certain cases; and providing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Mr. ROSENFELD read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 380, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare, for the maintenance of the Wills Hospital, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations

Mr. BARR read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 381, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1132), entitled, "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the second class as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries; prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors; and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens, parties, political bodies, registration commissions, commissioners, registrars, inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions, county election boards, election officers, municipal officers, departments and bureaus, police officers, courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, county commissioners, peace officers, county treasurers, county controllers, registrars of vital statistics, certain public utility corporations, real estate brokers, rental agents, and boards of school directors; and imposing penalties," abolishing the registration commission in such cities and requiring the county commissioners at the expense of the county to act as the registration commission thereof.

Which was committed to the Committee on Elections.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 382, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 814), entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the second class as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries; prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors; and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens, parties, political bodies registration commissions, commissioners, registrars, inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions, county election boards, election officers municipal officers, departments and bureaus, police officers, courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, county commissioners, peace officers, county treasurers, county controllers, registrars of vital statistics, certain public utility corporations, real estate brokers, rental agents, and boards of school directors; and imposing penalties," by abolishing the registration commission in such cities and requiring the county commissioners at the expense of the county to act as the registration commission therefor.

RESOLUTION

SENATE OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA DENOUNCES COMMUNISTIC PRESSURE TO FORCE CONVICTIONS OF RELIGIOUS LEADERS

Mr. LORD, JR. offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, February 28, 1949.

Whereas, The entire civilized world is shocked by the arrest by the Bulgarian Government of 15 Protestant clergymen on absurd charges of espionage and treason; and

Whereas, it is against every logical concept of reason to accept as voluntarily the abject and servile statements of ministers of God confessing to treason against Communism when they have always been strong opponents to a system of government which denounces all religion; and

Whereas, The well-founded belief of those of all faiths is that this is further proof of the intention of the Communists to destroy religion wherever it exists; and

Whereas, The destruction of the freedom of religion is only one of the many freedoms being destroyed by the Communists in every country in which they have control; and

Whereas, People in all walks of life in all these countries of profound religious convictions are obliged to suffer on a scale civilization has never heretofore experienced; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, hereby denounces the pattern invoked by the Communist countries of bringing to bear Communist pressure to force convictions in purge trials of religious leaders, and hereby expresses its conviction that such trials should be condemned by God-fearing peoples of all nations as an attack on all religion which cannot be tolerated if our cherished ideals of religion and freedom which we enjoy in this country are to continue and survive.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. DIEHM offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, February 28, 1949

BILL RECOMMENDED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 263, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to reenact and amend the title and the act approved the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1161) entitled "An act to provide for the prompt peaceful and just settlement of labor disputes between public utility employers engaged in furnishing electric gas water and steam heat services to the public and their employes which cause or threaten to cause strikes lockouts slowdowns or similar work stoppages and consequent interruptions in the supply of a public utility service on which a community served is so dependent that severe hardship would be inflicted on a substantial number of persons by a cessation of such service providing procedures for the adjustment and settlement of such disputes declaring that the public policy of the Commonwealth requires the continuation without cessation of such public utility services and providing means including regulations affecting the rights powers and privileges of employers and employes for the enforcement of such public policy and providing penalties" by bringing within the provisions of this act public utility employers and employes engaged in furnishing certain transportation services be recommitted to the Committee on Labor and Industry, for the purpose of further study.

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, this motion to recommit Senate Bill No. 263 sounds to me like the death knell of this bill. If it is, the public will know where to place the responsibility, and it will not be on me or any of my Philadelphia Republican colleagues, as I shall ask them to vote along with me against the recommitment of this bill.

Mr. President, thousands of people in Philadelphia have been put to great inconvenience and great hardship during the recent PTC strike, waitresses; shop girls, stenographers, scrub women, textile workers, and the rank and file of labor in Philadelphia, in other fields than the textile fields, have been unable to earn their living, yet at the same time they had to feed themselves, clothe themselves, and pay the rent which came due.

In addition to that, Mr. President, it is conservatively estimated that the total loss to the public is in the neighborhood of $100,000,000.

We were lucky in Philadelphia, too, that during this strike, when traffic was so tied up, when cars were bumper to bumper for blocks at a time, we were lucky there was no fire or disaster of that sort, because had there been, the results would have been appalling.

Mr. President, a year ago Michael Quill said that he would return to Philadelphia, and he did, two or three weeks ago. The result of his return was the disastrous strike we have just been through. As he left at the end of this strike, he said, "I will return next year and get you more", so next year we can look forward to his coming again and to another strike, and if that happens, Mr. President, the people of this Commonwealth will know who to blame, if this bill is not passed.

Mr. President, I want to say that it is not a difficult or a complicated thing that we are asking for in this bill. It is just as simple as anything, peaceful arbitration of strikes involving a public utility engaged in transporting a great number of people—merely peaceful arbitration. Under this bill they could arbitrate by arbitrators appointed under their own agreement, and it is only done by a panel of arbitrators when they cannot get together on their own arbitrators. Even that panel is chosen by the Governor from the recommendations of a committee composed of both the labor and management.

Mr. President, we are only asking that our problem of transportation disputes, which is as great as the problem that occurred in Allegheny County when the Duquesne Power Company strike was on, be arbitrated in the same fashion as is now required for them under the original bill. At that time we put that bill through for them, and I see no reason why the Legislature cannot be accorded the same cooperation from Allegheny County now that we accorded to Allegheny County in connection with the original bill.

Mr. President, this bill as it now appears on the Calendar, is all right as far as I am concerned. There has been a suggestion that bus companies should be in the bill, and I have no objection to that. I have amendments in my hand putting bus companies within the bill, but I have no opportunity to do so at this time, because of the motion to recommit the bill.

I say to you, Mr. President, that if this bill fails to come out of Committee, fails to pass, and a strike occurs in the transportation field in Philadelphia next year, it will be a great tragedy. I sincerely hope that this bill will come out of Committee in some form which can be supported, and that it will then be put through.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I would like to go on record and serve notice on this Body that I am very much opposed to the recommitment of this bill, and I think this Body is making a grave mistake.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I understand that the Majority Floor Leader explained that the bill was going back to Committee for further study.

If I vote for the recommitment of this bill, I am voting for its recommitment because that Committee would like to study the bill a little longer.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not intend to take the time of the Senate, since the bill is going back for further study, but in order that there may be no misunderstanding, if a strike occurs next year, the year after, or ten years from now, let it be clearly understood, that in any labor relationship, it must be a position taken by both employer and employee to arbitrate in good faith.

Mr. President, I have before me the sordid record of the minutes of the PTC strike in Philadelphia. These are the actual minutes showing exactly what occurred, and if you will take these minutes, and I am going to ask that they be put into the record, in order that if this same argument comes up two years from now, we will have as a basis for our action in sending this bill back to Committee the actual history of the case.

Mr. President, there were a great many meetings called, there were at least twenty meetings with the company before the strike. There are five members of the Philadelphia official family, the Mayor and four Councilmen, who are Members of the Board of the PTC, and at no time prior to the strike did they endeavor in any way to use their influence in this picture in order to forestall any work stoppage.

Mr. President, these things ought to be put into the record, so that the people will get away from the generalization being made in the strike to the tune of the fact that millions of dollars were lost and people were inconvenienced. People are inconvenienced in any strike, no matter how small the strike may be. Those are the things that always follow when two folks disagree, two persons disagree. Always when there is a break-down of negotiations in a labor dispute, there is bound to follow some inconvenience. That is no excuse for the passage of any restrictive legislation, and I want to say that if the Republican Caucus has decided to send this bill back to Committee it is one of the few times I have known in the matter of labor relations legislation on this floor, that they are using very good judgment.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I do not want to appear unseemly, but I must object to the statement that the gentleman just referred to going into the record. The merits of the bill are not before the Senate at this time. If the data that he has pertains to the merits of the bill, it should be submitted to the Committee on Labor and Industry, which is the Committee towards which the bill at the moment is pointed.

Mr. President, the motion before the Senate is to recommend the bill, and the merits of the bill are not in issue at this time.

Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in speaking on the merits of the motion to send this bill back to Committee, I want to say that in sustaining that motion to send the bill back to Committee, I would like to offer this evidence.

Mr. President, I would like to say that before this strike occurred, there were certain occurrences that led up to the situation where the breakdown occurred.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, in order that we will all understand for future reference, when it comes to the question of whether or not we were right in sending this bill back to Committee, what happened was this

On July 6, 1948—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. WALKER. I submit, Mr. President, that the merits of the bill are being discussed by the gentleman from Westmoreland, it is not in order at this time, and the subterfuge attempted by the gentleman from Westmoreland, that he is going to read this report in discussing the merits of the bill in order to support the motion I made, is unseemingly and unnecessary at this time.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order of the gentleman from Allegheny is well taken.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I have no objection, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Allegheny tell the Senate what I am going to say?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the answer to that is, no, and anybody who would dare to answer that in the affirmative is insane.

May I suggest, Mr. President, by saying that he would read it into the record—

Mr. DENT. I would like to say, Mr. President, if the gentleman would hear me out, and then make a motion to expunge my remarks from the record, he would be standing on firmer ground. He is assuming that I am going to say a certain thing, when it is not my intention to discuss the merits or the demerits of the bill.

Mr. President, I am merely sustaining my position in voting to send this bill back to Committee, by reading into the record the chronological facts that led up to introduction of this legislation into the Senate, and therefore I believe, unless you stretch your imagination a great deal, you cannot declare this material not germane to the subject before the Senate of Pennsylvania at this time.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President I submit that the Chair has ruled on my motion, and there is nothing before the Senate except the roll call.

The PRESIDENT. Under Rule 9, the motion to commit shall preclude any debate on the bill.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, does that mean both the Democratic and Republican Senators?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. DENT. Then may I ask, Mr. President, why the statement of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart, was allowed to be put into the record.

The PRESIDENT. There was no objection made to it.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, that is perfectly all right, and we shall accept that.

I now rise on a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Westmoreland will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I believe that on a matter of personal privilege, I have the right to make a record in the Senate of Pennsylvania. Since the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Kephart, stated that the people shall know who performed this act this afternoon, and shall know where to lay the blame, in order that I may be able to defend my position in voting to send this bill back to committee—

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I do not want to quarrel with the gentleman from Westmoreland on this, because I think, in the final analysis, we are both voting the same way on the motion which I have submitted.

I respectfully suggest, Mr. President, that the gentleman's question of personal privilege is not timely and is out of order.

There is nothing before the Senate at this time, Mr. President, except the question of the motion which I submitted, and his reasons for voting either in the affirmative or negative are not in order at this time.

Mr. President, the statement put on the record by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart, could have been challenged by a question of order, which could have been raised by any of the forty-nine Senators on the floor.

Now, Mr. President, I do not want to be curt about this thing, because I have a lot of respect for the gentleman from Westmoreland, but I do submit in all fairness that the only question before the Senate is a roll call on the motion.

His reasons for voting can be submitted to the Senate at a later time, but they are not in order now.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, what am I to take from this last statement of the gentleman from Allegheny?

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker, has objected to any further discussion on the subject other than the roll call.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, am I to understand that I am being denied the question of personal privilege on the floor of the Senate?

The PRESIDENT. If the gentleman from Westmoreland wants to speak on any question which has been raised in connection with the bill, he can inject the question of personal privilege.

Mr. DENT. I believe I so stated, Mr. President, that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart, stated that the people would know where to lay the blame. Are we to be condemned before we vote or after we vote, not being able to state our position?

The PRESIDENT. I take it the Senator from Westmoreland has already stated that point.

Mr. DENT. I am only asking, Mr. President, if your position is that I shall not talk further on the question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. At this point, the ruling is, yes.

Mr. DENT. Very well, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call on the motion.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WALKER and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—43

Barr,	Haluska,	Pechan,	Toole,
Barrett,	Hare,	Peelor,	Wade,

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 265, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 1043) entitled "An act establishing a public school employee's retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employees, defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain said funds; imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employees; exempting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties" by requiring the retirement board to submit annual statements to contributors.

The fifth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. BRANDON offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 5, page 12, line 20, by inserting after the word "determine" the following:

"Provided, however, That said authority shall not issue any bonds in excess of twenty million dollars ($20,- 000,000), whenever the total number of gainfully employed in the continental limits of the United States is in excess of fifty-eight million, according to the official statistics of the United States Department of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House, and also ladies of the House, although the ladies of the House are not going to be voting with me any more than the gentlemen of the House, the purpose of this amendment to the General State Authority bill is only to prevent our state government by authorities from competing with private industry and with the people of this state in the building of homes.

This amendment has as its sole purpose that our state government in times of prosperity will not come on and take men out of private employment and have them work on government jobs.

I do not believe that there is any economist in the United States who advocates or recommends government borrowing during times of prosperity. We have in the United States at the present time over 60 million men employed. If we go ahead and borrow money it will weaken the power of our state to take care of our people in times of depression and unemployment.

I can go along with a series of Authority bills—I believe I know the necessity of mental hospitals; I know that we postponed many of these programs because of the war; I know that the money will be difficult to raise in any one biennium by taxation, but I do want to say to the Members of this House that with 60 million men employed this is not the proper time for this, for a General State Authority to start constructing these much needed public buildings, within the state.

If we try to do it now, it will prevent private industry from expanding their plants and make general construction by other people in this state more expensive at this time, and it further weakens the power of our state to take care of our people in times of depression.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this amendment.

I will just make a general observation as expressed in Section 4 of this bill.

"... none of the powers granted hereby (other than for the construction, improvement and maintenance of bridges) shall be exercised in the construction, improvement, maintenance, extension or operation of any project or projects which in whole or in part shall duplicate or compete with existing enterprises serving substantially the same purposes."

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, a majority, a very considerable majority of the Democratic caucus registered their disapproval of this amendment, and therefore I rise to oppose it.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. BRUNNER offered the following amendment:

Amend section 5, page 12, line 18 by striking out after the word "the" and before the word "bonds" the following: "definite" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "definitive".

It was agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The sixth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. BRUNNER offered the following amendments:

Amend section 6, page 19, line 7 by striking out after the word "at" and before the word "or" the word: "all" and inserting in lieu thereof the word: "law".

Amend section 6, page 19, line 8 by striking out at the beginning of the line before the word "authorized" the following: "by" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "be".

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The seventh section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. BRUNNER offered the following amendment:

Amend section 7, page 19, line 18 by striking out at the beginning of the line before the word "members" the following: "Six (6)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Seven (7)".

It was agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The eighth section was read and agreed to.

The ninth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. BRUNNER offered the following amendment:

Amend section 9.2, page 23, line 10 by inserting after the letters "ing" and before the numeral "(30)" the word: "thirty".

It was agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The tenth, eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth sections were separately read and agreed to.

The fourteenth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. BRUNNER offered the following amendment:

Amend section 14, page 32, line 4 by striking out after the word "part" and before the word "that" the following: "thereof" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "thereof".

It was agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth sections were separately read and agreed to.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

Mr. BRUNNER offered the following amendment:

Amend page 2, line 5 of the title by striking out after the letters "ing" and before the word "General" the word: "the" and inserting in lieu thereof the word: "The".

It was agreed to.

The title was agreed to as amended.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. STIMMEL asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by him.

Mr. ROSE asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by him.

RESOLUTIONS

Mr. McMILLEN offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

Mrs. VARALLO offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

Mr. ROSE offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to offer the following resolution in connection with one of the Members of the House, who had a very important thing happen to him today; today is his birthday.

I am referring to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Costa. While he may appear a little mellow with age, I can assure you he still has the same old pep. He is known by a lot of names. I have heard some of the members refer to him as "Horse-race Frank"; I have heard a lot of Members, particularly on the Democratic side, refer to him as "Doc." I have seen them go down the aisle and say to him "Doc, I need a prescription." He goes to his pocket, takes out his key, and then they go back and when they return they have a smile of their faces. I don't know where they go, but I repeat, they have a smile on their faces. They come back completely cured, I assure you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to offer the following resolution in honor of Frank Costa, Chairman of the Philadelphia delegation, whose birthday is today.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 28, 1949.

On the 28th day of February in the year 1891, there was born in the City of Philadelphia to John A. Costa and his wife, Julia, a charming baby boy, who, even at an early date, wore the enchanting smile which has endeared him to all his associates during later life. The parents decided to call him Frank.

Today, after a rapid succession of accomplishments, both in private and public life, he is one of the more distinguished Members of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth. As a Representative he has gained fame and prominence in supporting and procuring the adoption of much worthwhile legislation. He has also sponsored many bills that have not become laws. Some of these have given rise to endearing nicknames, such as "Horses" Costa.

His perennial co-sponsorship of horse racing legislation gives evidence of his courage and tenacity in fighting for what he believes to be beneficial to the Commonwealth and to his constituents.

Our colleague is also versatile. It is quite generally supposed that he would have become an excellent physician had his inclination turned in that direction. While he owns no honorary key of distinction, a locker key on his chain is in much demand by those who know him as "Doctor" Costa; therefore, be it

Resolved, That today on his birthday we, his fellow-Members of the House of Representatives, give him our most heart-felt congratulations and our best wishes for health, long life and continued prosperity, and assure him of our most enthusiastic friendship and respect; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk personally deliver to Mr. Costa a duly certified copy of this resolution so that he may always remember this particularly happy day.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Costa.

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Philadelphia for his wonderful resolution.

I would be very much more happy today if my horse race bill were on the calendar. When this resolution was being read to the House I noticed that it referred to my age. I glanced at my picture, which you all agree was taken years ago; it was taken many years ago. Sitting around this House for four sessions, with my head resting on a chair looking up at the beautiful ornate ceiling, this also brings back, Mr. Speaker, fondest memories.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SPEAKER. The Chair has been requested to announce for the information of the Members that the banquet of the Western Pennsylvania Coal Operators' Association, scheduled to be held at Pittsburgh, March 3, 1949, has been cancelled due to the death of Mr. Charles O'Neil, President of the Central Pennsylvania Coal Operators' Association. The Members will receive information as to another date for holding the banquet.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. DOUGHERTY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to offer the following statement, and, with the consent of the Members of the House, to have it incorporated in the record.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia submits a statement and requests that it be printed in the Legislative Journal. If there is no objection the statement will be spread upon the Journal. The Chair hears none and consent is granted.

The statement follows:

Mr. Speaker, I was utterly dismayed in reading an Inquirer Bureau news dispatch as of Harrisburg, February 16, in which an attack on the Philadelphia Democratic members of the House of Representatives was made by Representative Charles C. Smith, Republican of Philadelphia, in regard to the Philadelphia Delegation attempting to sabotage Governor Duff's Public Welfare Program; I must say that never before have I read such a misstatement of facts, and the Honorable Charles C. Smith knew how false that statement was when he made it.

Our Minority Leader asked that action be postponed until a further study could be made as to whether these taxes were necessary contending that he felt there were funds available without placing upon the public the Liquid Fuel and Soft Drink taxes. But the Republican majority would not allow a delay, they had to be steamrolled through and without delay.

Speaking as a Representative of the First Philadelphia District, I stand ready at all times to the call of duty for my constituents and stand ready to fight or vote for any measures that will be most beneficial to them.

I felt at the time I voted against these taxes, just as I feel now, that the administration had not proven they were necessary and in knowing this to be the true facts I felt duty bound to vote to protect a public that is already over burdened with taxation.

That is my conception of honestly representing the people of my district who had seen fit to send me to the Legislature to represent them even though that kind of loyalty may be foreign to Representative Smith.

SENATE MESSAGES

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate:

Senate Bills for concurrence 51, 153 and 321.

HOUSE BILLS CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bills from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE

TUESDAY, March 1, 1949.

The Senate met at 3:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. FRANCIS REINBERGER, offered the following prayer:

Thou, Eternal God, whose law is in the hearts of men and never can be repealed, whose will is the purpose for which we are here and the reason for our very existence, whose wisdom we sometimes think we have, only to discover that ours is a cheap substitute for Thine eternal mind; we come to Thee this day seeking an openness and clarity of mind, a spirit of truth and charitableness even in the midst of differences; and above all, blessed God, we seek that unity of intent by which our Commonwealth may become a place of shelter and delight to all of its children. And now, dwell here among us that we may have the benefit of Thy wisdom and justice and mercy, both now and always. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. TAYLOR, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

He also presented for concurrence bills of the House, as follows:

House Bill No. 28, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections four thousand three hundred twenty, four thousand three hundred twenty-one, four thousand three hundred twenty-two, four thousand three hundred twenty-three, and four thousand three hundred twenty-four of the act, approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 932), entitled "Third Class City Law," further regulating the retirement of firemen on pensions; and requiring certain payments to be made to the Firemen's Pension Fund by cities.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

House Bill No. 279, entitled:

An Act to amend section two thousand two hundred one, two thousand two hundred four and two thousand two hundred six of the act, approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 932), entitled "Third Class City Law," by authorizing the creation of bureaus of mine inspection and surface support by cities within bituminous regions, and regulating mining and the removal of natural surface support in cities.

Which was committed to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

House Bill No. 418, entitled:

An Act to add section four hundred eighteen to the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872), entitled "The Penal Code," by creating an additional crime of loitering and prowling at night.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

BILLS SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 84, entitled:

An Act giving the consent of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the acquisition by the United States of America of a certain tract of land in Erie County Pennsylvania for use as a veterans' administration hospital and ceding jurisdiction to the United States

House Bill No. 105, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two three and four of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of March one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 109) entitled "An act relating to interstate cooperation creating the Pennsylvania Commission on Interstate Cooperation as well as committees on interstate cooperation of the Senate and of the House of Representatives defining the powers and duties of said commission and of said committees and imposing duties on the Governor and the Secretary of the Commonwealth" by changing the method of appointing members of the Senate and House committees and of the chairman of the commission

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to place into the record a story by Earl Richert, which appeared in The Pittsburgh Press of last evening. Mr. Richert is a feature writer for the Scripps-Howard newspapers.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am very sorry, and I extend my very humble personal apology to the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, but I will have to object to the inclusion of this Scripps-Howard writer's article in the Legislative Journal.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, on Monday, February 21st, the distinguished Senator from Westmoreland, the Minority Floor Leader, presented what he called an analysis of the Administration Budget. At the conclusion of Senator Dent's budget message, I very briefly commented on some of the highlights and to the best of my ability attempted to answer his criticism on an extemporaneous basis. As soon as the Legislative Journal was in print for February 21st, I read Senator Dent's budget message with a great deal of interest.

Mr. President, a careful reading of that budget message will prove that the written word is more confusing than was the spoken word on the 21st. I wish to assure this body that my criticism of these figures does not reflect in the least on the distinguished gentleman from Westmoreland, but it is an indirect criticism of those individuals who are so careless with the true facts that they would place in the possession of Senator Dent budgetary data that does not reflect the true fiscal picture in this present administrative set-up.

The keystone in the arch of Senator Dent's tax program was a mercantile tax. At page 673 of the Journal of the 1949 Session, Senator Dent said, and I quote: "No more equitable tax can be assessed at this time than a tax that can be spread over the whole of the population and would still put the merchant on Main Street in a position of paying his share. I prefer to believe that a mercantile tax, wholesale and retail, will be much easier to administer. It will be more equitable." At page 674 of the Journal Senator Dent said, "A tax of 1 per cent on wholesale and 1 per cent on retail will yield $200,000,000 conservatively in the next Session."

I wonder if the gentleman from Westmoreland was serious when he recommended a 1 per cent mercantile tax. He suggested a 1 per cent tax on wholesale business and a 1 per cent tax on retail business and he suggested that this tax would bring in an estimated revenue of $200,000,000. First, let's look at the 1 per cent tax on wholesale business. This would be an enormous tax representing about a 25 per cent tax on the net income of wholesale business houses. This would not necessarily be a tax on big business; it would be a tax on little business as well. In my own County of Allegheny there are a number of small merchants who, for years, have been conducting a small restricted wholesale business. A 25 per cent tax levied by the Commonwealth on these little wholesalers would completely destroy and eliminate them. It is somewhat difficult for me to visualize the Democratic Leader recommending the elimination of small business in Pennsylvania. Such a rate of tax on wholesale business is a novel departure in tax planning when you compare it with other States.

North Carolina has a 1/20 of 1 per cent tax on wholesale business. West Virginia has a tax of 1/8 of 1 per cent. Indiana has a tax of 1/4 of 1 per cent.

Several years ago when Pennsylvania had its mercantile license tax on wholesale business, the rate was 1/2 mill, or 1/20 of 1 per cent. If the recommendation of the Minority Leader was followed and a 1 per cent tax placed on wholesale business, the only way such a business could possibly endure would be to pass this tax on in the price of the goods to the retailer, and in such a case the only result would be a general sales tax.

The same reactions are true when you look at the recommendation of 1 per cent tax on retail business. This would result in an approximate 10 per cent tax on the net income of all of the retail merchants in Pennsylvania. I do not think that the neighborhood grocery store or the local corner drug store will view with favor the recommendation of the Minority Leader that we place a 10 per cent tax on his net income. In many instances this 10 per cent represents more than the profit he makes in his business and Senator Dent's recommendation would have the effect of driving the retailer out of business or drive him into bankruptcy. Here again, if the retailer attempted to pass on the proposed pseudo retail mercantile tax to the customer, you would have nothing more or less than another general sales tax. Since there could be no exemptions in such a tax levy, every retail and wholesale establishment would be taxed regardless of the amount of business and regardless of the type of merchandise handled. I submit that this would automatically place a sales tax on bread, butter and milk, and this is certainly a novel departure from the taxing philosophy of the Democratic Party.

The gentleman from Westmoreland suggested that the tax collected would be returned by the State to local governments, but he failed to point out to us how or on what percentage rates the money was to be returned, who would get it and how much they would get. As I suggested in my extemporaneous remarks on the 21st, I cannot conceive of the taxing authorities in the City of Pittsburgh giving up their present certain rate of revenue sources for a vague, ambiguous, indefinite over-all sales tax program.

Now let us briefly examine several other recommendations in the proposed Democratic Party budget. Senator Dent suggested a State-wide amusement tax but nowhere in this first budget message did he get around to giving a recommended rate of tax or any estimate as to the yield. He did suggest that the proceeds would go to the school districts. All taxing authorities seem to agree on the general premise that the amusement tax is one that is especially suited to local taxing authorities. As a rule, amusements require a great deal of policing and safety regulatory supervision. This policing is done by the local authorities and they should have the right to tax as well as supervise. The gentleman from Westmoreland deplores the soft drink tax because we are taking soda pop out of the mouths of little children, but he fails to exercise this same philosophy in taxing the movies that the little children attend.

If the gentleman will examine the past history of the Commonwealth, he will discover that about 15 years ago the Commonwealth did have an amusement tax and after one biennial trial period, the tax was abandoned as unsatisfactory and disappointing. It is amazing that, having tried it in the Earle Administration and finding it a failure, they now recommend it to the Republican Administration as a good tax program.

Another recommendation which the gentleman from Westmoreland makes is legalized gambling, or what we call the horse racing bill. Senator Dent in one place stated and I quote: "New York State in the year 1947 raised $30,304,000." In another place he states, "the last known figures for the State of New York show a collection of over $50,000,000 in a one-year period."

Now, let us look at the record.

The 1949-1950 New York budget shows $26,944,029 collected in 1947-1948; $27,245,000 estimated for 1948-1949; and $28,200,000 for 1949-1950. The last amount includes an increase in the tax on harness racing.

Since Pennsylvania has a population of about 73% of that in New York, not more than $20,000,000 a year could be expected at the rates in New York. This would fall far short of financing the proposed Soldiers Bonus.

Another item which the gentleman fails to take into consideration in the consideration of the horse racing bill and in his comparison of potential figures and what is actually received in New York, is the fact that the only track in New York State that ever makes any money is the one situated in New York City and nowhere in Pennsylvania would we ever be able to construct a track that would have the potential attendance and betting probabilities of the one in New York City.

Again in his budget message, Senator Dent suggested that we could add ten to fifteen million dollars to our appropriation for school purposes if we would economize in departmental expenditures and finance school construction by long-term bonds. Here, of course, the gentleman is merely repeating what has been recommended by the Governor in his budget because the Governor's proposal is to finance over $26,000,000 worth of construction by State Authority. I am assuming from the statement in the Dent budget that at least this much of the Governor's program meets with the approval of the Democratic Party.

Senator Dent also submitted a comparison of the tax collected in New York and Pennsylvania on the liquor traffic. My only criticism of this portion of his budget message goes to the obvious fact that whoever gave Senator Dent his figures unintentionally or deliberately gave the gentleman from Westmoreland inaccurate tax returns.

Senator Dent stated, "Take the tax on alcoholic beverages. Remembering that this is a monopolistic State, it was very illuminating to me to find that the State of New York raised as much money, not being in the liquor business, by taxes, as was raised in the State of Pennsylvania by being in the liquor business. I note that the alcoholic beverage taxes in the State of New York are $54,290,000 in one year, 1947; in Pennsylvania the taxes on alcoholic beverages were $27,366,000—a difference of about $27,000,000 in yearly taxes on alcohol beverages."

Now let us look at the record.

New York collected from liquor business, 1947-1948, the following:

Alcoholic beverage tax	$46,911,847
Alcoholic beverage control licenses	23,117,384

Or a total of $70,029,231

Pennsylvania collected from liquor business, 1947-1948, the following:

10% Liquor Tax	$17,508,766
Malt Beverage Tax	25,103,548
State Store Profits	37,500,000

Or a total of $80,112,314

Pennsylvania collected $10,000,000 more in alcoholic beverage revenue in the fiscal year 1947-1948 than did New York, with a population of only 73% of the population of New York.

Some other inconsistencies in Senator Dent's comparative figures are as follows: He says, "On tobacco products, Pennsylvania raised $20,988,000 whereas New York raised $32,935,000." Let us look at the record. In 1947-1948 Pennsylvania collected $37,348,361 from its cigarette tax. New York collected $33,343,064.

Senator Dent: "In insurance company taxes, Pennsylvania raised $11,774,000 and New York raised $22,463,000." Let us look at the record. Pennsylvania collected $10,450,287 in insurance premium tax in the year 1947-1948. New York collected $4,560,907.

Senator Dent in discussing the amount of State-aid to local governments in Pennsylvania as compared with other states made the mistake often made by those unfamiliar with our tax system. In this State the whole public assistance cost is carried by the State and does not show up as aid to local governments, but in reality that is what it is. In New York the state pays 80 per cent of the public assistance cost but the money is given to local governments and shows up as State-aid to local governments in the Census Bureau Report which is the source of Senator Dent's information.

Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I understand that the Senate will receive the second volume of the Dent budget within a comparatively short time and I wish to assure the gentleman from Westmoreland that those of us on the Majority side of the aisle will be very happy to study it and evaluate the facts contained therein. May I again seriously urge the fiscal advisers of the Minority party that in presenting these figures to the gentleman from Westmoreland they stick to the facts and that they do not mislead him with inaccurate tax revenue statistics.

The Republican Party is committed to the tax program as outlined by the Administration in the Governor's Budget. No tax program is ever received by the taxpayer with any degree of enthusiasm. As long as demands are made upon the Commonwealth, some type of taxation will become necessary and as long as taxes are a necessary adjunct of government, the Administration must be responsible for its recommendations.

I do not propose to remind the gentleman from Westmoreland that his tax philosophy is not concurred in by all of the leaders of his Party. Many nationally recognized members of the Democratic Party will disagree violently with the position taken by the gentleman from Westmoreland on the repeal of Act No. 481 and on the proposed tax set-up recommended by him on February 21.

I, therefore, sincerely recommend to the members of the Minority Party that they take the Duff budget and the Dent budget and submit them to the people in their various Senatorial districts and ask the folks who are going to pay the taxes which of these two programs they would prefer.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to join with the rest of the Senate in thanking the gentleman from Allegheny for the very illuminating discussion that he has given us on the question of a general tax proposal.

First of all, Mr. President, let us understand one thing, that whatever figures I used in the construction of the program that I presented to the Senate were entirely my own figures, and came from various sources. I un-happily have not the necessary expert help on my side of the Senate to dig into the various facts and figures, and I, therefore, as an individual, subscribe to many Department of Commerce booklets and books of facts, and every one of the facts that I gave to this Senate, I have my authority for. So far as the difference between the figures that the Majority Floor Leader read into the record and the figures I gave to the Senate, I can only say that I will present to the gentleman from Allegheny a complete list of my authorities for the figures that I gave.

Mr. President, and Members of the Senate, I notice that the gentleman from Allegheny said that I at no time gave to the Senate an analysis of the amount to be raised by the two taxes that I recommended, or, in the case of the mercantile tax, a determination of the distribution to the localities. If he will look upon page 3 of the budget message that I gave to the Senate, he will find, and I quote: "A Tax of 1 per cent on wholesale and 1 percent on retail will yield $200,000,000 conservatively in the next Session. In a rough division of the population in the Commonwealth, we find by allocating this revenue on a population basis, we will be able to relieve the entire burden of Act 481 on the local communities of the Commonwealth."

Mr. President, I will not go into the rest of the message, because I believe the Senate has heard it. However, on Page 4, I again call your attention to this statement, and I quote: "Previous records show that within a comfortable margin of accuracy a tax of 10 percent will yield $15,000,000 for local school district use. Until the time comes when we can sit in convention to establish a new Constitution for this Commonwealth, we will have to be content with a haphazard crazy-quilt tax structure."

Now, Mr. President, the question of whether a tax of 1 percent on retail and 1 percent on wholesale is an exorbitant tax, I believe that must be determined by experience. We are now in the process, as I understand it, of passing the Governor's Tax Budget, and yet we are sitting in this Senate, as I understand it, on the Majority Side, fully determined to reenact a 20 percent wholesale and retail mercantile tax upon a picayune industry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Can you say to me in all seriousness that it is wrong to tax a 2 percent wholesale or a 1 percent retail mercantile tax against a man who sells a $4000 automobile, with a tax of $40 on the man who buys it, and then say to the child that goes into a little confectionary store that it must pay a 20 percent tax on a bottle of soda pop? You cannot make mice out of one group of Pennsylvania citizens and try to uphold the rest of the Pennsylvania citizens as men. No industry ought to be legislated against, and I say that an overall mercantile tax of 1 percent is a fair and equipable tax until the Constitution can be amended in order that this Commonwealth can assess the types of taxes that in this day and age are equitable. I say, for instance, Mr. President, in order that we do not get confused on any argument that a 1 percent retail mercantile tax is a 10 percent tax against the income of an individual in the retail business, let us use the same argument that the gentleman from Allegheny used. He said that in the final analysis this would result in a sales tax and would be passed onto the people. Mr.

President, I submit that all taxes are passed on to the people, whether it is a tax on soda pop or a tax on automobiles or a tax on suits, but I do say and I do uphold this philosophy, Mr. President, that the cheaper marked items of goods in a retail establishment will not carry the same total tax that would be assessed against them if you had a retail sales tax. Let us take a ten-cent item, Mr. President, on which you have a 3 per cent tax. I say to you here that I can prove beyond any reasonable doubt that a 3 percent sales tax would be required to raise the same amount of revenue as a 1 percent mercantile tax. Mr. President, if you go into a store and buy a ten cent item under a 3 per cent sales tax, you have assessed against you a three-tenths of a cent tax, but you will not only pay three-tenths of a cent sales tax. Experience shows in the states that have assessed this tax that you will pay a one cent tax, but on the items that are bought by the poor people, they would pay a 10 per cent sales tax.

In a mercantile tax I say that competition will, without any question of doubt determine who shall carry and pay the mercantile tax. If a person walks in and buys a $75 suit, I claim, Mr. President, that seventy-five cents of the retail mercantile tax will not be the determining factor in the question of whether or not the individual purchases the suit. I go right back to the automobile. When I buy a $4,000 automobile, the $40 mercantile tax is not the determining factor as to whether or not I will purchase that automobile.

I say to the Members of this Senate, that just because this proposal happens to come from this side of the Senate, it loses its character, but I want to call to your attention at this moment that right now in the Senate of Pennsylvania, in the General Assembly, the things that we have heralded through the years and asked for permission to be put upon the statute books as equitable and just as pertaining to workmen's compensation, pertaining to unemployment compensation, pertaining to the law called the General State Authority Law, pertaining to all things we have pled for through the years, are now a part and particle of the Governor's Budget Message to the people of Pennsylvania in this year. So, Mr. President, I say to you that, God willing, I will live to see the day when this particular program is filched from the Democratic column and again becomes part of the Republican Budget Message in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, because, in this Budget Message of the Governor, if you will look closely you will find that the facts that we determined over the years and were ridiculed by the opposition speakers have now become facts of privilege, because they are sponsored by the Republican Party.

I maintain, Mr. President, that I would like to read just one item in order that there may be no misunderstanding as to the veracity of the statements that I made in the Budget Message on page 11, of the "Compendium of State Government Finances in 1947," I would like to read to this Senate, under the heading of "General Revenue Sales, Use, and Gross Receipts Taxes, by State, for 1947," the following: in the column for the State of New York, we find under Alcoholic Beverages, $54,230,000, and for Pennsylvania, $27,366,000.

Under Tobacco Products, we find for New York, $32,-935,000 and for Pennsylvania, $20,988,000.

Under the heading of Insurance Company Taxes, under New York, we find $22,463,000, and under Pennsylvania, $11,774,000.

Under the heading of Public Utilities, we find under New York, $28,633,000, and under Pennsylvania, $7,131,000.

In order, Mr. President, that there be no mistake about it, I want it clearly understood that the reason I know where to find these figures is because I studied them myself. I happen to have an extra copy for the benefit of the Majority Leader and I will present to him the actual facts on the incomes of various states.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I will be very happy to receive the data that the gentleman from Westmoreland mentioned, without retreating one step from the comments that I made, that those facts should be presented to whoever drew up the New York State Budget, because the Budget Secretary in New York State is not familiar with those figures. The figures that I quote in my statement came out of the New York State Budget.

Now, Mr. President, another thing I want to suggest to the gentleman from Westmoreland is that there may be some truth in his statement that some day the tax program that he is now advocating may become the keystone in the tax program recommended by the Republican Party, and I am assuming very cheerfully, if and when that happens, he will be for it.

The only time, Mr. President, they are ever opposed to anything is when we recommend it.

Another thing, Mr. President, I would suggest in all sincerity to the gentleman from Westmoreland that he wait until he has an opportunity to study the written copy of my message, which I delivered to him. I think he will find some food for thought in it. I am assuming very cheerfully that there will be a second volume of the Dent Budget Message, and when that arrives, as I said to him in my major remarks, we will endeavor to give that very careful consideration.

Again, Mr. President, let me remind the gentleman from Westmoreland I am not finding fault with the statements he has made. I am just merely suggesting to him that the figures that he is using are somewhat misleading, because they do not jibe with the figures out of the budget for New York State.

Another thing, Mr. President, as to the philosophy that he is recommending in his mercantile tax, I am combing my memory, and I would much rather go back and read the speeches which the gentleman from Westmoreland made in the 1947 Session, when he was attacking the tax on soft drinks. I would like to have the opportunity of comparing those statements with the defense he is now putting up for a mercantile tax.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in order that we do not delay the actions of the Senate, I have my second stanza ready, and I want to present it to the gentleman from Allegheny, so he can have it analyzed and an answer prepared for it when I give it next Monday.

I am sure that he will enjoy reading it, and I want to assure him that I will enjoy reading his.

FRESHMAN CLASS IN PENNSYLVANIA HISTORY FROM JUNIATA VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL AT ALEXANDRIA AND PETERSBURG
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I am pleased to announce that among the visitors in the Senate this afternoon, we have fifty-five members of the Freshman Class in Pennsylvania History from the Juniata Valley High School at Alexandria and Petersburg, in Huntingdon County, accompanied by Mr. Henry Short, Assistant Principal, and Mrs. Farrar, Teacher.

The PRESIDENT. I wish to extend a welcome to the members of the Freshman Class from the Juniata Valley High School who are here today, and to their principal and teacher.

I hope you enjoy the session.

MEMBERS OF SENIOR CLASS OF PINE GROVE
HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I am glad we are diverting from the budget long enough to get into this matter of school visitors, because it looks to me as though we may not have a budget adopted until sometime after they return home, but it is good to see so many students in the balcony at a time when the matter of taxes is being discussed, because, as we who are here well know, a substantial part of this budget always involves the public schools and their upkeep and administration.

Mr. President, I do want to call the attention of the Senate to another distinguished group which appears this afternoon from my county, the senior class of that very fine high school at Pine Grove, Pennsylvania, under the direction of Mrs. Bruce Christ, their very able and distinguished Class Advisor. I wish they might stand, so you can see them, and if you will, we might give them a hand.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair also extends a hearty welcome to the senior class of the Pine Grove High School, and hope you also enjoy the session.

MEMBERS OF SENIOR CLASS OF WEST YORK HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

Mr. LEADER. Mr. President, we also have in the balcony, a very fine group of high school students, seniors, from West York High School, eighty-five in number, and I would like to present them to the Senate. They are in charge of their instructors, Mr. Palmer E. Poff, Mr. J. W. Wise, and Mrs. Janet Reiff.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is indeed gratified to see so many high school pupils here, especially those from the West York High School, and hope you enjoy your visit here this afternoon.

MEMBERS OF THE EDUCATION COMMITTEE OF YOUNG MENS' CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION, HARRISBURG, PRESENTED TO THE
SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would also like to call attention to the fact that the members of the Education Committee of the Young Mens' Christian Association of Harrisburg, are also here on a visit this afternoon. We are very glad to welcome them on behalf of Senator Taylor.

REPORT FROM JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, on behalf of the Joint State Government Commission I submit a report of "Juvenile Delinquency and Child Welfare," as compiled by a subcommittee of the Joint State Government Commission. Attached thereto is a communication from the Chairman of the committee.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. HOMSHER, from the Committee on Public Health and Welfare, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 332, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 510), entitled, "An act providing for the licensure and regulation of certain private nursing homes and private hospitals; conferring certain powers and duties upon the Department of Welfare; and providing penalties," by including private boarding homes operated for profit and excluding private boarding homes operated on a non-profit basis.

Mr. BERGER, from the Committee on Public Health and Welfare, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 212, entitled:

An Act to further amend section nine of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 2051) entitled "An act relating to public assistance; providing for and regulating assistance to certain classes of persons designated and defined as dependent children, aged persons, blind persons and other persons requiring relief; providing for the administration of this act by the Department of Public Assistance and county boards of assistance hereby created for this purpose; authorizing the Department of Public Assistance to cooperate with, and to accept and disburse moneys received from, the United States Government for assistance to such persons; providing for the liquidation of the State Emergency Relief Board, Boards of Trustees of the Mothers' Assistance Fund, and boards of Trustees of Pension Fund for the Blind; and repealing laws relating to mothers' assistance, pensions for the blind, old age assistance, and the State Emergency Relief Board," by making certain children placed in foster homes, by the court, eligible for assistance.

BILL RE-REFERRED

Mr. DiSILVESTRO, from the Committee on Public Health and Welfare, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 330, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Health for use in research and demonstration work dealing with the improvement of nutritional status of civilians, including children and elderly people as well as family groups, industrial workers and others.

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCES OF THE SENATE EXTENDED TO THE FAMILY AND FRIENDS OF CHARLES O'NEILL

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. HALUSKA and MALLERY, offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, March 1, 1949.

Last Sunday Charles O'Neill passed away at New Rochelle, New York.

His passing brings sadness to every thoughtful man, for it means the loss of another of those precious few, who understand, love and defend Americanism. Charles O'Neill was not a flag waver nor a professional do-gooder, but his life typified America, was in the American tradition, and lived with a view to perpetuating the American way.

He had little formal education but like Lincoln, educated himself, and became a member of the American Academy of Professional Science.

He went to work in the Central Pennsylvania coal fields when he was 12 years old, as a helper to his father, Hugh O'Neill, a pick and shovel coal miner. The remainder of his life was identified with the coal industry. He became assistant secretary of District Two of United Mine Workers, and held that post eight years. In 1916 he became district vice-president of that union.

His love for the industry impelled him to accept a position in which he could be of most benefit to the industry as a whole. He became secretary of the Central Pennsylvania Coal Producers Association in 1918 and later its president. Later he served as general manager, vice-president and president of Peals, Peacock & Kerr Inc. of New York. His last position was as president of the United Eastern Coal Sales Corporation.

He used his vast technical knowledge for the benefit of all who sought his aid. He was a technical adviser on coal matters to President Wilson, and during World War II was a member of the Solid Fuels Administration War Council.

Mr. O'Neill's home town was in Clearfield, Pennsylvania, but he lived in Scarsdale, New York, at the time of his death. He married early and reared three daughters and two sons.

Because the death of Charles O'Neill creates such a great void in the lives of his family and his friends who are legion, and because it means the loss of another of that type of man America so desperately needs, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania extend its deepest and most sincere sympathy to his family and friends, and to America, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to his family.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. YOSKO from the Committee on Banking, reported as committed, House Bill No. 110, entitled:

An Act to amend subsection B of section twelve of the act, approved the sixth day of April, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 200), entitled "An act licensing and regulating the business of pawnbrokers; providing for the issuance of licenses by the Secretary of Banking; authorizing the Secretary of Banking to make examinations and issue regulations; limiting the interest and charges on loans; and prescribing penalties for the violation of this act," to provide for receipt in duplicate.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. ROSE and Mrs. MONROE. RESOLUTION No. 24.

In the House of Representatives, February 28, 1949.

The importance of transportation grows with the years and to-day it has become most vital as a necessity of life itself.

Shortly after transportation became mechanized, it was discovered that the operation thereof and the fares charged for such transportation could not be left in the hands of private enterprise. Accordingly the State was obliged to intervene and the State did so by having the legislature enact laws under which businesses of this type were regulated.

To-day the regulation by legislation of Public Utilities is taken for granted. However, the Legislature still has the burden of seeing to it that transportation is sufficient and adequate, and that the rates therefor are not excessive.

The Utility Commissions created by the Legislature can handle much of the fact-finding activities relating to transportation and its cost among other activities. However, as stated, the burden is still with the General Assembly to determine what services shall be rendered and what cost.

All of this is elementary, and yet we find ourselves in the precarious position of dealing with a Public Utility Commission, especially to-day, that refuses to properly investigate complaints as to excessive fares for transportation services and to answer complaints as to the inadequate and insufficient service rendered by the Philadelphia Transportation Co.

It is common knowledge that the present Public Utility Commission has approved two fare increases in the matter of the Philadelphia Transportation Co., and is ready to approve a third increase without making a proper and independent investigation to determine the reasonableness of the rates. In one instance the Commission had the effrontery to fix the rates in advance of a hearing and this particularly is contrary to the spirit and intent of the law. It is obvious, therefore, that the majority members of the present Commission is rubber-stamping the acts of the Philadelphia Transportation Co. In view of the appalling situation the General Assembly must take a hand to protect the interests of the public; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House is hereby authorized to appoint a Committee of the members of the House, ten in number, whose duty it shall be to make a searching investigation of the financial structure of the Philadelphia Transportation Company to determine to what extent there are physical assets belonging to the company and the value thereof; and be it further

Resolved, That the said Committee investigate the prevailing rate of fares to determine if they are not more than sufficient to pay all reasonable charges on all cash honestly invested in the company; and be it further

Resolved, That the said Committee shall investigate the present service of the company to determine to what degree the said service is both inadequate and inefficient; and be it further

Resolved, That the said Committee shall carefully examine all unanswered complaints filed with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission whether such complaints be formally filed or not, so that if such complaints warrant investigation for the purpose of obtaining relief, such investigation shall be made; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee shall dedicate itself to perform the burden of the legislature, that is to exercise its legislative powers in such a manner as to be responsive to and mindful of the powers inherent in the people of this Commonwealth; and be it further

Resolved, That the said committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives at the earliest possible date, and if not to the House of Representatives, then, to the Governor, in no event not later than October 1, 1949.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 25.

In the House of Representatives, February 21, 1949.

Whereas, A highly controversial problem before the present and past sessions of the General Assembly is and has been the question of exempting from the provisions of the Liquid Fuels Tax Act users of such fuels for non-highway purposes, and

Whereas, The constitutional limitations upon the use to be made of the proceeds of such tax affords strong argument for the proponents of exemption, if such use constitutes a substantial part of the proceeds of such tax, and

Whereas, Impartial reports of the proportionate amount of the proceeds of such tax paid by users for non-highway purposes and the methods of other states in handling this problem have not and are not presently available to the General Assembly to aid it in its determination of the problem, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur) That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to make a study, survey and investigation of the amount of such taxes paid by users for non-highway purposes and the methods of other states imposing similar taxes, in taxing or exempting such users and in distributing the proceeds of such tax, and to make a final report of its survey not later than September 1, 1950, copies thereof to be made available to the Governor and the members of the General Assembly.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 26.

In the House of Representatives, February 28, 1949.

Whereas, The most distinguishing features of our Republican form of government which recognized the rights of the individual above those of his government are gradually being eliminated by federal legislation having as its thesis undue regard for the rights of the "common man" and for groups as against individuals; and

Whereas, Such legislation and its motivating spirit is slowly but surely demoralizing and confusing all clear-thinking men of imagination, initiative and ability by stifling their incentive to produce their best work; and

Whereas, There is presently before Congress a bill to further this diabolical system of whittling away at the best features of our form of government of yesteryear by a bill known as the Wagner-Murray-Dingell bill which would socialize medicine for the "common man" and reduce the profession of medicine to another federal bureaucracy; and

Whereas, The provisions of such bill embody a plan which is fundamentally unsound, undemocratic, and socialistic and which has been found to be impractical when adopted in New Zealand, and England; and

Whereas, Passage of such bill would destroy the incentive to and initiative of the entire medical profession by reducing them to the status of government agents against their will; and

Whereas, Private capital has devised adequate means of supplying low-cost medical insurance to all persons who desire to subscribe to the same; such available low cost insurance is considerably cheaper to the buyer than the exorbitant further burdens that will be placed upon the taxpayers to foot the costs of executing this bill if it becomes law; now therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs) That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby earnestly memorializes the Congress of the United States to defeat the passage of the Wagner-Murray-Dingell socialized medicine bill; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House shall transmit copies hereof to the President of the United States, the presiding officers of both houses of Congress, and to every Representative and Senator from Pennsylvania in Congress.

RESOLUTION No. 27.

In the House of Representatives, March 1, 1949.

Whereas, On March 11th, 1950, the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania will celebrate its One Hundredth Anniversary, an occasion in which every Philadelphian and every Pennsylvanian will take much personal pride; and

Whereas, During all of these years, this splendid institution has gone quietly about its educational and medical activities, winning distinction and fame in many of its fields; and

Whereas, Not only has the Woman's Medical College brought fame to itself, but also has its many women graduates been honored for their contributions to medicine as well as to the health of people in hundreds of communities throughout the United States, since one-sixth of all living American women physicians are graduates of the Woman's Medical College; and

Whereas, Some of its graduates have also been pioneers, among whom was the first woman teacher of medicine in the world; the first woman to begin the practice of medicine in Pennsylvania; probably the first Negro woman to become a physician; the first woman physician to be a medical missionary; the first woman to establish a hospital for women in China; the first Hindu woman to receive a medical degree in any country and also the first woman to take up the medical care of the insane, and in more recent years, one of its graduates, Dr. Catherine Macfarlane, organized the first cancer prevention clinic in Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, Its educational facilities and the quality of its instruction have been outstanding right down through the years, the most recent evidence of which was that one of the members of its last graduating class, Dr. Katherine McDermott Herrold, received the highest national grade in the examinations held last year for graduates of the different medical colleges throughout the country; and therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby congratulates the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania upon its approaching One Hundredth Anniversary, to be celebrated March 11th, 1950. It also congratulates its officers, personnel, and its many graduates upon the magnificent record which has been theirs; and be it further

Resolved, That the House of Representatives, mindful of the years of devotion which so many people have given to this institution, is happy to join with others in paying tribute to their college for the proud achievements which they have brought to fruition in the name of their college; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of this House, send a copy of this resolution to the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania.

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

REPORT FROM JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

Mrs. DYE presented on behalf of the Joint State Government Commission, a report dated February, 1949 dealing with "Juvenile Delinquency and Child Welfare," copies of which are available to the Members at the office of the Chief Clerk.

(For report, see Appendix.)

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. SHOEMAKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

Mrs. DYE asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by her.

Mr. WATERHOUSE asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I am introducing on behalf of myself and the majority members of the Democratic party from Allegheny County, an amendment to Act 481 of the Session of 1947. I have asked unanimous consent to make these brief observations in connection with this amendment.

It is the opinion of the Majority Members of the House and Senate of the Democratic Party from Allegheny County that the County of Allegheny and its Institutional District should be granted the broad taxing base given to other state political sub-Divisions by authority contained in Act 481 of the 1947 Session of the General Assembly.

We solicit the support of the Republican Members of the General Assembly from Allegheny County, especially in the matter of giving information to support the critical need for this legislation. We are proud of the bi-partisan support given to legislation enacted by the 1947 session for the County of Allegheny and the political subdivisions within its boundary including the City of Pittsburgh and its School Districts. It is our hope that this amendment will be so favored.

No Act of the legislature has in recent times been the subject of as much debate and litigation as has Act 481. However it is fair to say that the confusion has been leveled largely at the operation rather than the underlying principle of the measure. If the principle as contained in the Act is sound as I contend that it is, then we should not destroy the Act because those who are charged with the Authority to operate under the Act have in some cases levied arbitrary, oppressive and capricious taxes. I should like at this time to make three comments which I trust will not add to the confusion now existing as a direct result of this law.

1. The Act as passed in 1947 as a measure to relieve many local political sub-divisions from bankruptcy was and is now a step in the right direction, for you cannot expect local Units of Government to meet the present costs of operating without a comprehensive tax base different from what existed prior to 1947. I can visualize a fantastic scheme that would utterly reduce itself to an absurdity so impossible of interpretation that it would make Act 481 appear as the Goddess of Light, if the General Assembly would attempt to enumerate and specify the sources available for local taxation.

Therefore in view of the vast difference and complexion of objects and property which supply the revenues to operate our local Governments, a repeal of Act 481 and an attempt by the legislature to specify and identify objects, transactions or other sources from which revenues for local units of Government could be derived would be a step distinctly backward.

2. The state should not attempt to finance the many necessary operations of local political sub-divisions until such time as both the State and Local Governments concede the operation as a State function or until a dual responsibility such as the cost of our Educational system has been approved, and certainly as in the latter case, Local Units should have insofar as revenue is concerned, elasticity to determine its productive sources to a degree on par with the state. If this be denied, how then can local government pay its rightful share? There could perhaps be at present a greater return by the state to the local unit from moneys derived by taxation on the state level, however, whatever ratio is agreed upon in this connection, will not pay for the added costs of purely local functions nor is it intended that the moneys returned by the state will absolve the local Units from securing revenues to operate in those areas where the state makes no contribution. Local Units of Government must be given every reasonable opportunity to carry their tax obligations or else we should absolve them altogether from maintaining a degree of uniformity in matters of local self government.

3. It is suggested that all the time necessary to restudy Act 481 be taken during this present Session in order to ascertain where it is weak, to what extent it has been used oppressively and arbitrarily. We should take the time to review the many comments from authorities on taxation and the many court decisions that are available. Section 5 of the Act dealing with income and wage taxes should have microscopic review. After marshalling all the facts and without being unduly swayed by those who threaten us with political extinction if we repeal the Act and by those who seek our political heads if we do not repeal the Act, arrive at a just formula that will benefit the people of our Commonwealth.

I pledge to you and to the distinguished Members of this House anything that I can do to see, first, that we arrive at something which will be for the best interests of the local governments and relieve them of the situations they find themselves in today, and second, something that will be for the best interests of all the people of the Commonwealth.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I have no doubt that the Members of the House, irrespective of party, will consider proposed amendments to Act 481, solely from the standpoint of campaign commitments and the wishes of their constituents, and that in this matter they will be solely guided by their conscience and their judgment.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LOVETT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I think this is one of the hottest issues that is going to come before this General Assembly, and as a Member of this House I feel that I would be lax in my duty if I did not at least voice my opinion on this particular matter.

My good friend, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, stated here that the local subdivisions in this State need additional revenue, and that Act 481 gives that revenue.

I have subdivisions in my Legislative district, some of which are in favor of Act 481, and I have others that are opposed to Act 481. I myself and the Members of this House should take into consideration Act 481.

The Constitution of Pennsylvania demands that we have fair and equal taxation. Act 481 has destroyed that very principle in Pennsylvania, and I for one want to voice my opinion that Act 481 should be repealed and that we as Legislators should face our duties and enact taxation and if necessary return it to the municipalities.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to welcome to the Hall of the House a former Member from Philadelphia, Honorable William J. Reilly.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. FILO asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mrs. DYE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, several weeks ago a request was made by the Minority Floor Leader to investigate the result of the School Health Act.

Chairman Lee of the Public Health and Sanitation Committee appointed a subcommittee to make that investigation.

We have spent several weeks in carrying out that investigation and today we have a report ready and I would like to present this report to the Members of the House, and ask that the Clerk read the same for the information of the House.

The report of the subcommittee was read by the Clerk as follows:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC HEALTH AND SANITATION REPORT OF SUBCOMMITTEE INVESTIGATING RESULTS OF THE SCHOOL HEALTH ACT

When the Legislature passed the School Health Act we had to recognize that this new Legislation had to be viewed as experimental. We had no closely related precedent to follow. It was good administration to begin on a conservative basis and then move upward as experience pointed to the desirability of such changes. The program had to be developed through the cooperation of The Department of Health, The Department of Public Instruction, and The Department of Public Assistance.

We present the picture of what has been done in 550 school districts in Pennsylvania in promoting a health program, and believe that this number of districts represents a good cross-section of the Commonwealth's school districts.

The school population of Pennsylvania is approximately 1,800,000. The Health Department, therefore, is annually responsible for the examination of approximately 900,000 children, 20,000 teachers, and approximately 8,000 school employees. To carry out this vast undertaking throughout the state required the services either full or part time of 1,500 doctors and 1,000 dentists. In terms of hours given by the part time men, physicians served over 222,000 hours, and dentists 103,000 hours. This is a fine indication that on a state level both the medical and dental societies are supporting this program and the private practitioner is meeting the demands made upon him and performing well his responsibility in this phase of public health. Since the enactment of Act 522 by the Legislature of 1947 approximately 80 percent of the school districts of the state have been provided with school nursing service.

We submit a preliminary report of the activities of the 550 school districts for the school months of September, October, November, and December of 1948: 4,291 scalp conditions were corrected, and 2,558 are still under treatment. 3,441 children were reported to the local health officer because of suspicion of a communicable disease. Of this number 1,952 were placed under quarantine. This activity further required 22,334 general classroom inspections involving individual inspection of 243,514 individuals. Another service rendered in connection with the control of communicable disease was the checking of children for re-admission to school—49,071 were referred to physicians and 16,679 were checked by the nurse.

During the period, preventive measures were carried out as follows: 62,345 pupils were given complete immunization for diphtheria, 18,541 for tetanus, 6,145 for scarlet fever, 24,418 for whooping cough, and 3,059 for typhoid fever.

As a result of the notices sent to parents and the home visitation by nurses, the following corrections were reported:

Tonsils treated	2,151
Tonsils removed	7,461
Nasal obstruction treated	1,052
Nasal obstruction corrected by operation	4,104
Oral defects, not dental, corrected	196
Orthopedic Corrections:
Poor posture corrected	1,259
Scoliosis	175
Bow Legs	91
Knock Knees	139
Flat Feet	1,531
Total cases under treatment, orthopedic	3,679
Heart conditions:
Rheumatic heart under treatment	1,281
Others (pathological)	1,054
Vision:
Refraction secured	10,871
Strabismus under treatment	1,127
Conjunctivitis under treatment	696
Blepharitis under treatment	270
Others under treatment	309
Ear Defects:
Otitis Media treated	393
Other cases still under treatment	969
Miscellaneous defects not included above	3,313

Since it is the responsibility of the nurse to do some follow-up for the correction of dental defects, the following report would seem pertinent:

Pupils making appointments with private dentists or dental clinics	40,566
Pupils having work done at the office of a private dentist or clinic	27,062
Pupils discharged having all corrections made	19,413
Number of home visits made by nurse on dental problems alone	8,752

In order to secure these corrections, the following interesting figures are called to your attention: 4,583 pupils were referred to school physicians, 26,220 to family physicians, 78 to the Bureau of Rehabilitation, 911 to Pennsylvania Department of Health clinics, 7,385 to hospitals, 11,213 to school clinics, 768 to school psychologists, 142 referred to Health Councils, 485 to the Department of Public Assistance, and 900 to Service Clubs.

Additional examinations were required as follows:

4,005 pupils were examined for certificates for part time employment, and 13,748 were given special examinations required for their participation in inter-scholastic activities.

The follow-up program which produced the above results required home visitation by the nurses. This was represented by 13,301 home visits with reference to corrections to be made as a result of the medical examination.

This is only one phase of the health service in an overall school health program. Other programs are required as a result of this examination, among them being modified programs for the physically handicapped. These programs have increased greatly in number since the passage of Act 425. An increased number of modified programs for these children have been organized and there has been a large increase in the number of homebound children who are now receiving suitable instruction. Modified programs have been set up as follows:

Vision	1,264
Hearing	1,257
Cardiac	1,667
Orthopedic	793
Malnutrition	2,310
Others including post operative or other serious illnesses	2,737

This presents a picture of what has been done during the three months in 550 school districts in Pennsylvania in promoting a health program. This program is continually growing and with proper cooperation and support in the arousing of public interest, Pennsylvania will ultimately be receiving a service unequalled in the United States. We will have to wait until the end of the present school year for a reappraisal of the results of the program, as at that time reports will be available which will give the number of children examined and the number found with remediable defects. It is our thought that, judging by reports now on file, the number of remediable defects will fall below those recorded in former years, thus indicating that corrections are now being made and that the school children are gradually but progressively being improved in their physical condition.

Finally we present, below, a sample of the corrective service that is now provided in a school district having well established nursing service:

Number of pupils examined	7,339
Pupils, non-correctable or under treatment	2,490
Number of pupils normal	3,526
Number of treatment advised slips issued	1,323
Number of pupils who withdrew before follow-up	113
Number of pupils investigated by school nurses	1,210
Number of pupils treated by physicians	1,011
Number of pupils whose parents object to treatment	90
Number of pupils whose parents neglect treatment	73
Number of pupils whose parents cannot afford treatment	36

We had reports from the Pittsburgh school districts, the Philadelphia school districts, the York County Public Schools, and a number of the smaller districts. They all expressed an opinion that a great deal was being accomplished under The School Health Act to promote better health for school children. And that the School Health Act must be held on the statute books for several more years for the future to determine its success or failure. And that the School Health Act has not had sufficient trial as yet to judge its effectiveness. These statements are available to anyone who wants to see them.

Questions Raised by the Committee:

Of the $296,830.00 allocated to the Department of Public Assistance to authorize payment for necessary medical, dental, and surgical care for children examined under the School Health Act whose parents are financially unable to pay for remedial care, only $17,361.68 has been spent. We believe that people can't be expected to support their families adequately at the values that have been established in the income scale by the Department of Public Assistance and still be in a position to pay for necessary medical care for their children. Since the cost of living has increased, it would seem advisable to revise upward the scale of monthly income below which an applicant is considered eligible.

We also had a report from the Pittsburgh School Districts that physicians examining children in their district receive only $1.00 per examination for their services, while school districts of other classes pay $1.50 per examination, which seems little enough.

We received some constructive suggestions as to how the administration of the School Health Act could be improved and the committee suggests we pass these along to the department administering the act.

In conclusion it appears the School Health Act is serving a real objective.

JEANETTE M. DYE, Chairman
BENJAMIN S. ALTSHULER

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mrs. DYE asked and obtained permission to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, if any Member would like to know how much money has been allocated to his township and what amount of that money has been spent, I can give him that information. We were amazed to know that such a small amount of money has been used. So, I have that information for anybody who is interested in having it.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I just arise to thank the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Lee, and the lady from Mercer, Mrs. Dye, for the comprehensive way in which they have handled the commission that was committed to them.

JUNIATA VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time welcomes to the Hall of the House two sections in Pennsylvania History of the Freshman class of the Juniata Valley High School at Alexandria and Petersburg who are here as the guests of the gentleman from Huntingdon, Mr. Neff.

The Chair is informed that this is also the High School attended by Mr. Neff, that he graduated from this High School and later became a Member of the House. The class is in charge of Mr. Stout, Assistant Principal, and Mrs. Farrar, teacher.

EAST DONEGAL TOWNSHIP SCHOOL WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair also desires to welcome to the Hall of the House pupils from the East Donegal Township School, under the direction of Mr. Hollinger. They are the guests of the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Bomberger.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. McMILLEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, before taking up the calendar I would like to call to the attention of the Members the report of the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission, along with an aeronautical chart which was put in your mail today.

You will also have delivered at home by mail the Renestrom report on the aeronautical needs for Pennsylvania, which I think you will find very instructive and will be an addition to your library.

REPORT OF PENNSYLVANIA AERONAUTICS COMMISSION 1947-48

Mr. McMILLEN presented a report and map of the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission 1947-48 which was read by the Clerk.

(For report, see Appendix)

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 206, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two thousand eight hundred one A of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177) entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employees in certain departments boards and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employees of certain departments boards and commissions shall be determined" further regulating the disposition of museum material in the custody of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, with the consent of the sponsors, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on State Government for further study.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 365, entitled:

An Act to amend the Act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by making it unlawful for any person to hunt with any shotgun or rifle when such firearm is loaded with live ammunition in either the chamber or magazine if the firearm is ready to be discharged by normal finger pressure on the trigger or if the safety device or mechanism is in the "off safe" position except during the momentary interval of time necessary to discharge such firearm and providing penalties

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 118, Printer's No. 15, was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state it.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, is it permissible at this time to call up a bill on the second reading postponed calendar?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in order to do so.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I therefore call up House Bill 128, Printer's No. 73, page 3 of today's calendar.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I have no objection to calling this bill from the second reading calendar, with the understanding that it will be amended on third reading and not debated too at that time.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I personally will not object to the gentleman introducing amendments on third reading. I certainly do not at this time commit myself to the amendments, however.

The SPEAKER. Both gentlemen understand that it requires unanimous consent of the House to submit amendments on third reading?

Mr. BROWN. I do, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Union County, Mr. Reagan, understand that it requires unanimous consent of the House to submit amendments on third reading?

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, that is the understanding that I had with Mr. Brown yesterday on this proposition.

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that the gentleman from Allegheny will not offer objections to such amendments, but the Chair has no such understanding from the other Members of the House.

Mr. REAGAN. All right, Mr. Speaker.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar, by Mr. HOMER S. BROWN and

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House resumed the consideration on second reading of House Bill No. 128, entitled:

An Act to amend section nine of the act approved the seventh day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1410) entitled "An act to fix the salaries and compensation of the judges of the Supreme Court the judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas the judges of the orphans' courts the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County certain associate judges not learned in the law and repealing certain acts inconsistent herewith" by increasing the compensation of judges presiding in other districts

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 151, as follows:

An Act to further amend section fourteen (c) of the act approved the tenth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 485) entitled "An Act to provide for the better protection of life and health of the citizens of this Commonwealth by requiring and regulating the examination licensure and registration of persons and registration of corporations engaging in the care preparation and disposition of the bodies of deceased persons and providing penalties" by providing for the appointment of members of the State Board of Undertakers from a list submitted to the Governor by the Funeral Directors Association of the State of Pennsylvania

Section 1 Section fourteen (c) of the act approved the tenth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 485) entitled "An act to provide for the better protection of life and health of the citizens of this Commonwealth by requiring and regulating the examination licensure and registration of persons and registration of corporations engaging in the care preparation and disposition of the bodies of deceased persons and providing penalties" as amended by the act approved the nineteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1324) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 14(c) The board shall consist of five members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate from a list of not less than ten names for each vacancy submitted to the Governor by the board of governors of the Funeral Directors Association of the State of Pennsylvania All appointments after the passage of this act shall be made from licensed funeral directors of good moral character

At the expiration of the term of the member whose term shall expire first then his successor shall be appointed for a term expiring August thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and forty-two at the expiration of the term of the member whose term is second to expire his successor shall be appointed for a term to expire August thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and forty-three at the expiration of the term of the member whose term is third to expire his successor shall be appointed for a term to expire August thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and forty-four at the expiration of the term of the member whose term is fourth to expire his successor shall be appointed for a term expiring August thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and forty-five at the expiration of the term of the member whose term is last to expire he shall be appointed for a term expiring August thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and forty-six Thereafter all appointments shall be made for terms of five years expiring August thirty-first of each year Whenever a vacancy shall occur before the expiration of the term of any member then the succeeding appointment shall be for the unexpired portion of the said term it being the intention of this act that one member of the board shall be appointed annually to fill the vacancy of a member whose regular term expires on August thirty-first of each year Providing always that at the expiration of a member's tenure he shall continue to serve on the board until his successor shall have been appointed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GRANVILLE E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I rise in interest of this bill to speak on the merits and principles which it contains.

As a rookey, as I am often called by the Press in Philadelphia, I am somewhat proud of that name, because I have had to come up from the ranks fighting my way to this position as State Representative for the constituents of the district that I now represent. Having bestowed upon me the honor, respect, distinction and confidence, to keep a watchful eye on such legislation that may be introduced in this session of interest to them. Being mindful of this fact entrusted in me, I have been constantly on the job. So now my colleagues have begun to call me "Senator," and I rather like this name also. I think that I should take this matter of the "Senatorship" up with by constituents back home and see what they think of it.

No doubt some of the older or veteran Members of the General Assembly have seen my face before, somewhere in the Halls of this House, listening to the various speeches coming from very corner or spot in this House. So, as the spotlight is played in the corner which I do now occupy, it becomes my time and opportunity to speak for this bill 151, which I am particularly interested in.

The purpose of this bill is to elevate the standards of the Funeral Directors' profession by assuring the appointment of qualified members of the State Board of Undertakers. Through the passage of the bill the appointment of the board members will be removed from politics.

The extent of this bill is merely to amend the provisions of the Undertakers' Law relating to the appointment of members to the State Board of Undertakers. The provisions of the Undertakers' Law regarding qualifications, and so forth, are not changed by this bill. The requirement that appointment be made from a list supplied by the Funeral Directors Association of the state of Pennsylvania is a procedure followed by many other state boards, notably nurses, professional engineers, and so forth.

There are some one hundred fifty names already listed for the three vacancies on the State Board now existing. When this bill shall have passed and becomes enacted into law, I trust that His Excellency, the Governor, while scrutinizing the list of names submitted by the Funeral Directors Association, shall find the individuals thereon who will be and have been advocated as members of the State Board of Undertakers mentioned by the colored constituents of this Commonwealth. Finally, when the roll is called, I hope that every member on both sides of this House will vote "Aye."

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to enter a word of dissent. The gentleman from Philadelphia expressed an ambition to go over to the State Senate. Most of us on this side of the House prefer to liquidate it.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds may contain provisions which shall be part of the contract with the holders thereof as to (a) pledging the full faith and credit of the Authority (but not of the Commonwealth or any county or other political subdivision thereof) for such obligations or restricting the same to all or any of the revenues rentals or receipts of the Authority from all or any projects or properties (b) the construction improvement operation extension enlargement equipping furnishing maintenance and repair of any project or projects and the duties of the Authority with reference thereto (c) the terms and provisions of the bonds (d) limitations on the purposes to which the proceeds of the bonds then or thereafter to be issued or of any loan or grant by the United States may be applied (e) the rate of tolls rentals and other charges for use of the facilities of or for the services rendered by the Authority including limitations upon the power of the Authority to modify any leases or other agreements pursuant to which any tolls rentals or other charges are payable (f) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof (g) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds (h) the terms and provisions of any deed or trust or indenture securing the bonds or under which the same may be issued and (i) any other or additional agreements with the holders of the bonds

The Authority may enter into any deeds of trust indentures or other agreements with any bank or trust company or other person or persons in the United States having power to enter into the same including any Federal agency as security for such bonds and may assign and pledge all or any of the revenues rentals or receipts of the Authority thereunder. Such deed of trust indenture or other agreement may contain such provisions as may be customary in such instruments or as the Authority may authorize including (but without limitation) provisions as to (i) the construction improvement operation equipping furnishing maintenance and repair of any project or projects and the duties of the Authority with reference thereto (ii) the application of funds and the safeguarding of funds on hand or on deposit (iii) the rights and remedies of said trustees and the holders of the bonds (which may include restrictions upon the individual right of action of such bondholders) and (iv) the terms and provisions of the bonds or the resolution authorizing the issuance of the same

Said bonds shall have all the qualities of negotiable instruments under the law merchant and the negotiable instruments law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 6 Remedies of bondholders The rights and the remedies herein conferred upon or granted to the bondholders shall be in addition to and not in limitation of any rights and remedies lawfully granted to such bondholders by the resolution or resolutions providing for the issuance of bonds or by any deed of trust indenture or other agreement under which the same may be issued. In the event that the Authority shall default in the payment of principal or interest on any of the bonds after said principal or interest shall become due whether at maturity or upon call for redemption and such default shall continue for a period of thirty (30) days or in the event that the Authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this act or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of the bonds the holders of twenty-five per centum (25%) in aggregate principal amount of the bonds then outstanding by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded may (except as such right may be limited under the provisions of any deed of trust indenture or other agreement as aforesaid) appoint a trustee to represent the bondholders for the purposes herein provided. Such trustee and any trustee under any deed of trust indenture or other agreement may and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum (25%) (or such other percentage as may be specified in any deed of trust indenture or other agreement aforesaid) in principal amount of the bonds then outstanding shall in his or its own name

(a) by mandamus or other suit action or proceeding at law or in equity enforce all rights of the bondholders including the right to require the Authority to collect rates rentals and other charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to or pledge of the revenues or receipts of the Authority and to require the Authority to carry out any other agreements with or for the benefit of the bondholders and to perform its and their duties under this act

(b) bring suit upon the bonds

(c) by action or suit in equity require the Authority to accounts as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the bondholders

(d) by action or suit in equity enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the bondholders

(e) by notice in writing to the Authority declare all bonds due and payable and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum (25%) (or such other percentage as may be specified in any deed of trust indenture or other agreement aforesaid) of the principal amount of the bonds then outstanding to annul such declaration and its consequences

Any trustee whether appointed as aforesaid or acting under a deed of trust indenture or other agreement and whether or not all bonds have been declared due and payable shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver who may (to the same extent that the Authority itself could so do) enter and take possession of the facilities of the Authority or any parts thereof the revenues rentals or receipts from which are or may be applicable to the payment of the bonds so in default and operate and maintain the same and collect and receive all rentals and other revenues thereafter arising therefrom in the same manner as the Authority might do and shall deposit all such moneys in a separate account and apply the same in such manner as the court shall direct. In any suit action or proceeding by the trustees the fees counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver if any and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues and receipts derived from the facilities of the Authority the revenues or receipts from which are or may be applicable to the payment of the bonds so in default. Said trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of the bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

In addition to all other rights and all other remedies any holder of bonds of the Authority shall have the right by mandamus or other suit action or proceeding at law or in equity to enforce his rights against the Authority including the right to require the Authority to collect fees rental and other charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to or pledge of such fees rentals or other charges or income revenues and receipts and to require the Authority to carry out any of its covenants and agreements with the bondholders and to perform its and their duties under this act. Provided however That nothing in this section or any other section of this act shall authorize any receiver appointed pursuant to this act for the purpose of operating and maintaining any facilities of the Authority to sell assign mortgage or otherwise dispose of any of the assets of whatever kind and character belonging to the Authority. It is the intention of this act to limit the powers of such receiver to the operation and maintenance of the facilities of the Authority as the court shall direct and no holder of bonds of the Authority nor any trustee shall ever have the right in any suit action or proceedings at law or in equity to compel a receiver nor shall any receiver ever be authorized or any court be empowered to direct the receiver to sell assign mortgage or otherwise dispose of any assets of whatever kind or character belonging to the Authority

Section 7 Governing Body The powers of the Authority shall be exercised by a governing body consisting of the members of the Authority acting as a board. Within ninety (90) days after this act shall become effective the board shall meet and organize by electing from their number a president a treasurer and a secretary. At the first regular meeting in each year thereafter they shall elect from their number a president a treasurer and a secretary

Seven (7) members shall constitute a quorum of the board for the purpose of organizing the Authority and conducting the business thereof and for all other purposes and all action shall only be taken by vote of a majority of the members of the Authority unless in any case the bylaws shall require a larger number

The board shall have full authority to manage the properties and business of the Authority and to prescribe amend and repeal bylaws rules and regulations governing the manner in which the business of the Authority may be conducted and the powers granted to it may be exercised and embodied. The board shall fix and determine the number of officers agents and employees of the Authority and their respective compensation and duties and may delegate to one or more of their number or to one or more of said officers agents or employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper

Section 8 Moneys of the Authority All moneys of the Authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the Authority. Said moneys shall be deposited in the first instance by the treasurer in one or more banks or trust companies in one or more special accounts and each of such special accounts shall be continuously secured by a pledge of direct obligations of the United States of America of the Commonwealth or of the county having an aggregate market value exclusive of accrued interest at all times at least equal to the balance on deposit in such account. Such securities shall either be deposited with the treasurer or be held by a trustee or agent satisfactory to the Authority. All banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The moneys in said accounts shall be paid out on the warrant or other order of the treasurer of the Authority or of such other person or persons as the Authority may authorize to execute such warrants or orders. The Department of Revenue of the Commonwealth and its legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the Authority including its receipts disbursements contracts leases sinking funds investments and any other matters relating to its finances operation and affairs.

Section 9 Grant of Lands by Department to Authority The department shall have power and authority with the approval of the Governor to grant assign convey to the Authority with or without consideration any lands easements or rights in lands together with any improvements buildings or structures therein or thereon now owned by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or hereafter acquired by it needed or convenient for the corporate purposes of the Authority or to lease to the Authority for a term not exceeding ninety-nine (99) years at a nominal or such other rental as may be determined any or all such lands easements or rights in lands together with any improvements buildings or structures therein or thereon.

Section 9.1 Contracts to Lease and Leases by Department from Authority The department shall have power and authority with the approval of the Governor to enter into contracts with the Authority to lease as lessee from the Authority any or all of the projects undertaken by the Authority for a term with respect to each project constructed not exceeding thirty (30) years at such rental or rentals as may be determined by the Authority and upon the completion of the said projects the department shall have power and authority with the approval of the Governor to lease as lessee any or all of the projects completed by the Authority for a term with respect to each project leased not exceeding thirty (30) years at such rental or rentals as may be determined by the Authority.

The department shall also have power and authority with the approval of the Governor to lease as lessee any equipment and furnishings from the Authority required for the use and occupancy of any project previously leased by the department where such prior lease did not include such equipment and furnishings.

Section 9.2 Contracts to Lease and Leases by Department of Public Instruction and School Districts from Authority The Department of Public Instruction and any school district shall have power and authority with the approval of the Governor to enter into contracts with the Authority to lease as lessee from the Authority any school building and the furnishings and equipment thereof constructed or improved by the Authority for a term with respect to each not exceeding thirty (30) years at such rental or rentals as may be determined by the Authority and upon the completion of said school building and the furnishings and equipment thereof the department and school district shall have power and authority with the approval of the Governor to lease as lessee any school building and the furnishings and equipment thereof completed by the Authority for a term with respect to each not exceeding thirty (30) years at such rental or rentals as may be determined by the Authority.

Section 10 Acquisition of Lands The department shall have power and authority with the approval of the Governor to acquire title in the name of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to any additional lands or interest in lands which may be required for the corporate purposes of the Authority and payment therefor shall be made by the department. The power hereby conferred upon the department shall not limit or restrict the power of the Authority itself to acquire lands or interests in lands in the name of the Authority.

Section 11 Competition in Award of Contracts If any project or any portion thereof or any improvement thereof shall be constructed equipped or furnished pursuant to a contract and the estimated cost thereof exceeds five hundred dollars ($500) such contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder after advertisement for bids. The Authority may make rules and regulations for the submission of bids and the construction equipping furnishing or improvement of any project or portion thereof. No contract shall be entered into for construction equipping furnishing or improvement of any project or portion thereof or for the purchase of materials unless the contractor shall give an undertaking with a sufficient surety or sureties approved by the Authority and in an amount fixed by the Authority for the faithful performance of the contract and such contract shall be accompanied by an additional bond for the protection of those who furnish labor and material for such amount and subject to the same terms and conditions as recommended by The Administrative Code of one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine as amended on contracts entered into by the Department of Property and Supplies for the erection of buildings. All construction contracts shall provide among other things that the person or corporation entering into such contract with the Authority will pay for all materials furnished and services rendered for the performance of the contract and that any person or corporation furnishing such materials or rendering such services may maintain an action to recover for the same against the obligor in the undertaking as though such person or corporation was named therein provided the action is brought within one (1) year after the time the cause of action accrued. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the Authority to construct any project or portion thereof or any addition betterment or extension thereto directly by the officers agents and employees of the Authority or by agreements with the Federal or State governments or any agency or department or either thereof.

Subject to the aforesaid the Authority may (but without intending by this provision to limit any powers of such Authority) enter into and carry out such contracts or establish or comply with such rules and regulations concerning labor and materials and other related matters in connection with any project or portion thereof as the Authority may deem desirable or as may be requested by any Federal agency that may assist in the financing of such project or any parts thereof.

Section 12 Acquisition of Lands The Authority shall have the power to acquire by purchase or eminent domain proceedings either the fee or such right title interest or easement in such lands as the Authority may deem necessary for any of the purposes mentioned in this act. Provided however That no lands interest in lands or property used as a burial ground or place of public worship shall be appropriated by virtue of power of eminent domain hereby conferred.

Whenever the Authority desires to acquire land to carry on its purposes and a price for such lands or the interest therein desired cannot be agreed upon with the owner or owners thereof or where such owner or owners cannot be found in all such cases the Authority is authorized to acquire the land or the interest therein desired by eminent domain proceedings.

Thereupon the Authority may apply to the court of common pleas of the county wherein such lands are located for the appointment of viewers. The application for the appointment of viewers shall recite (1) the failure of the parties to agree to a price for such lands or interest therein desired or the owner or owners thereof cannot be found (2) a statement of the Authority under which and the purpose for which said lands or interest therein are taken (3) a statement of the estate or interest in said lands taken (4) a description and plan of the lands taken.

and (5) a statement of the names and address if known of the owners of the land

Upon the court's order appointing viewers being made and duly entered in the office of the prothonotary as well as recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds in the county wherein said land is situated the title to the said land in fee simple absolute or such less estates right shall vest in the Authority and said lands shall thereupon be deemed to be condemned and taken for the use of the Authority and the Authority shall forthwith have the right to enter on and use same subject title interest or easement therein as is specified in said applications to the right to just compensation to the owners thereof as ascertained and awarded in the condemnation proceedings and established by judgment therein and the said judgment shall include as part of the just compensation awarded interest at the rate of six per centum (6%) per annum on the amount finally awarded as the value of the land in fee simple absolute or such less estate right title interest or easement therein as of the date of the filing of the order made for the appointment of viewers to the date of final judgment thereon

The court shall have power to make such orders in respect of encumbrances liens rents taxes assessments insurance and other charges if any as shall be just and equitable

The court shall appoint three (3) viewers and shall approve a time not less than twenty (20) nor more than thirty (30) days after the presentation of the petition for the appointment when the viewers shall meet upon the lands and view the same and all improvements in connection therewith

The viewers shall give at least ten (10) days notice of their first meeting to the President of the Authority and to the owners of such land if known If the owners of such lands are unknown notice shall be given in at least two (2) newspapers of general circulation in such manner as the court may direct The viewers having been sworn or affirmed faithfully justly and impartially to decide and a true report to make concerning all matters to be submitted to them in relation to which they are authorized to inquire and having viewed the lands and premises shall hear the parties and their witnesses and shall estimate and determine the value of the property so taken Where the owner of such lands and premises is unknown the viewers shall estimate and determine the value of the land and improvements upon the testimony of the witnesses for the Authority and any witnesses called by the viewers

When the report is filed notice thereof shall immediately be given to the President of the Authority and to the owners of the land where known which notice shall state that unless exceptions be filed thereto within thirty (30) days after the filing of the report the same will be confirmed absolutely Where any owners of such lands are unknown notice shall be given in at least two (2) newspapers of general circulation in such manner as the court shall direct

Within thirty (30) days after the filing of any report the Authority or the owners of such lands may file exceptions to the same and the court shall confirm modify or change such report or refer the same back to the same or new viewers

When the report is filed the prothonotary shall mark it "confirmed nisi" In case no exceptions are filed thereto within the time herein specified the court shall make a decree that the report is confirmed absolutely which decree shall be entered by the prothonotary

Within thirty (30) days after any report of viewers is filed under this act the Authority or the owners of such land may appeal to the court of common pleas and demand a trial by jury Within six (6) months after a confirmation absolute on exceptions or within six (6) months after a verdict and final judgment on appeal for a jury trial the President of the Authority or the owners of such land may appeal to the Supreme or to the Superior Court as in other cases

has been finally determined the same shall be paid by the Authority from its funds All costs in connection with any such proceedings shall be paid by the Authority in like manner

In all cases where the owners of lands are unknown and the report of viewers has been finally confirmed the Authority shall be liable for all damages awarded therein If at any time after the final confirmation of the report of viewers any person appears and proves title to said lands such persons shall be entitled to and receive from the Authority the sum so awarded by the viewers Any such claimant of the land may petition the court of common pleas of the county wherein the land is located giving a brief outline of the facts upon which the claim is based Thereupon the court shall direct an issue to be framed wherein the claimant shall appear as plaintiff and The General State Authority as defendant Such issue shall be tried according to the rules of procedure and evidence governing trials in ejectment with a right of appeal by either party to the proper appellate court If the final judgment on such issue is in favor of the plaintiff the sum awarded by the report as finally confirmed shall be paid by the Authority to said claimant The party to the action against whom the judgment is entered shall be liable for the costs as provided by law in other civil actions

Section 13 Use of Projects The use of facilities of the Authority and the operation of its business shall be subject to the rules and regulations from time to time adopted by the Authority Provided however That the Authority shall not be authorized to do anything which will impair the security of the holders of the obligations of the Authority or violate any agreements with them or for their benefit

Section 14 Limitation of Powers The Commonwealth does hereby pledge to and agree with any person firm or corporation or Federal agency subscribing to or acquiring the bonds to be issued by the Authority for the construction extension improvement equipping furnishing or enlargement of any project or part thereof that the Commonwealth will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the Authority until all bonds at any time issued together with the interest thereon are fully met and discharged The Commonwealth does further pledge to and agree with the United States and any other Federal agency that in the event that any Federal agency shall construct or contribute any funds for the construction extension improvement equipping furnishing or enlargement of any project or any portion thereof the Commonwealth will not alter or limit the rights and powers of the Authority in any manner which would be inconsistent with the continued maintenance and operation of the project or the improvement thereof or which would be inconsistent with the due performance of any agreements between the Authority and any such Federal agency and the Authority shall continue to have any may exercise all powers herein granted so long as the same shall be necessary or desirable for the carrying out of the purposes of this act

Section 15 Exemption from Taxation The effectuation of the authorized purposes of the Authority created under this act shall and will be in all respects for the benefit of the people of the Commonwealth for the increase of their commerce and prosperity and for the improvement of their health and living conditions and since the Authority will be performing essential governmental functions in effectuating such purposes the Authority shall not be required to pay any taxes or assessment upon any property acquired or used by it for such purposes and the bonds issued by the Authority their transfer and the income therefrom (including any profits made on the sale thereof) shall at all times be free from taxation other than inheritance and estate taxation within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 16 Constitutional Construction The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of the provisions thereof shall be held unconstitutional such decisions shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act. It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein.

Section 17. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon enactment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Floor Leader, the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. May I ask the Speaker if it is all right to discuss both of these bills at the same time?

Mr. BRUNNER. It is all right with me, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections, the Chair will thank both the gentlemen to do so.

Will the House give its unanimous consent to debating House Bill 565 and House Bill 566 on page 5 of today's calendar at the same time? The Chair hears no objection. The gentlemen will proceed.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, under the General State Authority bill, does the Authority only have the power to supply buildings and not have any power to pay operating expenses in mental institutions?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, if I interpret the gentleman's question accurately, may I answer him in this manner.

The General State Authority is being passed at this time for the purpose of constructing permanent capital improvements, and therefore personnel who will be employed, such as employees at mental institutions, will not be paid by the General State Authority.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 566, which is the Highway Authority, I wish the gentleman would tell me if he knows whether or not it would be possible to have the Highway Authority take over toll bridges and free those bridges also?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, in section 4 on page 5, the Authority is created for the purpose of constructing, reconstructing, improving, equipping, furnishing, maintaining and operating State highways, bridges, toll bridges and so forth, and to acquire,—this is subsection (d), under agreement with the Department of Highways, with the approval of the Governor, such highway bridge easements or rights of way necessary or desirable for carrying out the purposes of the authority.

I believe that it would be possible to acquire toll bridges under the authority of this bill. However, may I call this fact to the gentleman's attention? There appears to have been a bond issue approved back in 1933, for ten million dollars, which fund is being considered—I mean the bonds to be sold and the cash made available for acquisition of toll bridges in this State. While the legislation has not been submitted to us in this House, the 10 million dollars in the opinion of those who have made a study, will be sufficient to acquire title to all the toll bridges in the State.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman, if under this Authority in the building of new bridges the Authority could charge toll.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I say to the gentleman that if the Authority under this bill builds a bridge it can retain title to that bridge and collect toll; it can lease to the Department of Highways and the Highway Department in my opinion can collect toll. I do not believe that is contemplated as a regular program, but under the authority of this act it can be done.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman think that it would be good legislation to provide that that be done?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I subscribe to this bill in its present form.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, in regard to the General State Authority Act, I realize that the Members on the other side of this House will say to me that as a Democrat, the Democrats enacted such legislation prior to this time. I do not object to a General State Authority but I do feel that there should be certain safeguards in the legislation. I realize that at the time we enacted the General State Authority, conditions in the state and the nation were much different from what they are today. I might say "Too late with too little."

I realize that under an Authority in a building program, with the scarcity of material today, that we are in competition, and that costs are high. That did not exist at the time we originally enacted the Authority. Those are the things that I feel should be safeguarded in Authorities at this particular time.

Furthermore, if you gentlemen have ever visited our mental institutions—and some of you have because I have been with you, when you visited them, you realized, as I have realized, that there are over-crowded conditions. You will say that we need new buildings; that is possibly true. You will also say that the institutions are understaffed and poorly paid. The General State Authority will not cure that condition, and I say to you in this day and age, if the Governor's statements are true that these patients can be helped and returned to normal life, that temporary buildings will be much better than expensive buildings. Conditions in mental ailments such as climate, all those things—enter into the matter. In this day and age of travel we could locate such institutions, possibly in such places where we could use prefabs very successfully in the care of our mental patients.

Those are the things that we should consider. We should also consider the causes of our mental illnesses. Our laws in Pennsylvania on Workmen's Compensation, and other laws in the state of Pennsylvania where the widows apply for help night after night, may cause some of the illnesses in mental cases. If we can remove those causes, there are many others whom we can help.

So much for the mental cases. On our highway question, we introduced legislation to build bridges. The Highway Department suggested that we charge a toll until they are paid for. Why should there not be something in this bill whereby to a certain extent there should be a toll charged. We have come a long way in this question.

Some will say to me that my party stood for the freeing of bridges. That is possibly true. I am not so sure that many of us have not changed our minds, because the special interests pay the biggest toll. Therefore, I feel that while we have no objection to a State Authority or Highway Authority, we still feel that there should be certain safeguards, especially at this time.

The gentleman from Allegheny yesterday tried to offer amendments to this bill, to the General State Authority Bill. I am not in favor of limiting the amounts, but I am in favor of certain safeguards, and some jurisdiction whereby the General State Authority or the Highway Authority cannot go off on a tangent.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, if the Minority Leader wishes to make some comments at this time I will yield to him.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, desire to be recognized on this bill?

Mr. ANDREWS. I do, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria will proceed.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the reluctance of the Majority Leader to lead with his chin in this matter. He would be much more fortunate in swinging at mine.

These two Authority bills, Mr. Speaker, represent and have represented for some time a consummation devoutly to be wished, something for which we on this side of the House have been hoping and looking for.

Now, Mr. Speaker, a clergyman once had a very bad male parrot. That parrot certainly knew how to swear. A lady parishoner had a very nice lady parrot that was always praying. So, they conceived the idea that if they would put the bad parrot in with the nice parrot, maybe the bad parrot would be civilized and change his ways. So, the bad parrot was put in with the lady parrot. He cocked his head and looked at the lady parrot and said, "How about a little necking?" The lady parrot said, "What do you suppose I have been praying for all these years?"

So, Mr. Speaker, I say to the Majority Leader, "What do you suppose we have been praying for all these years?"

I hold in my hand a clipping from a newspaper of general circulation, dated February 6, 1947, which recounts how the majority urges Duff to set up a General State Authority. Something must have obstructed the pipeline to the Executive Chamber for some time. I compliment the majority upon having cleared the way of that obstruction.

Now, it would not be fitting, Mr. Speaker, it would be cruel, and as a matter of fact, as the Speaker knows and as the Majority Leader knows, I never have been cruel, but here is a very interesting list. It is a list of those Members of the majority party now in this House who so valiantly and with such determination voted to liquidate the General State Authority.

I can remember with what eloquence they spoke, and in what convincing manner. Well, now, on this list I see, well, a gentleman from Elk by the name of Sorg. He said that this Authority is a Democratic notion that has been forced upon the state by ill-advised counsel.

Then, of course, Mr. Speaker, there is a gentleman from somewhere down in the eastern part of the state, Mr. Brunner, who was against the Authority. Oh, yes, Flynn, Ewing, Erb, and the perennial Mr. Wood, he was there. There were also Moore, Milliken, Goodling, Greenwood, Stuart and Tahl, Cooper and the vigilant Cadwalader. Also Bower—Bower a tower of strength in tearing down the iniquitous Authority that the Democrats had forced from the people of the Commonwealth; Haudenshield was there, and I should not forget my good friend the gentleman from Indiana Mr. Hewitt. He had no use for the rotten authority from the beginning and said it just wasn't any good.

Now, Mr. Speaker, we are passing these Authority bills with a view, if possible, of rectifying the wrong done to the financial structure of this state when the General State Authority was liquidated.

Those of you who were in touch with the course of events know that if that General State Authority had not been liquidated and if the question of increased appropriations for the school districts had not arisen, that we would not now be confronted with House Bill 565. The genesis of House Bill 565 was in the liquidation of the General State Authority, trying by means of Authority to repair the damage done and making a try at bringing into actual balance a budget, Mr. Speaker, six million dollars out of balance.

It is my hope, and I think the Majority Leader entertains that hope, that possibly by means of this Authority it may be possible to salvage here and there a little money originally dedicated for construction, that can be used for current expenses. A budget that shows only a surplus of less than one million dollars is a dangerous budget. This budget is in balance solely by the fact that appropriations for the Department of Public Assistance were deliberately underestimated, and without supplementary funds of some sort, this budget faces an inevitable deficit in excess of twelve million dollars, and I write that on the wall as a prophecy.

Fortunately, Mr. Speaker, we have a very hard working and self-effacing Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, who does not sound his own praise, but up to the present time that appropriations committee has been able to find in one place five hundred thousand dollars that the budget office did not know anything about; they have been able to find a place where they can get a million and a half dollars that the budget office did not know anything about. There is another place where they can get three hundred thousand dollars that the budget office didn't know anything about, and it is likely that they will turn up with five or six million dollars that the budget office didn't know anything about, and that consequently the Governor didn't know anything about, and it is not in his budget. He will absolutely have to have that amount of money, plus an additional amount that may be recovered from appropriations or allocated to construction but not yet spent.

I do not intend to discuss that matter at this time but I shall expect from the Majority Leader at an early date a statement as to whether or not we have in any way buttressed the current budget in relation to current expenses by reason of the passage of this bill; I am sure that if we have not substantially buttressed this budget; we will have substantially weakened the underpinnings of the next budget.

So, I conclude, Mr. Speaker, that these bills are a consummation devoutly to be wished.

I do not want to say that Authorities were something that the minority party invented. The Democrats simply had sense enough to use the idea, an idea that has been prevalent in administration for over seventy-five years. I am pleased that you will find that even the most abandoned sinner can return while the light continues to burn, and I welcome the Majority Leader over on this side of the House to receive continued counsel from time to time.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, from the tenor of the gentleman's remarks I get the definite impression that because of his sincere and devout interest in good government this week instead of last week, should have been brotherhood week. Perhaps those remarks would have been much better last week, when we read reports which emanated from Washington, D. C., but unfortunately the only good news we had last week was that Grady the cow got out of the silo.

Mr. Speaker, I do not know how to cover completely the erudite statement of the gentleman from Cambria and also the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, who preceded him. I am glad he realized, however, as Mr. Lovett did not, that the General State Authority legislation is not a peculiar possession or idea or creation of the Democratic party in this state, or for that matter of any other state in this nation, because it so happens that Authorities have existed throughout this world for the past one hundred years, originating in England.

Back in the days when some of you may not remember, there was a Republican Governor of New York State, Miller by name, who created that famous and continuing Authority for the Port of New York City. Even in Pennsylvania in 1930, if you please, under a Republican administration, an authority law was passed for Second Class Counties.

It so happens that in 1935 when the General State Authority bill was submitted to this legislature, we find there were 31 Republicans and 19 Democrats in the state Senate. The House at that time had a majority of Democrats. We find that in the passage of that bill through the legislature, a perusal of the Legislative Journal will show that it contains not one word of debate either in the House or in the Senate during the passage of this legislation. I would not know who the lone Senator was who voted against the measure, but I do know that the House of Representatives voted 208 to 0, and therefore the Authority continued. It did its purpose, and when we came around to 1945 we determined that we could use current revenues for permanent public improvements, that is permanent capital improvements.

I am sure, Mr. Speaker, that the gentleman does not want to borrow money when he has money in the bank. For that reason we determined that there was no longer a need for the General State Authority at that time, and therefore, we liquidated it and used the surplus that was in the Treasury to pay off the bonds.

In 1947 it was determined that an increased construction program was necessary in this state. I well remember the gentleman at that time stating that he thought a General State Authority should be created. However, I think that our position was correct, that so long as we had current revenues there was no need for the Commonwealth to use an Authority and thus far we have had current revenues.

Now, we come to the 1949 session. May I say, going back to what occurred in 1935, when we liquidated the General State Authority, we did so on the ground that I have just revealed to the gentleman, that nowhere could we find that the General State Authority was to be used during the 1945 session or the 1947 session, but now, Mr. Speaker, there is a need; we have many capital improvements that our current revenues cannot take care of. There are capital improvements that must be taken care of now, not twenty years from now, not ten years from now, not four years from now, not two years from now, and for that reason we wish to put into effect a General State Authority program that will take care of, in approximate amounts, to the mental hospitals the sum of eighty million dollars; institutions for the feeble-minded, three million, eight hundred thousand dollars; medical-surgical hospitals, three million, two hundred thousand dollars; penal institutions, three and one half million dollars; teacher's colleges, thirteen million dollars; soldiers and orphans school, five million dollars; forests and waters, twenty-four million dollars, and various other lesser amounts, for small projects.

Mr. Speaker, I think under the circumstances we are doing the correct thing, and as I said earlier, I subscribe to this program.

May I reply briefly to the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett? I think that I share with him a sincere interest in our mental health program in Pennsylvania. I think that we all realize that today approximately thirty per cent of our admissions are patients that need residual care, people 65 years of age and over.

I think that the gentleman well remembers the Governor of this Commonwealth in the Hall of this House, and on numerous other occasions, stating that the time had arrived for the state to take curative measures for these patients, and I therefore subscribe to the need as I know he does, for adequate mental hospital equipment.

The solution of this problem is not larger and bigger mental hospitals. We on this side agree to that, but until such time as we can get a curative program in effect, it is our contention that they should be adequately housed and adequately cared for, both from a personnel and equipment standpoint.

It is our contention, Mr. Speaker, that it would not be humane to use temporary buildings for this purpose; it would not be practical. These cases have destructive characteristics; they are not always the cleanest people; there is a health feature; there is a safety feature.

There are so many factors that I am not competent to suggest to the membership of this House, but at least I believe that those who are competent and who ask for permanent structures should be granted their desire, as a part of the program, in the hope that ultimately and in the not too distant future, the mental health problem of this state, great as it may be, may result in cases being brought from the homes into the mental hospitals, cases which cannot now be reached effectively, cases being paroled at a earlier date because of increase in personnel and better equipment, in the hope that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania can say to these people that their demands can be alleviated and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania cheerfully assumes for these people the cost of distributing these facilities to the 10 million people of this state.

I can talk at length but I see no need for it, because I do not detect in the voices of the gentlemen who have spoken on this bill today, opposition to it, opposition to the extent that they will oppose it and do not want this bill. I for one subscribe to it. I think that it is a great forward program, sponsored by the Governor of this Commonwealth, and it is a cheerful duty to assume to put it across, and I am glad and willing to share the burden.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I am voting for the General State Authority Bill with the hope that the funds raised thereunder will be used for mental health and other matters of a general public benefit, and not for the building of a new Governor's mansion, which is not needed at this time.

I am voting for the State Highway and Bridge Authority Bill with the hope that the funds used or raised will not deprive the present unimproved roads and the present improved roads of any funds that our present unimproved roads and present improved roads should have.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to yield to the gentleman from Fayette, Mr. Bane, who has a little verse about a man down in our Legislature, but he didn't know "what fer."

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I urge that the Members of the House pay attention to this; I think it is worthy of the attention of each and every one of us.

Mr. BANE. Mr. Speaker, I listened with considerable wonderment here today at the joinder of these two major political parties in sponsoring a measure which two years ago as a neophyte in this House, I heard argued and debated pro and con.

I find from the record cited by Mr. Andrews that not too long ago certain members of this House opposed this measure most vigorously. Last week as a result of a rebellion of a certain portion of the Allegheny delegation in the Democratic party, and viewing with some alarm——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state it.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire of the Chair as to what rebellion occurred in Allegheny County, and if one occurred how it is relevant to the issue now before the House?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman has contributed a thought, and, therefore as a Member, I think that the gentleman is entitled to the courtesy of the Members of the House, although I cannot subscribe in advance to what he is going to say.

Mr. BANE. Mr. Speaker, at this time I feel very much like the gentleman who had a wayward son. He had hoped that perhaps in the future he would achieve some measure of success and mend his ways. Finally, in an effort to correct the companionship with whom he was associating in the immediate neighborhood, he sent him to his grandparents in the West.

The father did not hear from the boy very often, but one day he received a letter from his son that upset and disturbed the father very, very much. He found that the only thing he could do in the situation was to seek the counsel and advice of the local minister. He considered the situation very carefully and found it would be impossible for him to tell the minister personally about him and so he wrote a little letter to him, and this is what he said:

"I got a letter, Parson, from my son away out West And my heart is as heavy, as an anvil in my breast He writes so seldom, that I somehow sorta knowed, That Billy was a travelin' on a mighty rocky road, But I never once dreamed that I'd bow my head in shame, And that he would waller in the dust his daddy's honored name. He writes from out in Hilltown and the story's mighty short, I just can't tell his mother, it would break her poor old heart, And so I reckon Parson, you'd best break the news to her, Bill's in the Legislature, but he doesn't say what fer!"

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

(e) by notice in writing to the Authority declare all bonds due and payable and if all defaults shall be made good then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum (or such other percentage as may be specified in any deed or trust indenture or other agreement aforesaid) of the principal amount of the bonds then outstanding to annul such declaration and its consequences

Any trustee whether appointed as aforesaid or acting under a deed of trust indenture or other agreement and whether or not all bonds have been declared due and payable shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver who may (to the same extent that the Authority itself could so do) enter and take possession of the facilities of the Authority or any parts thereof the revenues rentals or receipts from which are or may be applicable to the payment of the bonds so in default and operate and maintain the same and collect and receive all rentals and other revenues thereafter arising therefrom in the same manner as the Authority might do and shall deposit all such moneys in a separate account and apply the same in such manner as the court shall direct. In any suit action or proceeding by the trustees the fees counsel fees and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver if any and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge on any revenues and receipts derived from the facilities of the Authority the revenues or receipts from which are or may be applicable to the payment of the bonds so in default. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of the bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights

In addition to all other rights and all other remedies any holder of bonds of the Authority shall have the right by mandamus or other suit action or proceeding at law or in equity to enforce his rights against the Authority including the right to require the Authority to collect fees rental and other charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to or pledge of such fees rentals or other charges or income revenues and receipts and to require the Authority to carry out any of its covenants and agreements with the bondholders and to perform its and their duties under this act. Provided however That nothing in this section or any other section of this act shall authorize any receiver appointed pursuant to this act for the purpose of operating and maintaining any facilities of the Authority to sell assign mortgage or otherwise dispose of any of the assets of whatever kind and character belonging to the Authority. It is the intention of this act to limit the powers of such receiver to the operation and maintenance of the facilities of the Authority as the court shall direct and no holder of bonds of the Authority nor any trustee shall ever have the right in any suit action or proceeding at law or in equity to compel a receiver nor shall any receiver ever be authorized or any court be empowered to direct the receiver to sell assign mortgage or otherwise dispose of any assets of whatever kind or character belonging to the Authority

Section 8 Governing Body The powers of the Authority shall be exercised by a governing body consisting of the members of the Authority acting as a board. Within ninety (90) days after this act shall become effective the board shall meet and organize by electing from their number a president and secretary. At the first regular meeting in each year thereafter they shall elect from their number a president and secretary

Seven (7) members shall constitute a quorum of the board for the purpose of organizing the Authority and conducting the business thereof and for all other purposes and all action shall only be taken by vote of a majority of the members of the Authority unless in any case the by-laws shall require a larger number. The board shall have full authority to manage the properties and business of the Authority and to prescribe amend and repeal by-laws rules and regulations governing the manner in which the business of the Authority may be conducted and the powers granted to it may be exercised and embodied. The board shall fix and determine the number of officers agents and employees of the Authority and their respective compensation and duties and may delegate to one or more of their number or to one or more of said officers agents or employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper

Section 9 Moneys of the Authority All moneys of any authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the Authority. Said moneys shall be deposited in the first instance by the treasurer in one or more banks or trust companies in one or more special accounts and each of such special accounts shall be continuously secured by a pledge of direct obligations of the United States of America of the Commonwealth or of the county having an aggregate market value exclusive of accrued interest at all times at least equal to the balance on deposit in such account. Such securities shall either be deposited with the treasurer or be held by a trustee or agent satisfactory to the Authority. All banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The moneys in said accounts shall be paid out on the warrant or other order of the treasurer of the Authority or of such other person or persons as the Authority may authorize to execute such warrants or orders. The Department of Revenue of the Commonwealth or its legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the Authority including its receipts disbursements contracts leases sinking funds investments and any other matters relating to its finances operation and affairs

Section 10 Grants of Lands by Department to Authority The department shall have power and authority with the approval of the Governor to grant assign and convey to the Authority with or without consideration any lands easements or rights in lands together with any improvements buildings or structures therein or thereon now owned by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or hereafter acquired by it needed or convenient for the corporate purposes of the Authority or to lease to the Authority for a term not exceeding ninety-nine (99) years at a nominal or such other rental as may be determined any or all such lands easements or rights in lands together with any improvements structures or buildings therein or thereon

Section 11 Contracts to Lease and Leases by Department from Authority The department shall have power and authority with the approval of the Governor to enter into contracts with the Authority to lease as lessee from the Authority any or all of the projects undertaken by the Authority for a term with respect to each project constructed not exceeding thirty (30) years at such rental or rentals as may be determined by the Authority and upon the completion of the said projects the department shall have power and authority with the approval of the Governor to lease as lessee any or all of the projects completed by the Authority for a term with respect to each project leased not exceeding thirty (30) years at such rental or rentals as may be determined by the Authority Such leases may provide for transfer to the Commonwealth of title in and to all property included in a project either through application of the rentals paid to the purchase price or by installment payments from the Motor License Fund Provided however That transfer of any project to the Commonwealth shall not impair the obligation of any bonds issued therefor and no transfer of any project shall become effective until such bonds are paid or provisions made for their redemption

Any person convicted of a second and subsequent offense shall be liable to the fines above provided and costs of prosecution and in addition thereto shall in the discretion of the court suffer imprisonment one day for each dollar of fine imposed

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill 53, Printer's No. 4, is a good bill. I intend to support the bill and I think the Members of the House should support it also.

In explanation of any confusion that might exist as to why the bill is being passed, I might say that last year in the bear hunting season there were a great number of illegal bears killed, small young cubs. But in defense of the great number of sportsmen who hunt bears, I wish to point out that it is very difficult for a bear hunter hunting a bear for the first time to recognize what is and what is not a legal bear.

For the information of the Members of the House, cub bears are born in January while their mothers are in hibernation, and they will weigh about a pound apiece.

By the following November, which is usually the bear hunting season, they will weigh on an average forty or fifty pounds—some less.

The game laws state that a legal bear must have its eye teeth and its tusks. I trust that that definition will not go to the qualifications of the Members of the Legislature, that they should have their eye teeth cut before they come here. However, a bear is not a legal bear until the second year when they grow their eye teeth, but, Mr. Speaker, unlike a deer, the eye teeth cannot be observed at a distance.

This is the point I wish to make in defense of the average man who hunts for bear—this bill is not a criticism against him or a penalty against him. It is to my mind in line with the general idea that all fines assessed for illegal killing of game should be raised.

A few years ago before the war there were only fifty or seventy-five thousand who called themselves bear hunters. Last year it is estimated that that number had increased to over a quarter of a million. And naturally, there were a great many hunters who had never seen a bear in the woods. Those were the individuals who shot first and found out later that it was not a legal bear; it did not have its eye teeth.

Another point I wish to suggest in this bill is when the Game Commission finds that this bill is finally written into law that it will attempt to describe, or to more definitely define for the average new hunter what is or what is not a legal bear. In other words, a legal bear would average 100 or 125 pounds or more. There is nothing in the particular publication of the game laws beyond the statement to the effect that a legal bear must have its eye teeth. I say to you, gentlemen, you cannot see a bear's eye teeth at fifty yards.

With those remarks, Mr. Speaker, I wish to restate that I support the bill, not as a penalty against those new hunters who fail or do not know what a legal bear is, but in support of the fact that all fines for the illegal killing of game should be increased.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Breth.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clearfield permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRETH. I shall, Mr. Speaker, but first I should like to ask the gentleman whether there are any bears in Somerset County?

Mr. WAGNER. There are, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is qualified to speak on the subject. The gentleman gives us to understand that there are some bears in that County.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, not being either a hunter or a fisherman, but being interested very much in the gentleman's remarks when he opened this discussion about this particular bill that is now before the House, I merely rise to inquire how long or how much experience one must have to get accustomed to hunting bear.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, I will reply to the gentleman from Somerset, who happens to be a very good friend of mine, by quoting the state law which I sometimes regret, that for two dollars at the present time any individual who is a citizen, regardless of his knowledge of firearms, regardless of his knowledge of the woods, regardless of anything pertaining to the great sport and the skilled art of hunting, can walk up and get a certificate which gives him the right to carry a rifle and or shotgun and a pocket full of shells, and he can go out in the woods and hunt anything legal or illegal. I regret that very much.

Mr. ELDER. The statement I am about to make, for the information of the Members of the House, is that approximately four hundred legal bears and approximately one hundred illegal bears were killed in Pennsylvania last year.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Breth.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clearfield permit himself to be interrogated? First of all may I inquire from the gentleman from Philadelphia, whether there are any bear in Philadelphia?

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, there are a lot of wolves there.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated by one who only has wolves?

Mr. BRETH. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, is there such a distinction between wolves, legal wolves and illegal wolves?

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, I imagine that the gentlemen of the House if they would scrutinize the gentleman from Philadelphia, will find that answer to the question themselves.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, March 2, 1949

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. FRANCIS E. REINBERGER, offered the following prayer:

Our Father in heaven, how endless must Thy patience be with Thy children who constantly break life's traffic rules; how wonderful is Thy sense of humor making heaven tingle with Thy chuckling at the silly deeds of man. We thank Thee, dear God, that Thou hast given us some of that patience and a bit of that sense of humor, so that the heavy burdens may become a bit lighter, and the dark problems somewhat more clear; for our mortal life is too short and too precious to waste Thy gift in feuding and fussing. Remember, Lord, we are men, not God. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. ROBINSON, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

INTERROGATION

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KEPHART. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, do I understand that the gentleman from Philadelphia reported out Senate Bill 122?

Mr. KEPHART. That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. NEFF. From the Committee on Elections?

Mr. KEPHART. That is correct.

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, did the Committee have a meeting?

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, the committee did not have a meeting, but I polled the Members of the Committee yesterday, of which you are one, and you stated you would like to have the bill reported out.

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, I believe the gentleman from Philadelphia is mistaken. I told him I was not satisfied to have the bill reported out, and I am wondering, Mr. President, is it customary for committees to report bills to the floor without meetings, and without the Chairman of the Committee even having the courtesy of calling the Committee together to consider the bill in any manner or form?

The PRESIDENT. That has been done numerous times, according to reports from the floor.

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, I for one, and I may be naive and a junior Senator, resent steam roller tactics of this type, and I would like to notify Chairman Kephart of the Elections Committee, and the chairmen of the other committees of which I am privileged to be a member, that the next time that happens, I will ask that all bills be read at length on the floor of the Senate.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. CROWE and WADE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 430, entitled:

An Act relating to group life insurance; describing permitted policies and restrictions thereon and rights thereunder; limiting the amount of such insurance; prescribing standard policy provisions; and requiring notice of conversion privileges.

Which was committed to the Committee on Insurance.

Mr. FARRELL read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 431, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the maintenance of Northeastern Hospital in Philadelphia.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. WADE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 432, entitled:

An Act to further amend section three of the act, approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven, (P. L. 998), entitled "An act imposing a tax for State purposes on marine insurance underwriting profits, and providing for the collection of such tax," by making the tax payable at the time reports are made.

Which was committed to the Committee on Insurance.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 433, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 343), entitled "An act relating to the finances of the State government; providing for the settlement, assessment, collection and lien of taxes, bonus, and all other accounts due the Commonwealth, the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale, the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth, and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth, the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts, refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth, auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof, of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties; affecting every department, board, commission, and officer of the State government, every political subdivision of the State, and certain officers of such subdivisions, every person, association, and corporation required to pay, assess, or collect taxes, or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes, or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth," by further providing for the assessment of taxes on marine insurance profits concurrently with the filing of reports and for the settlement of same by the Department of Revenue, and fixing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Insurance.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 434, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections five hundred thirty-seven, five hundred forty-two and five hundred forty-three of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," providing for the levy and collection of per capita taxes against persons maintaining their habitation in the school district and part time or voting residence elsewhere.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

Messrs. WADE, DIEHM and PECHAN read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 435, entitled:

An Act establishing the liability of owners of dogs for damages suffered by persons bitten by dogs.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, over the years pressure groups, on all levels of governments in our Commonwealth, have been steadily adding new services.

Most of these services were based on a common appeal to the people of the county, city, borough or township. The newspapers of the community have lent their aid time and time again, helping to add these services to the many services already furnished by local governments.

The cost of these extra services has been piling up, and we now find all of these local governments requesting new taxes. Today, the cost of government is completely out of proportion to income derived from ordinary taxes collected in the past.

The passage of Act 481 has proven this fact.

The greater number of local governments have availed themselves of the Act, while others are staying up nights trying to find new things on which to levy taxes.

In considering new services added at different levels of government, no study has ever been made as to the relations of the services to taxes collected.

There has been no allocation of functions to the proper levels of government and, in many cases, allocations of functions have resulted in duplications and overlapping services being rendered from the Commonwealth down to the lowest local government.

We now find that the tax structure of the Commonwealth and local governments bears no relationship to their respective governmental functions.

In many cases, local government gives services that have no relation whatsoever to the taxes they collect, with the result that we have a crazy quilt of taxes and services that bear no connection to each other.

To correct this condition, Senator Geltz, Senator Dent and I are presenting a bill creating a State-Local Relationship Committee. It shall be the duty of this Committee to study the several functions of the State and Local Governments and their relationships to their respective tax structures. We are asking that this be done outside of the State Government Committee, as we feel that it should be done by a committee strictly on a non-partisan basis.

The State Government, however, is not excluded from helping the Committee; in fact, all groups who are interested in a better tax structure and a correction of overlapping services are invited, under this bill, to cooperate with the State-Local Relationship Committee and to furnish them with any studies that were made in the past on this matter.

I sincerely hope that the Senate will act on this bill so that at the next Session the members of the General Assembly shall have a true picture, for, I must confess, the members of this Assembly do not have the solution to the many demands made by local governments for financial assistance, and also an answer to the many complaints we are receiving from residents of local governments, who have levied taxes under Act 481.

Mr. President, I rise in place and present to the Chair on behalf of my colleagues, Senator Geltz, Senator Dent, and myself, a bill, and I hope this bill will be passed for the benefit of the people of Pennsylvania.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. HOLLAND, GELTZ and DENT read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 452, entitled:

An Act to provide for creation of a "State-Local Relationship Committee" prescribing duties of said committee and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, March 2, 1949

The House met at 1:00 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Rev. Charles E. Wille, guest Chaplain offered the following prayer:

Our Father, this afternoon may we pray the same prayer that George Washington prayed after the Inauguration of 1789; "Almighty God, we make our earnest prayers that Thou wilt keep the United States in Thy Holy Protection;" changing the words "United States" to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. May there be unity of purpose so that democracy may live in every heart and life of the citizens of our beloved state. So dear God guide us that we may be a blessing to Thee and to our people. This petition we ask in the matchless name of Jesus. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Tuesday, March 1, 1949.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of Tuesday, March 1, 1949, when, on motion of Mr. KOHL unanimously agreed to, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

L. 1046), entitled "An act providing for equalization of assessed valuations of real property throughout the Commonwealth for use in determining the amount and allocation of Commonwealth subsidies to school districts; creating a State Tax Equalization Board; and prescribing its powers and duties; imposing duties on certain local officers, agents, boards, commissions and departments; and making an appropriation," by changing the time for the beginning of the use of market values for the determination and apportionment of Commonwealth subsidies.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 122, as follows:

An Act to amend section four thousand one hundred eleven of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" authorizing appeals directly to the court of common pleas in certain cases from action of council relating to zoning

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section four thousand one hundred eleven of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 4111 Recommendations of Regulations to Council Hearings Adoption Changes The city planning commission where such bodies exist or a committee of the council or such other commission or committee as may be created by the council for the purpose shall recommend to the council the boundaries of districts and appropriate regulations and restrictions to be imposed therein Such body shall make a tentative report and hold public meetings thereon before submitting its final report At such time as the council may require after such final report council shall afford persons affected an opportunity to be heard at a time and place to be specified in a notice of hearing to be published for ten consecutive days in a daily newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in said city Council shall not determine the boundaries of any district nor impose any regulations or restrictions until after the final report and after said hearing

Council may from time to time after public notice and hearing amend supplement or change such regulations restrictions or district boundaries If a protest against a proposed amendment supplement or change be presented duly signed by the owners of twenty per centum or more of the frontage proposed to be altered or by the owners of twenty per centum of the frontage immediately in the rear thereof or by the owners of twenty per centum of the frontage directly opposite the frontage proposed to be altered a three-fourth vote of the members of council shall be required to adopt such proposed amendment supplement or change

An person aggrieved by the action of council in amending supplementing or changing or refusing to amend supplement or change such regulations restrictions or district boundaries may within thirty days of the decision of council appeal directly to the court of common pleas of the county by petition duly verified setting forth that such decision is arbitrary capricious an abuse of discretion or otherwise not in accordance with law and specifying the grounds upon which he relies The court shall forthwith issue a rule directed to council to certify the record to the court and hearing shall be had on the petition in the same manner as provided in section four thousand one hundred thirteen for appeals to the court of common pleas from decisions of the board of adjustment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask unanimous consent to make a statement regarding House Bills Nos. 122, 123, 124, 125 and 126, as they all cover the same proposition.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman desire to debate all the measures together?

Mr. THOMPSON. Yes, Mr. Speaker, that is right. I would like to make a statement in regard to all of them because they are all for the same purpose.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to consider House Bills Nos. 122, 123, 124, 125, and 126 at the same time? The Chair hears no objection. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. Speaker House Bill 122 relates to changing the rezoning in third class cities; House Bill 123 relates to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; House Bill 124 relates to boroughs; House Bill 125 relates to townships of the first class; House Bill 126 relates to townships of the second class.

What these bills do is this: at the present time the councils and the boards of commissioners in those different communities have the right to refuse a request for rezoning, and that is the last appeal, but if we were to pass these bills, it would then make it so that anybody who has been refused a rezoning could appeal to the Court of Common Pleas for a ruling by that court.

That takes the rezoning proposition right out of the hands of your local authority. It takes it out of the home rule class and puts it in the class where the judges will pass on zoning matters.

In some communities rezoning is not a very hot issue, but in a growing community it is an issue at all times, because there is always a request generally from people who wish to have a single family residential area turned into a multiple family residential family area, or turned into a business area, and for that reason in local community affairs your councils and commissioners are the ones who are best fitted to pass on this matter.

As a matter of fact, your councilmen and your commissioners in these different communities are absolutely responsible to the people of that community. They do not turn down these rezoning matters often just because they are capricious, as it states in the bill. They turn down these rezoning applications because they know that the people of their area and community are definitely against it, and those men are directly answerable to the people in that community. Therefore, the people have much better protection in the matter of rezoning if this matter is left in the hands of the local councils or their local commissioners. I would request that you vote against these bills.

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, these bills as the gentleman stated who spoke before, relate to zoning. They are for third class cities, counties, townships for the first and second class, and boroughs.

I know of no proceeding in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at the present time where a direct appeal is not permitted to the courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

For the gentleman's information who just spoke preceding me, may I advise the gentleman that the present proceeding in the courts of this Commonwealth is that a bill in equity can be filed in any Court of Common Pleas in the county in which the municipal subdivision is located, to test the action of the council or board of supervisors.

There are numerous cases on the books in decisions of the courts of Pennsylvania, which state in a rather hazy way the procedures necessary to test the action of council. This bill amends the different zoning powers of the municipal subdivisions, and it clears up the Appellate procedure.

You will notice, if you read the bill carefully, that the court on petition may issue a rule to show cause. Those of us who are attorneys will understand what a rule to show cause means. It is served on the municipal subdivision and it is answered by the borough council solicitor. The only ground stated in this amendment is that the action on the part of the legislative body in these municipal subdivisions is arbitrary, capricious or an abuse of discretion. If that cannot be shown in the petition, or if it can be shown to the court by the solicitor of the subdivision, the rule will not be made absolute.

Assume, however, that the court makes the rule absolute, you will notice that the municipal subdivision sends up the record, and if any solicitor who is appointed by a municipal subdivision cannot keep the record straight so that a court may merely go along with the decision of the municipal subdivision, then he should not be a solicitor.

This, gentlemen, strikes down a situation in the judicial procedure in this Commonwealth, which has been exceptionally hazy for years, and I state to you unequivocally that it puts no more burden on the municipal subdivisions than they have right now. As a matter of fact, it cuts it down, because if anyone files a bill in equity the first thing he does is to subpoena every member of the council or the board of supervisors to be there at the hearing on the bill in equity. This record is made up in a meeting of the council or the board of supervisors. It is less trouble in time and energy of the council and board of supervisors, and I ask that you vote for the bill.

Mr. THOMPSON. I believe, Mr. Speaker, that as the gentleman says there is a provision if any unfair law or ordinance is passed by the commissioners or councilmen, there can be an appeal to a court, but these bills will specifically make it so that on any request for rezoning in any of these municipalities the court will always be the judge, because anybody turned down on a request for rezoning, if they are turned down by the council or the board of commissioners, will immediately appeal to the court. So, if the board of commissioners or councilmen are turned down, it is simply a step in between, and then it is a matter to be taken to the court to be finally settled by the court.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker I think if this series of bills is passed it will sound the death knell of future zoning in Pennsylvania as far as the different municipalities, townships and counties are concerned.

I believe at the present time, for the information of the Members, that the Third Class Cities Association are not in favor of the bills at all. Furthermore, Mr. Pitkin of the Department of Commerce, whom I just called a short time ago in reference to his views or the views of the Department of Commerce in zoning,—Mr. Pitkin I feel is the foremost authority on zoning in the state of Pennsylvania, and his views are definite that a bill of this type would slow up the adoption of zoning in the new districts.

Furthermore, this bill or this type of bill is going to invite a lot of lawsuits, which eventually, is going to cost the different districts a lot of money, and we don't want to do that. I think rather than hurt zoning in the municipalities which they already have, that we should help it.

I am in sympathy with the sponsor of this series of bills who has a local situation in Delaware County that he wants to have corrected, but I believe he ought to do that in Delaware County and not make a local situation that applies to Delaware County fit the rest of the State.

I would like to ask the Members on this side of the House and all the Members to vote against this bill and this series of bills for that reason. It also makes it possible for one person to upset the present zoning law.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I am placed in an anomalous position of refuting the statement just made by my colleague that these particular measures sound the death knell of zoning in Pennsylvania.

We in Philadelphia have advanced and reached the stage where we have an excellent zoning board, but they have on occasions rendered some very arbitrary and capricious decisions, and we have the right to appeal.

A thing that I think has not been called to the attention of the Members of the House is that after a hearing if the Board refuses the application of an individual who has filed an application he is placed in the position where he is actually violating the law by continuing to operate this particular home or place of business without having that zoning appeal acted upon.

In Philadelphia an appeal is taken, and it acts as a supersedeas. Consequently, the courts will act on the supersedeas and determine whether arbitrary action has taken place. I think these measures offered here by the gentleman from Delaware are a step in the right direction inasmuch as they afford an aggrieved individual his day in court. I think, that they are, not as someone has indicated, against the principle of home rule, but will allow the local courts to determine whether or not the zoning board has acted improperly. Consequently, I think these are worthwhile measures and we should support them.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to support this series of bills. I feel that Mr. Thompson should know that rather than break down home rule, these bills will make it more solid because the bills themselves say that the appeal can only be taken where the action on the part of the local authority is capricious, regardless of what the merits of the case may be, and it does away with the equity proceeding. This is a very substantial bill and I think it should be supported by both sides of the House.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I have not for a long time seen a bill that has caused so much confusion among the lawyers as this bill. It has this side of the House so confused that I am not certain that this is the bill we are looking at. Therefore, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robertson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROBERTSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, under the present law, any person aggrieved by a regulation or order of the zoning board in a particular municipality covered by this bill, has now the right to a writ of certiorari, is that not right?

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, when the gentleman speaks of the zoning board of adjustment which is appointed under the ordinances, he has, but not from the action of the legislative body.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman be kind enough to distinguish between the legislative body and the action of the board, when the board is not acting as a legislative body?

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, when I speak of the legislative body I refer to the council or board of supervisors; when I speak of the zoning board of appeals I speak of that board that is normally appointed under the zoning ordinance to take care of objections and exceptions. In all these bills it is specifically stated that a person can appeal directly to the Common Pleas Court from any action of the zoning board of appeal but not from the legislative body.

Mr. BROWN. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, from the zoning board of appeal that the gentleman speaks of there is no appeal—its decisions are final?

Mr. ROBERTSON. No, they are not, Mr. Speaker. The zoning board as distinguished from council or supervisory board of appeal that the gentleman speaks of, there is a municipal subdivision. The zoning board of adjustment in every ordinance passed authorizes a direct appeal from the zoning board of adjustment to the Common Pleas Court.

Mr. BROWN. I am still confused, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, may I state this, that in all ordinances that I know of the ordinance authorizes the council or councilmatic body or the board of supervisors to pass zoning ordinances. In every one of the zoning ordinances it is stated that a board of three or five or seven members shall be appointed by the legislative body to take care of exceptions or variances from zoning ordinances, and the exception or variance in my understanding of the law deals with the setback or the height of buildings, but it does not change, and in my opinion the zoning board has not the authority to change the classification of a particular area. That is purely the function of a council or board of supervisors. Does that explain the matter?

Mr. BROWN. Under those circumstances, Mr. Speaker, I am trying to find out the need for this act.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, the need for this act is where an arbitrary or capricious change or refusal to change the use classification on the part of the legislative body, namely the council or board of supervisors. At the present stage of the law, the only possible way to get that matter into court under the law is by a bill in equity.

Mr. BROWN. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

I take the gentleman's word. I believe he knows what he is talking about and I am willing to rely on his word that this will correct a very confusing situation, which I believe after this act will still be confused.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have tried to cut through the legal fog that envelopes the situation, and have been convinced that there is a need for this legislation. I am simply rising at this time to tell the Members on this side that the bill is one for them to pass upon individually, and I hope they will rely upon their judgment on this bill rather than upon my vote. I shall not consider it any discourtesy if I should be the only one to vote for it.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 123, as follows:

An Act to amend section five hundred ten point eight of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An Act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," authorizing appeals directly to the court of common pleas in certain cases from action of the county commissioners relating to zoning.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary for further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, I am not opposing this motion to recommit, but I wish to thank those who voted for the bill, and sincerely hope that some day this House may clarify the zoning procedure.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 124, entitled:

An Act to amend section three thousand three hundred five of the act, approved the fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs, and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," by authorizing appeals directly to the court of common pleas in certain cases from actions of council relating to zoning.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary for further study.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 125, entitled:

An Act to amend section three thousand one hundred five of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 1206), entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class; amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," authorizing appeals directly to the court of common pleas in certain cases from action of the board relating to zoning.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary for further study.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 126, entitled:

An Act to amend section two thousand five of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 103), entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto" by further designating those who may protest and by authorizing appeals directly to the court of common pleas in certain cases from actions of the supervisors relating to zoning.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary for further study.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 128, entitled:

An Act to amend section nine of the act approved the seventh day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1410) entitled "An act to fix salaries and compensation of the judges of the Supreme Court the judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas the judges of the orphans' courts the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County certain associate judges not learned in the law and repealing certain acts inconsistent herewith" by increasing the compensation of judges presiding in other districts.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, if I may, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire of the gentleman how many days they require for outside judges in Allegheny County.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I am not certain that I can give that in actual figures.

Mr. REAGAN. Or approximately, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would rather the gentleman would allow me to answer without trying to be facetious.

I will say this, that in Allegheny County we use the services of visiting judges very extensively.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, of course the state pays for those services?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, the County of Allegheny does not pay anything toward these judges no more than the judges' salary?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, that is correct.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, these judges are paid, are they not, from the time they leave home, from the day they start until the day they return, including Sundays, is that not correct?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. That is correct in cases where they are held over, but it is not the practice in Allegheny County to hold visiting judges over unless the case requires their attention, and that is in a case that they have been hearing during the week prior or the preceding week. That happens very seldom.

I might give the gentleman an instance of what happened last week in Allegheny County where a visiting judge was holding his court, and the case had been tried, the verdict did not come in on Friday, and he had to remain over until Saturday morning to take the verdict. That does not happen very often.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, in regard to this ten cents a mile that the judges will receive, what reason is there, if the gentlemen knows, why we as legislators only get five cents a mile?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, maybe it is more important that the judges be in court than that the Members of the Legislature should be there.

Mr. REAGAN. That is a very good answer, Mr. Speaker. In the meanwhile, while they are holding court in Allegheny County and getting additional money they are still drawing their full salary back home?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Oh, yes.

Mr. Speaker, I might say to the gentlemen that last week we had two visiting judges in Allegheny County, both of whom came from what you might call rural areas. They left their homes and they of course, lived in hotels. They had to pay their expenses in the hotel out of the same allowance which is now given to them by law. If they were holding their courts at home, they would have lived at home, the same as we would if we were able to hold the Legislature at home, but unfortunately we have to come here and we have to pay hotel bills.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, does not the gentleman think that the twenty dollars will pay for the hotel bills?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I said to the gentlemen of the Judiciary Committee when they were discussing this bill, and I am not trying to be facetious, I recall once that a committee of the Joint State Government Commission, of which I had the honor to be a member, held its sessions at a very famous hotel in Pennsylvania. It cost us, I think between eight and nine dollars a day for a room, and we were allowed at that time ten dollars a day for our total expenses.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, of course, these are not the judges; they wouldn't spend that money would they?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. They probably would, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, does not the gentleman think that in view of the very generous and substantial raise which we gave the judges in Pennsylvania, it is a little out of reason now for them to come here asking for a ten dollar raise per day when they are paid the full amount of their salary at home, in addition to the money they get when they come to Allegheny County?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. I would answer that, Mr. Speaker, by saying no, and if the gentleman will allow me to explain, the answer would be this: the judges are elected in their own judicial districts, and it is by courtesy that they come into other judicial districts to serve. While they are in the judicial district where they are visiting, where they were not elected, they of course, have to maintain themselves. I think the law has been fair all the time. The only question is this, if they were paid for expenses twenty dollars a day twenty years ago, is it not fair to give them the cost of living which we all have to pay here in 1949?

In further answer to the gentleman's question, so that there will be no misunderstanding that the judges are asking for this, I would like to read part of a letter directed to me and to my co-sponsor from the President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, the Hon. Harry E. Rowand. I will just read a paragraph and I quote:

"Of course you understand that the judges brought in from other counties are not coming in for the money consideration. They do it to help fellow judges in their work. I have always felt that it is hardly fair to ask them to come when the compensation is so low that in some instances they have had to pay part of their expenses out of their own pockets."

I think that is a fair statement, and I will say further in answer to the gentleman's question that Allegheny County has judges serving a population of over a million and a half people. It costs us for the postponement of a case, because we do not have enough judges, from one hundred fifty dollars to two hundred dollars.

That is a statement which I have here from the district attorney of Allegheny County and the Chief Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions. They tell me that by virtue of having visiting judges they save the county the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars each year, otherwise they would have to postpone so many cases and the cost would be upon the county, postponement costs from one hundred fifty to two hundred dollars a case.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to find any fault with Allegheny County.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman. I am looking at my friend, the gentleman from Fayette, Mr. Bane, and he is smiling and I am glad to know that.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I lived in Allegheny County myself at one time and found it more expensive. I think that is probably true but I do think that almost anybody can go out and entertain themselves royally at twenty dollars a day especially when they get ten cents mileage. That is all.

I think, Mr. Speaker, that these questions and answers will inform the House just what stands before us in regard to the merits of the bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Cambria and I would like to make a brief statement in regard to visiting judges.

It is customary, I believe, for the judges from one county to go to another county, at the same time that the judge may be visiting the county of the judge who is visiting his county, and, of course, they are drawing their regular salary, plus twenty dollars, plus their mileage. Our Erie judge has been in an adjoining county holding court, and that judge has just recently been in our county. So, I don't believe it is a matter of courtesy, I think probably it has been a matter of convenience, inasmuch as the case that was to be held in the adjoining county was one which that judge did not desire to hear, and possibly the same thing applied to our county. I believe it is no hardship on these judges to have to leave their bench; I don't believe it cuts down or builds up, either one.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the Minority Leader for yielding, and I will say to the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, that that may have been a condition in his county, but I have never known in the twenty-six years that I have been at the bar of any judge of Allegheny County going out of that county as a visiting judge, unless specially assigned somewhere in Pennsylvania by a direct mandate of the Supreme Court.

I simply do not want the impression to go abroad here that what the gentleman from Erie said is a thing which happens as a general proposition. I thank the gentleman for yielding.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have been hoping these many years that it would be possible to enter a legislative session without having some visiting judge weeping on my legislative shoulder.

As for what the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, has said I have observed that every once in a while when there are cases in the Allegheny County courts which for some local reason are too hot for an Allegheny county judge to handle, they get a judge from Cambria county. The difference between the Judiciary and the Members of this House is that probably many Members of this House in the course of a year spend more days on the job than do the judges.

We have four judges in Cambria county. Two of them have plenty of vacation time, and in times past they certainly have liked to travel. The same is true throughout the state. A judge is paid an annual salary. If they were doing things right they would work an average number of days in a year for their salary and there should not be any concern where they work. The Supreme Court should see to it that the judicial timber in this state is more judiciously used, and that our judicial talent should be assigned where and when it is needed. Now, Mr. Speaker, it may be impossible for a judge to live on twenty dollars a day; they may have changed their habits of life since we gave them the last salary raise. Something has gone up; perhaps it is their style of living.

Members of the House, you know and I know that it is a question sometimes where the Legislative power of this Commonwealth rests whether it is in the Judiciary or here. The only time that the courts of this Commonwealth recognize the supremacy of the Legislative branch of the government is when they want an increase in salary. Considering their ability to earn in private practice, they are now adequately paid, and the Judge with the salary that he has, who cannot exist on twenty dollars a day, plus his mileage, should retire for a little bit of thinking concerning the virtues of frugality.

I am not speaking for the members of the Democratic caucus, and I hope that the lawyers who must needs defer to the wishes of the judges in their counties, will not be persuaded by anything that I have said, and that they will be very careful not to fall from the graces of the court.

One of the matters, Mr. Speaker, one of the damning facts that I have encountered in my legislative experience is that the Members of this House have told me that in order to stand in the good graces of the court they must needs support measures that the court desires passed. I say that that is a disgraceful fact, if it is true.

As I say, I hope that the members of the Democratic caucus will not be persuaded by anything that I have said, and that those that are deeply indebted to the courts will vote for this increase. I am speaking solely for myself and not for any Member of the House on this side.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, it is indeed unfortunate that this bill should call forth a scathing denunciation of the courts such as has come from the throat of our Minority Floor Leader.

I am not only surprised, I am ashamed of him. When I say I am ashamed, I am ashamed that a man of his standing would permit the records to show what he has said here today against one of the co-ordinate, independent branches of our constitutional form of government.

I am surprised that any man would at this time take this opportunity to denounce the judges of this Commonwealth, for two reasons; first of all, they are not here to answer, and I say it comes not only with a degree of unsportsmanship, but it comes with a degree of dishonesty to attack anybody in the way the judges have been attacked without being here to answer. I say that to the Minority Leader and I hope he hears it. There are times when attacks are right but this is certainly not the time.

Secondly, Mr. Speaker, I said in the beginning this is not a request of the judges of Pennsylvania; it is a request from the President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas of Allegheny County. If anybody is going to be attacked let him be attacked.

I am going to do something here that is unprecedented, but I am going to do it because I believe the Minority Floor Leader has taken undue advantage of me, of the members of the bar and of the judges of the courts of our Commonwealth, and I am going to move, Mr. Speaker, if you will recognize me—

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Brown.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be re-committed to the Committee on Judiciary. I would not for one allow any bill to be attacked as this bill has been attacked and try to defend those who are not here, being a member of that profession, because of a difference of ten dollars a day.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentlemen who voted "no," in view of the situation, if they will not join the "ayes" so that it will be unanimous.

One hundred and five, or more than a majority of the whole House having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and the motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 365, as follows:

An Act to amend the Act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by making it unlawful for any person to hunt with any shotgun or rifle when such firearm is loaded with live ammunition in either the chamber or magazine if the firearm is ready to be discharged by normal finger pressure on the trigger or if the safety device or mechanism is in the

"off safe" position except during the momentary interval of time necessary to discharge such firearm and providing penalties

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The Act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" is hereby amended by adding thereto immediately after Section eight hundred ten a new Section to read as follows

Section 811 Firearms to Be Safe While Hunting On and after the first day of October one thousand nine hundred forty-nine it shall be unlawful for any person to use any shotgun or rifle for the purpose of hunting or trapping any wild bird or animal in this Commonwealth when such firearm is loaded with live ammunition in either the chamber or magazine if the firearm is ready to be discharged by normal finger pressure on the trigger or if the safety device or mechanism is in the "off safe" position except during the momentary interval of time necessary to discharge such firearm and to return it to the safe position

Each person violating any provisions of this section shall upon conviction be sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars: ($10) and costs of prosecution

Section 2 This act shall become effective on the first day of October one thousand nine hundred forty-nine

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—2

Krise, Hamilton,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the Members that in a few minutes we will declare a recess for one hour, if there are no objections.

The Chair urges the Chairmen who desire to call meetings during the recess to send their requests to the desk immediately. The Chair also urges the members of the Committees to be diligent in attending the meetings of the Committees.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I am glad to note that there has been a recess in order to enable the Committee of the House to further mobilize for action.

I want to call the attention of the Members on both sides of the House that up to this time consideration has been given to administration bills and departmental bills. There are many, many measures of merit and of worth introduced by Members of this House on both sides that are neither departmental bills nor administration bills, and it is high time that the Chairmen of the Committees give the members of their Committees opportunity to study the legislation that has been committed to them.

I have attended some meetings of committees and I see in many instances the Chairmen are not yet familiar with the legislation that they have in their keeping, and that highly controversial measures have not even been read by the members of the Committee. If you are going to do a good job, it is time that we got busy to do it and began opening the gates for something other than departmental and administration legislation.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. BRUNNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, may I say to the gentleman from Cambria and to the membership that, as he knows, tomorrow, March 3rd, is the deadline for filing bills and introducing bills into this House.

For the first two days of this week, we witnessed the introduction of some two hundred measures, which I would say will constitute twenty-five percent of the present Committee load. I am sure when the House measures have been introduced and the deadline has been passed, that the Committee of this House will consider in toto the legislation in their respective committees, screen it and submit to the Members here the measures which the individual Members have carefully considered prior to the introduction and sponsoring of measures benefiting their constituents.

Therefore, I believe that in the not too distant future we will have Committee meetings and begin to clear what we feel are proper measures. We feel also that this is a proper function for these Committees now, and looking forward, as we hope, to an early adjournment, it is vital that all of us participate in seeing to it that legislation which can be considered now be considered now and acted upon.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I might say to the Majority Leader that if there are any bills pending, introduced and sponsored by members of the minority party, that are deserving bills, but which are not likely to receive consideration because they have been introduced by the Minority, he will see to it that some member of the majority party introduces and sponsors an identical bill, because we would not like to see any good legislation smothered simply because of its sponsorship.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. BRUNNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I am sure the gentleman realizes that we are here to do a serious job for the benefit of the people, as I have said so often. I may assure the gentleman that the merits of legislation will be what will control when the Committees consider these measures.

FORMER MEMBERS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to welcome to the Hall of the House a former Member, the gentleman from Lackawanna, Honorable William J. Stonier.

The Chair also desires to welcome to the Hall of the House another former Member, the gentleman from Delaware, Honorable Arthur P. Bretherick.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, this is not in the form of an address; it is in the form of a request I am about to make. I realize it is just a little bit out of order but a matter has come up that will demand my attention tomorrow forenoon, and I am asking, if it is possible, to get leave of absence for tomorrow's session.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection and leave is granted.

SENATE MESSAGES

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate:

Senate Bills for concurrence 44, 191 and 192.

WICONISCO HIGH SCHOOL WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to welcome to the Hall of the House the Senior Class in Problems of Democracy of the Wiconisco High School, Dauphin County, under the direction of their teacher, Mr. Guivinan. They are the guests of the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Herman.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS

State Government—Room 324, during recess.

Highways—Room 329, Wednesday, March 2, during recess.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Speaker will now declare a recess until 3:45 p. m. The Chair hears none, and a recess is declared.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House is called to order.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. SCHMIDT. HOUSE BILL No. 887.

An Act requiring a course in the effects of alcohol and narcotics to be taught in public schools and in all colleges and universities, supported in whole or in part by State funds; and imposing duties upon the Department of Public Instruction.

Referred to the Committee on Education.

By Messrs. PFAFF and LIMPER. HOUSE BILL No. 888.

An Act to authorize the Governor to institute certain examinations and inspections with respect to counties and cities.

Referred to the Committee on State Government.

By Messrs. NAJAKA and KOHL. House Bill No. 889.

An Act to further amend clauses (a), (b), and (c) of section three hundred six of the act, approved the twenty-first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 566), entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for occupational disease contracted by an employee arising out of and in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry, the Workmen's Compensation Board, Workmen's Compensation Referees, and deans of medical schools; creating a medical board to determine controverted medical issues; establishing an Occupational Disease Fund in custody of the State Workmen's Insurance Board; imposing upon the Commonwealth a part of the compensation payable for certain occupational diseases; making an appropriation; and prescribing penalties," by changing the maximum and minimum rates of compensation.

Referred to the Committee on Workmen's Compensation.

By Messrs. WILLIAM B. SMITH and STUART.
HOUSE BILL No. 890.

An Act providing educational benefits and subsistence allowances at institutions of higher learning to certain World War II veterans; imposing certain powers and duties on the Adjutant General and the Department of Military Affairs; making an appropriation; and providing penalties.

Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

By Messrs. ROBBINS and BOIES.

HOUSE BILL No. 891.

An Act to amend section one thousand four hundred eleven of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions; and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commission shall be determined," by empowering the State Veterans Commission to establish and maintain rest camps and rehabilitation centers for veterans.

Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. HALL from the Committee on Highways, reported as committed, House Resolution No. 23.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. BRANDON asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by him.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. McNALLY asked and obtained an unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I wish to make a brief address and present a resolution. During yesterday's session controversial authority bills were passed in this House. During the discussion several references were made to the fact that people do have a change of heart and reverse their decisions. It reminds me of the old saying "A wise man will change his mind but a darn fool never."

Mr. Speaker, throughout the past few weeks that this Legislature has been in session, numerous bills were presented and passed, yet nothing has been done to help the aged and feeble men and women and the dependent and neglected children of this Commonwealth to maintain a decent standard of living. Especially among the aged is this problem vital and serious. There are some cases where the burden is put upon the overburdened sons and daughters, who are trying to properly raise a family of their own.

These helpless people are Americans, who do not seek charity. They would gladly go to work if physically possible to earn their own living, but cannot. So, I appeal to you as fellow Americans and Members of this House to do something constructive to relieve this problem.

Mr. Speaker, I present the following resolution.

RESOLUTIONS

Mr. McNALLY offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

Mr. BRANDON offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

SENATE

THURSDAY, March 3, 1949.

The Senate met at 11:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. FRANCIS E. REINBERGER, offered the following prayer:

Almighty and everlasting God, in whose understanding there are no majorities nor minorities, we recognize with humble thanks that before Thee we are all one in Thee, and Thou art one in us. Come into this hall of government this day as always; look with love upon these representatives of the people on both sides of the aisle; ease the pressure on their minds by Thy never-failing strength. We look to Thee for guidance and inspiration when the problems become well-nigh insurmountable—please, O God, do not fail us. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. WATKINS, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. At this time the Chair calls to the rostrum the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Wood, to preside.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Lloyd H. Wood) in the Chair.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, on behalf of myself and the distinguished gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, I would like to present, for the purpose of having it spread upon the Legislative Journal, an address made by the Honorable David H. Stewart, president of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, at a dinner of that Association held in Pittsburgh last week.

This speech, in the opinion of the majority and minority floor leaders, is one of the best presented on this education problem, and on the responsibilities of the General Assembly, that we have heard for quite sometime.

Mr. President, we are using this method so that it can be made available to the other two hundred fifty-six Members of the General Assembly.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The communication will be spread upon the Journal.

PENNSYLVANIA MUST MAKE HER CHOICE

David H. Stewart, President

Pennsylvania State Education Association

Mr. Toastmaster, Distinguished Guests, and Fellow Teachers, I welcome the opportunity to discuss the program of the Pennsylvania State Education Association tonight. Present here are representatives of these groups, members of the National Congress, the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, School Boards, Parent-Teacher Associations, Federation of Women's Clubs, other service and civic groups, and teachers in the classrooms of Pennsylvania. These groups determine the destiny of the public schools, and if they could be made to realize the serious plight of our schools, I am confident the necessary measures would be taken to rehabilitate and improve our schools.

Now if teachers were the only ones lamenting the situation of our public schools, our opinions might be suspected as those of prejudiced witnesses. But current magazines, the daily press, the radio, and books written by impartial observers paint a more alarming picture than we do. Time will not permit a complete recital of these witnesses but may I cite a few. After a very careful survey Mr. Benjamin Fine published his findings in a book "Our Children are Being Cheated." The September, 1948, Kiplinger Letter is entitled, "Our Poor Schools." The February, 1949, Atlantic Monthly publishes an address before the United Parents Association of New York City by Miss Agnes Meyers entitled, "Are Our Public Schools Doing a Good Job." The September 9, 1948, Pathfinder published the results of a survey of the schools in every state under the title, "How Good Are Our Schools." Dr. Harris, an economist of Harvard University, published a book, "How Shall We Finance Education," in which he carefully examined the problem.

In general, the conclusion of all these is that our schools are in a serious condition because teachers are underpaid and teach in overcrowded classrooms and that buildings and equipment are not what are needed for today's children. The situation is becoming more serious because there is already a marked increase in elementary enrollments due to the high birth rate of the 1940's. Something must be done to retain in and attract to the teaching profession capable men and women in larger numbers. The conclusions of these observers are that salaries must be increased, retirement provisions liberalized, and the status of the teacher improved.

The program of the PSEA is designed to correct this situation in our State. What is the situation in Pennsylvania? According to our own State Department of Public Instruction, our elementary enrollment will increase approximately 270,000 in the next six years. This will require 1500 more teachers per year or a total of 9000 in six years and almost that many more classrooms. The normal replacement demand is 3000 elementary and 2000 high school teachers to replace those who withdraw from teaching or retire. Add the 1500 elementary teachers to take care of the increased enrollment and we will need 4500 elementary teachers and 2000 high school teachers each year of the next six. In the year 1947 there were graduated about 550 teachers prepared for the elementary grades and 3000 for high school grades. There will be an over supply of the latter until about 1953 when the crop of war babies starts arriving in our high schools.

Thus, it is easy to conclude that unless something is done, and that quickly, the children of our veterans for whom we want to do so much will go to an overcrowded school taught by an overworked teacher. I predict that our veterans will wonder what they fought for if their children have not adequate school opportunities.

To attract capable young men and women into the teaching profession we have had introduced legislation making the beginning salary for a teacher with four years of college training $2400, with two annual increments of $200, making the maximum mandated salary for the classroom teacher $4400. So long as other occupations offer better beginning salaries and higher potential maximum salaries we cannot expect to attract young people of quality in sufficient numbers. A recent survey gave the average teacher salary in New York as $3652, District of Columbia $3480, Maryland $3440, New Jersey $3118, Ohio $2800, and Pennsylvania $2675. It is easy to understand why Pennsylvania's young people prefer to teach in these neighboring states. According to the September 8, 1948, Pathfinder, Pennsylvania ranks 24th among the states with an average salary of $2450.

Under the present retirement system a teacher must be 62 years old and have 40 years of service to retire on slightly less than half pay. Of the approximately 8000 on the retired rolls, about 1600 receive less than $500 per year and 3200 from $500 to $1000. We have had introduced legislation which, if enacted, will permit a teacher to retire on half pay after 35 years of service, to guarantee each teacher with 40 years of service a minimum of $100 per month, and to grant an additional allowance to those now on the retired rolls to increase the allowance of those with forty years of service to a minimum of $100 per month. The actuary of Pennsylvania's system, in a speech before the Education Congress, stated that we have one of the most, if not the most, conservative retirement system in the country.

The purpose of a retirement system is to enable those teachers who have worn out under the stress and strain of teaching to retire when they are no longer able to render a high quality of service. The purpose is to see that there is an alert and physically fit teacher for every child. If the state has an attendance law compelling parents to send their children to school, the state has a responsibility to see that each child has a capable teacher and goes to a suitable school.

We have also had introduced subsidy legislation whereby the state would pay its share of these increased costs. Good schools cost money and this fact must be faced. Either our schools will continue to deteriorate rapidly or enough money will be supplied to have good schools. If the General Assembly finds it necessary to enact tax measures to finance this program our Association is pledged to support this legislation.

I want to take this opportunity to point out that the PSEA has a program to improve teachers in service; to challenge young people to enter the profession; to improve the materials and methods of instruction; to improve the ethical conduct of our members; and to give relief to worthy ex-teachers who are in need, to whom we contributed last year, $18,000. I wish I had time to go into more detail about our professional program, because I am convinced that many people, including some of our own members, do not know that we have more committees and members working on professional programs than we do on salaries and similar matters.

It is our considered judgment that this Package of Salaries, Retirement, and Subsidies is a must for the 1949 General Assembly, if good teachers are to be retained, and if enough young people of ability are to be attracted to the profession. Unless we improve conditions at the teacher-pupil level, there will be little permanent improvement in our schools. We must act and act promptly. Unless the measures we advocate are enacted into law, the effect will be felt in the 1950's more than this year. Teachers cannot be educated and prepared on short notice. Teacher preparation is a matter of long time planning. Pennsylvania must make her choice.

Next to being proud that I am an American I am proud of being a Pennsylvanian. I was born in this State; Pennsylvania has been good to me. I am proud of Pennsylvania's position and program on highways, on stream pollution and for mental hospitals. I hope the day is not far distant when my state will take her rightful place among the leaders in the field of education, so I can say with equal pride, educationally I am a Pennsylvanian.

REPORT FROM THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I have been directed by the Joint State Government Commission to file with the Senate its report and recommendations to the General Assembly on Vocational Education.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, HARRISBURG

To the Honorable, the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

On behalf of the Joint State Government Commission, I have the honor to transmit herewith a Report of the Joint State Government Commission, February, 1949, dealing with "Per-Pupil Cost of Vocational and General Education Programs in the Public Schools."

Copies of this report for distribution to the members of the Senate have been delivered to the office of the President pro tempore of the Senate.

Respectfully submitted,

WELDON B. HEYBURN
Chairman

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The communication will be noted in the Journal and the report will be printed in full in the Appendix.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. SNOWDEN read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 453, entitled:

An Act to add a new subdivision to article nine of the act approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1242), entitled "An act relating to roads, streets, highways and bridges; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws administered by the Secretary of Highways and by the Department of Highways relating thereto," by providing for local unit road superintendents, and for permanent State aid to cities, boroughs, towns and townships; and appropriating moneys of the Motor License Fund.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, yesterday I introduced a bill requesting that a State-Local Government Commission be appointed to study taxes and services, and a revision of taxes at the state and local levels.

Mr. President, I wish to present a bill today for an amendment to the constitution for graduate income taxes, so that if this Committee functions properly, the recommendations will only have to pass this Session and another Session, so that the people will have an opportunity of voting it into a law.

The amendment to the Constitution, which is covered by this bill, gives the state the right to levy graduate income taxes, and to help solve this great crazy-quilt patch of taxes that are now being presented in the different parts of the state.

Mr. President, on behalf of my colleagues, Senator Barrett, Senator Neff, and myself, I rise in place and present to the Chair the following bill:

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. HOLLAND, NEFF and BARRETT read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 454, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section one, article nine, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, providing for graded and graduated income, gift and inheritance taxes, and for exemptions therefrom.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

Mr. LANE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 455, entitled:

An Act providing for the payment of salary, wages, medical and hospital expenses of full-time employees who for one year or more, have been employed by the Commonwealth or any county within the Commonwealth who are injured in the performance of their duty; and providing that absence from duty during such injury shall not be charged against any sick leave to which such employee may be entitled; and also providing for recourse to pension privileges in the event of permanent disability.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Such back payments may be spread over a period of years by having the regular payroll deduction of such employee increased by not less than one-third of the amount thereof which deduction increase shall be credited to such back payments owing and shall be continued until the amount thereof shall be paid in full unless such member is retired under the provisions of this act before such back payments have been completed. Any such deduction increase may be anticipated in full by the member at any time and shall be anticipated in full at the time of retirement before a retirement allowance is granted. If not so anticipated then the member's annuity shall be calculated on the total accumulated deductions standing to his credit and his State annuity shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the reduction which occurs in the member's annuity due to the amount of the back payments not so anticipated.

The term "State employee" shall also include State officers and employees regularly employed on a per diem or hourly basis or partly at a fixed annual or monthly salary and partly on a per diem or hourly basis. Regular employment shall not be construed to include employment of less than one hundred days or seven hundred fifty hours in any year. In all cases of doubt the retirement board shall determine whether any person is a State employee as defined in this paragraph and its decision shall be final.

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

THURSDAY, March 3, 1949

The House met at 10:00 a. m.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Rev. Charles E. Wille, guest Chaplain, offered the following prayer:

Our Father God, humbly we come into Thy presence, seeking divine guidance and strength for the duties of this day. Help us to think right, speak right, and work right. May the Holy Spirit so guide us that your name may be glorified and the borders of Thy Kingdom be extended. In Jesus name we pray. Amen.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to thank the Rev. Charles E. Wille for his services as Chaplain during the week.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Wednesday, March 2, 1949.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of Wednesday, March 2, 1949, when on motion of Mr. KAMYK, unanimously agreed to, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Adams will state it

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, the Legislative Journal of the House of Representatives on Monday, February 14, 1949, at page 572, records me as not voting on my own amendments. This is not correct. I voted very distinctly and loudly in favor of these, my own, amendments. I had many witnesses in the Hall of the House when that roll call was taken and many of these witnesses are willing to appear before this House and to testify that they heard me vote for my amendments. It is high time an Electric Roll Call System is installed in this House. We would then be sure that no intentional or non-intentional mistakes would be made.

I have checked with some of my constituents last night who are on my mailing list for the Legislative Journal and find that they have not as yet received the February 14, 1949, Legislative Journal and I now request that the Chief Clerk of this House do not mail nor distribute the February 14, 1949, Legislative Journal until this correction is made, and I further request that the Speaker of this House order that this correction be made by printing a corrected page to be inserted at page 572 or use some other satisfactory method of correction.

I cannot see how anyone can conclude that a Member did not vote on his own amendments, which he introduced, which he spoke for, and which he voted for in the presence of over fifty farmers seated in the rear of this House on the evening of Monday, February 14, 1949.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. BRANDON and FLEMING.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 29.

In the House of Representatives, March 2, 1949.

Whereas, Destitute, homeless, abandoned, and neglected children present a challenge to present day Americans which can be adequately coped with only by a well-founded and sound public policy geared to the care and guidance of such children, and

Whereas, The problems posed, particularly in thickly populated industrial sections of this Commonwealth in regard to lack of responsibility for and guidance of children and the causes of such situations, and the resultant problems of health, safety, welfare and general well-being of destitute, neglected, homeless and abandoned children who have become public charges, and

Whereas, The State Government has no integrated or comprehensive control over the placing of children for adoption, and

Whereas, No requirement is made upon foster parents to adopt children, and

Whereas, It is the solemn duty and obligation of a democratic government to seek out and solve problems concerning the welfare of its children in a logical and orderly manner; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concurs), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to study and investigate the present methods and conflicts of jurisdiction between courts and the various public and private charitable agencies, in the placing of destitute, homeless, abandoned and neglected children in proper homes or institutions and under adequate supervision and care, with a view to their ultimate permanent placement in families responsible for custody and care of such children, and with a further view to the ultimate adoption of such children by private individuals and their membership in families as integral and legally recognized members thereof, and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission shall make a report to the next regular session of the General Assembly embracing the results of its findings and its recommendations for legislation to correct existing conditions and to prepare a bill or bills embodying such recommendations.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. McNALLY and FLEMING.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 30.

In the House of Representatives, March 2, 1949.

The policy of the Commonwealth supported by its law is to provide adequately a decent and healthful standard of living for the needy who are unable to provide that same standard for themselves.

These aged persons, those who are handicapped by physical defects or ailments and those dependent and neglected children whose age alone makes assistance necessary, require the help of the Commonwealth to bring to them a full measure of health and contentment.

Those children of aged and needy persons who are striving to provide adequately for themselves and to give to their own children all those things that will make their future secure should not be compelled to bear the extra burden of providing for needy parents.

Although it is the aim of the Commonwealth to provide sufficient help to maintain a decent standard of living for needy persons, studies published by the Department of Public Assistance indicate that cash allowances are not made to cover the cost of all minimum living requirements recognized as essential to a decent and healthful standard of living and it is most essential that such costs should be covered if our dependents are to be afforded proper and sufficient relief.

The health of the growing children of the Commonwealth is necessary to insure a strong and efficient citizenry in the future and the neglect of a portion of that group will materially affect the Pennsylvania of tomorrow.

For the Commonwealth to provide now, less than is necessary to supply the minimum cost of living to its needy is to undermine the future; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, That the Department of Public Assistance and the State Board of Public Assistance give special and immediate consideration to the adoption of standards of assistance sufficient to provide for the minimum living requirements of dependent persons and especially for the care of dependent and needy children; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of Public Assistance inform the General Assembly before the adjournment of its present session of whatever additional appropriation if any would be required to provide for the minimum living requirements of such persons.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE MESSAGE

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 67, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1046) entitled "An act providing for equalization of assessed valuations of real property throughout the Commonwealth for use in determining the amount and allocation of Commonwealth subsidies to school districts creating a State Tax Equalization Board and prescribing its powers and duties imposing duties on certain local officers agents boards commissions and departments and making an appropriation" by changing the time for the beginning of the use of market values for the determination and apportionment of Commonwealth subsidies

Section 1 Section fifteen of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P L 1046) entitled "An act providing for equalization of assessed valuations of real property throughout the Commonwealth for use in determining the amount and allocation of Commonwealth subsidies to school districts creating a State Tax Equalization Board and prescribing its powers and duties imposing duties on certain local officers agents boards commissions and departments and making an appropriation" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 15 Determination and Apportionment of Commonwealth Subsidies As soon as possible each year after the final adjustment of values by the board the board shall certify to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the market value of all real property in each school district in the Commonwealth Beginning with payment to be made [during] for the school year one thousand nine hundred forty-nine one thousand nine hundred fifty each school district's assessed valuation to be used for purposes of computing its standard reimbursement fraction shall be the market value of the taxable real property in the school district as finally adjusted and determined upon by the board and not the assessed valuation for county tax purposes as now provided by law Beginning with the year one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and every two (2) years thereafter in place of the valuations now required by law to be used for such purposes the market value of the real property in each school district as finally adjusted and determined upon by the board shall be used by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in ascertaining and determining the amount of funds required to meet payments to school districts and vocational school districts which become due and payable by law within the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred fifty-one and each biennium thereafter and to apportion and allot the same to and among the respective school districts

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Blair permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger, to explain the purpose of this bill, if he will.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, this bill changes just one word. The bill on page 2, line 15, has in it the only change there is, changing the word "during" to the word "for," which means that the payments by the Commonwealth made to the school districts will be made for the year 1949-1950 instead of during that year.

Under Act 515 of the 1945 session we made the procedure for paying the appropriations to the school districts. Under that act we have the procedure based on the county assessment. The standard for that payment is what we call the reimbursement fraction. Now, that has been used since 1945. The Department of Public Instruction pays the school districts one year after the money of the school district is expended, but under Act 447 of the 1947 session, we have a change because that law says that the payments to the school districts must be on the basis of market value, as a result of the study of the Tax Equalization Board. That study has not been finished as yet.

In February of each year the school districts make out their estimate of expenditure for the following year and send it in to the Department of Public Instruction. Then on the basis of that reimbursement fraction they determine the amount to be paid to the schools for the preceding year, that is the year that is made out. Now, that means that Act 515 calls for county assessment for the 1949-1950 term, but Act 447, Section 15, provides for market value for the same year.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, the two acts are at variance and something must be done. Though the Department of Public Instruction were to pay on the basis of market value, there is no readjustment of the reimbursement fraction, and the school district would lose at least one-third of the money for this next year, which they are now receiving, but if this bill is passed, that postpones for one year the payment on the market value and continues it on the assessed value, which gives the school districts the same payment they are getting, based on the reimbursement fraction. Though they were to use the market value they would have to receive very definitely a reduction because there would be no new reimbursement fraction to work out on the basis of the market value.

Now, Mr. Speaker, the Department has asked that this be postponed one year, and that is done by the word "for" so that they can continue to pay for this coming year on the basis of the county assessment and the present reimbursement fraction. After that study will have been completed the Department will have time to work out a new reimbursement fraction on the basis of market value, which is the law in Act 447, and the district will receive no loss next year, with the possibility of none thereafter. That depends entirely upon the relationship of the districts with the state financially.

I shall read, Mr. Speaker, one sentence from the Department of Public Instruction, which ought to determine how anyone wants to vote:

"Any reimbursement fractions determined on the basis of the present provisions of Section 15 of Act 447 would need to be based on the market values as determined by the State Tax Equalization Board, which values are not yet available for the use of the Department of Public Instruction, and would be determined, if the market values were available, under the present provisions of Act 515, which would result in a drastic financial loss to practically all school districts. Therefore, we urge that Senate Bill 67 receive the prompt and favorable consideration of the General Assembly."

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Article II

School Districts

(a) Designation and Classification

Section 201 How Constituted All school districts shall remain as now constituted until changed as authorized by this act. Except as otherwise now or hereafter constituted each city incorporated town borough or township in this Commonwealth now existing or hereafter created shall constitute a separate school district to be designated and known as the "School District of". Provided That where any city incorporated town borough or township or a part of the school district remaining after its separation would constitute a fourth class school district it shall remain a part of the school district to which it formerly belonged until the change to a new school district is approved by the State Council of Education as hereinafter provided.

Section 202 Classification The several school districts of the Commonwealth are hereby divided into four classes as follows:

Each school district having a population of five hundred thousand (500,000) or more shall be a school district of the first class.

Each school district having a population of thirty thousand (30,000) or more but of less than five hundred thousand (500,000) shall be a school district of the second class.

Each school district having a population of five thousand (5,000) or more but of less than thirty thousand (30,000) shall be a school district of the third class.

Each school district having a population of less than five thousand (5,000) shall be a school district of the fourth class.

Section 203 Creation of New Cities Boroughs and Townships When a new school district is formed by the creation of a new city borough or township the court of common pleas having jurisdiction shall determine and enter in its decree the class of school districts to which such new district if formed shall belong and if of the first second or third class it shall thereupon become a new school district of such class. If the newly created city borough or township would constitute a school district of the fourth class the court of common pleas having jurisdiction shall so certify and a new school district shall be formed only if and when it is approved by the State Council of Education as hereinbefore provided.

Section 204 Basis for and Change of Classification The last United States census as set forth in the official report thereof shall be the basis on which the population of the several school districts shall be computed. A change from one class of school district to another shall be made in the following cases and in no other:

(1) After the taking of a United States census showing the population of any school district to be such as to entitle it to be changed from one class of school district to another.

(2) When a district which at a decennial census had sufficient population to entitle it to an advance to another class of district has since suffered a large decrease in population a census of the district may be authorized by the board of school directors of the district and if it shall appear that said district has not the required population to remain in the class in which the same then is the Superintendent of Public Instruction upon receipt of the facts disclosed by said census may issue his proclamation declaring such district to be of the class to which it properly belongs as disclosed by the census of the school board.

(3) Where the population of two districts combined subsequent to the taking of a United States census and ascertained by such census is such as to entitle the new or combined district to be in a class different from the class of either of the districts so combined.

(4) Where since the last preceding United States census any territory has been annexed to any city borough town or township whereby the population of such city borough town or township has been increased and the population of such annexed territory cannot be ascertained from the last preceding census of the United States the directors of the school districts affected by such annexation may apply to the court of common pleas for the appointment of a commissioner to make an enumeration of the population of such annexed territory. The court shall certify the population of the annexed territory so ascertained together with the population of the city borough town or township as shown by the last preceding United States census to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The cost of the proceeding including reasonable compensation for the commissioner to be fixed by the court shall be paid by the school district.

Section 205 Change of Class How Effected Whenever it shall appear in any case hereinafter enumerated that the population of any school district in this Commonwealth is such that it should be included in another class of school districts the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall issue a certificate to said school district to that effect and such school district shall with the beginning of the next school year after said certificate has been issued become a school district of the class to which it properly belongs The provisions of this section shall apply when

(1) The Superintendent of Public Instruction after the taking of each United States census has canvassed the same so far as it relates to the population of the several school districts which he is hereby required to do

(2) Territory comprising a separate school district is annexed to a city borough or township and the decree of the court or the vote of the electors effecting such annexation has been certified to the Superintendent of Public Instruction

(3) Territory has been annexed to a city borough town or township and enumeration of the population of such annexed territory has been made

(b) Powers and Duties etc

Section 211 General Powers of Districts The several school districts in this Commonwealth shall be and hereby are vested as bodies corporate with all necessary powers to enable them to carry out the provisions of this act

Section 212 Corporate Seal Each school district of this Commonwealth may by a majority vote of the members of the board of school directors of such district adopt a corporate seal for the use of said district The seal shall have engraved thereon the following "School District of Pennsylvania" and such other inscription or design as the board of school directors may direct

Section 213 Right to Sue and be Sued Each school district shall have the right to sue and be sued in its corporate name Any legal process against any school district shall be served on the president or secretary of its board of school directors

Section 214 Competency as Witnesses No person on account of being a taxpayer or resident in any school district shall be reason thereof be incompetent to testify in any suit or action in which such school district is a party

Section 215 Conveyances by Districts Any deed for school property properly executed and delivered in the name of any school district as established by this act shall convey to the grantee the entire interest of the grantor in such property irrespective of the manner or name in which said property was conveyed to or acquired by or is held by the school district conveying the same

Section 216 Gifts to Districts Investment Accounts (a) It shall be lawful for any school district to receive and hold absolutely or in trust any devise bequest grant endowment gift or donation of any property real or personal which shall be made to said school district or for any of the purposes of this act Any such devise bequest grant endowment gift or donation shall be administered by or under the direction of the board of directors of the district to which it is made subject to all the conditions and trusts thereto annexed The board of school directors shall not be obliged to accept any such devise bequest grant endowment gift or donation unless it deems it proper so to do

(b) The board of school directors shall promptly invest and keep invested as constantly as possible and to the best advantage any devise bequest grant endowment gift or donation accepted and the proceeds thereof Such investment may be made only in bonds legally and properly issued by a school district in this Commonwealth or in municipal bonds in which savings banks of Pennsylvania are authorized by law to invest their deposits Except in school districts of the first class all investments must be first approved by the president judge of the court of common pleas of the judicial district in which such school district is situated

(c) It shall be the duty of the board of school directors to keep an accurate account of all devises bequests grants endowments gifts and donations accepted the income arising therefrom the proceeds thereof and the expenses of administering the same and at the end of each fiscal year to render a detailed statement of such devises bequests grants endowments gifts and donations held and possessed by such school district the proceeds thereof the investments which have been made therewith the income arising therefrom the expenses of administration and the purposes to which the income arising therefrom have been applied Such statement shall be audited as hereinafter provided for the auditing of school finances

Section 217 Unlawful Gifts It shall be unlawful for any member of or any board of school directors to demand request or accept directly or indirectly any gift or donation from any teacher or supervisor within its employ

(c) Changes in Districts

Section 226 Change in Districts When Effective If any new school district is made by the creation of any city borough township or independent school district or by the annexation of territory comprising a separate school district to a city or borough or township or if the boundary lines of any school district are changed by reason of the changing of the boundary lines of any city incorporated town borough township or independent school district then in any such case the change so far as it relates to school districts or school affairs shall take effect at the beginning of the first school year after such new city borough township or independent school district has been created or such annexation affected or such change in boundary lines permanently effected

Section 227 Filing Copy of Action Creating New District or Affecting Fourth Class District with Superintendent of Public Instruction Whenever a new school district is created by the creation of a new city borough township or independent school district or by the consolidation of two or more districts as a union district or an existing school district of the fourth class is affected by the annexation to a city or borough or township or territory included within a school district of the fourth class the clerk of the courts or other proper officer shall within ten days thereafter make a certified copy of the petition therefor agreement or ordinance and the decree or order creating such new city borough township or independent school district or union school district or of the decree of the court or vote of the electors affecting such annexation and mail the same to the Superintendent of Public Instruction Department of Public Instruction Harrisburg Pennsylvania

Section 228 Approval or Disapproval of Creation or Change of Fourth Class Districts (a) If the newly created city borough or township or independent school district or union school district or the part of a school district remaining after the separation would constitute a school district of the fourth class the receipt of said certified copy shall be deemed an application for the creation of a new school district of the fourth class or change in the boundaries of an existing school district of the fourth class and the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall within sixty days thereafter cause the State Council of Education to be convened The council shall thereupon consider such application and determine whether such new school district or independent school district or union school district or change in the boundaries of an existing school district of the fourth class is desirable and whether the welfare of the pupils within the territory affected thereby will be promoted by the creation of such district or change in the boundaries of such existing district

(b) If the council shall approve such application it shall certify its findings and its approval of such new district or change in such existing district thereon and transmit a certified copy thereof to the clerk of the courts or other proper officer from whom the application was received who shall file the same in such original proceedings whereupon the new city borough or township will become a new school district of the fourth class or the school district of the fourth class remaining after such annexation shall constitute a separate school district as so changed

(c) If in the judgment of the council the application should not be granted it shall endorse thereon "not approved" and transmit a certified copy thereof to the clerk of the courts or other proper officer from whom the application was received who shall file the same in the original proceeding. In such event the boundaries of the existing school districts shall remain unchanged. Provided The State Council of Education may for cause shown upon subsequent application by ten taxables of a school district of the fourth class not coterminous with a city borough incorporated town or township vacate such refusal and may approve the creation of such new district of the fourth class or change in boundaries of an existing district of the fourth class and thereupon the same proceedings shall be had as herein provided upon the original application and with like effect.

Section 229 Annexation of District of First Class Whenever hereafter the territory comprising a school district of the second third or fourth class is annexed to a city comprising a school district of the first class the annexed school district shall immediately become merged in and become a part of said school district of the first class.

Section 230 Approval of Contracts and Changes after Vote for Annexation Where under the provisions of any act of Assembly an election shall be held for and against the annexation of territory comprising a school district of the second third or fourth class to a city comprising a separate school district and if it shall appear by the vote when counted that a majority has voted for said annexation and the result of said election shall have been certified to the court of quarter sessions having jurisdiction of the proceedings of the board of school directors of said annexed school district shall not thereafter make any change in text books or adopt additional textbooks or contract for any new school sites or let any contract for the erection enlargement alteration equipment or furnishing of any new school sites or let any contract for the erection enlargement alteration equipment or furnishing of any school building without the approval of the board of school directors of the said school district of such annexing city.

Section 231 Tax Levy or Debt for Building or Grounds Pending Change of Boundaries etc While proceedings are pending in court for the changing of any boundary lines of any city incorporated town borough or township or the creation of any new city borough or township the board of school directors in every school district to be affected by such change of boundary lines or creation of a new municipality shall be permitted to levy and assess a school tax and incur debts for the purpose of purchasing ground or building or enlarging a school building in the same manner as though such proceedings were not pending in court for the changing of any boundary lines of any such city incorporated town borough or township or the creation of any new city borough or township.

Section 232 Special Tax Directed by Court In addition to the levies provided for in the preceding sections when it is shown to the court of quarter sessions that by reason of the partition of any school district and the apportionment of the debts of the original district the debts of such school district exceed the amount which the board of directors may collect in any year by taxation the court after ascertaining the amount of indebtedness of any school district may by a writ of mandamus direct the board of school directors by special taxation to collect an amount sufficient to pay the same. If the amount of such indebtedness is so large as to render it inadvisable to collect the same in any one year taking into consideration other necessary taxation the court may direct the same to be levied and collected by annual installments and may order such special taxes to be levied and collected during such successive years as may be required for the payment of the same. The special tax shall be subject to the same penalties for non-payment and shall be computed and collected in the same manner as other school taxes.

(d) Independent Districts

Section 241 Creation of Independent Districts A majority of the taxable inhabitants of any contiguous territory in any school district or school districts as herein established may present their petition to the court of common pleas of the county in which each contiguous territory or a greater part in area thereof is situated asking that such territory be established as an independent school district. Where the territory described in any such petition is to be taken from two or more school districts such petition shall be signed by a majority of all the taxable inhabitants of the part of each school district which is to be included in such independent district. Such petition shall set forth a proper description of the boundaries of the territory to be included in such proposed independent school district and the desire of the petitioners for better school facilities than are or would be provided and maintained by the district or districts of which such proposed independent school district is a part. The court shall hold a hearing thereon of which hearing the school district or districts out of whole territory such proposed independent school district is to be taken shall have ten (10) days' notice. After taking into consideration the welfare of the pupils and taxpayers of such school district or school districts as well as of such proposed independent school district the court may make a decree establishing an independent school district and fix the boundaries thereof which may be more or less than those set forth in such petition.

Section 242 Approval of Fourth Class Districts Adjustment of Indebtedness Costs In all cases where such independent school district is created or the remaining part of the original district would constitute a fourth class school district the merits of the petition for its creation from an educational standpoint shall be passed upon by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the petition shall not be granted unless approved by him. The court shall also determine the amount if any of the indebtedness of the school district from whose territory such independent district is taken that it shall assume and pay. If any such independent district so created shall include the territory of any former independent school district abolished by the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) having any indebtedness such indebtedness shall be assumed and paid by such newly created independent school district. Any independent district thus created shall belong to the class of school districts herein provided to which it is entitled to belong by its population as determined by the last preceding United States census.

In all cases where such proceedings result in the creation by decree of the court of a new school district the cost and office fees shall be paid by the new district otherwise by the petitioners.

Section 243 Abolition of Independent Districts Any independent school district established as herein provided may be abolished at any time by the court of common pleas of the county in which its school buildings are located on the petition of its board of school directors or on the petition of a majority of the resident taxpayers in the independent school district after hearing of which due notice shall be given as the court may direct to the school district or districts to which its lands would revert. When so abolished the territory thereof shall become part of and belong to the several school districts within whose boundaries the same is situated and its property and indebtedness if any shall be apportioned among them as hereinbefore provided.

(e) Union Districts

Section 251 How formed Any two or more school districts may form a union school district in the following manner. Each of the districts desiring to form a union school district shall present a petition to the county commissioners of the county where such district is located signed by at least a majority of the members of the board of school directors of each of said districts. The county commissioners shall take no action upon such petitions until they have been approved in writing by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. After such petitions have been approved and filed it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to submit to the electors of the respective districts desiring to form a union school district at the next general or municipal election a question whether or not such school districts shall be united into a union school district. Such question shall be submitted in the form and manner provided by the general election laws of this Commonwealth for the submission of similar questions.

Section 252 Return of Election If a majority of the voters of each school district voting at said election shall be in favor of establishing a union district as shown by the returns of said election a certificate of the return shall be filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction and with the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the county and with the board of school directors of each of said school districts.

Section 253 When Established Classification Whenever any union district shall be formed as herein provided such district shall become a union school district on the first Monday in July after it has been formed. The classification of any such union school district shall be determined for the purposes of this act by the combined population of all the districts united as shown by the last preceding decennial census of the United States.

Section 254 Liabilities and Property of Component Districts Whenever any two or more school districts shall be consolidated into a union school district as herein provided all the debts and liabilities of the several districts shall become the debts of the union school district unless otherwise provided by an agreement in writing approved by a majority vote of each board of school directors prior to the time said question of forming a union school district is submitted to the voters. All rights of creditors against any of the districts shall be preserved against the union school district. All property heretofore vested in the several districts shall become vested in the union district and all debts and taxes owing to the districts uncollected in the several districts and all moneys in the treasuries of the several districts shall be paid to the treasurer of the new district.

(f) Merger of Districts

Section 261 Standards and Regulations Approval of Plans The State Council of Education shall adopt and prescribe standards and regulations for the merger of school districts or parts thereof. Such standards and regulations shall take into consideration the following factors: topography, density of population, community interests, facility of transportation of pupils, financial ability of the district, school organization and existing school plants. Such standards and regulations may be revised from time to time by the State Council of Education as the need therefore appears.

The State Council of Education shall review and approve or disapprove all plans for the merger of school districts or parts of school districts and for the reorganization of administrative units and attendance areas submitted by county boards of school directors in accordance with the prescribed standards and regulations.

Section 262 County-Wide Plans for Merger etc. In the event that in any county county-wide plans for the merger of school districts or parts of school districts and for the reorganization of attendance areas and administrative units have not been approved and assented to by the electors of the districts affected thereby the county board of school directors shall prepare revised plans and shall submit the same to the State Council of Education on or before the first Monday of July one thousand nine hundred fifty-three. If such plans or any plans heretofore prepared and submitted for any county are approved by the State Council of Education the county board shall cause such plans to be submitted to the electors of the districts affected as hereinafter provided.

Section 263 Petitions and Elections for Mergers Returns When Effective Upon the approval of said plans by the State Council of Education it shall be the duty of the county board of school directors to prepare and present petitions for such mergers to the court of common pleas of the county. In case such districts or parts of districts are situated in two or more counties the petitions shall be presented to the court of common pleas of the county in which the largest part in area of the land affected is situated which court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the matter.

The petition for any such merger shall request the submission of the question of such merger to the electors of each district affected thereby at the next general or municipal election to be held at least ninety (90) days after the presentation of said petition. The question to be submitted to the electors shall be framed by the court and be by it certified to the county commissioners for submission to the electors of each district affected thereby. Such submission shall be in accordance with the laws of this Commonwealth relating to the submission of similar questions.

If a majority of the electors of each school district voting therein shall be in favor of merger as shown by the returns of the election a certificate of the returns shall be filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the prothonotary of the court of common pleas, the county board of school directors and the board of school directors of each of said school districts. The merger shall become effective on the first Monday in July next succeeding the election. The merger shall be effective as to only those districts in which a majority of the electors voting on the question shall have assented to the merger. If the electors do not assent to the merger revised plans shall be submitted within five years in accordance with the foregoing procedure.

Section 264 Merged Districts Assets and Liabilities Whenever any school district shall be merged with any other district or districts all the debts and liabilities of the several districts shall become the debts of the merged school district unless otherwise provided by an agreement in writing approved by a majority vote of each board of school directors prior to the time the question of merging is submitted to the voters. All rights of creditors against any of the districts shall be preserved against the merged school district. All property heretofore vested in the several districts shall become vested in the merged district and all debts and taxes owing to the districts uncollected in the several districts and all moneys in the treasuries of the several districts shall be paid to the treasurer of the new district.

In each case where only a part of a district is merged the distribution of assets and liabilities of the part merged and the part not to be merged shall be determined by written agreement by the county board and the board of the district affected before the question is submitted to the electors.

(g) Apportionment of Property and Indebtedness

Section 271 Amicable Adjustment and Apportionment In any case where (1) any school district is abolished and its land reverts to or becomes a part of two or more school districts or (2) any land heretofore annexed to one school district is made a part of the district in which it is located or (3) a new district is made by the creation of a new city, borough, township or independent school district out of one or more school districts or (4) the boundary lines of any district are changed by the changing of the boundary lines of any city incorporated town, borough, township or school district or (5) any part of any school district is merged with any other district or districts or parts thereof then in any such case the school districts to which land has been annexed or from which land has been taken or which have been newly created shall make a just and proper adjustment and apportionment of all school property, real and personal, including funds as well as indebtedness if any to and among such school districts. Such adjustment and apportionment shall be made as of the date of the decree or order creating such new city, borough, township or school district or of the decree of the court or vote of the electors effecting such annexation or merger.

Section 272 Apportionments How and When Made In making such adjustment and apportionment of property and indebtedness the amount and assessed value of land acquired by or taken from such districts as compared with the amount and assessed value of the other land in the districts as well as the value of the school grounds together with the buildings thereon and the furniture and equipment therein and other school property in such districts shall be taken into consideration in determining the amount if any that shall be paid by one district to another or in apportioning the indebtedness if any that shall be assumed and paid by any of the districts Such adjustment and apportionment of property and liability shall be made by the boards of school directors of the several districts concerned before or during the first school year after such boundaries have been changed

Section 273 Apportionment by Commissioners In case the boards of school directors of the several school districts cannot make amicable apportionment and adjustment of their property and indebtedness before or during the first school year beginning after any such change in their boundary lines is made any one of such school districts may at any time within the succeeding school year present its petition to the court of common pleas of the county in which such school districts is located The court shall appoint three disinterested commissioners residents and taxpayers of the county not residing in either of the districts whose boundary lines are changed Such commissioners after a hearing shall make a report to the court making an apportionment and adjustment according to the provisions of this act of all school property as well as indebtedness if any to and among the several school districts from which or to which land has been taken or added or which have been newly created as the case may be Said report shall state the amount if any that shall be due and payable from one district to another as well as the amount of indebtedness if any that shall be assumed by any district Due notice of such hearing shall be given to the several districts interested as the court may direct

Section 274 Confirmation of Report Effect Costs The commissioners shall give the several districts interested at least five (5) days' notice of the filing of their report Unless exceptions are filed thereto by any district interested within thirty (30) days after the filing thereof the same shall be confirmed by the court absolutely Any sum awarded by said report to any school district shall be a legal and valid claim in its favor against the school district charged therewith The amount of debt if any apportioned to any school district shall be a legal and valid claim against such district charged therewith Upon the report of the commissioners being confirmed such claims or indebtedness charged against any school district may be collected in the same manner as a judgment is collected against any school district

Such commissioners shall be allowed three dollars ($3) per day for each day actually spent by them in the performance of their duties together with their actual necessary expenses All costs and expenses of such proceeding shall be apportioned by the court to and among the several school districts as it shall deem proper

Section 275 Court to Dispose of Exceptions In case exceptions are filed to the report of the commissioners the court shall dispose of the same taking testimony therein if it deems advisable The decision of the court thereon shall be final and binding on the several districts without any right of appeal

Section 276 Apportionment by Bill in Equity If the respective school districts shall neglect or refuse to petition the court for the appointment of commissioners to secure an apportionment and adjustment within the period of the second year as herein provided either of said school districts or any ten resident citizens owning taxable property within either of said school districts may file a bill in equity at any time within six (6) years from the date of said change in boundary lines in the name of the school district or for the use of the school district against the other school district in the court of common pleas of the proper county to have such indebtedness apportioned and adjusted and setting forth the facts upon which any claim of amounts due shall be made in accordance with the manner of adjustment set forth in the preceding sections of this act Such case shall be proceeded with in accordance with the equity rules and a decree of dismissal or of payment shall be made after due hearing by the court subject to further right of appeal as allowed by law

Section 307 Newly Formed Districts Where a new school district of the first second or third class is formed by the creation of a new city borough or township and where a new school district of the fourth class is so formed and is approved by the State Council of Education the court of common pleas having jurisdiction shall appoint a board of school directors for such new school district which shall serve until the first Monday of December next following the first municipal election occurring more than thirty (30) days after the formation of such new school district

Section 308 Elections or Appointments in Newly Formed Districts At the first municipal election occurring more than thirty (30) days subsequent to the formation of such new school district a board of school directors for such district shall be elected or appointed as provided in this act Such school directors shall be elected or appointed for such terms that the number and terms of those whose places are to be filled at each succeeding municipal election shall be the same as the number and terms of those whose places are filled at the corresponding election in other school districts of the same class

Section 309 Change of Class of Districts If any school district hereafter becomes a district of the first class a new board of school directors shall be appointed in the manner provided in this act for the appointment of school directors in districts of the first class If any school district hereafter becomes a district of any of the other classes and the number of directors therein is increased the additional directors shall be appointed or elected as vacancies in the board of directors are now filled and for terms corresponding to those of directors in other school districts of the same class When the change reduces the number of directors in such district the school directors then in office shall hold office during the respective terms for which they are elected and as vacancies are about to happen by the expiration of the terms of any directors a number of directors shall be elected at the municipal election preceding such vacancies equal to the number of directors required by law to be elected at the corresponding election in other school districts of the same class

Section 310 Annexation of Territory Consolidations When territory comprising a separate school district is annexed to a city or boroughs or township the terms of office of all the school directors of such annexed territory shall expire at the beginning of the first school year after such annexation is affected except the terms of the president and vice-president who shall hold office during the respective terms for which they were elected When two or more school districts are consolidated as a union school district or when two or more school districts are consolidated as a result of the consolidation of boroughs as provided in the General Borough Act the school directors then in office in both or all of the districts shall hold office during the respective terms for which they were elected In either case no election for school director in the district shall be held unless on the first Monday of January next following a municipal election there would be a less number of directors than is provided by law for the district of the same class

At each subsequent municipal election only so many school directors shall be elected as will on the first Monday of January then next following bring the number of school directors to the proper number of the district

Section 311 Appointment in Independent Districts Terms of Office Every independent school district established as herein provided shall have its affairs administered by a board of school directors subject to all the provisions of this act relating to the class of school districts to which such independent district belongs The court establishing such independent school district shall at the time of so doing appoint a board of properly qualified residents of the district of like number and for the same terms as is herein provided for such class of districts In November of every odd year such court shall appoint the proper number of directors for the full term of six years whose terms shall begin on the first Monday of December following their appointment Any vacancy in such board shall be filled by the court for the unexpired term

Section 312 Union Districts Whenever any two or more school districts shall be consolidated into a union school district the directors then in office in each of said districts shall continue in office until the expiration of their respective terms and shall jointly constitute the board of school directors of the union school district At the first municipal election after a union school district is created and at each subsequent municipal election there shall be elected in the union school district the same number of school directors and for like terms as is provided by this act for school districts of the class to which such union school district belongs so that upon the expiration of the terms of the directors of the former districts which were united the board of school directors of the union school district shall be composed of the same number as in other districts of its class

Section 313 Merged Districts In any instance in which a school district is merged with another district or districts by the terms of this act the directors then in office in each of said districts shall continue in office until the expiration of their respective terms and shall jointly constitute the board of school directors of the resulting merged school district At the first municipal election after a merged school district is created and at each subsequent municipal election there shall be elected in the merged school district the same number of school directors and for like terms as is provided by law for school districts of the class to which the merged school district belongs so that upon the expiration of the terms of the directors of the former districts which were merged the board of school directors of the merged district shall be composed of the same number as in other districts of its class

Section 314 Two or More Persons Receiving Same Number of Votes If at any election two (2) or more candidates for school director receive the same number of votes for the same office such persons shall in such manner as they see fit decide which of them shall be entitled to the office for which they received an equal number of votes. In case they fail so to do and to file with the president or secretary of the board of school directors in said district within twenty (20) days after the election a paper signed by all the candidates receiving the same number of votes stating which of said persons shall hold said office then the office for which they were candidates shall be vacant and the board of school directors organizing in December following such election shall during the month of December fill such vacancy by the appointment of an eligible person but none of the parties who had received an equal number of votes for such office shall be eligible for such vacancy

Section 315 Filling of Vacancies In case any vacancy shall occur in any board of school directors by reason of death resignation removal from the district or otherwise such vacancy shall in a school district of the first class be filled for the unexpired term by the court of common pleas of the county in which such school district is situated and in a school district of the second third or fourth classes the remaining members of the board of school directors shall by a majority vote thereof fill such vacancy within thirty (30) days thereafter in a district or the second third or fourth class the persons selected to fill such vacancy shall hold his office if the term thereof so long continues until the first Monday of December after the first municipal election occurring more than thirty (30) days after his appointment. At such election an eligible person shall be elected for the remainder of the unexpired term. If by reason of a tie vote or otherwise such vacancy shall not have been filled by the board of school directors within thirty (30) days after such vacancy shall have occurred the court of common pleas of the proper county upon the petition of ten or more resident taxpayers shall fill such vacancy by the appointment of a suitable person for the unexpired term. When any member of a board of school directors heretofore or hereafter enlists or is inducted into the military or naval forces of the United States in time of war a temporary vacancy shall be declared which shall be filled by the remaining members of the board or the court as the case may be until the return of such members of the board from the military or naval service or until the expiration of the term for which he shall have been elected whichever shall be the shorter period

Section 316 Vacancies in Majority of Members In case vacancies occur whereby the offices of a majority of the members of any board of school directors other than the board of school directors of a school district of the first class becomes vacant the remaining members shall fill such vacancies one at a time giving the new appointee such reasonable notice of his appointment as to enable him to meet and act with the then qualified members of the board in making further appointments until a majority of the board has been secured when such majority shall fill the remaining vacancies at a meeting attended by the majority of said board. All appointees shall receive a majority of the votes of the members present at any such meeting. The persons selected to fill such vacancies shall hold their offices if the terms thereof continue so long until the first Monday in December after the first municipal election occurring more than thirty (30) days after their appointment at which election eligible persons shall be elected to fill the unexpired terms

Section 317 Vacancies in All Members If at any time vacancies exist or occur in the membership of all the members of any board of school directors in any school district other than a school district of the first class the court of common pleas of the county in which such district or the largest part in area thereof is located shall appoint a board of properly qualified persons who shall serve if the terms thereof continue so long until the first Monday in December after the first municipal election occurring more than thirty (30) days after their appointment at which election a board of school directors for such district shall be elected as herein provided in such manner that the number and terms of those whose places are to be filled at each succeeding municipal election shall be the same as the number and terms of those whose places are filled at the corresponding election in other school districts of the same class. Whenever a vacancy of the entire membership of a board of school directors in any school district of the fourth class occurs the county superintendent of schools may enter and take full charge of and at the expense of the district maintain the schools thereof in accordance with the provisions of the school laws of the Commonwealth under the direction of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and may continue in charge thereof until a board of school directors has been appointed and has qualified

Section 318 Removal for Failure to Organize or Neglect of Duty If the board of school directors in any district shall fail to organize as hereafter provided or refuse or neglect to perform any duty imposed upon it by the provisions of this act any ten resident taxpayers in the district may present their petition in writing verified by the oath or affirmation of at least three of them to the court of common pleas of the county in which such district or the largest part in area of it is located setting forth the facts of such refusal or neglect of duty on the part of such school directors. The court shall grant a rule upon the school directors returnable in not less than ten or more than twenty days from the date of issue thereof to show cause why they should not be removed from office. The school directors shall have at least five days' notice of the granting of the rule. On or before the return day of the rule the school directors individually or jointly shall file in writing their answer or answers to the petition under oath. If the facts set forth in the petition or any material part thereof is denied the court shall hear the several parties on such matters as are contained in the petition. If on such hearing or if when no answer is filed denying the facts set forth in the petition the court shall be of the opinion that any duty imposed on the board of school directors which is by the provisions of this act made mandatory upon them to perform has not been done or has been neglected by them the court shall have power to remove the board or such of its number as in its opinion is proper and appoint for the unexpired terms other qualified persons in their stead subject to the provisions of this act

The court shall impose the cost of such proceedings upon the petitioners or upon the school directors or upon the school district or may apportion the same among them as it shall deem just and proper

Any person so removed from the office of school director shall not be eligible again as school director for the period of five (5) years thereafter

Section 319 Vacancy where Director Fails to Qualify or Attend Meetings If any person elected or appointed as school director who has been notified of his election or appointment shall refuse or neglect to qualify as such director within ten days next succeeding the beginning of his term of office the remaining members of the board may declare his office as director vacant

If any person having qualified as school director shall neglect or refuse to attend two successive regular meetings unless detained by sickness or prevented by necessary absence from the district or if in attendance at any meetings shall neglect or refuse to act in his official capacity as a school director the remaining members of the board may declare his office as director vacant

Section 320 Notification of Election The number of votes cast for the several candidates for school directors in all school districts in this Commonwealth at any election shall be returned by the election officers as provided by law and the clerk prothonotary or other proper authority shall within ten days thereafter under seal of the court certify the result of the election to each candidate duly elected and a duplicate copy of each such certificate shall be mailed to the president of the board of school directors in the district in which such person or persons were elected.

Section 321 Compensation Oath of Office All persons elected or appointed as school directors shall serve without pay except as hereinafter provided. Before entering upon the duties of their office each shall take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation which may be administered by any one qualified to administer an oath or as hereinafter provided.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support obey and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity that I have not paid or contributed or promised to pay or contribute either directly or indirectly any money or other valuable thing to procure my nomination or election (or appointment) except for necessary and proper expenses expressly authorized by law that I have not knowingly violated any election law of this Commonwealth or procured it to be done by others in my behalf that I will not knowingly receive either directly or indirectly any money or other valuable thing for the performance or non-performance of any act or duty pertaining to my office other than the compensation allowed by law.

Section 322 Eligibility Incompatible Offices Any citizen of this Commonwealth having a good moral character being twenty-one (21) years of age or upwards and having been a resident of the district for at least one (1) year prior to the date of his election or appointment shall be eligible to the office of school director therein. He shall in no case except as this section otherwise provides sign any order for any sum unless the same has first been acted upon and approved by the board and the amount thereof and the name of the payee properly inserted. Any orders which shall be for the payment of amounts owing under any contracts which shall previously have been approved by the board and by the prompt payment of which the district will receive a discount or other advantage may be signed without the approval of the board first having been secured. All such orders shall be presented to the board at its next meeting. The president shall perform such other duties as the board may direct and as pertain to his office.

Section 428 Duties of Vice President. In the absence of the president the vice-president shall act in his stead.

(d) Secretary

Section 431 Bond. Before he enters upon the duties of his office the secretary of the board of school directors shall furnish to the school district for the faithful performance of his duties a bond in such amount and with such surety or sureties as may be required of him and approved by the board of school directors. The cost of such bond may be paid for by the school district. In lieu of furnishing a surety bond the secretary may file his own collateral bond in such amount as may be required by the board of school directors secured by an actual deposit with the board of school directors or with any bank or trust company within the Commonwealth which may be agreed upon of any of the securities which depositories may use to secure the deposit of school funds as herein provided. The total market value of the securities thus deposited shall equal the amount of the collateral bond. Such collateral bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties as secretary. The securities thus deposited shall constitute a trust fund to be available for the satisfaction of any liability accruing upon the collateral bond.

The securities shall be accompanied by a proper assignment or power of attorney for their transfer. Such trust deposit in the event of any depreciation in its value shall be maintained upon request in writing of the board of school directors at the amount provided therein. The board of school directors may permit the secretary to substitute for any one or more bonds or obligations included in any such securities other bonds or obligations that meet the requirements of this act.

Section 432 Compensation. The secretary of the board of school directors may receive for his services such compensation as the board shall fix the amount of which shall be reported annually to the Superintendent of Public Instruction and be printed in his report.

Section 433 Duties. The secretary of the board of school directors shall perform the following duties:

(1) He shall keep a correct and proper record of all the proceedings of the board and shall prepare such reports and keep such accounts as are required by the provisions of this act.

(2) He shall after the board has acted on and approved any bill or account for the payment of money authorized by this act prepare and sign an order on the treasurer for the payment of the same. He may prepare and sign orders on the treasurer for the payment of amounts owing under any contracts which shall previously have been approved by the board and by the prompt payment of which the district will receive a discount or other advantage without the approval of the board first having been secured.

(3) He shall attest in writing the execution of all deeds, contracts, reports and other instruments that are to be executed by the board.

(4) He shall furnish whenever requested any and all reports concerning the school affairs of the district on such form and in such manner as the State Council of Education or the Superintendent of Public Instruction may require.

(5) He shall have general supervision of all the business affairs of the school district subject to the instruction and direction of the board of school directors.

(6) He shall be the custodian of all the records, papers, office property and official seal of the school district and at the expiration of his term shall turn the same over to his successor.

(7) He shall keep correct accounts with each receiver of taxes, school treasurer or school tax collector of the district reporting a statement of the same together with a statement of the finances of the district at each regular meeting of the board which statement shall be entered in full upon the minutes.

(8) He shall perform such other duties pertaining to the business of the district as are required by this act or as the board of school directors may direct.

(e) Treasurer

Section 436 Bond. Every person elected treasurer of any school district including the city treasurer elected as treasurer of a school district of the first class shall before entering upon the duties of his office furnish to the school district a proper bond in such amount and with such surety or sureties as the board of school directors therein may approve conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as school treasurer. If any school treasurer is re-elected he shall furnish a new bond for each year. The treasurer's bond may be paid for by the school district. In lieu of furnishing such a bond the treasurer may file his own collateral bond in such amount as may be required by the board of school directors secured by an actual deposit with the board of school directors or with any bank or trust company within the Commonwealth which may be agreed upon of any of the securities which depositories may use to secure the deposit of school funds as herein provided. All such increases shall be paid in all cases out of the school appropriation apportioned to the school districts over which the county superintendent has supervision before the same is distributed. A convention of school directors for the purpose of voting such salaries may be called at any time by the county superintendent. The salaries of county superintendents, assistant county superintendents and supervisors of special education shall be paid monthly.

Section 1068 Expenses. In addition to the foregoing salaries each county superintendent, each assistant county superintendent and each supervisor of special education shall be entitled to receive annually the payment of actual and necessary expenses incurred in visiting schools within his district in attending educational meetings and in the performance of such other official duties as may be required of him by law. In preparing the budget an average of seven hundred dollars ($700) shall be used in estimating the travel cost of county superintendents and in addition there to an average of seven hundred dollars ($700) shall be used in estimating the travel cost of assistant county superintendents and supervisors of special education. The Department of Public Instruction shall allocate the travel funds to the several counties in accordance with regulations to be determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Payments shall be made monthly on account of such expenses to county superintendents, assistant county superintendents or supervisors of special education by requisition of the Superintendent of Public Instruction upon the Auditor General upon the production to him of itemized vouchers in the usual manner.

(e) District Superintendents and Assistant District Superintendents

Section 1071 Election. The board of school directors in every school district of the first and second class shall and in every district of the third class (subject of approval where hereinafter required) may by a majority vote of all the members thereof elect a properly qualified person as district superintendent together with such properly qualified assistant district superintendents as it deems wise. The directors of any school district required or electing to have a district superintendent of schools shall not participate in the election of a county superintendent. The public schools of any district which has a district superintendent shall not be subject to the superintendence or supervision of a county or an assistant county superintendent but shall all be under the supervision of the district superintendent.

Section 1072 Creating Office in Districts Third Class. The board of school directors of any school district not employing a district superintendent on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (1939) shall before creating the office of district superintendent obtain the approval of the county board of school directors. In the event that the county board of school directors shall refuse such approval or shall neglect to act upon the application of the board of school directors for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of the submission of such application to it the board of school directors may employ one or the other but not both of the following remedies:

(1) It may appeal to the Superintendent of Public Instruction who may sustain or reverse the action of the county board and in the event of reversal shall grant approval to the creation of the office of district superintendent in such district or

(2) It may submit the question of the creation of the office of district superintendent in such district to a vote of the qualified electors of the district. If a majority of such electors voting on the question shall favor the creation of such office the same shall thereby be created. The board of school directors shall certify their desire to create said office to the county commissioners who shall cause the question to be submitted in the manner provided by the election laws of this Commonwealth at the next general municipal or primary election occurring more than thirty (30) days after such certification.

Section 1073 Manner of Election Change of Class of District. The board of school directors of each district of the second or third class electing a district superintendent shall meet in convention at its regular place of meeting on the second Tuesday of April one thousand nine hundred fifty (1950) and every four years thereafter at an hour previously fixed by the board. The secretary shall mail to each member thereof at least five days beforehand a notice of the time place and purpose of such convention. Such convention shall in the same manner as a county superintendent is elected and certified elect and certify a properly qualified district superintendent to serve for four years from the first Monday of July next following his election.

The term of office or commission of a district superintendent or assistant district superintendent shall not be shortened by reason of the fact that the district in which he serves shall because of loss of population enter a class of districts for which there is no provision for a district superintendent or assistant district superintendent and such superintendent or assistant district superintendent shall continue to serve such district from the term of his office or commission.

Section 1074 Districts Having no Superintendent. Any school district of the second or third class having no district superintendent may elect a district superintendent before the regular time fixed for the election of district superintendents in the manner herein provided and he shall serve until the date when the terms of other district superintendents end.

Section 1075 Salary. The board of school directors at any convention electing a district superintendent shall determine the amount of salary to be paid such district superintendent which compensation shall be paid out of the funds of the district.

District superintendents in districts having a population of less than thirty thousand (30,000) shall receive a minimum annual salary of four thousand five hundred dollars ($4500). District superintendents in all districts having a population of thirty thousand (30,000) or more shall receive a minimum annual salary of six thousand dollars ($6000).

Section 1076 Election of Assistant District Superintendents. Except in Districts First Class, except in districts of the first class, assistant district superintendents shall be chosen by a majority vote of all the members of the board of school directors of the district upon the nomination of the district superintendent at the convention which elects the district superintendent or at any subsequent meeting. Five days' notice of such subsequent meeting shall be sent by mail to each member of the board of school directors.

Section 1077 Term and Salary of Assistants. Assistant district superintendents shall serve through the term of the district superintendent at salaries paid by the district and fixed by a majority vote of the whole board of school directors prior to their election.

Section 1078 Commihsions Objections to Election. District superintendents, associate superintendents and assistant district superintendents shall be commissioned by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in the same manner and under the same conditions as in the case of county superintendents. Objections to the election of district superintendents, associate superintendents or assistant district superintendents may be made in writing to the Superintendent of Public Instruction signed among others by at least one-third of the members of the board of school directors of said district verified by the oath or affirmation of at least three objectors and such case shall be disposed of as in the case of county superintendents.

Section 1079 Vacancies Acting and Subtitute Superintendents and Assistants. Any vacancy in the position of district superintendent or assistant district superintendent shall be filled by the board of school directors for the remainder of the term.

Whenever a board of school directors finds it impossible or impracticable to fill immediately any vacancy occurring in the position of district superintendent or assistant district superintendent the board may appoint an acting district superintendent or an acting assistant district superintendent to serve not longer than one year from the time of his appointment.

When a leave of absence has been granted to any district superintendent or assistant district superintendent and it is deemed necessary or desirable the board of school directors may appoint a substitute district superintendent or assistant district superintendent to serve for such period of time as the regular district superintendent or assistant district superintendent is absent on leave.

Section 1080 Removal. District superintendents and assistant district superintendents may be removed from office after hearing by a majority vote of the board of school directors of the district for neglect of duty, incompetency, intemperance or immorality of which hearing notice of at least one week has been sent by mail to the accused as well as to each member of the board of school directors.

Section 1081 Duties of Superintendents. The duties of district superintendents shall be the same as those now required of county superintendents and also such as shall be required of them by the board of school directors of their respective district. The district superintendent shall have a seat on the board of school directors of the district and the right to speak on all matters before the board but not to vote.

Section 1082 Duties of Assistants Assistant district superintendents shall perform such duties as may be assigned them by the boards of school directors or by the district superintendents.

Section 1083 Annexation and Consolidation of Districts When any school district having a district superintendent is annexed to and becomes a part of another school district the district superintendent therein shall become an assistant district superintendent in the district to which such school district is annexed for the remainder of his term. When two school districts are consolidated as a result of the consolidation of two boroughs then the district superintendent of the district having the larger public school enrollment shall become the district superintendent of the consolidated district. The superintendent representing the smaller school enrollment shall become assistant superintendent in the consolidated district.

(b) The secretary of the school board shall verify the information contained in the notice from any employe concerning selection or induction into military or naval service and upon verification of such facts shall record the same in the records of the school board and send notice thereof to said employe

(c) Without further action by the board of school directors the employe inducted into military or naval service shall forthwith be considered to be upon leave of absence for the entire duration of such service All rights and privileges shall be reserved to such employe as if he continued in the service of said school board Provided That no such leave of absence shall be granted unless said employe shall in writing agree upon termination of the said leave to return to employment in said school district for a period of not less than one year

Section 1177 Reinstatement in Former School Position Upon termination of the military or naval service of an employe in time of war or during a state of national emergency the school board shall immediately return said employe to the same position in the same school or schools from which said employe was granted leave of absence or if this is impracticable in the opinion of the board then to a similar position

Section 1178 Rights Preserved During Leave of Absence (a) Wherever a contract is required by law and wherever a contract actually exists between the school board and the employe the same shall be considered to continue in full force and effect during said leave of absence

(b) Increments shall not be abated during said leave of absence but shall continue to accrue to such employes

(c) The school district shall pay into the School Employes' Retirement Fund on behalf of each such employe in addition to the contributions required by law to be made by it the full amount of the contribution required by law to be paid by the employe so that such employe's retirement rights shall in no way be affected by such leave of absence If any such employe resigns or fails to return to his employment as provided in this act the amount contributed by the school district under this subsection shall be deducted from the refund payable to such employe under existing law and the amount so deducted shall be refunded to the school district by which it was paid If any such employe shall return within one year from the date of his discharge from military service to school service in any other school district within this Commonwealth or as an employe of any institution or board the employes of which are entitled to membership in the School Employes' Retirement Association in accordance with the provisions of the act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 1043) as amended he shall be entitled to have full credit for each year he spent in military or naval service upon his restoring to the School Employes' Retirement Fund to the credit of the annuity savings account his total accumulated deductions in the amount they should have been at the time he resigned from or failed to return to the school district from which he entered the military or naval service Such back payments may either be paid in lump sum or by such monthly payroll deductions as may be approved by the school employes' retirement board

(d) The period of said leave of absence shall be considered as service to the board in the matter of seniority rights and credit toward the time necessary for sabbatical leave Such leave shall not be regarded as a sabbatical leave

Section 1179 Constitution of State Appropriations During the period of said leave of absence if a qualified substitute is employed the Commonwealth shall pay the school board the full amount of State contribution or grant as if the employe were performing his regular school duties for the school board

Section 1180 Rights of Persons on Eligibility Lists (a) No person who shall have acquired a place upon the eligibility list for any position in any school district shall suffer the loss of such listing and the position thereon as the result of such inducting into military or naval service It shall be the duty of the school board to provide a fair and equitable method of preserving rights of such persons

(b) Any person who shall have entered the military or naval services as aforesaid and whose name shall be reached upon said eligibility lists for any position in any school district shall be appointed to said position as if such person were in fact available for actual service in said position and such person shall be so notified by the secretary of the school board of said district and thereafter all of the provisions of this subdivision of this article shall apply

Section 1181 Applicability and Intent The provisions of this subdivision of this article shall apply to all employes of all school districts who volunteer or are inducted into the military or naval service under the laws of the United States of America

It is the intention that such employes so effected shall retain all of the rights and privileges they shall have acquired prior to assignment to service under Federal statutes or any such rights and privileges they would have acquired or received if they had not been assigned to such service. It is intended that such employes assigned to such service shall be considered in all respects to be continuing in the service of the school board for which they were last working prior to such assignment to military or naval service.

(h) Meetings of Teachers

Section 1186 County Superintendents to Call Meetings Each county superintendent shall call the teachers of the public schools under his jurisdiction to assemble for two days or their equivalent each year at such time and place as he may deem most convenient for the purpose of receiving instruction in the science and art of teaching Each superintendent may also invite members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of the other districts and of institutions of learning within the county to attend such meeting or meetings

Each county superintendent shall exercise general management over such assembly shall secure the necessary speakers and shall incur the necessary expenses

Section 1187 Attendance Records and Reports Expenses of Meeting Each county superintendent shall keep a record of all the teachers under his jurisdiction who attend each meeting and the number of whole or part days during which each was in attendance At the close of each meeting the superintendent shall send to the board of school directors of each school district under his jurisdiction a statement of the names of the teachers of the school district who were in attendance at each meeting and the period during which each teacher was in attendance

Each superintendent shall also at the close of each meeting present to the treasurer of the county in which the school districts under the jurisdiction of the county superintendent or the greater part thereof shall be located a sworn statement of the expenses incurred in the conduct of such meeting.

Section 1188 Compensation of Teachers Attending In each school district under the jurisdiction of a county superintendent the board of school directors shall pay from the funds of the school district to each teacher employed in such school district who has been in attendance at a meeting of the teachers called by the county superintendent as herein provided two dollars ($2) for each half of a day during which such teacher was in attendance at such meeting. Such compensation shall not in any one year exceed eight dollars ($8) per teacher. This payment shall be in addition to the compensation provided in the teacher's contract with the school district. Such payments shall be based upon the official attendance record made by the county superintendent to the board of school directors.

The time spent by teachers at a teacher's meeting called by a county superintendent as herein provided shall not be considered as days taught nor lessen the number of days in the minimum school term as here in required.

Section 1189 Penalty on Teachers Failing to Attend Each teacher who shall not attend a meeting of teachers called by a county superintendent as herein provided shall forfeit to the school district employing him a sum equal to that which he would have received for attendance at such meeting. The board of school directors of the district by which he is employed shall deduct this sum from his salary for the month next following the date of such meeting unless satisfactory reason for such absence is given to the superintendent holding such institute. Such forfeiture shall not exceed for any one year the sum of four dollars ($4) per teacher.

Section 1190 Auditors The teachers under the jurisdiction of a county superintendent shall at the first meeting in each school year which may be called by the county superintendent as provided herein elect two (2) of their number as auditors. The persons so elected together with the auditor elected by the school directors' association of such county shall audit the accounts of each such meeting which shall be held during the school year.

Section 1191 Statement of Receipts and Disbursements Within thirty (30) days after the closing of a meeting of teachers under the jurisdiction of a county superintendent which has been held as herein provided the county superintendent shall prepare an itemized account of all the receipts and disbursements received or made on account of such meeting and submit the same properly sworn to together with the proper vouchers therefor to the auditors herein required to audit such accounts.

Section 1192 Expenses Paid by County Limitations Upon the receipt from a county superintendent of duplicate vouchers and a statement of expenses incurred in the conduct of a teachers' meeting as herein provided which has been sworn to by the county superintendent and approved by the auditors of such meeting the county treasurer of the county in which the school district under the jurisdiction of such county superintendent or the greater or greatest part thereof in area shall be located shall pay out of the county treasury to such county superintendent the amount of such expenses which shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200).

Section 1193 Reports to Department of Public Instruction Each county superintendent immediately after the adjournment of a meeting of teachers under his jurisdiction which has been held as herein provided shall report to the Department of Public Instruction on blanks furnished by it the number teachers in attendance the names of instructors the subjects upon which instruction was given the degree of popular interest awakened by the proceeding and such further information as may be required.

Section 1194 District Having District Superintendent In each school district of the first and second classes and in each school district of the third class which has employed a district superintendent the board of school directors may provide any form of teacher training or teacher improvement for the teachers of such district which it may deem proper.

All expenses incurred in such training and improvement shall be paid by such board of school directors as other expenses of such school district are paid.

(a) Attendance

Section 1301 Age Limits Temporary Residence Every child being a resident of any school district between the ages of six (6) and twenty-one (21) years may attend the public schools in his district subject to the provisions of this act The Board of school directors of any school district may admit to the school of the district with or without the payment of tuition any non-resident child temporarily residing in the district and may require the attendance of such non-resident child in the same manner and on the same conditions as it requires the attendance of a resident child

Section 1302 Residence and Right to Free School Privileges A child shall be considered a resident of the school district in which his parents or the guardian of his person resides When a resident of any school district keeps in his home a child of school age not his own supporting the child gratis as if it were his own such child shall be entitled to all free school privileges accorded to resident school children of the district including the right to attend the public high school maintained in such district or in other districts in the same manner as though such child were in fact a resident school child of the district and shall be subject to all the requirement placed upon resident school children of the district Before accepting such child as a pupil the board of school directors of the district may require such resident to file with the secretary of the board a sworn statement that he is a resident of the district that he is supporting the child gratis that he will assume all personal obligations for the child relative to school requirements and that he intends to so keep and support the child continuously and not merely through the school term

Section 1303 Vaccination Required Penalty (a) It shall be the duty of all school directors superintendents principals or other persons in charge of any public private parochial or other school to refuse the admission of any child to any said schools under their charge or supervision except upon a certificate signed by a physician setting forth that such child has been vaccinated and that a subsequent examination reveals a resulting cicatrix indicating successful vaccination or that vaccination has been performed according to the rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Health with the sanction and advice of the Advisory Health Board or that the child has previously had smallpox All certificates of vaccination shall be issued in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Health with the sanction and advice of the Advisory Health Board

(b) Any person who shall fail neglect or refuse to comply with or who shall violate any of the provisions or requirements of this section shall for every such offense upon summary conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five dollars ($5) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) and in default thereof to undergo an imprisonment in jail of the proper county for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days All such fines shall be paid into the treasury of the school district

Section 1304 Admission of Beginners Unless otherwise directed by the board of school directors the admission of beginners to the public schools shall be confined to the first two weeks of the annual school term Beginners becoming (6) six years of age after the beginning of the school term and before the first day of February of any year shall be admitted during the first two weeks of the annual school term or during such additional periods for the admission of such beginners as the board of school directors in any school district may fix

The term "beginners" as used in this section shall mean any child that should enter the lowest grade of the primary school or the lowest primary class

Section 1305 Non-resident Child Placed in Home of Resident (a) When a non-resident child is placed in the home of a resident of any school district by order of court or by arrangement with an association agency or institution having the care of neglected and dependent children such resident being compensated for keeping the child any child of school age so placed shall be entitled to all free school privileges accorded to resident school children of the district including the right to attend the public high school maintained in such district or in other districts in the same manner as though such child were in fact a resident school child of the district

The school district may not be required to accept such children in its schools when their acceptance would involve additional provisions for transportation by the district or would require the district to provide additional teachers or rooms at an expense greater than the amount of reimbursement paid to the district by the State on account of the instruction of such children

(b) Any resident of any school district before accepting custody of a non-resident child of school age for compensation by order of court or by arrangement with an association agency or institution having the care of dependent or neglected children must secure from the superintendent of schools supervising principal or school board in that district a statement in writing that the child can be accommodated in the schools of the district or that the child can not be accommodated and the reasons therefor. If such statements are not furnished within two weeks after a request in writing has been made to the board's secretary the supervising principal or the superintendent of schools the board's assent shall be assumed and the child shall be admitted to the schools of the district as a pupil. If such statement sets forth conditions such as to exempt the district under this section from accepting the child as a pupil and if such exemption is not disapproved on appeal by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and if other arrangement for the child's schooling satisfactory to the county or district superintendent is not made the child may not be placed in the district.

Appeal from the claim of any school district for exemption as provided in this section may be taken to the Superintendent of Public Instruction and his decision thereon after investigation shall be final.

Section 1306 Non-resident Inmates of Children's Institutions The board of school directors of any school district in which there is located any orphan's asylum home for the friendless children's home or other institution for the care or training of orphans or other children shall permit any children who are inmates of such homes but not legal residents in such district to attend the public schools in said district either with or without charge for tuition textbooks or school supplies as the directors of the district in which such institutions is located may determine.

Section 1307 Counties Other Than Second Class Responsible for Payment of Tuition In any county other than a county of the second class whenever any child is an inmate of an orphan asylum or home or a children's home or a home for the friendless or a private home or other institution for the care or training of orphans or other children and the maintenance of such children is provided at the cost of the county or the county institution district wherein it is located and such child attends the public schools of the school district wherein such home or institution is located although not a legal resident of such district the county shall in all such cases pay to such school district the tuition charge provided for by this act in the case of pupils attending public schools of another district. Such costs shall be paid annually by the county and shall thereafter be collected by the county from the school district in which such child is a legal resident.

Section 1308 Liability for Tuition and Enforcement of Payment In all cases not covered by the preceding section if a charge is made by any school district for tuition for the inmates of any such institution the officers of the institution shall submit to the board of school directors a sworn statement setting forth the names ages and school districts liable for tuition of all children who are inmates thereof and desire to attend public school in the district together with a blank acknowledging or disclaiming residence signed by the secretary of the school district in which the institution declares the legal residence of the child to be. If said district shall fail to file said blank with said institution within fifteen (15) days from the date it is sent to the district by the institution by registered mail the institution shall again notify the district of its failure to comply with the provisions of this act. If the district shall fail to comply within fifteen (15) days following the second notice said failures to return the blank shall be construed as an acknowledgement of said child's residence. The tuition of such inmates as are included in the sworn statement to the board of school directors shall be withheld by the Superintendent of Public Instruction from any moneys due to the district liable for said tuition upon receipt of a sworn statement setting forth the names ages tuition charges and school district liable for tuition of said inmates. All money thus withheld shall be paid by him to the district entitled to receive the same. The district so charged with tuition may file an appeal with the Superintendent of Public Instruction in which it shall be the complainant and the institution the respondent. The decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction as to which said parties is responsible for tuition shall be final.

If any inmates have been received from outside of Pennsylvania or if the institution cannot certify as to their residence their tuition shall be paid by the institution having the care or custody of said children. If the Superintendent of Public Instruction decides that the legal residence of any said inmates is in Pennsylvania but cannot be fixed in a particular district the Commonwealth shall pay the tuition of such inmate out of moneys appropriated to the Department of Public Instruction by the General Assembly for the maintenance and support of the public schools of the Commonwealth.

Section 1309 Cost of Tuition How Fixed The cost of tuition in such cases shall be fixed as is now provided by law for tuition costs in other cases except where for the accommodation of such children it shall be necessary to provide a separate school or to erect additional school buildings in which cases the charge of tuition for such children may include a proportionate cost of the operating expenses rental and interest on any investment required to be made in erecting such new school buildings. The tuition herein provided for shall be paid annually by the Superintendent of Public Instruction or the institution as the case may be.

Section 1310 Assignment of Pupils to Schools The board of school directors of every school district shall for the purpose of designating the schools to be attended by the several pupils in the district subdivide the district in such manner that all the pupils in the district shall be assigned to and reasonably accommodated in one of the public schools in the district. The board of school directors may upon cause shown permit any pupil or pupils in any school district to attend such other school in the district as the board may deem proper or may classify and assign the pupils in the district to any school or schools therein as it may deem best in order to properly educate them. Whenever any child or children of compulsory school age have their residence more than two (2) miles by the nearest public highway from the school within the district to which they have been assigned and free transportation for such child or children to a school within the district is not provided and there is a school in session in some other district in the Commonwealth within two (2) miles by the nearest public highway of the residence of such child or children the board of school directors shall with the consent of the board of school directors of such other district re-assign such child or children to such school in the other district and shall pay to said district the tuition charge provided for by this act. This provision shall include in like manner assignment to high schools in the case of pupils under sixteen (16) years of age who are qualified to be enrolled in such high schools. It shall be unlawful for any school director superintendent or teacher to make any distinction whatever on account of or by reason of the race or color of any pupil or scholar who may be in attendance upon or seeking admission to any public school maintained wholly or in part under the school laws of the Commonwealth.

Section 1311 Closing School (a) The board of school directors of any school district may on account of the small number of pupils in attendance or the condition of the then existing school building or for the purpose of better gradation and classification or other reasons close any one or more of the public schools in its district. Upon such school or schools being closed the pupils who belong to the same shall be assigned to other schools or upon cause shown be permitted to attend schools in other districts

(b) Whenever the average term attendance of pupils regularly enrolled at any one-room school in any school district of the fourth class or in any district of the third class which is located wholly within the boundary lines of a township is ten (10) or less than ten (10) the board of school directors shall close such school. If the board of school directors does not deem it feasible to close such school it may present its petition to the State Council of Education showing the reasons why such school should not be closed. Thereupon the State Council of Education shall consider such petition and shall make such order as may seem just in the premises. If any school has been closed because the average term attendance of pupils enrolled was ten (10) or less than ten (10) and has been reopened upon order of the State Council of Education and the average term attendance is twelve (12) or more after such reopening such school shall be considered re-established.

Section 1312 Free Transportation Where Schools Closed in Fourth and Third Class Districts in Townships. In any district of the fourth class or any district of the third class which is located wholly within the boundary lines of a township elementary school pupils who reside within that part of the school district last served by any elementary school closed since the first Monday of July one thousand nine hundred seven or within a district all of whose schools have been closed or who are assigned to a training school of a State teachers' college and reside one and one-half miles or more from the school to which they are assigned shall be furnished proper transportation at the expense of the district to and from the elementary school to which they are assigned.

Section 1313 Attendance in Other Districts. Where any pupil in any school district resides one and one-half miles or more by the public road from the nearest public elementary school in the district such pupil unless proper free transportation is furnished to a suitable school in the district may attend any public elementary school in another school district more convenient of access on obtaining the consent of the board of school directors of such other school district and without the consent of the board of school directors of the district where such pupil resides. The district where such pupil resides shall promptly pay to the district where such pupil attends the tuition charge provided for by this act. The board of school directors of any district may on account of convenience of access or other reasons permit any pupils to attend the schools of another district.

Section 1314 Attendance in District to Which Territory of Residence Formerly Attached. All pupils residing in any territory belonging to any school district established by the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) which territory at the time of the approval of said act was attached to another school district for school purposes may if they so desire attend during the entire school term of each year the public schools in the district to which the territory in which they reside was formerly attached. The district in which they reside shall pay to the district in which they attend the tuition charge provided for by this act. Provided That if the school districts in which such pupils now reside has or shall hereafter by the establishment of new schools or otherwise provide within reasonable distance proper school facilities of like grades to those in the district to which they were formerly attached then in any such case such pupils shall attend the schools in the district in which they reside. In case of dispute the decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction as to sufficiency and reasonableness of the school facilities provided by the school district in which such pupils reside shall be final.

Section 1315 Assignment to School in Another State Receiving Pupils from Other States. Where any child of school age in any school district resides one and one-half miles or more by the nearest traveled road from the nearest public elementary school or three miles or more from the nearest high school in the district such child unless proper free transportation is furnished to a suitable school in this Commonwealth may on request of his parents or legal guardian be assigned by the board of school directors to a more convenient school in another state. Provided That the consent of the proper school officials in charge of such school in another state to such an arrangement is permitted by the laws of such state and is agreed to by such officials. The tuition of any such pupil attending a school in another state may be paid by the board of school directors of the district in which he is a resident as in the case of a pupil attending a public school in this Commonwealth in a district in which he is not a resident.

The board of school directors in any school district situate adjacent to another state may admit to the public schools in such district pupils resident in such other state and may receive tuition for such pupils as in the case of pupils admitted from other districts in this Commonwealth.

Section 1316 Permitting Attendance of Non-resident Pupils. The board of school directors of any school district may permit any non-resident pupils to attend the public schools in its district upon such terms as it may determine subject to the provisions of this act.

Section 1317 Authority of Teachers over Pupils. Every teacher in the public schools shall have the right to exercise the same authority as to conduct and behavior over the pupils attending his school during the time they are in attendance including the time required in going to and from their homes as the parents guardians or persons in parental relation to such pupils may exercise over them.

Section 1318 Suspension and Expulsion of Pupils. Every principal or teacher in charge of a public school may temporarily suspend any pupil on account of disobedience or misconduct and any principal or teacher suspending any pupil shall promptly notify the district superintendent supervising principal or secretary of the board of school directors. The board may after a proper hearing suspend such child for such time as it may determine or may permanently expel him. Such hearings suspension or expulsion may be delegated to a duly authorized committee of the board.

(b) Enforcing Attendance

Section 1326 Definitions. The term "compulsory school age" as hereinafter used shall mean the period of a child's life from the time the child's parents elect to have the child enter school which shall be not later than at the age of eight (8) years until the age of seventeen (17) years. The term shall not include any child who holds a certificate of graduation from a regularly accredited senior high school.

The term "migratory child" wherever used in this subdivision of this article shall include any child domiciled temporarily in any school district for the purpose of seasonal employment but not acquiring residence therein and any child accompanying his parent or guardian who is so domiciled.

Section 1327 Compulsory School Attendance. Every child of compulsory school age having a legal residence in this Commonwealth as provided in this article and every migratory child of compulsory school age is required to attend a day school in which the subjects and activities prescribed by the State Council of Education are taught in the English language. Every parent guardian or other person having control or charge of any child or children of compulsory school age is required to send such child or children to a day school in which the subjects and activities prescribed by the State Council of Education are taught in the English language. Such child or children shall attend such school continuously through the entire term during which the public elementary schools in their respective districts shall be in session or in cases of migratory children during the time the schools are in session in the districts in which such children are temporarily domiciled. The certificate of any principal or teacher of a private school or of any institution for the education of children in which the subjects and activities prescribed by the State Council of Education are taught in the English language setting for that the work of said school is in compliance with the provisions of this act shall be sufficient and satisfactory evidence thereof Regular daily instruction in the English language for the time herein required by a properly qualified private tutor shall be considered as complying with the provisions of this section if such instruction is satisfactory to the proper county or district superintendent of schools

Section 1328 Compulsory Education of Physical Defectives Every parent guardian or other person having control or charge of any child of compulsory school age who is deaf or blind or is so crippled or whose hearing or vision is so defective as to make it impracticable to have such child educated in the public schools of the district in which he is a resident shall allow such child to be sent to some school where proper provision is made for the education of the deaf or of the blind or of crippled children or shall provide for the tuition of such child by a legally certified private tutor

Section 1329 Excuses from Attending School The board of school directors of any school district may upon satisfactory evidence being furnished to it showing that any child or children are prevented from attending school or from application to study on account of any mental physical or other urgent reasons excuse such child or children from attending school as required by the provisions of this act but the term "urgent reasons" shall be strictly construed and shall not permit of irregular attendance In every such case such action by the board of school directors shall not be final until the approval of the Department of Public Instruction has been obtained Every principal or teacher in any public private or other school may for reasons enumerated above excuse any child for non-attendance during temporary periods

Section 1330 Exceptions to Compulsory Attendance The provisions of this act requiring regular attendance shall not apply to any child who

(1) Has attained the age of sixteen (16) years and who is regularly engaged in any useful and lawful employment or service during the time the public schools are in session and who holds an employment certificate issued according to law

Mr. DeLONG. Mr. Speaker I desire to call up House Resolution No. 23.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 22, 1949.

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs), That concurrent resolution No. 5, approved the third day of April, 1947, (P. L. 1850), is hereby amended to read as follows:

Whereas, The Pennsylvania Roadside Council, wishing to cooperate in the nation-wide Blue Star Memorial Program sponsored by the National Council of State Garden Clubs, is desirous of recognizing and commemorating the splendid services and achievements of our sons and daughters who served in the Armed Forces of the United States in World War II; and

Whereas, It is fitting and appropriate that legislative recognition be accorded the services and sacrifices of citizens so valiantly rendered; and

Whereas, The State of New Jersey has designated one of its state highways leading to Easton, Pennsylvania, as New Jersey's link in this nation-wide program; therefore, be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs), That State Highway Route Number 22 from Easton to Harrisburg, the Pennsylvania Turnpike from its interchange nearest to Harrisburg to Irwin, Westmoreland County, State Highway Route Number 30 from Irwin to Pittsburgh, via the Penn-Lincoln Parkway, and State Highway Route Number 22 from Pittsburgh to the Pennsylvania-West Virginia State line, is designated as the Blue Star Drive as a memorial in commemoration of the services of the men and women of Pennsylvania who served in the Armed Forces of the United States in World War II; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Highways shall erect along said highways suitable tablets or markers and shall carry out suitable landscape development to perpetuate this resolution, but shall not replace or change the officially designated route number or name or marker thereof of any highway or turnpike hereby included as a part of such Blue Star Drive.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. ZIEGLER asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Wood, to preside.

L. 704), entitled "An act to promote the public health, safety, morals and welfare by providing for the creation of corporations to be known as limited dividend housing companies for the purpose of eliminating unsanitary and dangerous housing conditions, and constructing and operating safe and sanitary dwellings and apartments to be let at reasonable rentals, or sold; providing for the acquisition of property by the exercise of the power of eminent domain through the State Board of Housing; providing for the supervision and regulation of the activities of such companies by the State Board of Housing in the Department of Health, and regulating the supervision by the State board of any such companies aided by the Federal Government or agencies thereof; defining the rights, powers and duties of such companies, and of persons investing in or dealing with such companies; authorizing such companies to lease and operate, or to manage projects of any housing authority, and borrow money from agencies of the United States Government; exempting all such companies from the payment of any capital stock tax; making certain securities of such corporations legal investments for funds in the hands of municipal officers, insurance companies and associations, savings banks and savings institutions; authorizing certain existing companies to accept the provisions of this act; and repealing inconsistent acts," by transferring supervision and regulation of such companies to the State Planning Board.

Referred to the Committee on State Government.

By Messrs. COOPER and COSTA.

HOUSE BILL No. 1057.

An Act to amend sections three and four of the act, approved the twenty-sixth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 888), entitled "An act to authorize cities, boroughs, towns, townships, counties, and other public bodies to aid housing projects of housing authorities, or of the United States of America, by furnishing parks, playgrounds, streets and other improvements and facilities by exercising certain other powers, and by making agreements relating to such aid; to authorize cities, boroughs, towns, townships, and counties to contract with respect to the sums to be paid them for improvements, services, and facilities to be provided for the benefit of housing projects, and the occupants thereof; to authorize certain cities and counties to make an appropriation for the first years' administrative expenses of housing authorities; and to authorize certain cities, boroughs, towns, and counties to pay moneys to housing authorities," by removing any ambiguity as to the powers of a State public body with respect to long term agreements, and changing definition of term "Housing Project."

Referred to the Committee on State Government.

By Messrs. COOPER and COSTA.

HOUSE BILL No. 1058.

An Act to amend sections four and six of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 982) entitled "An act to authorize State public bodies, as defined, to aid redevelopment authorities in the elimination of blighted areas and their redevelopment by entering into contracts to furnish and by furnishing to said authorities and to any Federal governmental agency, parks, playgrounds, streets and other improvements and facilities; and by donating or lending money and making appropriations therefor; by accepting payments and exercising certain other powers and duties," by removing any ambiguity as to the powers of a State public body with respect to long term agreements and permitting State public bodies to issue bonds to provide funds for local contributions required by Federal law.

Referred to the Committee on State Government.

By Messrs. COOPER and COSTA.

HOUSE BILL No. 1059.

An Act to further amend section four hundred fifty-one and to amend section two thousand five hundred two B, of the act approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employees in certain departments, boards, and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employees of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," by reconstituting the State Planning Board; and changing its functions.

Referred to the Committee on State Government.

By Mr. BOWER.

HOUSE BILL No. 1060.

An Act to further amend clause (a) of section three hundred one, clauses (a), (b), (c) and (f) of section three hundred six, and section three hundred seven, and to amend section three hundred nine of the act, approved the twenty-first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 566), entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for occupational disease contracted by an employee arising out of and in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry, the Workmen's Compensation Board, Workmen's Compensation Referees, and deans of medical schools; creating a medical board to determine controverted medical issues; establishing an Occupational Disease Fund in custody of the State Workmen's Insurance Board; imposing upon the Commonwealth a part of the compensation payable for certain occupational diseases; making an appropriation; and prescribing penalties," by changing the maximum and minimum rates and total amounts and aggregate of compensation.

Referred to the Committee on Workmens Compensation.

SENATE

MONDAY, March 7, 1949.

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. FRANCIS E. REINBERGER offered the following prayer:

We give Thee our thanks, O Holy Father, for the joy of serving Thee in this place, and for the pleasure of mutual friendships formed by daily association here. Surrounded by the spiritual evidence of Pennsylvania's great men of yesterday, aid us in carrying out Thy gift of democratic government with honor and integrity, so that to the ends of our nation the name of our Commonwealth may become entirely synonymous with the good and the abundant life. Riches Thou hast given us; now give us the intelligence to use that wealth for the good of all. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. DOEHLA, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Resolved, That chuckwagon passes may be obtained (upon payment of said 10 iron men) in the news room on the E floor in the capitol.

The Senators are invited.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, this morning's Harrisburg Patriot contained some startling news. In fact the papers, for the past several days, have been carrying items which have surprised me.

I refer to the controversy which is currently raging between the Governor of the Commonwealth and Senator Wade. Especially startling for me is that part of the controversy relating to the toll bridges in the Commonwealth.

After carefully reading the news stories and the statements attributed to Governor Duff, I want to assure my colleague from the 31st Pennsylvania Senatorial District that he has my sincere sympathy. Furthermore, I want to assure him that in view of what has happened on the floor of this body in regard to the toll bridge question, up to this point, I feel that he is entirely justified in taking the position he is quoted as taking by the press.

As my colleagues well know, I am vitally interested in freeing the toll bridges in the Commonwealth. Two of the ten are located in my district—in fact they are located in my home City of Bethlehem.

As all of us know, the toll bridge problem has been kicked around the Senate for years. Senator Tarr emphasized that recently when he said that in his home County of Fayette, people were saying that the legislature was not sincere in its efforts to free the toll bridges—that the legislators known when they introduced and passed those measures, that the bills would be found unconstitutional by the Courts. Senator Tarr is not the only one who has had that experience.

Those were the things I had in my mind when, in the early days of January, I addressed a letter to the Members of the Senate and the House who will be directly affected by any proposed toll bridge legislation. Those who received the letters are the Senators and the Representatives who represent districts in which toll bridges are presently located.

The purpose of the letters was clearly stated in them—to hold a meeting of the interested parties for the purpose of drafting toll bridge legislation that would be fool proof—or in other words Court proof. It would be a bill on which all those interested would agree, thus eliminating the chances of having a number of bills submitted, with the result that again a bill would be passed that would be found unconstitutional by the Courts.

Now let us go back to January 17, 1949. On that day Senator Wade took the Senate floor. He said he had received my letter, and he voiced strong objections. He said then—and this is part of the record of this body—that he had been working for two weeks on fool proof tollbridge legislation with Governor Duff and Senator Taylor. He said my letter calling for a conference was the wrong approach and, and I quote, "a violation of the democratic processes," unquote.

Senator Wade said further that four attorneys had been working with him and Senator Taylor to draft fool proof legislation designed to free the toll bridges, two of them from the Department of Justice and two others. He said the bills would be ready and would be introduced in a short time by Senator Taylor and himself.

At that time the distinguished leader of the Minority Group in this body, Senator Dent, suggested that the attorneys work with all those who are directly interested in freeing the toll bridges.

On February 7, I took the floor in this hall and asked Senator Wade some questions. I wanted to know what was holding up the toll bridge bills which he had assured us three weeks before were in course of preparation.

At that time Senator Wade said the bills would be ready and would be introduced that very week. Then he added that at the very latest they would be introduced the following week.

Today is Monday, March 7, almost one month later, and today we learn, according to the morning newspaper, that Governor Duff, with whom Senator Wade said he was working out legislation according to democratic processes, has no plans.

The Governor is on record as saying he is receptive to any well thought out plan. This morning he is quoted as saying he favors the building of a free bridge across the Susquehanna at Harrisburg, to give competition to the two toll bridges now in existence.

Does that mean that he wants to also build a free bridge at Bethlehem to give competition to the two toll bridges there? Does it mean he wants to build a free bridge at Allentown to give competition to the toll bridge there?

And does the Governor plan to build free bridges in competition to the toll bridges at other points in the Commonwealth? If he does not then he has obviously abandoned all toll bridge plans, for he has advanced not a single plan to free the bridges.

In view of the above facts, Senator Wade is obviously in an embarrassing position. Either the bills he told us on February 7 were ready and were about to be introduced did not exist—were in fact nothing more than a myth—a product of a too vivid imagination—or the Governor has ignored the Senator and his efforts in drafting legislation to free the toll bridges. I choose to believe the latter and therefore I repeat—I do not blame the Senator for his attitude in the dispute with the Governor—rather I am in sympathy with him.

Since it is now entirely obvious that the much discussed Duff-Taylor-Wade toll bridge legislation either never existed or has reached an impasse, I would like to address the following questions to the gentleman from Cumberland, Senator Wade, and ask whether he will permit himself to be interrogated.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Cumberland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WADE. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. YOSKO. Senator Wade, when was the first time you and Senator Taylor discussed the toll bridge legislation with the Governor?

Mr. WADE. To the best of my memory, it was sometime in December.

Mr. YOSKO. Did the Governor at that time advance plans to build free bridges to give competition to the toll bridges?

Mr. WADE. I cannot answer that, Mr. President, I do not recall, but I know that was discussed at our various conferences.

Mr. YOSKO. Was that a part of the plan or a part of the bills that were under preparation?

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, the origin of that plan, perhaps, goes back two years when we passed some legislation that permitted a free bridge at Harrisburg.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, have the bills, assuming that they do exist, been dropped or are they still in existence, and if so, do you still say they will be introduced?

Mr. WADE. Yes, Mr. President. If I am permitted, I will make a more lengthy statement immediately after the Senator from Northampton is through.

Mr. YOSKO. Thank you, Senator Wade.

Mr. President, and Members of the Senate, I am going to suggest if the bills Senator Wade referred to on the floor of this Senate on several occasions are not introduced within the next ten days, and if no other bills to free the toll bridges in Pennsylvania are introduced, I suggest that the Committee that has the toll bridge bills introduced by the gentleman from Union, Senator Wolfe, release those bills from Committee so they may be considered on the floor of this Senate, as evidence to the people of Pennsylvania that we are not trying to kid them with reference to freeing the toll bridges in this state.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, let me say at the outset that I had no knowledge whatever that the gentleman from Northampton, Senator Yosko, was going to talk on this subject today, and secondly, I am going to allay his fears at the very outset by telling him that I now have bills on my desk prepared for introduction today, and at the conclusion of this short statement. I am going to ask for unanimous permission to introduce a series of bills.

Mr. President, naturally, I, too, was very much gratified to read in this morning's Harrisburg paper that the Governor has finally decided and agreed that we need another bridge at Harrisburg—it has been my hope and plan over these many years that we can get this additional bridge built and finally accomplish the freeing of the Harrisburg toll bridges and all other toll bridges in the state.

At the outset I want to make it crystal clear that I am eager to work with, to cooperate with, Governor Duff and his Administration and to give every possible assistance in freeing the bridges and solving the many tremendously difficult problems that confront this Legislature and the people of the Commonwealth.

It was apparent in many of our conferences, that the Governor's interest in freeing the bridges and building an additional bridge at Harrisburg, by either the authority method or from motor license funds, was to begin only after his tax measures were passed—every decision on plans important to the people of the Commonwealth, who pay the bill, was to be made after the enactment of the tax measures.

Toward the freeing of the bridges, I have worked in the Legislative halls of the Commonwealth over many years. In addition to other measures, I joined in the sponsorship with my esteemed colleague, Senator Taylor, in sponsoring and working for the enactment of legislation for the outright purchase of the toll bridges by a definite sum set aside from state funds. This law was subsequently declared unconstitutional by the court on a hair-splitting decision. However, that decision is past. This was by no means the only measure that I had sponsored, sometimes alone, and sometimes with others, so that the bridges might be freed.

In 1933, I sponsored a House Bill setting up the Bridge Commission and offering a plan. The succeeding Administration was prevented by injunctions and other court actions from accomplishing this purpose. During the past months I have worked with a Deputy Attorney General, assigned by the Governor with an attorney from the local Motor Club, whose interest in the freeing of the bridges has been expressed many times, and with an attorney which I have paid from my personal funds in the hope that a waterproof, airtight plan might be devised and submitted to the Legislature.

As previously stated in the press, and otherwise, we were unable to come to a decision in conference with the Governor. I now have bills ready to present, following this plan generally, but I want to make it clear, the bills I am presenting do not have the Governor's final blessing. Approval, however, may be implied from a recent statement. I have asked Senator Taylor if he wished to join me in sponsorship: He has decided not to do so.

Briefly, they are as follows:

No. 1. This bill authorizes and directs the Secretary of Highways to acquire toll bridges in Pennsylvania, either by agreement of sale or by condemnation proceedings. If by agreement, the acquisition of such bridge properties, in addition to outright purchases, may be accomplished by transfer of all outstanding stock of the company to the Commonwealth for a total price commensurate with the values of the bridge properties. Under an alternate plan of purchase, the sale price may be made in installments.

No. 2. This bill implements a Constitutional amendment approved by the electorate in November, 1933. It provides for the floating of a ten million dollar bond issue for the purchase of the state's toll bridges. On my calculation, the necessary funds to meet the bond amortization and interest would be approximately four hundred and seventy thousand dollars per annum which is approximately four and seven-tenths of one per cent of the current budget. This plan would require no further toll collections.

No. 3. This bill would abolish the State Bridge and Tunnel Commission and repeal laws in relation thereto. The reason for this bill is that a New York Bonding House purports, because of a bid made during the Earle Administration, to have some claim against the Bridge and Tunnel Commission for the purpose of these bonds at a rate in excess of what the state may currently get the money, and repeals acts relating to the Bridge and Tunnel Commission.

No. 4. This bill clarifies existing Legislation by giving the Secretary of Highways authorization to construct bridges and the approaches for the improvement of the Highway system and to connect Highway routes.

Let me say further, Mr. President, that the enactment of this measure would permit another bridge at Harrisburg, known as the Upper Bridge. We already have Legislation on the books for what is known as the Dock Street Bridge.

No. 5. This is a joint resolution proposing an amendment to Section 18, Article 9 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, permitting the use of motor license funds for the acquisition of toll bridges or for the payment of obligations incurred in so doing. By the enactment of this last bill and the affirmative vote of the people, monies could then be properly taken from the motor license fund and used to meet the amortization and interest requirements on the bond issue, from the motor license fund. If this is enacted and approved by the people at the earliest possible date, it would then only be necessary to use general fund revenues for a period of two years.

Let me say in conclusion that in my judgment this plan is a sound one. If the Members of the Legislature or the Governor can develop improvements in this plan, I shall be glad to accept them, by amendments, if they are definitely to improve the plan. My whole purpose is to free the bridges of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as soon as possible, and by the best possible method. I earnestly seek the help of the Legislature and the Administration. I repeat, the purpose is to remove toll bridges from Pennsylvania, a relic of horse and buggy days, and a long overdue and much needed improvement.

Let me say further that with the generous help of my esteemed colleague, Senator Taylor, two years ago, a general overall relief route, including a free bridge at Harrisburg was approved by the Legislature and received the Governor's signature of approval. This plan did not reach further than the planning board stage, despite my many continuing efforts to have the Highway Department take action to place this plan in full force and effect.

As I present these bills, I desire to again make it clear that I am aware of the tremendous burden on Governor Duff and this Legislature and the efforts that he and they are putting forth. However, I have been constantly urged by the electorate to work for bridge Legislation which will free the toll bridges throughout Pennsylvania. My full purpose is to work with Governor Duff and not against him; however, the duty is incumbent upon me to maintain my pledge to the electorate by action, and I will stand by my convictions.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce bills at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WADE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 460, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section eighteen, article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, authorizing the use of certain revenues for the acquisition of bridges and toll bridges.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 461, entitled:

An Act abolishing the State Bridge and Tunnel Commission; and repealing laws relating thereto.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 462, entitled:

An Act providing for the issuance and sale of bonds by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to defray the cost of the acquisition of toll bridges; creating a special fund in the State Treasury to be known as the Toll Bridge Fund; defining the powers and duties of the Governor, Auditor General, State Treasurer, Board of Finance and Revenue and the Secretary of Highways in relation thereto; providing for the payment of interest on, and the redemption of, such bonds; and making appropriations.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 463, entitled:

An Act authorizing and empowering the Secretary of Highways, with the approval of the Governor, to construct bridges, and approaches thereto to connect State highway routes under certain terms and conditions; conferring the power of eminent domain for such purpose; authorizing agreements with political subdivisions for sharing the property damage and construction costs; authorizing the Secretary of Highways to enter into agreements for the construction of such bridges and approaches by any State authority or agency having statutory authority to undertake such construction; and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 464, entitled:

An Act empowering, authorizing and directing the Secretary of Highways to acquire toll bridges located wholly within Pennsylvania; providing the procedure therefor, and prescribing certain duties of the Governor, the Auditor General and the State Treasurer to be exercised in connection therewith; conferring jurisdiction in condemnation proceedings on certain courts of common pleas; authorizing the Secretary of Highways to enter into agreements with a State authority or agency for the acquisition of such toll bridges; freeing such bridges from tolls; providing for the control and maintenance thereof after acquisition; and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. BARR. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, on June 12, 1947, there was a Senate Resolution, Serial No. 70, printed in the History of 1947, at page 196, authorizing the Joint State Government Commission to investigate the Administrative Bodies Exercising Legislative Powers.

The final paragraph of that Resolution reads as follows:

"Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed and authorized to review, investigate, study and consider the problems arising from administrative bodies, boards and commissions and the exercise of legislative powers delegated to them and to report its findings and conclusions to the next regular session of the General Assembly with proposed legislation to correct the above mentioned conditions existing in connection with such bodies."

Mr. President, I was appointed on that sub-committee to supposedly review, investigate, study and consider these boards and commissions. I attended the first meeting of the Commission and was told by the then President of The Joint State Government Commission, Mr. Heyburn, that I was entirely wrong, that was not what the resolution meant, in other words, to investigate. I then told him I thought I had as much formal education as he had, and I thought I knew what the word "investigate" means; I also told him that was the last meeting of the Committee I would attend, and I have not returned since then, because I did not want to sign my name to a report of any Committee that indulges in part in a white-wash.

Since that time, Mr. President, the conditions that then existed in the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board have become exceedingly worse. Since that time the Liquor Control Board has been brought up to full size, there are now three members on the Liquor Control Board, but, Mr. President, there is a great division in the Liquor Control Board. In other words, Mr. President, there are two against one, faction reigns and the bedlam in the Liquor Control Board is much worse.

I have before me a release which I have just handed to the newspapers to point to the Members of the Senate one thing that has happened in the Liquor Control Board in the last several weeks, wherein I say to you that they still care nothing about the public, the consuming public in this state.

The heading of this release is, "Liquor Board Credited with An Assist As Big Distillers Gouge Public."

In the past several months, the big distilling interests have been quietly changing the aged whiskey content on back labels and substituting cheaper younger age mixtures in popular brands but prices still stay at the same high level.

Liquor sales are declining but the big distillers have found a way to pull the wool over the eyes of the public and to continue to reap the vast profits as they had in the flush money periods. This is accomplished by changing the formula and lowering the content of age whiskey and replacing it with an increased amount of young whiskey in popular brands.

In the past several months, the big chains have methodically requested the Liquor Control Board to allow them to make these changes with no reduction in price and the Board with precision like regularity have fallen in line and granted approvals without question. These changes were made in the leading and largest selling brands in the industry. The smaller distillers have not, as yet, been a part of this "profit squeeze."

The Liquor Board has seemingly concurred with this "gouge the public" policy because they have given these popular brands of the offending distillers, large inventories and extensive distribution throughout all of the 580 state stores. On the other hand, the little fellows who are still trying to give the public an aged product, are given small inventories with scattered distribution in the state store system.

The Pennsylvania Liquor Board instead of idly standing by corroborating in the price gouge should demand that the big distilling chains reduce prices with each reduction in the cost of the product.

The distilling industry through their advertising have always maintained and impressed the public with the fact that age is the determining factor in whiskey products. They always stressed that it was because of the cost of this aging that it was necessary to demand the high price for whiskies. Using the industry's own argument, if they are now using lesser age whiskey, therefore, the cost to them is lower and the public should receive this benefit, and not the distilling tycoons.

An example of the formula manipulation is reflected in the Seagrams Distilling Corporation changes on Seagrams 7 Crown blended whiskey and Calvert Reserve blended whiskey from

5% straight whiskey—7 year old
20% straight whiskey—6 years old
10% straight whiskey—4 years old
65% grain neutral spirits

to

5% whiskey—7 years old
3% whiskey—6 years old
27% whiskey—4 years old
65% grain neutral spirits

The Pennsylvania retail price for 7 Crown is $4.03 5ths—$2.55 pts. and for Calvert Reserve $4.01 5ths—$2.53 pts. This remained the same despite the substantial increase of young whiskey going into the bottles.

Schenley Distributors, Inc., changed their Cream of Kentucky as follows: from

15% straight whiskey—4 years old
15% straight whiskey—5 years old
70% grain neutral spirits

to

20% straight whiskey—3 years old
10% straight whiskey—5 years old
70% grain neutral spirits

Three Feathers Distributors, Inc., another Schenley subsidiary, changed their Golden Wedding as follows:

from

15% straight whiskey—4 years old
15% straight whiskey—5 years old
70% grain neutral spirits

to

17½% straight whiskey—3 years old
12½% straight whiskey—5 years old
70% grain neutral spirits

Mr. President, I say it is high time the Pennsylvania public receive some protection and the benefit of efficient administration on the Liquor Board of this Commonwealth.

Now, Mr. President, and Members of the Senate, I have the work sheet on my desk which substantiates to the nth degree everything I have said about the change in these whiskeys. I also have a copy of the minutes of the Liquor Control Board, whereby these were approved and there are no negative votes.

I stood on this floor weekly two years ago asking that something be done in Pennsylvania about the existing conditions in the Liquor Control Board, not only in its enforcement, but in its purchases and its merchandising. I think, Mr. President, that I must have done a very poor job, because everything has gone down, gone from bad to worse.

Mr. President, now we are in our eleventh week of the Session, and up to this time I have hesitated to say anything about this, thinking that maybe some gentleman on the other side would rise and have something to say about this condition. To date that has not been the case, and I am going to delay another ten days or so, and if I do not hear from anyone on the other side having anything to say about this situation, I will again press for a complete investigation of the Liquor Control Board, which has no control whatsoever.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, now I feel at home that we have gotten that speech in front of the Senate. I was wondering where the gentleman from Allegheny had been. This is the eleventh week of the Session, and this is the first complaint we have heard about the Liquor Control Board.

Mr. President, I am advised by the Members of the sub-committee who were studying this and who did not get up and walk out but who stayed for further meetings, that they will have remedial legislation prepared and it will be introduced next week. I am further advised that it is to be approved by The Joint State Government Commission at the meeting, and if the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, is interested, I would suggest that he kiss and make up with that Committee and attend its meeting, and perhaps he also will approve of the bill which is going to be introduced.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker, may I say that the reason the thing was not investigated is because it was purely politics. At that time Mr. Heyburn was trying to get himself in a position to be on the Republican State Ticket and he told me conclusively, and you will find it in the minutes of the Joint State Government Commission, that the word "investigate" did not mean investigate.

The only good thing I know that came out of that Committee meeting, the one I attended, was that we found out in the City of Pittsburgh that we were paying three cents more for a quart of milk in the summer of 1947, than the people in Cleveland, and they were getting their milk from the same sources as the people in Pittsburgh.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the gentleman from Allegheny shifted to milk in a hurry.

Mr. President, the distinguished gentleman from Delaware who is now the Auditor General elect, is no longer a member of this august body, and therefore is hardly in position to defend the suggestion of politics made by the gentleman from Allegheny, but may I repeat the invitation to the gentleman from Allegheny to attend the meeting of The Joint State Government Commission next week when this bill and Senator Heyburn will be there, and then he can discuss the political aspects with the Auditor General elect.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. LETZLER, from the Committee on Highways, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 240, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsection (b) of section one thousand one hundred ten of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 200) entitled "An act licensing and regulating the business of pawnbrokers providing for the issuance of licenses by the Secretary of Banking authorizing the Secretary of Banking to make examinations and issue regulations limiting the interest and charges on loans and prescribing penalties for the violation of this act" to provide for receipt in duplicate

Section 1 Subsection B of section twelve of the act approved the sixth day of April one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 200) entitled "An act licensing and regulating the business of pawnbrokers providing for the issuance of licenses by the Secretary of Banking authorizing the Secretary of Banking to make examinations and issue regulations limiting the interest and charges on loans and prescribing penalties for the violation of this act" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 12 Interest and Charges

* * * * *

B Not more than two and one-half per cent (2½%) per month on loans for which other personal property has been pledged

The interest and charges authorized by this act shall be computed at the rates specified on the actual principal balance of the loan due for the actual time which has elapsed from the date of the loan to the date of payment For the purpose of calculation of interest and charges permitted under this act a year shall be twelve (12) calendar months and a month shall be one calendar month or any fractional part thereof A calendar month shall be any period from a certain date in one month to the same date in the next succeeding month

A minimum of twenty-five [($25)] cents ($.25) on loans of five dollars ($5.00) or less and a minimum of fifty cents ($.50) on loans in excess of five dollars ($5.00) may be collected on any loan for interest and charges

No greater interest nor other fees fines charges or costs shall be charged contracted for or received directly or indirectly under any pretext whatsoever Interest and charges permitted under this act shall not be collected or deducted in advance

The lowest rate applicable to a portion of the pledge shall be charged for storage when the pledge on a loan consists of two or more articles of personal property which are not in the same classification as set forth in this section as a basis for determining storage charges This provision shall not be construed to prevent a pawnbroker from granting two separate loans to the same individual on two or more articles of personal property and charging the respective storage charge applicable to each classification

A pawnbroker who charges contracts for or receives interest or charges greater than permitted under this act shall forfeit both principal and interest and shall return the pledge upon demand of the pledger and surrender the pawn ticket without tender or payment of principal or interest. A pledger borrowing money from a pawnbroker licensed under this act who shall have paid any interest and charges in excess of those prescribed and allowed by the provisions of this act shall be entitled to recover back from the pawnbroker by action at law commenced within six months from the date of the last payment any and all interest and charges paid in excess of those permitted under this act and in addition fifty [($50.00)] dollars ($50.00) as a penalty to be paid by the pledger. Provided [That the records of the pawnbrokers shall be prima facie evidence of interest or charges which have been contracted for or received by the pawnbroker. Nothing] nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the pawnbroker from charging the pledger for actual expenses incurred for mailing when a pledge is redeemed by mail.

A pawnbroker shall at the time of payment furnish to the person paying a receipt showing the number of the pawn ticket on which the payment is made the date of payment the amount paid on principal of the loan the amount paid for interest and fees for storage insurance investigation and other services contemplated by this section and the amount if any paid to the pawnbroker for cleaning pressing repairing or other similar services to the pledged personal property which have been requested by the pledger. A duplicate copy of every receipt issued shall be retained by the pawnbroker for his record.

By consent of the House leave of absence was granted as follows:

Mr. BAUMUNK for himself for tomorrow's session.

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 23

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 22, 1949.

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs), That concurrent resolution No. 5, approved the third day of April, 1947, (P. L. 1850), is hereby amended to read as follows:

Whereas, The Pennsylvania Roadside Council, wishing to cooperate in the nation-wide Blue Star Memorial Program sponsored by the National Council of State Garden Clubs, is desirous of recognizing and commemorating the splendid services and achievements of our sons and daughters who served in the Armed Forces of the United States in World War II; and

Whereas, It is fitting and appropriate that legislative recognition be accorded the services and sacrifices of citizens so valiantly rendered; and

Whereas, The State of New Jersey has designated one of its state highways leading to Easton, Pennsylvania, as New Jersey's link in this nation-wide program; therefore, be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs), That State Highway Route Number 22 from Easton to Harrisburg, the Pennsylvania Turnpike from its interchange nearest to Harrisburg to Irwin, Westmoreland County, State Highway Route Number 30 from Irwin to Pittsburgh, via the Penn-Lincoln Parkway, and State Highway Route Number 22 from Pittsburgh to the Pennsylvania-West Virginia State line, is designated as the Blue Star Drive as a memorial in commemoration of the services of the men and women of Pennsylvania who served in the Armed Forces of the United States in World War II; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Highways shall erect along said highways suitable tablets or markers and shall carry out suitable landscape development to perpetuate this resolution, but shall not replace or change the officially designated route number or name or marker thereof of any highway or turnpike hereby included as a part of such Blue Star Drive.

SENATE MESSAGE

HOUSE BILLS CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 81.

An Act to amend section twenty-five of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 414) entitled "An act relating to vital statistics and to make uniform the law with reference thereto" by eliminating the requirement for Local Registrars of Vital Statistics to endorse permits for burial removal or other disposition of bodies of persons whose death or stillbirth occur outside of this State and requiring the filing of such permits with such Local Registrars

With the information that the Senate has passed the same without amendment.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH from the Committee on Rules, reported as committed, House Resolution No. 27.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. BRUNNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker. In all the years I have been a member of the House of Representatives I cannot recall a single instance to parallel or even approach the gratuitous public insult recently hurled at this body by a member of the Senate.

During my entire period of service, the Members of both the Senate and the House have respected the time honored protocol that each House should be left to its own independence and not to be influenced by the proceedings of the other. This is a principal which is fundamental in parliamentary law and one which every experienced legislator should adhere to.

This week-end, however, witnessed a serious and intentional violation of this breach of order, when a lone member of the Senate publically denounced the procedure of the House in handling the Administration's tax program several weeks ago.

This gentleman, a duly elected member of that honorable body, openly berated the House for not holding public hearings and for not making factual studies of the tax program.

The Senator knows full well that this tax program, so far as General Fund Revenues are concerned, is identical with that enacted at the 1947 Session and for which he, himself voted.

Answerable to the voters of the Commonwealth, as we are, by election every two years, the members of the House of Representatives, are well aware of our collective and individual responsibilities. We are seriously conscious of the obvious need for continuation of state aid to the mentally ill, the general health of our citizens and care of the needy

We realize too, that the Administration's program to do the most good for the most people, must go forward without interruption. And, since we must pay for what we get, we in the House determined without hesitation, that the passage of this tax program was vital for a continuation of these all-important services.

Having reached a decision, we did what we believed was our duty—and did it promptly.

Have no criticism to make, nor would it be proper for me, to do so, with regard to the Senate as a whole. Its members, with this single exception, have never in my time, see fit to publicly attack the members of the House of Representatives.

There always has been, and here always will be honest differences of opinion between our two legislative bodies. These differences moreover, can and should be resolved through parliamentary legislative methods rather than by vicious public attack on the integrity of either body.

I trust that no future tirades of this nature will be forthcoming. But, if they do, and from whatever source, they may come, I serve notice now that members of this House will not sit idly by in the face of inexcusable criticism of the honesty and integrity of this legislative body.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, affairs political and legislative seem to be getting rugged. The present Governor salutes the man who perhaps may be the next Governor with a kindly accusation that he is a gabblegut and the man who may be the next Governor replies to the man who is the present Governor on the ground that he is a gum-beater.

Now, Mr. Speaker, we have arising in his place in fretful indignation, defending the independence of this House, the Majority Leader, aiming all his fretful spleen and levelling his shafts at an unnamed Member of the other Chamber of this General Assembly.

What I am arising for, Mr. Speaker, is, I wonder who that Senator is, and more than that, Mr. Speaker, I wonder what in thunder that Senator said that made the Majority Leader so indignant. I would suggest that while I can't understand the impropriety of the Majority Leader to read into the record the name of the Senator in question, he might possibly be willing to read into the record what the miscreant said, because I would like to know.

I know what the governor is supposed to have said about the Senator. It was in all the papers. But nowhere can I find what the Senator said about the governor.

Incidentally, Mr. Speaker, I want to call attention to a continuing error. One phase of this tax program, involving less than 26 million dollars, has been identified as being identical with the original bill for the care of the mentally ill and the general health hospitals. You know, Mr. Speaker, that this 26, 27 or 28 million dollars that might come from this pop tax, by reason of what has been said on the other side of the House or by what has been said in the Executive Chamber, has now finally arrived at the sum of 126 million dollars.

As to the penny pop tax, by reading in the public press, Pittsburg has already spent 64 million dollars odd of it and the expenditures up to date by reading the public press, out of that penny pop tax, in Philadelphia will be about 94, million dollars. This is the most comprehensive, most tragic blunder that I have ever heard.

Mr. Speaker, I have one more thing to say, if the Majority Leader, instead of being so modest in his castigation of one Member of the Chamber to which he alludes, will include the whole darn outfit and express my views as a possibility of abolishing part of it, the majority part, I will agree.

BILLS SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bills numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 67.

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Corporations for further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this motion. This bill was introduced on February 2nd and was referred to the Committee on Townships. The bill was thoroughly considered by the Committee to which it was referred by the leadership of this House on March 2nd. The bill was thoroughly discussed and it was voted out on the floor of this House unanimously. Therefore, I request the Members of this House to vote down this motion.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stuart.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STUART. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, is there anything about this bill that would require its recommitment?

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, this bill changes the processes of annexation of first and second class townships by boroughs and cities. Since the boroughs and the cities are equally concerned with the townships in the matter it would seem only fair to place it in the hands of a committee which deals in an overall way with such matters.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, was there not sufficient notice to these representatives of the various boroughs and cities that they could have voiced their objections by going before the Committee on Townships?

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, I don't know why they did not voice objections to the Committee on Townships.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, is there anything in this bill that would in any way require any explanations other than the fact that the House is required to vote "yes" or "no" on an issue that is very, very clearly understood by the contents of this proposed bill?

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, it would seem to me that a bill such as this should be presented to a Committee which considers these matters in an overall way; boroughs and the cities being just as much concerned as townships. This affects boroughs and cities equally.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that first class townships are now covered by the law that is now proposed in Bill 321 for second class townships?

Mr. STUART. I think so, I wouldn't be sure of that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman draw any distinction between second class townships and first class townships?

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me if the people living in a certain class township desire to go into a borough or city in order to enjoy the conveniences and advantages of city government, they can have that right.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to admonish both gentlemen that they must confine themselves to the motion to recommit. The merits of the measure are not before the House at this time.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, is there anything that could be accomplished by recommitting this bill to the Committee on Municipal Corporations that could not be accomplished by a vote on the floor here on third reading?

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, I think such a measure as this deserves careful study before it is placed on the floor. I think that the Committee on Municipal Corporations is the proper Committee to make that study because, as I said before, it is a Committee having overall direction or an overall interest affecting all three types of municipalities.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I too rise in opposition to this motion as a co-sponsor of this bill. I feel that this bill contains one outright issue—I am not trying to discuss it, but it is something that can be argued on the floor of this House rather than have it submitted to another Committee for a useless purpose.

I, therefore, ask this House to vote down the motion to recommit, and I ask for a roll call, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 609, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," by reenacting and amending subsections (e), (f) and (h) of section five hundred eight, and by adding section five hundred twenty-eight to the said act authorizing administrative departments, boards and commissions, with the approval of the Governor, to enter into contracts with State Authorities.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. GREER offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, line 3, by striking out the words "at last amended" and inserting in lieu thereof "entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," subsections (e) and (f) of which were added by the act approved the twenty-first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1865), and subsection (h) of which was added".

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, line 5, by striking out the words "reenacted and further"

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The second and third sections were separately read and agreed to.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

Amend title, page 2, lines 11, 12, 13 and 14, from top of page, by striking out the part-word "re-" in line 11, all of lines 12 and 13, and the words "the said act" in line 14.

It was agreed to.

The title was agreed to as amended.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 613, entitled:

An Act making a deficiency appropriation to the Department of Military Affairs for use by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Erie, Pennsylvania.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 624, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies, with the approval of the Governor, to sell and convey .4135 acres, more or less, situate in the Township of Franklin, County of Greene, formerly used by the Department of Highways, of the Commonwealth.

And said bill having been read at length the second time

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, this being the second session that I have had the honor of serving my people in Greene County in this Legislature, so far I have never been able to get a bill out of Committee.

When this particular bill came on the calendar last Wednesday, I thought once in my legislative career I have a bill out of Committee, and I was all tickled to pieces, but in looking over the calendar on Wednesday morning or Thursday morning, I found that I still did not have a bill out of Committee.

House Bill 624 is identical with House Bill 648 which I introduced on February 23rd. House Bill 624 is a departmental bill which has been sent over by the Department of Property and Supplies into the hands of the Majority Floor Leader, and he passed the bill out for somebody to sponsor. I'm not blaming him for that.

My bill, House Bill 648, is an identical bill, dealing with the same subject matter. This matter has been in negotiation with the Department of Property and Supplies since September of last year. Knowing it was a matter for the Legislature to decide, I was asked to get a bill drawn, and I was told all these plans and specifications were in the hands of the Department of Property and Supplies or within the Department of Justice. After spending three weeks between the Department of Property and Supplies and the Department of Justice and various Departments in the Highway Department, I could find them no plans; nobody seemed to have them. So, I came back home and got a new set of plans drawn, and on the basis of those plans we had the bill introduced, House Bill 648.

This bill only covers a small plot of ground in Greene County, Franklin Township, which is now owned by the Pennsylvania State Highway Department. There was a new paper mill set up in there a few years ago by Waynesburg Inc. and this tract was used as a right of way into and out of the property. The only thing this bill does is to transfer this property from the Highway Department to Waynesburg Inc. I want this piece of property to go back to Waynesburg Inc., so that after the bill comes up for final passage I can get this matter straightened out.

I want to take this opportunity to thank the Majority Floor Leader and express my sincere appreciation for his courtesy and understanding of this matter.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 630, entitled:

An Act making a deficiency appropriation to the Department of Public Assistance and providing for certain allocations therefrom for the purpose of carrying out the Public Assistance Law for the two fiscal years beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven and for the payment of assistance and expenses accrued or incurred prior to and remaining unpaid on May thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 667, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor, to sell the tracts of land with the improvements thereon, occupied by the former Pennsylvania Maritime Academy, in Bucks County, and providing for the disposition of the proceeds of such sale.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 674, entitled:

A Further Supplement to the act, approved the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred sixty-three (P. L. 213), entitled "An act to accept the grant of public lands by the United States to the several states for the endowment of Agricultural Colleges," by authorizing the Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to issue to the prothonotaries of the courts of common pleas in the State of Pennsylvania his praecipe for the satisfaction of liens entered on the real estate of the land grant college of Pennsylvania under the provisions of the act, approved the ninth day of June, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 736), and prescribing procedure therefor.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 675, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Interstate Commission on the Delaware River Basin to make surveys and investigations to determine and report on the feasibility and advisability of the future construction of an integrated water project designed to meet the combined prospective water supply requirements of political subdivisions and metropolitan areas in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the States of New York and New Jersey, within and outside of said Basin, empowering such Commission to enter upon lands, structures and waters, fixing the responsibility for damages resulting therefrom, and making an appropriation to such Commission.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations for further study.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 733, entitled:

An Act to validate certain acknowledgments and to regulate the effect thereof.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 10, Printer's No. 22, was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 149, entitled:

An Act to authorize any city of the first class to use a facsimile signature of the City Controller in lieu of his manual signature and facsimile of the seal of the City upon any bonds issued by it and declaring that signatures and facsimile signatures of former officers shall be valid and sufficient.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 195, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two of Article XVI of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 581) entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth" by changing the provisions relating to filling vacancies in the office of city councilman in such cities.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. PFAFF offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2), page 4, line 6, by striking out the word "may" and inserting in lieu thereof "shall".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2), page 4, line 7, by striking out the word "primary."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2), page 4, line 8, by inserting after the word "election" the following: "whichever comes first."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, in offering the amendments to Senate Bill 195, Printer's No. 55, I am accuated by the sincere belief that the successful candidates chosen for the important office of City Council in Philadelphia should be elected by the majority of the electors in that particular district. I don't think this would be possible if a special election were held on a primary election day, because in Philadelphia only about thirty-three per cent of the electors really exercise their ballot on that day.

I know that the opposition might say to me that I am presumptive in presenting these amendments, that I am assuming that the President of City Council would indicate a primary election day to fill this important office. But I want to say to you, Members of the House, that the present President of City Council in Philadelphia is from my own Councilmanic district, and I have the highest respect for his well-known fairness and integrity, but I also know that he is a loyal member of his own party, and he might yield to the pressure of other leaders in Philadelphia for political expediency and indicate or designate primary election day to fill this office, if the vacancy occurs before primary election day.

I also want to submit to the Members of this House that in Philadelphia we have nearly three hundred thousand registered Democrats and we have no minority representation in that important body, and I think that all of you will agree that this is not a healthy condition in law-making.

I say to you, Members of the House, had we had a real militant minority in that city legislative body, many pieces of legislation affecting the city would possibly have been less criticized. I am appealing to you, and I know that this is a partisan measure insofar as Philadelphia is concerned, but what would you think if the majority party in this House controlled every seat in this important body? That is just what occurred and what is in effect practiced now in Philadelphia. There is not one single minority member on the City Council, and I believe that this important office should be submitted to the people at a general municipal election or at a general election in November, and I ask you, Members, in the interest of the minority, a large minority in Philadelphia, that we have an even chance to select a candidate for that important position. If the vacancy occurs before the primary election and the President of City Council designates a primary election day to fill this vacancy, I am going to be absolutely frank with you, that we of the minority party, the Democratic party in Philadelphia, would not even have a Chinaman's chance to elect a candidate for Council.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I arise to oppose the gentleman's amendments to this bill.

We do, Mr. Speaker, have all Republican members on the city council in Philadelphia. I wonder how many Republican members are in the council of the City of Pittsburgh. If I am correct, there are not any. So, it works both ways.

Incidentally, Mr. Speaker, this bill as it is now was taken from the 1937 Election Code which was put through by the Democratic majority in this House. It is written in almost the same way as a vacancy is now filled in this House. If a vacancy should occur in this House by the death of any Member, the Speaker works on exactly the same plan, and I arise to oppose this amendment, and I ask the members to vote against it.

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, I just want to make another statement in reference to this amendment.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman yield to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rose?

Mr. PFAFF. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, how are vacancies filled under the presently existing law?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, by a majority vote of council voting for an election day to be held for a special election.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, on lines 13 to 18 on page 3 of this bill that are attempted to be stricken out by the amendment offered, is there in it a provision that in the event of a vacancy in the office of council the successor may be chosen at the next general municipal or special election occurring not less than thirty days thereafter?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. That is true, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, if the President of City Council desired, he could have called an election under the existing law while this vacancy existed, without the necessity of having this new bill introduced, is that not so?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, that depends entirely on how the gentleman from Philadelphia interprets the words, "special election" in that connection. We interpret it to be an election called for a special purpose for something other than councilmanic vacancies.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, is it not true that the vacancy could have been filled by the President of City Council under the laws that now exist?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I'm afraid that I cannot answer the gentleman's question. I am not in city council.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia can read the bill there from lines 13 to 18 on page 3.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, that may be true, but if we take out the words "primary election," we do run into one thing, and that is if a vacancy would occur, for example, on October 3rd and we hold a general election on November 2nd, there would be a vacancy until November 3rd of the following year, which would be of thirteen months period. That could happen.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know whether any other office in Philadelphia is filled by a special election where a vacancy occurs?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I don't know, Mr. Speaker, I don't believe there are any other offices, as far as I know.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, is it not true where there is any other vacancy of any other elective office in Philadelphia, in the judiciary or any other elective office, that vacancy is filled at the next general succeeding election?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. That may be quite true, Mr. Speaker, but where a mayor and council are responsible for a program there should not be a vacancy for thirteen months, which could happen without this bill.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know how long the present vacancy in Council has existed?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I think only for two or three months since the death of the late councilman.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, how about the death of the first councilman?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I wouldn't know just when he died, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the amendment offered by my colleague, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Pfaff.

I wish to point out to the Members of this House that under the present law if the authorities in Philadelphia were interested in seeing the present vacancy filled, they could have called an election, but they have failed to do so until the attention of the members was directed to the fact that this vacancy existed, and then there was a hue and cry raised in Philadelphia calling for this bill, and consequently this bill has been introduced.

I want to point out that all of the vacancies of elective offices in Philadelphia are filled at the regular general election which succeeds the vacancy, next succeeding the vacancy, and the effect of this bill would be positively to call upon the expenditure of large sums of money in Philadelphia at a special election which could well be called through the provisions of the amendment now being offered. We in Philadelphia today are trying to save money for the citizens of Philadelphia, and we may be called upon to spend huge sums of money which would be necessary to hold an election if this particular amendment is not accepted.

I do want to say again that under the presently existing law, if we had substituted the word "shall" for the word "may" on line 13, we could well have been able to provide for the exigency without passing this particular measure, and I call upon the Members of the House to support the amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Scanlon and Mr. Readinger and were as follows:

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 22, as follows:

An Act providing that an appeal or certiorari to the court of common pleas in a suit or action by a landlord to recover possession of property shall be a supersedeas

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 In every action or suit brought under any of the several acts of this Commonwealth by a landlord to recover possession of property leased for a term of years from year to year for any term less than a year or by the month or for an indeterminate time in which a certiorari or an appeal is now allowed by law such certiorari or appeal shall be a supersedeas until the final determination thereof by the court of common pleas out of which or to which the same shall issue or lie Provided That such certiorari or appeal shall be applied for or taken within the period now prescribed by law and the party applying for or taking the same shall otherwise comply with the provisions of the acts providing for such certiorari or appeal in such cases

Section 2 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NOT VOTING—1

Krise,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 26, as follows:

An Act to reenact section four of the act approved the fourth day of April one thousand seven hundred ninety-eight (3 Smith Laws 331) entitled "An act limiting the time during which judgment shall be a lien on real estate and suits may be brought against the sureties of public officers" relating to the time suits may be brought against sureties of public officers

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section four of the act approved the fourth day of April one thousand seven hundred ninety-eight (3 Smith Laws 331) entitled "An act limiting the time during which judgment shall be a lien on real estate and suits may be brought against the sureties of public officers" which was cited for repeal by the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 774) is hereby reenacted to read as follows

Section 4 And whereas it is reasonable that persons entering into bonds or recognizances as sureties for any public officers should be exonerated from their responsibility within a reasonable term after such officers respectively shall die resign or be removed from office Therefore Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons whomsoever to commence and maintain any suit or suits on any bonds or recognizances which shall hereafter be given and entered into by any person or persons as sureties for any public officer from and after the expiration of the term of seven years to be computed from the time at which the cause of action shall have accrued and if any such suit or suits shall be commenced contrary to the intent and meaning of this act the defendant or defendants respectively shall and may plead the general issue and give this act and the special matter in evidence and if the plaintiff or plaintiffs be nonsuit or if a verdict or judgment pass against him or them respectively the defendant or defendants shall respectively recover double costs

Section 2 The purpose of this act is to correct an error in citing section four of said act approved the fourth day of April one thousand seven hundred ninety-eight (3 Smith Laws 331) for repeal such purported repeal being ineffective in that the subject matter of said section four is not germane to the title or subject matter of the act citing it for repeal

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 626, as follows:

An Act requiring the reporting of cases of blindness or impaired vision by physicians examining or diagnosing such cases imposing powers and duties on the Department of Welfare and its authorized agents and providing penalties

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Every physician who treats or examines any blind person or person with impaired vision approximating blindness or who diagnoses any case of blindness or impaired vision approximating blindness or which might possibly become blindness shall make a written report thereof to the Department of Welfare or its authorized agents upon forms provided by and in accordance with regulations prescribed by that department and in such cases shall furnish such additional information as that department shall request

Section 2 For the purposes of this act "blind" or "blindness" shall mean visual acuity not to exceed twenty two-hundredths (20/200) in the better eye with correcting lenses or visual acuity greater than twenty two-hundredths (20/200) but with a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than twenty (20) degrees

Section 3 The Department of Welfare shall compile and preserve statistics based on such reports. Such department shall make available to public and State-aided agencies whose function is the prevention of blindness or the education or the rehabilitation of the blind information relating to individuals who might be aided by the activities of such agencies

Section 4 The Department of Welfare shall cause a sufficient number of copies of this act to be printed and furnished to its authorized agents and to licensed physicians in this Commonwealth

Section 5 Any person who violates any provision of this act or regulation of the department promulgated thereunder shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25) or in default of the payment thereof to undergo imprisonment for not less than one (1) day nor more than five (5) days

TUESDAY, March 8, 1949.

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. FRANCIS E. REINBERGER offered the following prayer:

Thank you, Lord, for this beautiful day, and for the hope which it inspires of happy days in the approaching Spring. May the glory of Thy sunshine bring peace and prosperity to all Thy people here. From page boy to Senator, from clerk to Governor, send Thy blessing upon them all and make their lives a source of constant joy to them and to Thee. Today we ask Thy blessing also upon the representatives of the Press on whom so many people depend for insight and truth; be with them, our Father, in their important task; indeed, be with us all. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

CALENDAR

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 63, as follows:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 806) entitled "An act limiting the number of licenses for the retail sale of liquor malt or brewed beverages or malt and brewed beverages to be issued by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board defining hotels and prescribing the accommodations required of hotels in certain municipalities" changing the requirements necessary for a hotel to qualify under said act. The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 806) entitled "An act limiting the number of licenses for the retail sale of liquor malt or brewed beverages or malt and brewed beverages to be issued by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board defining hotels and prescribing the accommodations required of hotels in certain municipalities" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Definitions The word "hotel" as used in this act shall mean any reputable place operated by a responsible person of good reputation where the public may for a consideration obtain sleeping accommodations at least one-half of the required number of bedrooms shall be regularly available to transient guests seven days weekly except in resort areas which have been defined by the board at least one-third of such bedrooms shall be equipped with hot and cold water a lavatory commode bathtub or shower and a clothes closet and an additional one-third of the total of such required rooms shall be equipped with lavatory and commode

(a) In municipalities having a population of less than [one] three thousand shall have at least [six] twelve permanent bedrooms for the use of guests

(b) In municipalities having a population of [one] three thousand and more but less than [three] ten thousand inhabitants shall have at least [ten] sixteen permanent bedrooms for the use of guests

(c) In municipalities having a population of [three] ten thousand and more but less than [one hundred] twenty-five thousand inhabitants shall have at least [twelve] thirty permanent bedrooms for the use of guests [and]

(d) In municipalities having a population of [one hundred] twenty-five thousand and more but less than one hundred thousand inhabitants shall have at least [fifteen] forty permanent bedrooms for the use of guests and

(e) In municipalities having a population of one hundred thousand or more inhabitants shall have at least fifty permanent bedrooms for the use of guests

All such hotels shall have a public dining room or rooms operated by the same management accommodating at least thirty persons at one time and a kitchen apart from the dining room or rooms in which food is regularly prepared for the public

The word "person" shall mean every natural person association or corporation

The word "municipality" shall mean any city borough incorporated town or township

The term "bedrooms" shall mean bedrooms each of which shall have an area of not less than eighty square feet and an outside window

Section 2 The provisions of this amending act shall not apply to hotel licenses heretofore granted nor to any renewal or transfer thereof or hotels under construction or for which a bona fide contract has been entered into for construction at time of enactment

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TARR. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I find myself faced with a decision to make whether or not to vote for Senate Bill No. 63, which changes the provisions of licensees under the Liquor Control Board.

I am a Member of the Committee from which this bill was reported, and I am deeply in sympathy with the idea being put forth by this bill. However, I am wondering if all of the provisions of this bill are clear enough to let the Members of the Senate know just what they are voting on.

We find on page 2, section 1, in the definitions of the word "hotel", that at least one-half of the required number of bedrooms shall be regularly available to transient guests, seven days weekly.

Now, I am wondering, Mr. President, whether anyone can define a transient guest, and I wonder just what the possibilities may be of finding a hotel in which one-half of the rooms are available for transient guests.

The bill goes on further and states that one-third of the bedrooms shall be equipped with hot and cold water, a lavatory, commode, bathtub or shower, and a clothes closet, and an additional one-third shall be equipped with lavatory and commode.

It is going to be very difficult, Mr. President, in small municipalities to secure a liquor license, even with a bona fide hotel. I know that there are fifty men in this Senate who are definitely pledged to wiping out the throwing up of clapboard and cardboard buildings along the highways and byways of the Commonwealth, and, after complying with the present liquor laws, receive a liquor license. I know that situation is bad, and I hate to find myself in the position of voting against something which I know is going to do some good, but I am going to vote against this bill because I am not certain, and I do not believe any Member of the Senate is certain of the provisions of section 1, in the definitions of the word "hotel", and in section 2, on the changing of the required population for the issuance of a license.

Mr. President, I am not asking anyone else in the Senate to go along with my views on this. I am merely making this statement as a reason for my voting "no" on the bill.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I shall endeavor to clarify that section of the bill for the Senator, and state that part of the bill was prepared by several hotelmen, none of whom I know, except Mr. Moore, proprietor of the Penn-Harris Hotel.

Mr. President, there is a distinction between a rooming house and a hotel. A hotel is a place that holds itself out for the accommodation of the traveling public. The principal object of this bill—there are two objects in fact—one is to prevent the circumvention of the quota law. Today in many places where the quota is filled, people desiring to operate a restaurant with a liquor license are acquiring a large house, and making application for a hotel license. The requirement that one-third of the rooms, bedrooms, be equipped with modern conveniences is simply a move to have hotels that at least have some accommodations which the average transient or member of the traveling public would like to enjoy when stopping at a hotel.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to cite an example of what would happen, if this bill should pass with that definition of a hotel.

The boys from Allegheny County will know of the two hotels I am speaking of. One is the Kenmar Hotel, located at the corner of Walnut Street and Shady Avenue, in Pittsburgh. If that license should happen to be transferred by the man who has it, they could not get a license again for that hotel due to the fact that ninety per cent of their guests are permanent.

The same thing is true, Mr. President, of the hotel right down the street, known as the Penn Shady Hotel, on Shady Avenue. Ninety per cent of their guests are permanent, and the people who have the license now, if they should transfer it, it would be impossible for them under this bill to get a license again.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, March 8, 1949.

The House met at 1:30 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend William Hugh Fryer offered the following prayer:

O God, the strength of all who put their trust in Thee; mercifully accept our prayers; and because, through the weakness of our mortal nature, we can do no good thing without Thee, grant us the help of Thy grace, that we may faithfully serve Thee and Thy people, and in keeping Thy commandments we may please Thee, both in will and deed.

We commend to Thy loving protection those of our members who are ill, give them comfort, courage and patience in their illness and we pray that Thou wilt be their constant companion and strength. Amen

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. BUCCHIN. RESOLUTION No. 31.

In the House of Representatives, March 7, 1949.

Whereas, The Federal Government has made available to the states considerable sums of money for use in connection with Mental Health Programs, of none of which this Commonwealth has availed itself, although the need for such funds is clearly manifest; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Secretary of Welfare is hereby requested to advise the House of Representatives of the reason for the neglect on the part of the officials of this Commonwealth to secure for its benefit and the benefit of its political subdivisions all the funds that are available from the Federal Government for much needed mental health programs in Pennsylvania; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of Welfare is hereby directed to carry out the necessary administrative requirements set forth in such Federal Law, to make available such sums of money for the mental health programs in this State; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk certify a copy of this resolution and transmit the same to the Secretary of Welfare.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Mr. WATERHOUSE. RESOLUTION No. 32.

In the House of Representatives, March 7, 1949.

Whereas, The health and well-being of many citizens of the Commonwealth is vitally affected by the number of nurses in and the degree of proficiency with which the Bureau of Public Health Nursing of the Department of Health is administered; and

Whereas, To determine the needs of the citizens of the Commonwealth in the field of public health nursing and the degree to which such needs are being filled by the aforesaid Bureau of Public Health Nursing requires the study and investigation of an impartial agency; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to make a study and investigation of the Bureau of Public Health Nursing of the Department of Health, the methods used by it in attracting nurses into public health service, in determining qualifications for advancement and similar administrative matters and to ascertain whether or not there are sufficient numbers of public health nurses throughout the various counties of the Commonwealth to meet the needs of the people of such counties; and be it further

Resolved, That the Commission make a report of its findings and recommendations to the next regular session of the General Assembly.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. CHARLES C. SMITH, BOWER,
HELM and YEAKEL. RESOLUTION No. 33.

In the House of Representatives, March 7, 1949.

Whereas, It is necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the General Assembly that the printing of bills, calendars, journals and other legislative documents, papers and pamphlets be speedily and accurately done, that the distribution thereof be handled in such manner that a sufficient number of copies thereof shall at all times be available for the use of the General Assembly and its officers and members, and that sufficient funds be allocated and used for these purposes; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint a select committee to investigate the cost of legislative printing, the prevalence of errors therein, the allocation of moneys therefor, the diversion of such allocations for other purposes, the distribution of printed legislative documents, pamphlets and papers, and all other matters pertaining to the printing necessary for the conduct of legislation; that the select committee hereby provided for shall continue after the adjournment of the present session of the General Assembly, and shall have power to sit and continue its investigations during the interim between legislative sessions; that said select committee shall have power to cooperate with, or to combine its investigation with that of any committee of the Senate with the same or like powers; and that the committee report its findings and recommendations to the House of Representatives at such time or times as it shall deem proper.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. WEISS, ROSE, STERNBERG, ROSEN, YAFFE, BLOOM, SCHMIDT, ALTSHULER, SAX and FOHL. (Concurrent) Resolution No. 34.

In the House of Representatives, March 1, 1949.

Whereas, The Congress of the United States, in a Joint Resolution adopted on June 30, 1922, and reaffirmed in subsequent resolutions, viewed with favor the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people; and

Whereas, Under the leadership of the United States Government, the General Assembly of the United Nations on November 29, 1947, adopted its historic resolution in favor of a Jewish State in Palestine; and

Whereas, Pursuant to said decision, the Jewish people in Palestine on May 14, 1948, proclaimed the free and independent State of Israel in Palestine; and

Whereas, The President of the United States extended immediate de facto recognition to the Provisional Government of Israel and de jure recognition upon the holding of a free, popular election to the Constituent Assembly of the Republic of Israel; and

Whereas, These friendly acts of the Government of the United States toward the Jewish people and the Republic of Israel have had full bipartisan support of the American people; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs) That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania felicitates the Jewish people upon the great historic event of the restoration of the free and independent State of Israel and hereby memorializes the President of the United States and his Secretary of State, to continue the full support by the United States of the Republic of Israel by exercising their good offices for the admission of Israel to the United Nations at the next session of its General Assembly, and by extending American economic assistance to the new state through the consummation of the Export-Import Bank loan to Israel; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States and to the Secretary of State of the United States.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SPEAKER. The Bureau of Publications under date of January 4, 1949, sent to each member a letter requesting your personal biography and a photograph. To date only 61 members have complied with this request. The responsibility for delay in publication of the Manual is principally due to delay in furnishing copy promptly to the editors. If you want the Manual early do your part by sending in your biography and photographs immediately.

MEETING OF COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN AND VICE CHAIRMEN

The SPEAKER. There will be a very brief meeting of the Committee Chairmen and Vice-Chairmen in the New House Caucus room immediately after adjournment of today's session.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the house.

Mr. Speaker, I have been instructed by the Democratic Caucus to present the following statement as to policy. This is with reference to mine cave-ins.

Subsidence from mining operations in the anthracite region have been a menace to life and property since the turn of the century. Perhaps they were a menace even before that time. Pennsylvania's General Assembly, at Session after Session, has gone through the motions of considering methods designed to protect life and property from the mine cave-in menace.

The mine cave-in problem has never actually been attacked from the proper angle. Surface subsidence losses, if they are not the result of careless mining operations, are the result of industrial accidents.

Pennsylvania has long recognized the fact that loss of life, or injuries sustained by industrial workers are compensable. The loss of property as a result of an industrial accident should be properly compensable.

Pennsylvania is spending millions for stream clearance purposes. It is spending millions, or plans to do so, for flood control projects. It is spending money on educational campaigns designed to minimize traffic accidents. The Commonwealth, it is hoped, is planning to increase the benefits to be received by industrial accident victims.

Sound policy should, it would seem, decree that industrial accidents which occasion the loss of property,—property essential to the workers' needs,—should be as clearly compensable as are accidents which result in the loss of a hand, an arm, a foot, or a leg.

The losses occasioned as a result of mine cave-ins are losses that have accumulated as a result of an industrial service—the mining of coal. Private individuals should not be required to shoulder losses which have been occasioned by an essential industrial service. Such losses represent a social obligation and should be compensable under any proper theory of industrial compensation benefits. It is therefore the view of the Democratic Members of the House that it is the duty of the General Assembly now in Session, in cooperation with the Administration, at long last to formulate a policy with reference to mine cave-ins which recognizes the fact that essential industrial activities should not be permitted to continue to inflict uncompensated losses upon the part of communities and individuals when these communities and individuals have in no way, by means of negligence, contributed to the losses which they have sustained.

FORMER MEMBERS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the Hall of the House, a former Member, the gentleman from Armstrong, Honorable Herbert G. Gates.

The Chair is also pleased to welcome another former Member of the House, the gentleman from Huntingdon, Honorable Paul V. Heffner.

Baumunk, Krise,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 288 as follows:

An Act to further amend subsections (3) and (4) of section three and section seven of the act approved the nineteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1356) entitled "An act to regulate the sale and delivery of solid fuel as herein defined providing for appointment of licensed weighmasters prescribing their powers and duties authorizing substitute licensed weighmasters imposing certain duties on the Department of Internal Affairs and providing penalties" further defining the powers of weighmasters and the inspectors of weights and measures

Section 1 Subsections (3) and (4) of section three of the act approved the nineteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1356) entitled "An act to regulate the sale and delivery of solid fuel as herein defined providing for appointment of licensed weighmasters prescribing their powers and duties authorizing substitute licensed weighmasters imposing certain duties on the Department of Internal Affairs and providing penalties" as last amended by the act approved the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 684) is hereby further amended to read as follows

* * * * *

(3) The original weighmaster's certificate shall be typewritten or made out in ink or indelible pencil and the original and each copy thereof shall show

(a) The kind and size of the solid fuel
(b) The name and address of the seller of the solid fuel

(c) The name and address of the purchaser
(d) The license number of the vehicle and trailer
(e) The signature and license number of the licensed weighmaster by whom weighed and who issued the weighmaster's certificate

(f) The date and hour when weighed
(g) The gross weight in avoirdupois pounds of vehicle and local the tare weight and the net weight of the solid fuel and where the load is divided into lots the net weight of each such lot all of which must be determined by the same weighmaster in accordance with the rules and regulations of the department except where reweighing is required by ordinance within the limits of a city borough town or township of the first class in which delivery is made in which case the gross weight of the vehicle and load shall first be determined without dumping and after the delivery of the entire load of solid fuel the vehicle shall immediately return to the same scale for the determination of the tare weight

(4) The original copy of a weighmaster's certificate shall be delivered to the purchaser of the solid fuel specified in the certificate at the time of delivery. One copy thereof shall be retained at the place of weighing and one copy shall be retained by the person delivering the solid fuel. Copies of weighmaster's certificates in possession of licensed weighmasters and persons delivering solid fuel shall be retained for a period of two years and shall be subject to inspection or confiscation for use as evidence by any State county or city inspector of weights and measures during business hours

* * * * *

Section 2 Section seven of said act as last amended by the act approved the eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 173) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 7 It shall be unlawful for any weighmaster to issue a false or incorrect weighmaster's certificate or for any person to solicit him to do so or for any person to use or issue any weighmaster's certificate except one prepared on a form issued or approved by the department for any person to print or distribute any forms of weighmaster's certificates unless authorized so to do by the department or to use a false or incorrect weighmaster's certificate or a weighmaster's certificate not bearing the signature and license number of a licensed weighmaster and the license number of the vehicle and trailer or for any weighmaster knowingly to permit any weighmaster's certificate to be issued or used which purports to bear his signature and which was not in fact signed by him at the time of weighing or which expresses a gross tare or net weight not ascertained by him or for any person to deliver solid fuel without an official weighmaster's certificate or for any person to furnish a false name or address of a purchaser to the licensed weighmaster at the time of weighing or to permit any diminution of the load of solid fuel before its delivery to the purchaser or purchasers thereof or except as otherwise provided in this act to fail neglect or refuse to deliver a correct and lawful weighmaster's certificate to the purchaser of solid fuel whose name and address appears on said weighmaster's certificate or to otherwise directly or indirectly violate any of the provisions of this act

Whenever solid fuel is sold and delivered to the purchaser named in the approved weighmaster's certificate and whenever the seller or his representative neglects fails or refuses to deliver an approved weighmaster's certificate at the time of delivery or the net weight of the solid fuel shall be determined to be less than the net amount stated on the approved weighmaster's certificate or as otherwise represented to the purchaser such determination shall constitute prima facie evidence of short weight and the seller shall be prosecuted under this provision for short weight

Whenever the gross weight of a vehicle and load the tare weight and the net weight of solid fuel has been determined in accordance with the provisions of this act and the net weight of the solid fuel shall be determined to be less than that stated in a weighmaster's certificate proof of such determination shall constitute prima facie evidence of the diminution of the load of solid fuel before delivery to the purchaser

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NOT VOTING—2

Baumunk, Krise,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 289, as follows:

An Act to further amend section three of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 275) entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of county and city inspectors of weights and measures providing for their compensation and expenses prescribing their duties prohibiting vendors from giving false or insufficient weights and fixing the penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof" extending the provision thereof to measuring devices

Section 1 Section three of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 275) entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of county and city inspectors of weights and measures providing for their compensation and expenses prescribing their duties prohibiting vendors from giving false or insufficient weights and fixing the penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof" as last amended by the act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 631) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 3 Each person who shall directly or indirectly or by his servant or agent or as the servant or agent of another violate any of the provisions of this act or give or offer to give any false or insufficient weight or measure or use any weighing or measuring device after it shall have been condemned and before it shall have been adjusted and sealed or obstruct or attempt to obstruct any inspector in the performance of his duty shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding before any alderman magistrate or justice of the peace of the proper city or county for the first offense be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or more than fifty dollars ($50.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for ten (10) days for the second offense be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) or more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for twenty (20) days for the third offense be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or more than two hundred dollars ($200.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for thirty (30) days and for a fourth or subsequent offense shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon a conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than two hundred dollars ($200.00) or more than three hundred dollars ($300.00) or suffer imprisonment for not less than six (6) months or both All such fines shall be paid to the treasurer of the respective city or county in which the offense was committed

It shall be unlawful for any inspector to use any tests or standards or to attempt to use the same in ascertaining the correctness or accuracy of weights and measures until such comparisons are made and their accuracy established and a certificate of accuracy issued therefore as provided by this act It shall be unlawful for any inspector to manufacture sell or offer to sell any weighing or measuring device used in the sale of commodities or to repair or offer to repair any weighing or measuring device other than such adjustments as he may find necessary in the performance of his official duties for which no fees shall be collected Any inspector violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction therefor shall be fined not exceeding one thousand ($1000) dollars or undergo imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or both or either at the discretion of the court

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NOT VOTING—2

Baumunk, Krise,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 290, entitled:

An Act to amend section nine and to further amend section ten of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 965) entitled "An act defining commodities regulating the sale thereof and providing penalties for violation hereof" providing for arrests by inspectors of weights and measures and extending the provisions of the act to marking of the net quantity of the contents on packages sold by wholesalers jobbers or commission merchants.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, in looking over these various bills, I think this bill contains a defect and should be passed over for the time being. I should like to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, will the Majority Leader get a copy of House Bill 290, Printer's No. 121? There is a question which I should like to ask.

Mr. BRUNNER. I have a copy of the bill before me now, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman from Montgomery be kind enough to look on page 2, beginning at line 9, and inform me as to whether or not that language in this section should not be changed to make it intelligent?

I refer to the following amendment: "In any city or county the inspector of weights and measures in whose presence the violation of this act has been or is being committed, shall have power without warrant to arrest the offender and conduct him before an alderman, magistrate, or justice of the peace." What does that mean, Mr. Speaker? When you arrest a man, is he in your custody or are you giving him a summons? The thing here I desire to call attention to is what does the language mean "shall be conducted before an alderman or justice of the peace."

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, it would appear from the wording, that he has the right to arrest him if he sees the offense being committed, and then without further process conduct him or take him personally to the magistrate.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, is that the meaning or does the gentleman feel that this should go over for a few minutes so that another word may be substituted?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I have no objection to the bill going over. However, I did not sponsor this measure. The gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Wagner, did.

If it will help the membership to better understand the measure, it is all right with me, but I think the gentleman who is responsible for the measure should be consulted.

I will yield to the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Wagner.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I had no intention of bypassing the sponsor of the bill, but this is a legal question and I therefore referred the question to the Majority Leader. I meant no disrespect to the sponsor.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Somerset permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WAGNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I ask the same question of the gentleman from Somerset, if he will let this bill go over for a few minutes because I think it is somewhat confusing. I think when we arrest people we take them into custody, we do not conduct them, which is a word of politeness, a word of persuasion.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, not being a member of the legal profession, but having been accused for the past twenty-seven years of acting both as judge and jury in many cases, I agree that the wording might be somewhat out of order, and I have no objection to the bill going over to get it straightened out.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Wagner, has no objection to passing over House Bill 290, Printer's No. 121 until he gets a lawyer.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 290, Printer's No. 121 was passed over at the request of Mr. WAGNER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 291, as follows:

An Act to regulate deliveries of light fuel oil to domestic consumers conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Internal Affairs and the inspectors of weights and measures of the several counties and cities and prescribing penalties

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Definitions The word "department" as used in this act shall mean the Department of Internal Affairs

L. 389) entitled "An act to regulate and control the manufacture sale offering for sale giving away and use of weights and measures and of weighing and measuring devices in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania providing for the approval and disapproval of such weights measures and devices by the Bureau of Standards and prescribing penalties" All deliveries of light fuel oil to such consumers shall be made by the use of such a meter

Section 3 Small Deliveries Fuel oil deliveries of fifty gallons or less may be delivered without being metered Provided That such delivery be made in standard measures of not less than five gallons capacity And provided further That only such measures as approved by provisions of the aforesaid act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 389) be used

Section 4 Exceptions The provisions of this act shall not apply to deliveries of heavy fuel oils nor to deliveries of light fuel oils to industrial plants nor where the entire truck tank load of light fuel oil is delivered to a single domestic consumer provided such tank truck is of a type approved under provisions of the aforesaid act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 389)

Section 5 Enforcement of Act Rules and Regulations It shall be the duty of the department and the inspectors of weights and measures of the several counties and cities to enforce the provisions of this act

The Secretary of Internal Affairs shall have power to adopt and promulgate such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this act as may be deemed necessary to carry into effect the intent and purpose of this act

Section 6 Penalties Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced for the first offense to pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or more than fifty dollars ($50.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for ten (10) days and for the second offense be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) or more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for twenty (20) days and for the third offense shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or more than two hundred dollars ($200.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for thirty (30) days

Any person violating any of the provisions of this act for a fourth or subsequent offense shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or more than three hundred dollars ($300.00) or suffer imprisonment for not more than sixty (60) days or both

Section 7 Effective Date The provisions of this act shall become effective the first day of September one thousand nine hundred fifty

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

An Act requiring the consent of the electors of a township of the second class when such township or any part thereof is to be annexed to a contiguous borough or by

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Hereafter no township of the second class nor any part of any such township shall be annexed to a contiguous city or borough in accordance with any existing law providing for such annexation unless the voters of the entire township have first consented to such annexation. Whenever any proceeding for such annexation shall be commenced the same shall not be concluded and the annexation shall not become effective until there has first been submitted to the electors of the entire township in accordance with the election law for the submission of such questions a proper question to ascertain the will of the electors with respect to such proposed annexation. Such question shall be printed on ballots provided by the county commissioners and shall be submitted at any general or municipal election occurring at least sixty days after a petition shall have been filed with the county commissioners by the corporate authorities of the borough or city to which such annexation is to be made asking for the submission of such question. If at any such election a majority of those voting on such question shall consent to such annexation then such annexation may be made and concluded in the manner provided by law but if a majority of those voting on the question shall vote against such annexation then no further proceedings for such annexation shall be had. Any such question shall not be submitted oftener than once in five years. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to apply to proceedings under existing law where provision is now or hereafter made to secure the consent of the electors of any township to any such annexation.

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, the bill now before us is the one that it was proposed to re-commit to the Committee yesterday.

It is not a difficult bill to understand and has one purpose in mind, and that is to prevent the taking of any portion of a second class township by any contiguous borough or city without having first received the consent of a majority of the electors in the entire municipality.

This assembly in the session of 1947 saw fit to include as a law a provision similar to this, affecting first class townships. And therefore, at the present time second class townships are the only type of municipalities which may be annexed without the consent of the electors of the entire municipality. I have always been an advocate of home rule and as such I have worked with various groups representing boroughs, townships and third class cities. I was always under the impression that the boroughs as such were advocates of home rule.

Today it has been called to my attention that the Members of this House have been besieged with a barrage of telegrams from the boroughs of this state, requesting them to act in opposition to the contents of this bill. Whether or not this same opposition took place in the 1947 session, when it was proposed to remove first-class townships from the threat of being absorbed by the contiguous cities and boroughs, I don't know. But I feel that in all justice the second class townships should operate under the same law as the first class townships in so far as annexation is concerned.

As a township solicitor I have had an opportunity for the past sixteen years to observe the ill effect that land grab on townships has had on the remaining portion of the township. We in Allegheny county know of this, I believe, much more in any other portion of the state because it seems that Allegheny County has been subjected to annexations and land grabs. The effect of these land grabs has been to put an additional burden upon those who remain in the unannexed portion of the township.

As you all know, a contiguous borough or city does not desire undeveloped portions, but endeavors to secure something that would be an asset to it, and not be a detriment. By taking away this asset from the boroughs there is an additional burden upon those that have not been annexed, and I say to you in all fairness under the doctrine of home rule, that everyone in the territory affected should be given an opportunity to vote upon this question without differentiation between first class townships and second class townships, and permit a second class township to operate in the same manner under which a first class township now operates.

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been referred to as being a land grab. Boroughs and cities are not grabbing land from the second class townships. When they annex boroughs they do that because the people living there want to go into the boroughs and the townships because of the advantages they obtain, but I very much fear if this bill passes and becomes a law that it will almost entirely halt the gradual growth of the boroughs and cities.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire to extend the debate any further but I do want to say this, in reference to the advantage in being admitted to a contiguous borough or city as such, if it is advantageous to the township, that advantage should be extended to the entire township and the entire township should be permitted to vote on it and if they consider it an advantage they will so vote.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stuart.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STUART. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, is it possible for a borough or a city to annex a portion or the whole of a township or a city upon its application?

Mr. STUART. I believe not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. PROPERT. Is it not true, Mr. Speaker, that boroughs and cities seek to deprive second class townships of the same rights that they now enjoy?

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, I believe the answer would be yes, but the normal growth of boroughs and cities does not come entirely from annexation of the territory or area of second class townships. The normal growth takes place in the annexation which develops until it reaches a point where people create homes, people living in nearby towns; plans are made out, and to all intents and purposes, this portion of the second class township becomes a community in itself that might be considered a small borough. People living there want the advantage of police and fire protection, which is only natural, and quite frequently they appeal for annexation.

Mr. PROPERT. One more question, Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman not feel that the boroughs and cities by opposing this bill are depriving second class townships of the same rights and privileges which the first class townships enjoy?

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, I think they are rightly trying to reserve the power which they have, by which they must have a normal growth, which is for the advantage of the people of the second class township, who desire the facilities of borough and city government.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Propert.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PROPERT. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, is there anything in this particular bill that would prohibit any part of a second class township from becoming a borough itself?

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe there is anything in the bill which would prevent the entire township from becoming a borough, that is correct.

Mr. LOVETT. Not the entire township, any part of that township, any portion or any part of the people of that township, could they become a borough?

Mr. PROPERT. I believe they could, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, under this bill does the gentleman think they could become a borough—any part of that township?

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, the bill simply provides for the annexation of land contiguous to the borough or city. There is nothing stated in the bill covering the particular subject that the gentleman raises.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker if there is nothing in this bill that prohibits any part of a township, or any number of people of that township from becoming a borough or a city, providing they have the qualifications under the law, then I can see no reason why we should not pass this bill, giving them the same rights as a first class township.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, in regard to the question which the gentleman just asked as to whether or not any part of the township could become a borough, they could only become a borough by the consent of the entire populace of that township. I think the attorneys will agree to that. I am not speaking on the merits of the bill other than the fact that the boroughs in my district are definitely opposed to the bill.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the remarks of the last speaker I might say that there is nothing in this bill that would deal with the creation of a borough out of a portion of the township. That would be regulated by some other existing law.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I am one of those fellows from Allegheny County who has done a little bit of this so called land grabbing. The only land grabbing or taking that we have done in our borough was by a petition from people who live in a second class township, presented to the council.

In every case today the balance of the township has a right to go into court in any procedure, and the judge will decide, of course, whether the second class township, or the balance of it, is going to be hurt or whether it is not going to be hurt, and if the balance of the second class township is going to be hurt then the court can rule on the matter and decide whether the annexation is void.

I do not see anywhere in the present bill where they have the right to go into court. The only thing I can see now is that it will definitely stop the growing of third class cities and third class boroughs in any county. Then, Mr. Speaker, I am wondering on the question of a vote for the entire second class township if it is made up into three wards, the first ward has a large population, the other two wards have just farmers, and those farmers desire not to become a part of the borough but want to remain in the second class township, the people in the first ward can vote the farmers in, whether they like it or not, and once the vote is taken the farmer automatically becomes a part of the borough, which he did not not want to become a part of. I say that the first district should have that right and that right alone, and let them be annexed to any borough or third class city and if the farmers or any entire group of people want to remain in the second class township, they should stay there. For that reason I am asking you to vote against the bill.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I still cannot agree with the gentleman from Allegheny that a part of the township could become a borough without the consent of the entire township. I am wondering if the sponsor of this bill would have any objection to it going over until we can get a ruling on that part of it from some legal department because it is generally stated that it is to be annexed to any contiguous borough or city, and that can be an existing right that is to be taken away from the township.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that the creation of a borough is covered entirely in the Borough Code. That may or may not answer Mr. Waterhouse's inquiry. In answer to Mr. Heatherington, he made a hypothetical point there on second class townships being divided into three wards. I just want to say that there are no second class townships in the state of Pennsylvania divided into wards, to the best of my knowledge.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, might I inquire of the gentleman as to whether or not if there were a certain section of a township that desired to be annexed by a city, if this bill does not prevent them from forming a borough or whatever you call it, becoming a separate part, couldn't they organize and after they have organized and withdrawn from the township, couldn't they then by their own wish become a part of the city?

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe I fully understand the gentleman's inquiry.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, under the provisions of this bill, as I get it, it would prevent any part of a township being annexed by an adjoining city, borough or what have you, but my contention is if there is nothing in this bill that would prevent that part of the township that wished to be annexed from forming a borough, then after they have formed this borough, or whatever you may call it, they would no longer be a part of that township but would be annexed by the city, wouldn't that be possible?

Mr. PROPERT. A city, as I have stated, cannot be an-nexed; they cannot be annexed from the adjoining city or first class township, and that is exactly why this bill is on the calendar today.

Second class townships in the state of Pennsylvania are the only political subdivisions which do not have this same protection, and this bill merely seeks to extend to second class townships the same rights and privileges under the law that first class townships, boroughs, and cities now have.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I am still a bit confused. I still cannot see why, if under this bill a township can from a certion portion form a borough, that borough cannot from their own vote and that of the city become a unit. I contend that no portion of the township can form a borough or city from the township without a vote of the entire populace of that township.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, I think that I will agree with the gentleman that this bill requires the vote of the entire populace of the township in which it happens, but again I say that the formation and creation of a borough, I am not entirely familiar with this,—but I believe that it is covered fully in the Borough Code. Does that answer the gentleman's question?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. That is all. I am still confused, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Propert.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PROPERT. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I admit that there are no wards in the second class townships but I was just using that as an illustration. We will go into a second class township, where there are four districts. In one district adjoining the township or the borough there are a lot of housing projects, and that district wants to become a part of the borough or the city. That entire township must vote on it, so that the section with the large number of voters votes "yes" against the balance of the township. Can the gentleman show me any section in the bill that would allow the balance of the township to go into court to stop the procedure?

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, there is a same procedure that now exists under the present law.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, it says in here, if in any such election the majority of those voting on such question shall consent to annexation then such annexation may be had. In other words, that one section would force the other two into the borough or city,—is that right?

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman please refer to the line to which he has in mind?

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, line 13, page 2.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, of course I am not a lawyer, but that section does say "if at any such election a majority of those voting on such question shall consent to such annexation, then such annexation shall be made and concluded in the manner provided by law".

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, tell me this, suppose that happened under the present law, and the balance of the township was hurt then the balance of the township has the right to go into court and let the court decide whether the township is hurt or not?

Mr. PROPERT. I am not a lawyer, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I am no lawyer either.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, I can site a recent court case in Montgomery County, where the township had lost sixty-eight acres of property, and incidently that was one property and the owner of the township opposed the matter and carried the case to court to determine the matter. I might point out that under a present law that when a portion of a second class township is annexed to a borough or a city the State Council of Education must approve that—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state it.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I do not see where the State Council of Education enters into this picture. We are just debating annexation of another part of the government, the township government, and not the school district.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, I will attempt to answer the gentleman by stating this: In the example that he gives, if the majority of the populace is adjacent to the borough then it naturally follows that the majority of the voters are adjacent to the borough, and if this question is submitted on the ballot they would naturally have the majority of the votes and decide the matter.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, and force the balance of the township into the borough,—they do not have the right to go into court?

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, that depends on the question stated on the ballot, whether the question is to take the whole township or a portion of the township. In either case it is decided by a majority vote.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. I thank, the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Messrs. Heatherington and Jim requested a verification of the roll.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will return to House Bill No. 290, Printer's No. 121 at the top of page 13, bills on third reading. The Chair hears no objection.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 290, as follows:

An Act to amend section nine and to further amend section ten of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 965) entitled "An act defining commodities regulating the sale thereof and providing penalties for violation hereof" providing for arrests by inspectors of weights and measures and extending the provisions of the act to marking of the net quantity of the contents on packages sold by wholesalers jobbers or commission merchants.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section nine of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 965) entitled "An act defining commodities regulating the sale thereof and providing penalties for violation hereof" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 9 It shall be the duty of the proper city and county inspectors of weights and measures to enforce the provisions of this act

Any state county or city inspector of weights and measures in whose presence a violation of this act has or is being committed shall have power without warrant to arrest the offender and conduct him before an alderman magistrate or justice of the peace of the city or county where the offense was committed and there make information before such officer which shall be disposed of according to law

Section 2 Section ten of said act as amended by the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 886) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 10 This act shall go into effect the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and fourteen [Provided however That no penalty shall be enforced for any violation of its provisions as to domestic products prepared or foreign products imported prior to eighteen months after its passage and further that this act shall not apply to the marking of the net quantity of the contents on containers or packages handled sold or offered for sale by wholesalers jobbers or commission merchants]

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, might I state for the information of the Members of the House that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, and myself, have agreed that the bill might be placed in position to pass in the present order, and there might be an amendment of one word and the bill changed at some later date.

NOT VOTING—2

Baumunk,	Krise,
----------	--------

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 323 as follows:

An Act requiring that the name address political sub-division and office of elected officers and the results of all local option referenda in political subdivisions be certified to the Bureau of Municipal Affairs by county boards of elections requiring secretaries of political subdivisions to report to said bureau the names of persons appointed to office the name of the office and the name of the person succeeded.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Montgomery. Mr. Propert.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PROPERT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of the bill to explain to the House the necessity for this measure.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, this bill merely provides that the township Board of Election notify the Department of Internal Affairs of all elected officials, both after election and in the case of a resignation or a vacancy. In the event that someone is appointed to a vacancy they also notify the Department of Internal Affairs.

Mr. FLEMING. That is all.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose the passage of this bill. I do not feel that it is necessary legislation; I feel that it is only requiring the County Board of Elections to perform another duty that is useless. I can see no reason for the Bureau of Municipal Affairs in the Department of Internal Affairs, if that is the correct designation of that Department, amassing this information, because I can think of no one to whom it would be valuable. I can see no reason for keeping it here in Harrisburg.

I might call to the attention of the Members of the House the fact that we have gone pretty far in the last decade or so in requiring our authorities to present all kinds of data and all kinds of reports by various bureaus and various departments which serve no useful purposes. They only gather dust in the archives of that particular bureau. I recognize the fact that the department and bureau heads want to make their particular bureau or their particular department an important one. They want to sell their particular department or bureau to the people and to say to the people that they are doing a splendid and excellent job, but I think it is a type of bureaucracy and a type of bureaucratic control that we can well do without. I can see no useful purpose to be served by the passage of either this bill or the following one on the calendar, and I would suggest to the Members of this House that they defeat this measure.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brandon.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Propert, consent to being interrogated?

Mr. SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PROPERT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, what offices are required to have a report made? Appointive offices in every city, borough and township?

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, it covers every elective office in the political sub-division.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, section four of the bill, I believe, also speaks of appointive offices.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, it really covers every office within the political sub-division, that is, governing officers. A secretary for instance, is an appointive officer. It includes a list of the entire personnel of the municipality.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, for instance, would it apply to solicitors and chiefs of police?

Mr. PROPERT. That is true, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRANDON. Or deputy chiefs of police?

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, if the chiefs have an assistant superintendent, I would say that that would be included.

Mr. BRANDON. Does that not make it a criminal offense, Mr. Speaker, for the secretary to fail to report?

Mr. PROPERT. The act provides a fine in case the information is not forwarded.

Mr. BRANDON. I thank the gentleman very much.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose the passage of this bill on the ground that there is no definition of the word "office" appearing in the bill. That it is made a criminal offense punishable by a fifty dollar fine, and I cannot tell by the reading of it whether the city clerk of the city of Pittsburgh, for example, should have to report every change of the four thousand or six thousand employees, or whether he has to make a report of every office in the county, under penalty of a possible criminal suit, which may mean the imposition of a penalty in a large amount against the secretary or city clerk of any municipal unit, and on that ground I am opposed to the bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Watkins to preside.

MR. WATKINS IN THE CHAIR

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, if it is agreeable I am willing to have these bills passed over until such time as they can be put in proper form, and have the gentleman from Allegheny check as to the criminal end of it. That will apply to both this bill and the next bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair did not hear the gentleman.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, I said that it is perfectly agreeable to have these bills passed over until the question the gentleman from Allegheny has raised can be checked, both as to this bill and to bill number 324.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

If there is no objection, this bill will be passed over. The Chair hears none.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 324, Printer's No. 106 was passed over at the request of The SPEAKER pro tempore.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 379, as follows:

An Act making a deficiency appropriation to the House of Representatives for the use of the minority whip

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The sum of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) or as much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated from the General Fund to the House of Representatives of the General Assembly for the payment of contingent expenses including extra services of employes of the House and clerical stenographic traveling and discretionary charges of the minority whip for the balance of the work of the legislative session of one thousand nine hundred forty-nine. Said sum shall be in addition to any sum heretofore appropriated to the House of Representatives for said purpose.

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER pro tempore. For what purpose does the gentleman from Cambria arise?

Mr. ANDREWS. To inquire as to what bill we happen to be voting on, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. House Bill 379, Printer's No. 107. Would the gentleman from Cambria like the bill explained?

Mr. ANDREWS. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I would like to know what the bill does.

Four members of the council shall constitute a quorum

At least [four] two regular meetings of the council shall be held each year Special meetings may be called jointly by the chairman and the secretary and shall be called by the chairman on the written request of any three of the appointed members of the council

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Carbon, Mr. Scott.

The SPEAKER, pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Carbon permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCOTT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Carbon to explain the purpose of his bill.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, under the present provisions of the law concerning the State Council for the Blind, they are required to have four meetings per year. The Secretary of Welfare, who is also the Secretary of the State Council for the Blind, would like to have it changed to provide that the State Council for the Blind would only have to meet twice a year.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I don't know whether I see this clearly or not; it is still as clear as mud to me. I am just wondering what the reason is for cutting down these meetings, whether it is to save money for the Department to save expenses, or what?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Barber, who is the Secretary of the State Council for the Blind and also Secretary of Welfare, has informed me that the normal agenda of business which the State Council for the Blind has to take up can be accomplished in two meetings.

There is one thing I would like to point out, that if there is any urgent business to come before the State Council for the Blind, the Secretary under the law has the authority to call a special meeting.

Mr. MORAN. I thank the gentleman.

NOT VOTING—2

Baumunk, Krise,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

THE SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Watkins, for presiding.

CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTION

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a constitutional question.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, at the bottom of page 13 of today's calendar appears House Bill 379, Printer's No. 107. It so happens that I was called from the House and therefore did not have an opportunity to raise the constitutional question which occurred to some of us in this House.

May I inquire as to how the gentleman from Northumberland, Mr. Stank, voted on this measure.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northumberland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STANK. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Did the gentleman from Northumberland hear the interrogation?

Mr. STANK. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell the membership of this House how he voted on House Bill 379, Printer's No. 107?

Mr. STANK. I voted "no".

The SPEAKER. Did the gentleman speak against this bill?

Mr. STANK. No, Mr. Speaker, my only interest in this bill No. 379 was the same interest which Mr. Brunner had when he voted for House Bill 101.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I further interrogate the gentleman from Northumberland?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the gentleman to say he voted "no" on this measure?

Mr. STANK. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRUNNER. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

May I raise a constitutional question at this time that since the gentleman has a pecuniary interest, he is disqualified from voting either "aye" or "no."

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery please explain what kind of a pecuniary interest?

Mr. BRUNNER. Pecuniary, parenthesis, two hundred and fifty dollars, close parenthesis.

Mr. STANK. Mr. Speaker, the way expenses are mounting in this position, I will soon have to come back and ask for another deficiency appropriation.

The SPEAKER. The Chair congratulates the gentleman from Northumberland.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 445, as follows:

An Act authorizing the Department of Highways to conduct a study and survey to determine the advisability of constructing a bridge across the Susquehanna River between the city of Wilkes-Barre and the borough of Kingston both situate in Luzerne County

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The Department of Highways is hereby empowered and its duty shall be to conduct a study and survey in the city of Wilkes-Barre and in the borough of Kingston both situate in Luzerne County and in the vicinity of such municipalities including an existing bridge known as the "North Street Bridge" to determine the advisability of constructing as part of the State highway system an additional bridge crossing the Susquehanna River between such municipalities In such study and survey due regard shall be had to the necessity and importance of such a bridge from a traffic viewpoint as well as to the consideration of cost and feasibility of the bridge at such location

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—2

Baumunk,

Krise,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 484, as follows:

An Act authorizing the Secretary of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor and the Board of Trustees of the Warren State Hospital to sell and convey a certain tract of land in the township of Conewago County of Warren Pennsylvania but reserving therefrom an existing easement of right-of-way and of ingress and egress for continuance of such easement and repealing existing legislation

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The Secretary of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor and the Board of Trustees of the Warren State Hospital is hereby authorized on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to sell and convey for such consideration as may be agreed upon and to make and execute a deed conveying the following herein described tract of land used in connection with the said Warren State Hospital

All that certain tract of land situate in the township of Conewago County of Warren and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania more particularly described as follows to wit

Beginning at a point in the easterly line of the Warren-Jamestown Public Road and at the north west corner of Lt No 13 of the Hazeltine Plot of lots as recorded in the Office for the recording of deeds in and for Warren County Pennsylvania in Deed Book Vol 91 Page 640 thence North thirty-seven degrees (N37°) East along the said Warren Jamestown Public Road sixty-five (65) feet to a point thence North twenty-four degrees four minutes (N24°04') East still continuing along the said public road one hundred forty-six and three-tenths (146.3) feet to a point thence South fifty-three degrees (S53°) East three hundred eighteen and four tenths (318.4) feet to a point in the westerly bank of the Conewago Creek at the north east corner of land now of James A Bloomquist thence North eighty-nine degrees (N89°) West along the northerly line of lands of said James A Bloomquist three hundred fifty-three and one-tenth (353.1) feet to the place of beginning containing seventy-three one-hundredths (0.73) acres of land

Excepting and reserving however therefrom an easement of right-of-way for the continued and uninterrupted use of a sewer disposal line existing and passing through said tract of land and a right of ingress and egress for the purpose of maintaining repairing and reconstructing the same

Section 2 The act approved the twenty-fifth day of June One thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 968) entitled "An act authorizing the Secretary of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor and the Board of Trustees of the Warren State Hospital to sell and convey a certain tract of land in the township of Conewago County of Warren Pennsylvania but reserving therefrom an existing easement of right-of-way and of ingress and egress for continuance of such easement" is hereby repealed absolutely

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HEWITT. I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Warren, Mr. Gibson, the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Warren permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. GIBSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEWITT. Will the gentleman from Warren tell the Members of the House why this bill is necessary?

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to correct an error made in the survey when the surveyor got his arrow turned around.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is unable to hear the gentleman. The gentleman will now proceed.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, this corrects an error in a survey by transposing the arrow which pointed to an east and west direction instead of north and south, as usual, so that the piece of land which was to be surveyed has been transferred from the west side of the road instead of being on the east side of the road. This bill seeks to correct the situation and make the purchaser much happier.

Mr. HEWITT. I thank the gentleman from Warren. Such a thing as that could only happen in Warren and nowhere else in the state.

Mr. GIBSON. Warren and Indiana, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inquire if there is a surveyor in the House. The surveyors made this mistake.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 630, as follows:

An Act making a deficiency appropriation to the Department of Public Assistance and providing for certain allocations therefrom for the purpose of carrying out the Public Assistance Law for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred forty-seven and for the payment of assistance and expense accrued or incurred prior to and remaining unpaid on May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred forty-seven.

Section 1 The sum of ten million six hundred thousand dollars ($10,600,000) or as much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Public Assistance for the payment of assistance and administrative expenses as provided by the Public Assistance Law and for the payment of attorneys' fees and court costs necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the Department of Public Assistance for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred forty-seven and for the payment of assistance and administrative expenses attorneys' fees and court costs accrued or incurred prior to and remaining unpaid on May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred forty-seven.

Section 2 Out of the moneys appropriated by section one of this act the Department of Public Assistance shall allocate funds from time to time for the several assistance programs (old age assistance aid to dependent children pensions for the blind general assistance and other programs provided by the Public Assistance Law) for administrative expenses of the several county boards of assistance for such administrative expenses incurred by the department which are chargeable to such boards and for the payment of attorneys' fees and court costs necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the department.

Section 3 Out of the moneys appropriated by section one of this act quarterly allocations shall be made to the Department of the Auditor General and the Treasury Department respectively in such amounts as may be deemed necessary to pay the administrative expenses of such departments in auditing and disbursing appropriations for or relating to public assistance including any Federal sums supplementing such appropriations. In the case of the Department of the Auditor General said allocation shall be made by the Governor President pro tempore of the Senate Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Auditor General or a majority thereof and in the case of allocations made to the Treasury Department such allocations shall be made by the Governor President pro tempore of the Senate Speaker of the

Baumunk, Krise,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 674, as follows:

A Further Supplement to the act approved the first day of April one thousand eight hundred sixty-three (P. L. 213) entitled "An act to accept the grant of Public Lands by the United States to the several states for the endowment of Agricultural Colleges" by authorizing the Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to issue to the prothonotaries of the courts of common pleas in the State of Pennsylvania his praecipe for the satisfaction of liens entered on the real estate of the land grant colleges of Pennsylvania under the provisions of the act approved the ninth day of June one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 736) and prescribing procedure therefore

Whereas by Act of Assembly approved the first day of April one thousand eight hundred sixty-three (P. L. 213) the faith of the State was pledged to carry into effect the Act of Congress dated the second day of July one thousand eight hundred sixty-two entitled "An Act donating Public Lands to the several States and Territories which may provide Colleges for the Benefit of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts" and

Whereas by supplements to the said Act of Assembly approved the first day of April one thousand eight hundred sixty-three the faith of the State was re-pledged to carry into effect said Act of Congress dated the second day of July one thousand eight hundred sixty-two and

Whereas the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has appropriated to the land grant colleges of Pennsylvania from time to time sums for the erection and construction of buildings and services at said land grant college and liens for such appropriation on the real estate of said land grant college have been entered pursuant to the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania approved the ninth day of June one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 736) and

Whereas the entry of said liens was inconsistent with the pledge of the faith of the State made to the United States in the said act of the first day of April one thousand eight hundred sixty-three (P. L. 213)

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The Auditor General and the State Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall certify to the Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the full and complete list of liens held by the Commonwealth on the real estate of the land grant college of Pennsylvania which said certificate shall include reference to the court the term and number to which said liens are entered and filed and the unpaid balances thereof

Section 2 Upon receipt of said certificate from the Auditor General and the State Treasurer the Attorney General shall issue his praecipe directing the respective prothonotaries of the courts of common pleas in which said liens are entered to satisfy said liens of record

Section 3 The cost of the satisfaction of the liens shall be five dollars ($5.00) for each lien satisfied and shall be paid to the prothonotary by the land grant college against whom the liens are entered

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Section 6 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 7 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILLIAM B. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith.

Mr. SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WILLIAM B. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I understand that sixty families will be affected when this bridge is constructed or the work is done. What provisions have been made to take care of these sixty families?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, this bill does not affect those sixty families. The state already has the power of eminent domain over private property. I understand though, that they are to be moved. Their houses and ground will be bought for them; the cellars are to be dug for them.

Mr. WILLIAM B. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia kindly repeat his answer—the first part?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, this bill does not affect the sixty families, because the state already has the power of eminent domain for private property. However, they will be affected indirectly by the approaches of these bridges. The state has already made arrangements to move these people.

Mr. WILLIAM B. SMITH. They will move them, is that right?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Yes, Mr. Speaker, they will dig their cellars and also erect the heating plants for them.

Mr. WILLIAM B. SMITH. At whose expense, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. At the expense of the state.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 195, as follows:

An Act to further amend section two of Article XVI of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 581) entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth" by changing the provisions relating to filling vacancies in the office of city councilman in such cities

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section two of Article XVI of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 581) entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth" as last amended by the act approved the twenty-second day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 356) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 2 At the municipal election held in such city in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven and in every fourth year thereafter city councilmen shall be elected in the various State senatorial districts in such city The number of councilmen to be elected in the various State senatorial districts in such cities shall be twenty-two They shall be elected in the various State senatorial districts of such cities in proportion to the population thereof as determined by the last United States census and each succeeding United States census The councilmanic ratio for the election of councilman as aforesaid shall be ascertained by dividing the whole population of all the State senatorial districts of such cities by the number twenty-two One councilman shall be elected for each such ratio and an additional councilman shall be elected for any fractional portion of such ratio in excess of fifty per cent thereof Every State senatorial district in such cities shall be entitled to elect as many city councilmen as it has councilmanic ratios of population as aforesaid and an additional councilman for any fractional portion of such ratio in excess of fifty per cent thereof The number of councilmen to be elected for each such district shall be determined and announced by the county commissioners on August first of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven and of every fourth year thereafter on the basis of population as aforesaid Councilmen shall be nominated and elected according to law and those receiving the highest votes shall be declared elected to the number to which each such district is entitled Councilmen shall serve for the period of four years from the first Monday in January following their election [If any vacancy shall happen in the office of councilman the vacancy may be filled at the next general municipal or special election occurring not less than thirty days thereafter but the councilman thus elected shall serve only for the unexpired term The provisions of this act shall not affect present members of council in such cities they shall continue in office until the expiration of their respective terms] Whenever in cases where a vacancy exists at the time this amendment becomes effective and hereafter whenever a vacancy shall exist or happen in the office of city councilman the President of the council shall issue a writ of election to the proper county board of elections for a special election to fill the said vacancy which election shall be held on a date named in the writ which shall be not less than thirty (30) days after the issuance of said writ The President of the council may fix in such writ of election the date of the next ensuing primary municipal or general election as the date for holding any such special election

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, yesterday amendments were offered to this bill by my colleague. I think the majority of the Members of this house voted improperly on these amendments. However many of the wives of the Members came up here yesterday, and last night, and I think after sober reflection the Members will reconsider their action.

Now, Mr. Speaker, the bill that is offered to us today to vote upon is a measure that was conceived in political infamy. I do not think that the Members of the House here should help bring this measure to birth and resort to the political guile and subterfuge that is attempted to be perpetrated here today.

Under the particular measure as it exists today vacancies in the city council in Philadelphia could have been filled. We had the death of a member of city council almost two years ago in Philadelphia, and we have had a primary election and a general election since that time, and yet the so-called leadership of Philadelphia in control of city council, and the president of city council have not afforded the citizens of Philadelphia in the particular district affected an opportunity to vote for the election of these particular councilmen.

After the civic and reform elements for Philadelphia have seen fit to bring to the attention of the alleged leadership, the majority party of Philadelphia this vacancy, they bring forth this measure. Under the language of this particular bill the president of city council would be empowered to call a special election at any time. The leadership of Philadelphia seem to have no interest in the matter of reform and decency and economy They have had an opportunity to effect economy in Philadelphia and they have done nothing about it.

The first measure that we have affecting the city of Philadelphia gives an opportunity to that so-called leadership to spend huge sums of money under a special election to fill this vacancy. It was brought to the attention of the Members of the House yesterday that in Philadelphia today there are no minority members upon city council. If this is the type of legislation that you are offering as exponents of decency, reform and economy, in the next election in Philadelphia you will not have any members of the majority party in city council.

I say that the city of Philadelphia is asking for reform and decency and expects the Members of this House to go along and afford them the opportunity to have it.

To the Philadelphia members, I think you members of the majority party who are interested in decency should go ahead and give them such an opportunity and consequently those Members who are seriously interested in reform and decency and in decent legislation, instead of resorting to political subterfuge should go ahead and defeat this measure.

I think on the sober reflection that you Members had last night you will realize the error of your ways and will go along with us on this side of the House who are interested in providing an orderly and decent manner in which a vacancy can be filled in Philadelphia where a councilman passes on or resigns, and will vote to defeat this measure.

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker Senate bill No. 195 still has that provision, and that is the important provision so far as the minority members from Philadelphia are concerned, authorizing the president of city council to designate a primary election day as a special election date for filling vacancies in city council.

I take the stand and I believe that it will be agreed by a great many people in Philadelphia that the setting of a primary election day for the special election is very unfair to a large majority of Republicans as well as the Democratic voters in the city of Philadelphia. I believe that this provision has been conceived and incorporated into law by the Republican leadership in the city of Philadelphia for political advantage, totally disregarding the rights of voters in the city.

Yesterday, Mr. Speaker, a majority of the Members of this House refused to go along with the amendment which would have taken this unfair provision out of the law. I am now asking the Members of this House to vote on this bill not from a partisan standpoint, but vote on it for the benefit of the many voters of Philadelphia in both parties.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Pfaff, is assuming that it will be on a primary election date. I am not quite sure, but if he will read the bill, the new amendment says the ensuing primary, municipal or general election.

As to the statement of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rose, about being sober because of their wives, I might say that we on this side are sober whether the wives are here or not.

I would like to say to the gentleman from Philadelphia that this amendment definitely does the very thing that he thinks it does not do. It definitely is protecting the rights of the minority.

Further, Mr. Rose complained that city council did not call an election. I have no responsibility in the matter of when vacancies can be filled. If the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rose, will look at the amendment, the new amendment says that the president of a council "shall", which generally makes it mandatory. If the president of city council does not call a special election on either of those three dates, he has the right of a citizen to come in and ask for a civil action against the president of council; to call upon the president of council to set an election for thirty days after the vacancy happens in council.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, under the amendment offered to this bill is the president of council compelled to call an election at the next succeeding primary or general election?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, the bill reads that the president of council "shall", and I think that is mandatory, "shall" issue a writ of election to fill such a vacancy, which shall be not less than thirty days after the vacancy occurs in Council. Therefore, I would take the bill to mean—Mr. Rose is a lawyer and I am not—I would take the bill then to mean that anytime after the thirty-day period he as a citizen has a right to compel the President of Council to call an election.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, however, I think that the gentleman misunderstood my question. I directly asked him whether the president of council under this particular measure would be compelled to call for an election of a councilman where a vacancy existed, at the next municipal or general election, or is it provided in this bill that he might call a special election at any time which he designates?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, that would be his prerogative, at any special election, general or municipal election after the thirty-day period.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, does not the bill provide in lines 6 to 8 that the president of council may issue a writ of election after the thirty-day period? Is that mandatory?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, this is a "may" bill. It could be either one of the three elections.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, if the president of council saw fit to do so he could designate any particular day thirty days after a vacancy occurred as a date on which the election could be held?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. That is right, Mr. Speaker. Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, and that is the only mandatory injunctive in this bill?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. It is mandatory in this bill that he has to call it in thirty days, that is right.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, if the president of city council saw fit to select some day that is not a regular election day for the holding of the election, can the gentleman tell us approximately how much money would be required to pay the necessary expenses for the election in the difference districts of Philadelphia?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I cannot state that, Mr. Speaker; I think that would depend entirely upon circumstances.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia will admit that the expenses which would be incurred would be fastened upon the city of Philadelphia by the president of city council if he saw fit to pick some day other than the regular election day?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, that is also true of any other election in the state. I brought to the attention of the Members of the House yesterday that the Speaker of this House, if he saw fit to call an election to fill a vacancy, he has exactly the same power as this bill gives to the president of city council.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, are there any other election laws for Philadelphia whereby any special election, aside from the election of Members of the legislature, may be held on a special date other than the regular election day?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. No, Mr. Speaker, but that doesn't say that there could not be. I am not the sponsor of this measure. The sponsor of this measure is a Senator Kephart and I represented the measure in the House for the Senator from Philadelphia.

Of course, Mr. Speaker, it would probably cost the city of Philadelphia money for a special election, but that is not new practice over the state of Pennsylvania. We have had special elections; we have had them in the state. We are not extending to the president of our city council one bit more power than our Speaker of this House has.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman say whether under the bill, if it had been amended under the amendments offered yesterday, would the president of city council then have had the power to set an election date on any date other than the regular election day?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I don't know, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has stated that this measure is a measure which affords to the citizens of Philadelphia the same rights that would follow if a vacancy in the legislature existed, and the Speaker saw fit to designate such a day, but I do want to point out to the Members of this House that in no other office in Philadelphia, whether it be members of the Judiciary or any of the other elected officials, where a vacancy exists, can such a practice take place.

I say that there is an opportunity here to fasten upon the citizens of Philadelphia an unnecessary expense, and we who have been trying to economize wherever necessary, want to give the people of Philadelphia proper governmental services, with a view to spending every tax dollar that is paid in Philadelphia for such governmental services, and we feel that affording such an opportunity to the president of city council is improper, and it is on that basis that we ask the Members of this House to vote against this measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

GUESTS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to note in the Hall of the House today many wives and sweethearts of the Members of the House, and wishes on his own behalf and on behalf of the officers of the House and all of the Members of the House to extend to them, a very, very hearty welcome.

RESOLUTION No. 27

Mrs. VARALLO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Resolution No. 27.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 1, 1949.

Whereas, On March 11th, 1950, the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania will celebrate its One Hundredth Anniversary, an occasion in which every Philadelphian and every Pennsylvanian will take much personal pride; and

Whereas, During all of these years, this splendid institution has gone quietly about its educational and medical activities, winning distinction and fame in many of its fields; and

Whereas, Not only has the Woman's Medical College brought fame to itself, but also has its many women graduates been honored for their contributions to medicine as well as to the health of people in hundreds of communities throughout the United States, since one-sixth of all living American women physicians are graduates of the Woman's Medical College; and

Whereas, Some of its graduates have also been pioneers, among whom was the first woman teacher of medicine in the world; the first woman to begin the practice of medicine in Pennsylvania; probably the first Negro woman to become a physician; the first woman physician to be a medical missionary; the first woman to establish a hospital for women in China; the first Hindu woman to receive a medical degree in any country and also the first woman to take up the medical care of the insane, and in more recent years, one of its graduates, Dr. Catherine Macfarlane, organized the first cancer prevention clinic in Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, Its educational facilities and the quality of its instruction have been outstanding right down through the years, the most recent evidence of which was that one of the members of its last graduating class, Dr. Katherine McDermott Herrold, received the highest national grade in the examinations held last year for graduates of the different medical colleges throughout the country; and therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby congratulates the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania upon its approaching One Hundredth Anniversary, to be celebrated March 11th, 1950. It also congratulates its officers, personnel, and its many graduates upon the magnificent record which has been theirs; and be it further

Resolved, That the House of Representatives, mindful of the years of devotion which so many people have given to this institution, is happy to join with others in paying tribute to their college for the proud achievements which they have brought to fruition in the name of their college; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of this House, send a copy of this resolution to the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mrs. VARALLO, Mr. Speaker, on March 11, 1850, the Pennsylvania State Legislature granted a charter to found the Female Medical College of Pennsylvania, so called until 1867. On October 11, 1850, 42 courageous pioneer women entered the doors of this 3-story rented building at 627 Arch Street in Philadelphia, just above the Betsy Ross House, to begin their medical education in the first woman's medical college in the world. Today, it is still the only one in the Western Hemisphere.

An early fictional caricature by Max Adeler, in 1874, illustrated by Arthur B. Frost, the famous cartoonist, purports to depict a Woman's Medical College Professor chloroforming her husband each evening to use him as a living specimen to demonstrate to her class of female medical students the problems of "fatty degeneration of the heart," etc.

Among the first graduates was Ann Preston, 38 years old at the time of her graduation. When she subsequently accepted the chair of Physiology and Hygiene in 1852, she became the first woman medical professor in the country.

When the Pennsylvania Hospital opened its clinical lectures to women students a rowdy protest was made by the male students and has since been referred to as "The Mob of 1869." The women students entered the amphitheatre amid yells, hisses and caterwaulings and a deluge of missiles, paper, tinfoil and tobacco quids. Their Dean, Ann Preston, nevertheless led the march though they were forced to walk in the street.

Alone, Dr. Preston also solicited funds on the eve of the Civil War in 1861 to build the first Woman's Hospital in Pennsylvania.

In 1875 the first building in the world for the education of women in medicine was erected on North College Avenue at 21st Street in Philadelphia, the gift of Isaac Barton, a wealthy merchant. The Woman's Medical College was located on this site until 1930 when it was moved to its present 11-acre site, and is some times called "The College on the Hill." This site was once proposed as the site for our National Capitol.

Anadibai Joshee, a high-caste Brahmin, graduated from The Woman's Medical College in 1886, the first Hindu woman to receive a medical degree in any country. Queen Victoria sent greetings to the College on this occasion, and up to the present time 28 women from India have been educated at this college.

In 1880 at the Norristown State Hospital the appointment of Dr. Alice Bennett (Woman's Medical College 1876) as Medical Superintendent of the Department for Women was the first appointment for a woman to the exclusive care of the women's department of a hospital for the insane.

Dr. Clara Swain, Class of 1869, was the first of the rapidly lengthening line of women missionary physicians from this College to the Far East. She arrived in Bareilly, India, where the Nawab of Rampur provided a hospital for her work. Later, the Rajah of Khetri invited her to be physician to his wife and her ladies, which position she accepted, and was the recipient of elaborate oriental hospitality.

In the class of 1899 was Dr. Lillie Rosa Minoka, a Mohawk Indian girl. She married a full-blooded Oneida Indian, Charles Hill, in 1905 and they settled on a 22-acre farm in Oneida, Wisconsin. In 1934 Dr. Hill applied for a license in Wisconsin and last September, in Chicago, she received the 1947 Indian Achievement Award, bestowed by a national award committee. She was also honored by being named the outstanding Indian of the year by the Indian Council Fire, and has recently been adopted by the Oneida tribe and given the name "Youdagent," meaning "She who serves."

In 1867 the College graduated Dr. Rebecca Cole, believed to have been the first Negro woman physician.

Hannah Longshore, a Quaker, was the first woman physician to hang out her shingle. Scorning townsfolk told their children "M. D." meant "Mule Driver." A druggist who refused to fill her prescriptions said to her, "Go home and mend your husband's stockings." This Quaker physician persisted, however, and the druggist relented and filled her prescriptions for years.

Dr. Catherine Macfarlane, a graduate of The Woman's Medical College in 1898 and among its living alumnae, is an outstanding research specialist in the current war on cancer. In 1938 she organized the first cancer prevention clinic in Pennsylvania and is, at the present time, a member of the State Cancer Commission. She was also the first woman to become a member of the City's College of Physicians.

Dr. Ellen Culver Potter, a graduate in 1903 and now President emeritus of The College, served as Medical Director of the Woman's Medical College Hospital and was Chief of the Division of Child Health of the Pennsylvania Department of Welfare. In 1923 she served as Secretary of Welfare in the cabinet of the late Governor Pinchot, thereby becoming the first woman in the country to serve as a member of a Governor's Cabinet.

Dr. Marion Fay came to the Woman's Medical College in 1935 as head of the Department of Physiological Chemistry. She served as Acting Dean from 1942 to 1945 and in 1946 became Dean which position she still holds and has the distinction of being the only woman dean of a medical college in the United States.

Dr. Kathrine McDermott Herrold, a graduate in June, 1948, has the honor of having attained the highest average in Part II of the National Board of Examinations which consists of examinations in five medical subjects. In the subject of Public Health Dr. Herrold scored, the highest grade of all the candidates.

Statistics show that more than 1/6 of all living American Women doctors are graduates of The Woman's Medical College. The College has graduated a total of 2142 women of which 212 were students from 39 foreign countries. Twelve hundred alumnae are still living.

Governor Duff voiced his pride in the Woman's Medical College when he wrote, and I quote—"It is almost impossible to evaluate the contributions of The Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania, since its founding in 1850, to humanity, society and medicine. The magnitude of its total accomplishments will be compiled by future historians recording the total growth of civilization."

Bernard Baruch has also indicated his belief that women have a very definite place in the field of medicine, I quote, "Women are a natural in the field of medicine. Give them technique and training and you will furnish mankind with better doctors than ever before."

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Potter, Mr. Hall, to preside.

MR. HALL IN THE CHAIR.

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. HEWITT and HELM offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 8, 1949.

Though a man may be great, as greatness goes, and respected and honored by all men, to one person he will ever be but a baby. To his mother he is still that helpless little thing that needs her love and understanding, and she gives it unsparingly. That he does need it, no man disputes. No matter his age, no matter how sage or wise a man may be, his mother is the temple of truth and comfort to which he turns, when no other person and no other thing can help. Mothers make it that way, and men would have it no other way. It's always a tragedy then, when a mother dies.

One of our colleague's has suffered that tragedy. William R. McMillen's mother passed away on Saturday, March 5, 1949 at her farmhouse in Montgomery Township, Indiana County. She had been a typical farm woman, worked long and hard hours every day, and gave herself to those efforts and sacrifices that make a truly good wife and mother. Her husband Charles S. McMillen lived a happy life and died a happy man because of her. Their five children remember a happy childhood, and are good men and women today because of her.

Because her life was devoted to others, and she early learned selflessness, she earned a tremendous capacity for happiness. In Heaven that capacity will be filled to overflowing. The relaxation of that is the only solace to those she left behind. Therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives extend their deepest and most sincere sympathy to William McMillen and his two brothers and two sisters, and say to them, "We understand and be proud of those tears in your eyes," and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to Honorable William McMillen.

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE

Mr. TOMPKINS offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 8, 1949.

George W. Huntley, Jr., a former Member of this House of Representatives, from Cameron County, from 1936 to 1946, passed away on the twenty-eighth day of February this year in the Hamot Hospital, Erie.

Mr. Huntley was born at Huntley, Cameron County in a log cabin, March 16, 1867, the son of George W. and Luzerna Shafer Huntley, pioneer residents of Cameron County.

He received his early education in Huntley and Driftwood and attended Dickinson Seminary (later known as Dickinson Junior College and now as Lycoming College) in Williamsport, from which he graduated in 1889. In 1893 he graduated from the Dickinson School of Law and subsequently practiced law in Cameron County, Ridgway, and Mt. Carmel from 1893 to 1898, when he abandoned his legal career.

Between 1898 and 1920, he engaged in lumbering with his father. In Covington, Virginia he owned and operated a refractory plant there, became a community leader and served several terms on the City Council. During this period he was Republican Chairman of Allegheny County, Virginia.

In 1920 he returned to Emporium, Pennsylvania. At that time, with his father, George Huntley, Sr., and his brother-in-law, Thomas Williams, he aided in the founding of the Pennsylvania Powder Company. He succeeded Mr. Williams as president, and served in that capacity until his death. He assumed presidency of the First National Bank in Emporium during an emergency and carried it through its troubled period successfully.

Mr. Huntley was the author of "The Story of the Sinnamahone" a historical book of reference, which typified some of the happiest years of his life which has become a valuable document of timber lore.

Mr. Huntley was a fifty-year member and Past Master of the Masonic Blue Lodge of Driftwood; and a member of the Royal Arch Chapter of Covington, Virginia, the Knights Templars at Clifton Forge, Virginia, the Consistory at Williamsport, and the Acacia Temple Shrine at Richmond, Virginia.

Dear to his heart was Emporium and its civic life. He was a member of its Rotary Club, active in its Boy Scout movement, a member of the Cameron County Historical Society, a director of the Legion Memorial Hall and took deep interest in the affairs of the Emmanuel Episcopal Church where he served many years as Vestryman.

Among his many outside interests were: The State Chamber of Commerce, the Pennsylvania Society of New York City, the Pennsylvania Forestry Association, and the Pennsylvania Sabbath School. He was well known throughout the State as a member and leader in the ideas fostered by the W. C. T. U. He was very proud of his board membership at Lycoming College, and recently established a $10,000 scholarship endowment to that college for needy Cameron County young people who desired to further their education.

During his years as a Member of this House, he was known as a conscientious legislator who considered his position an honor and privilege and who willingly gave generously of this time and experience to aid his fellow members; now therefore be it

Resolved, by this House of Representatives, That, in the passing of George W. Huntley, Jr., Emporium, Cameron County and the State have lost one of its most distinguished sons and citizens whose good works will live on long beyond his long and useful life; and be it further

Resolved, That in token of its heartfelt sympathy, the Members of this House hereby extend their feeling of the great loss suffered by them, the many other friends, and the surviving family of George W. Huntley, Jr.; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of this House is hereby directed to send copies of this resolution to his daughters:

Mrs. Oren Oliver, Nashville, Tenn;

Mrs. Charles Shives, Emporium, Pa.;

Mrs. George Anderson, Huntingdon, W. Virginia; and Mrs. George Biggs III.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the Hall of the House a former Member from McKean County Honorable E. Kent Kane.

RESOLUTION

Mr. COCHRAN offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.
